Series History

- Today's game represents the first meeting between Fairfield and Iona this season. The Gaels hold a 64-43 edge in the series.

- The two teams split the last two regular season series with the home team winning each of the games. Last season, Fairfield posted a 93-87 win at home while Iona responded with a 96-89 victory. Tyler Nelson averaged 22 points per game in the two games a year ago.

- Fairfield and Iona played a five-over-time game during the 1981-82 season which the Gaels won 102-100. Nine players fouled out in the game with the Gaels losing five student-athletes to disqualification. The game was tied 65-65 after regulation and no team scored more than nine points in any of the overtime periods.

- Fairfield and Iona played another memorable overtime game in which the Stags overcame a double-digit second-half deficit to defeat the Gaels in overtime and win the 1987 MAAC Championship. Jeff Gromos registered a double-double for Fairfield with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Nestor Payne recorded 16 points and eight rebounds to aid the Iona cause.

Climbing The Charts

Senior Tyler Nelson is making a bid to become Fairfield's all-time leading scorer. Here is where he stands heading into tonight's game.

1) Tony George	2006	1983-86
2) Joe DeSantis	1916	1975-79
3) Derek Needham	1875	2010-13
4) Tyler Nelson	1726	2015-
5) Marcus Gilbert	1661	2013-16
6) Troy Bradford	1648	1985-89
7) Mark Young	1643	1975-79

Scouting Fairfield: The Stags dropped their second straight road game with their 96-77 setback at Rider University. Fairfield won three of four games before this current road trip which ends today at Iona. Tyler Nelson led all Fairfield scorers with 21 points, the 12th time in 14 games in which the senior was the team's top scorer. Two Stags just missed double-doubles against the Broncs, namely Jonathan Kasibabu with 13 points and eight rebounds as well as Wassef Methnani with eight points and nine rebounds. Fairfield was hurt by its 19 turnovers which resulted in 32 Rider points, the most miscues since it committed a season-high 22 turnovers against nationally-ranked Purdue University. The Rider game was marred by 45 called fouls which sent the teams to the line 59 times. Rider received the better end of the whistle with its 36 free throw attempts but made just 55 percent of those tries (20). Fairfield made 18 of its 23 charity tosses with 22 of those tries coming in the second half. Kasibabu, Nelson, and Taj Benning each made four free throws as Benning set a personal best. Nelson leads the team in scoring with a 20.4 scoring average, followed by Ferron Flavors Jr.'s 11 markers.

Scouting Iona: Trailing by 10 points with less than five minutes remaining, Iona used a 14-0 run to overcome Saint Peter's and win their second MAAC game of the season. Schadrac Casimir, who is shooting 44.7 percent from three-point range, and Rickey McGill put the mark on the team's double-digit run with back-to-back three pointers. Casimir added another three-point field goal with 23 seconds left that pushed the lead to five points and kept Saint Peter's from coming back for the win. McGill led all Iona scorers with 19 points, while Casimir made five of his eight three-point tries and finished with 18 points. Iona finished the game with 12 three pointers, improving the team's record to 6-3 this season when it connects for 10 from behind the arc. McGill leads the team in scoring with 14.3 points per game, one of four Gaels with a double-digit scoring average. E.J. Crawford (12.1 ppg), Deyshonee Much (11.1 ppg), and Zach Lewis (10.1 ppg) are also part of that scoring distinction. TK Edogi, who grabbed five caroms against Saint Peter's, leads the team with 7.4 rebounds per game which places fourth in the MAAC.

Season-High: Fairfield scored a season-high for most points in a true road game with its 77 points at Rider. The Stags' previous high was 76 points set against Wagner and LIU Brooklyn. The team netted 84 points against Jacksonville during the Wright State Tournament but it was considered a neutral site game. Last year, Fairfield scored 78 or more points in true road games six times, posting a 3-3 record.

All-Around Performance: Wassef Methnani comes off his best all-around game following his performance at Rider. The freshman set personal bests with nine rebounds and five assists as well as tying his career high with three blocks. He added eight points to his game total, his best offensive output since his nine points at LIU Brooklyn. He also made his fourth three pointer of the season and his first since November 25 against Gardner-Webb. For the season, Methnani is averaging 4.5 points and 3.6 rebounds per game.

In The Game: Aidas Kavaliauskas made his Fairfield debut in the Rider game, scoring six point with two assists and no turnovers in 16 minutes off the bench. The redshirt sophomore made both of his field goal attempts inside the arc and both of his free throw attempts.

Original Lineup: For the first time since the Jacksonville game, Ferron Flavors Jr. joined the starting lineup when he received the nod at Rider, ending his run of nine straight games as a reserve. He switched places with freshman Jesus Cruz, who took Flavors Jr. place in the starting lineup for the Gardner-Webb game. Flavors Jr. posted eight points in his return to the starting five while Cruz came off the bench to add five points as a reserve.

Better Than Benning: It would be tough to have a better run than Taj Benning, who tied his career-high with 25 minutes played at Rider. The freshman set a career-best with seven points and did not commit a turnover despite his lengthy time on the court. Benning has not recorded a turnover in his last six appearances which translates into 65 minutes on the court and has a turnover in just two of his 12 appearances this year.

Passing Game: The Stags had eight different players pick up an assist in the game at Rider with the reserves accounting for 12 of the team's 16 assists. Before the Rider game, the reserves' high for assists in a game was eight against Wagner. Wassef Methnani led all Fairfield student-athletes with five assists, the most since registering four against Loyola Maryland. It was the fourth time this season in which the team had eight student-athletes with at least one assist - Purdue (12), Wagner (16), New Hampshire (16).

Rejected: The Stags blocked a season-high seven shots at Rider, two more than they had against Penn in the season opener and again at Wagner in early December. The last time that the Stags had more than seven blocks came at Quinnipiac during the 2016-17 season when the team combined for eight rejections. Jonathan Kasibabu paced the Stags in that Quinnipiac game with four blocks.

Three Game Run: The Stags will play the final game of their three-game MAAC road trip, the first time since the 2013-14 season that the team has played three consecutive regular-season conference road games. During that 2013-14 run, Fairfield posted a 1-2 record by defeating Niagara (72-66) and falling to Canisius (90-78) and Saint Peter's (63-62). The Fairfield faithful may remember the Saint Peter's game because it was the second of three game-winning buzzer-beating shots made by Desi Washington that season.

Round Number: Tyler Nelson enters tonight's game with 397 career free throws, needing three more charity tosses to become the fourth Stag to reach 400 career free throws. Mark Young '79 holds the school record with 543, followed by Tony George '86 (510), and Joe DeSantis '79 (462). Nelson is averaging 4.9 free throws made per game (66 of 76), his best single-season average which would surpass his 4.45 free throws per game in 2015-16.

Streak Stopper: The Stags shot 40 percent or better from the floor in 10 straight games but saw the run end at Manhattan on December 30 (.350 field goal percentage). The 10-game run was the longest such streak under Head Coach Sydney Johnson and the longest since Fairfield posted 12 straight games with a field goal percentage of .400 or better during the 2010-11 campaign. That particular run started with a .478 field goal percentage against Loyola Maryland on December 5, 2010 and ran through January 21, 2011 against Canisius (.407). The streak ended that season when Niagara held Fairfield to a .340 field goal percentage. The Stags owned an 11-1 record during that 12-game stretch.

Four By Four: Fairfield won its fourth straight game at Webster Bank Arena with its decision over Saint Peter's on December 28. The Stags had not won four straight games in Bridgeport during a single season since posting five straight victories during the 2012-13 campaign, beating Marist, Rider, Saint Peter's, Siena, and Iona from January 24-February 18, 2013. The Stags are currently 4-1 at home which includes a loss at Alumni Hall to Old Dominion in overtime.

18 Again: The Stags forced its first two MAAC opponents into 18 turnovers, before Rider managed just 12 miscues. Fairfield scored a season-best 21 points off the 18 turnovers committed by Saint Peter's on December 28 and matched that turnover total against Manhattan two days later. For the season, Fairfield's opponents are averaging 13 turnovers per game.

Moving Up: With his 31 points against New Hampshire, Tyler Nelson's was able to move up three spots on Fairfield's career scoring leader list, pushing past Mark Young '79 (1,643 points), Troy Bradford '89 (1,648 points), and Marcus Gilbert '16 (1,661 points). He now sits fourth all-time with 1,726 and sets his sights Derek Needham '13 who netted 1,875 points during his four-year career. Nelson is one of seven Stags to reach 1,600 career points and the third to play under Coach Sydney Johnson.

Season Low: Fairfield committed a season-low eight turnovers against New Hampshire, tying the team's total of turnovers at Wager earlier this month. The Stags own a 2-1 record this year when committing less than 10 turnovers, defeating Wagner and falling to Jacksonville (nine turnovers).

Stop The Streak: The Stags overtime

loss to Old Dominion ended a run of six straight Fairfield victories in extra time. Fairfield went 4-0 during the 2015-16 season and followed with a 2-0 mark last season. Fairfield has enjoyed overtime success under Head Coach Sydney Johnson, posting a 9-6 record during his seven seasons.

One Of Three: Tyler Nelson owns a team-best scoring average of 20.4 points per game following his 21-point effort at Rider. The guard is one of three student-athletes averaging at least 20 points in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) at this point in the season. He is joined by Niagara's Matt Scott (22.1 ppg) and Khalil Dukes (20.9 ppg) for that distinction. Nelson is the MAAC's top returning scorer from the 2016-17 season, averaging 19.5 points per contest a year ago.

On The Blocks: Jonathan Kasibabu blocked two shots at Manhattan, his fifth multiple block game of the season. He currently has nine blocks in his last five games, giving him a team-leading total of 14 rejections. Kasibabu was the team's leading shot blocker in 2016-17 with 44 in 31 games (1.4 per game).

Shooting Percentage: Fairfield became only the third team to shoot better than 50 percent in a half against Houston, joining Drexel and New Orleans for that distinction. Drexel made 51.9 percent of its shots (14 of 27) in the second half. New Orleans accomplished the task in the first half (59.0 - 13 of 22) and the second half (53.8 - 14 of 26). Fairfield made 15 of 29 shots in the second half for a 51.7 percentage.

Long-Range Jumpers: Ferron Flavors Jr. leads the team with 38 three-point field goals which break down to 2.7 per game. That per game average places him third in the MAAC. On the team's season long seven-game road trip, the sophomore shot 44 percent (22 of 50) from the three-point area, averaging 3.3 three pointers per game during the run. Since that stretch, he is averaging 2.6 three pointers per game (13 in five games).

20/20: For the second time this season, the Stags enjoyed two student-athletes with 20 or more points in a game. Tyler Nelson led all Fairfield scorers with 28 points while Ferron Flavors Jr. netted a personal best 20 points in the loss against Jacksonville. Earlier in the year, Nelson (30 points) teamed up with freshman Wassef Methnani (20 points) for the honor.

Hurricane Relief: Fairfield and Hofstra played an exhibition game to help raise funds for hurricane relief efforts that have affected residents in Texas, Louisiana, Florida, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The two teams raised $4,300 during the event which benefitted Save the Children, which is based in Fairfield. The exhibition game stemmed from an idea brought forth by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

International Flair: The Fairfield roster features student-athletes from nine countries plus one United States commonwealth, giving CBS Sports' Matt Norlander reason to call the Stags one of the most international rosters in the country. He listed the note as number 36 on his 50 fun facts for the 2017-18 college basketball season. The Stags roster includes student-athletes from Canada, Lithuania, Sweden, Democratic Republic of Congo, Serbia, Tunisia, Egypt, Kuwait, and the United States. Six of Fairfield's nine newcomers hail from outside the United States.

On The Horizon: Head Coach Sydney Johnson is in his seventh season with the Stags and is closing in on his 100th victory as Fairfield's head coach. Since taking over the program, Johnson has won 94 games on the Fairfield bench and has 160 victories overall. Johnson won 19 or more games in three of his first six seasons, including a 22-win mark in his inaugural season.

Teammates: Omar El-Sheikh and Wassef Methnani were teammates before sharing the floor at Fairfield. The two student-athletes came to Fairfield after spending time at The Knox School and being part of the school's first men's basketball teams.

FIBA Foes: Omar El Sheikh and Jesus Cruz matched up in their respective countries' first FIBA tournament game over the summer with Egypt edging Puerto Rico in a tournament played in Egypt.

Notebook

Four On The Floor: Olivier Cadieux posted a career-high four rebounds in three different games as a freshman, beginning with the game at Wagner in mid-November. He also hit that mark at Rider and against Saint Peter's. For the season, Cadieux is the top returning rebounder among last year's freshman class, collecting 18 rebounds in 18 appearances.

Five Spot: Olivier Cadieux netted a personal best five points against Army West Point, making two of four field goal attempts with one coming from behind the three-point line. His next best scoring performance would be three points which he accomplished against Dartmouth, Rider, Bucknell, and Saint Peter's.

Out Of The Lineup: Olivier Cadieux played in two of the team's final 12 games due to injury. He missed eight straight games before gaining entry to the Monmouth game on February 21, but played just one minute in his return. He also gained entry in the CIT tournament game against UMBC.

Scoreboard: Olivier Cadieux scored his first collegiate points with a first-half free throw at Dartmouth. The freshman later added a basket in the second half. He became the first member of the class of 2020 to score multiple points in a game in 2016-17.

Cadieux's Biography

2016-17

Olivier Cadieux made his debut with the Stags during the 2016-17 season and ended the year with 18 appearances as a reserve. He played in the first nine games of the season and 16 of the first 19 contests. He played in just one game from January 31 through the regular season due to injury, playing one minute when the Stags hosted Monmouth on February 21. He took the floor for the Stags' CIT first round game against UMBC in which he scored a basket in his one minute of action. Cadieux scored in eight of his 18 appearances and secured at least one rebound in eight games as well. He posted a career-high five points in the win over Army West Point, and grabbed a personal-best four rebounds three times, the last of which came against Saint Peter's in January. For the season, the forward averaged 1.3 points and 1.0 rebounds per game.

Before Fairfield

Cadieux came to Fairfield University after a successful academic and athletic career at Brebeuf Jesuit. On the court, Cadieux was one of the program's top scorers as a junior and senior, leading the league in with a scoring average that hovered around 20 points per game. He showed his explosive ability with a 35-point performance against Champlain, the 2014-15 provincial champion. He averaged 16 points per game as a junior which ranked among the team leaders during season.

Notebook

Dynamic December: Jerome Segura capped his December by dishing off four assists against one turnover, completing the month with 22 assists against just eight turnovers. The senior has nine assists against two miscues in MAAC play which places him fourth in the conference with a 4.5 assist-to-turnover ratio. Segura needs 14 more assists to become the ninth Stag to reach 400 career assists and 28 more assists to surpass Johnnie Jones (413 assists from 1990-94), checking into tonight's game with 386 career assists.

Back-To-Back: Jerome Segura tallied a season-high for scoring for the second straight game when he posted 14 points in the win at LIU Brooklyn. One game earlier, Segura netted 11 points against the University of Houston, his first double-digit effort of the season. Before the two-game run, the guard has tallied 14 total points through his first seven games. Over those two contests, Segura has netted 12 of his 17 field goal attempts (.706) including a sizzling 7 of 9 at LIU Brooklyn.

Houston Homecoming: Jerome Segura made the most of his homecoming when he tallied 11 points at Houston. A Houston native, Segura made five of eight shots and his only free throw attempt to reach the point total. He also went 27 minutes without a turnover, dishing off one assist. Segura had scored 14 total points through the first seven games before reaching double figures against Houston.

300 & Counting: Jerome Segura entered this season with 342 assists after dishing off 120 last season. In 2015-16, he placed 10th on the Stags single-season assist list with 160 after dishing off 64 assists as a freshman. Segura is looking to move into Fairfield's top 10 for career assists, checking into tonight's game with 386 assists which is 27 shy of Johnnie Jones' 413 assists from 1990-94.

2017-18 Fairfield University Men's Basketball

Segura's Biography

2016-17

Jerome Segura finished the 2016-17 season with the sixth-best assists per game average in the MAAC, dishing off 4.1 per game. The guard registered a team-best 122 assists, bringing his career total to 346 over his three years. For the third straight season, Segura recorded more assists than turnovers with his 2016-17 totals standing at 122 to 77. With those numbers, Segura ranked 11th in the conference with a +1.6 ratio. Segura dished off at least one assist in 29 of his 30 appearances which included 12 games with five or more assists. He was also listed among the league leaders for minutes played, averaging 30.6 minutes per game over his 30 starts. He played every minute in three games last season, collecting 40 minutes against Boston College and Rider as well as a personal-best 45 minutes at Wagner. Segura earned his first double-double of his career with a career-high tying 17 points and 10 assists in a season-opening win against Sacred Heart. Segura would go on to pick up six more double-digit scoring totals in 2016-17, three coming in non-conference play (Sacred Heart, Dartmouth, and Bucknell) and four occurring in MAAC play (at Rider, Iona, Siena, at Iona).

2015-16

Segura emerged as the team's point guard from the beginning of the 2015-16 season, earning a start at the position in all 32 appearances as a sophomore. He posted a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in 24 of his 32 games and posted an equal number of assists and turnovers in five other games. He recorded a personal best 11 assists at Marist and later tied that mark at home against Manhattan. Segura also showed a knack for scoring when he scored a personal best 17 points in the Wagner game, one of his nine double-digit point totals a year ago. He finished the campaign strongly by scoring 10 or more points in three of his final five games, averaging 9.8 points per game and shooting 43.7 percent from the floor (21 of 48) during that run. He also recorded 20 assists against 11 turnovers during the final five contests. He ended the season with 160 assists which is the 10th highest single-season total in Fairfield basketball history.

2014-15

Segura was a regular all season long, playing in all but one contest as a freshman. He missed the Saint Peter's game after playing in his first 27 collegiate games. He posted a career-high 13 points in a start at Saint Peter's. He also reached double figures as a reserve with 11 points at Niagara in the regular-season finale. Segura was sure-handed with the basketball and was one of only three Stags with more assists than turnovers (64 assists/60 turnovers). He dished off nine assists against four turnovers in the team's Buffalo weekend, highlighted by six assists and two miscues against Canisius. Segura earned his first collegiate start at Siena on January 11, joining Tyler Nelson to comprise an all-freshmen backcourt.

Round Number: Tyler Nelson enters tonight's game with 397 career free throws, needing three more charity tosses to become the fourth Stag to reach 400 career free throws. Mark Young '79 holds the school record with 543, followed by Tony George '86 (510), and Joe DeSantis '79 (462). Nelson is averaging 4.9 free throws made per game (66 of 76), his best single-season average which would surpass his 4.45 free throws per game in 2015-16.

One Of Three: Tyler Nelson owns a team-best 20.6 scoring average following his 21-point effort at Rider. The guard is one of three student-athletes averaging at least 20 points in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) at this point in the season. He is joined by Niagara's Matt Scott (22.1 ppg) and Khalil Dukes (20.9 ppg) for that distinction. Nelson is the MAAC's top returning scorer from the 2016-17 season, averaging 19.5 points per game a year ago.

Home Court: Tyler Nelson continued to reap the benefits of the home court as he scored 19 points against Saint Peter's. In his four games at Webster Bank Arena, Nelson is averaging 23.0 points per game and 23.6 points if you include the fifth home game at Alumni Hall. On the road and in neutral site games, Nelson is averaging 18 points per game.

Five Spot: Tyler Nelson picked up a career-high five steals in the win against Saint Peter's, surpassing his previous total of four steals set twice during his career. The five steals were the most by a Fairfield student-athlete since Jerry Johnson registered five steals against Maryland-Eastern Shore on November 24, 2015. Nelson ranks second on the team with 15 steals in 12 starts, three behind leader Jesus Cruz.

Scoring Leader: Senior Tyler Nelson has a chance to set the school scoring record this season checking into tonight's action with 1,726 points. He is currently needs 302 points to surpass Tony George '86 who netted 2,006 points during his four-year career. The senior could also set a school record for career three-pointers, needing 37 baskets to eclipse Derek Needham's mark of 281 set from 2010-13.

Weekly Honors: Senior Tyler Nelson and freshman Wassef Methnani earned weekly honors from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) on Monday. Nelson secured the Player of the Week after scoring 30 points in the team's win over Penn. Methnani collected the Rookie of the Week following his 20-point, eight-rebound debut against the Quakers.

It's Been A While: Senior Tyler Nelson tallied 30 points in the season opener against Penn, becoming the second Stag to score 30 points in a season opener. Mark Plefka netted 36 points against Loyola University in the 1977-78 opener, a game which Fairfield won by a 100-89 count. The Stags almost had two 30-point scorers in that game as Kim Fisher netted 28 points in the victory. Tony George, Fairfield's all-time leading scorer, just missed the mark with 29 points in the 1984-85 season opener which ended in a victory over Marist.

Double Digits: Tyler Nelson made 10 of 11 free throws in the Old Dominion game, the second time this season that he has netted 10 or more free throws in a game. He posted a personal-best 12 of 13 charity tosses against Penn in the season opener. Before this season, Nelson made 10 free throws in a game twice, both in 2016-17. He was perfect from the line against Rider by making all 10 of his free

Preseason Honors: Tyler Nelson was named the MAAC Preseason Player of the Year as well as a unanimous pick to the Preseason All-MAAC first team. Nelson was an All-MAAC selection in 2016-17 (first team) and 2015-16 (second team).

Watch Out: Tyler Nelson was placed on the Lou Henson Mid-Major Player of the Year watch list which is presented annually by CollegeInsider.com. The guard is one of 50 student-athletes under consideration for the honor. The award is named after Lou Henson who coached 41 years. The 2017-18 Lou Henson National Player of the Year Award will be announced on March 31, 2018 at the CollegeInsider.com Awards Event in San Antonio, site of the men's NCAA Basketball Championship.

Rare Company: Tyler Nelson surpassed the 500-point mark in 2016-17 the second straight season that he has hit that mark. He joins Marcus Gilbert, Troy Bradford, and Tony George as the only Stags to score 500 or more points in con-

Nelson's Biography

Tyler Nelson earned All-MAAC honors after placing second in the MAAC for scoring with 19.5 points per game. He is the top returning scorers in the conference with the departure of Monmouth's Justin Robinson (19.7 ppg). Nelson became the latest member of the Fairfield University 1,000-point club when he tallied the prestigious point against North Carolina State. The guard has netted 1,440 points through his three-year career, including 604 points in 2016-17. Nelson needs 567 points in 2017-18 to become the program's all-time leading scorer, surpassing Tony George's school record 2,006 points set (1982-86 seasons). Nelson scored in double figures 30 times in 2016-17, missing the mark with nine points against Niagara in late February. The nine-point effort stopped his streak of 53 straight games with 10 or more points. He ended the season with 30 points against UMBC in the CIT first round, his second 30-point effort of the season. He posted a career-high 38 points against Rider in the MAAC opener, making six of 10 three pointers and all 10 free throw attempts. Nelson earned two MAAC player of the week honors, the first of which came he scored 28 points at Dartmouth and followed with 23 points in a overtime win at Wagner. He picked up another award after his 38-point effort at Rider and 23 markers at Siena. Nelson registered two buzzer-beating shots that won one game and sent another into overtime for Fairfield. In a one-week span, Nelson hit a three-point field goal against Canisius (58-55) and sent the Quinnipiac game into overtime with a layup. Nelson's 604 points in 2016-17 was his second straight 500-point season, one of only four to accomplish that feat at Fairfield.

2015-16

Tyler Nelson looks to become the Stags' next 1,000-point scorer in 2016-17, needing just 164 points to reach the prestigious plateau. He comes off his best offensive season of his two-year career with a team-high 529 points which translated into a 16.0 scoring average. The guard earned a spot on the All-MAAC second team after placing sixth among the MAAC scoring leaders. He led the conference in free throw percentage at .880 (147 of 167), a number which was also good enough for 14th in the nation. He netted 2.0 three pointers per game which was ranked 12th in the MAAC as his 66 long-range jumpers raised his career total to 130 in 63 games. He netted three or more three pointers in 10 games during 2015-16, giving him Nelson started all 33 games last season, giving him 63 career starts. Nelson led the team in steals with 44 which ranked 12th in the MAAC at 1.3 per game, and placed second among his teammates with 95 assists. The guard ended the season with 15 straight double-digit scoring games including six with 20 or more points. He netted 20-plus points 11 times, highlighted by his career-best of 27 markers against Niagara in Bridgeport.

2014-15

Nelson emerged as one of the MAAC's top freshmen which was backed up by his appearance on the MAAC's All-Rookie team. The guard became one of the conference's top three-point threats by netting 64 shots from behind the three-point line, the most since Jermaine Clark posted 70 three pointers as a freshman. Nelson averaged 17.5 points per game over the final six regular-season games and hit double-figures in each of those contests. The rookie scored 10 or more points in 15 games, second only to Marcus Gilbert (27 games). He scored 24 points against South Dakota in his fourth career game, his only 20-point performance until he reached the mark in back-to-back games late in the year (26 vs. Saint Peter's and 23 at Canisius). He was one of three Stags to have more assists (41) than turnovers (40).

Harper's Biography

2016-17

Jared Harper appeared in 12 games as a junior, the most appearances in a season for the guard. His last appearance came against UMBC in the CIT first round in which he played a minute. In his last regular-season road appearances, Harper tallied a career-high four points at Saint Peter's, making his only three-point field goal attempt and one of two free throws. He also added a rebound in the game, one of his three for the season. He also grabbed a carom at Monmouth and against Manhattan. Harper attempted only one other shot in addition to his three pointer at Saint Peter's, tossing up a three-point try against Manhattan. He played three minutes in that game against the Jaspers, tying his season-best set two games earlier at Monmouth.

2015-16

Harper spent most of the 2015-16 season on the injured list but did appear in the team's postseason game against New Hampshire. The guard played one minute in that game and picked up a rebound in his brief appearance. Harper has fully recovered from his injury and will be ready for the 2016-17 season.

2014-15

Harper appeared in three games in his first season with the program, earning playing time at Duke and at Siena in the regular season as well as the Saint Peter's game during the MAAC Tournament. He picked up one minute in each of those contest and did not attempt any shots in any of those contest.

Before Fairfield

A multi-sport athlete in high school, Harper joined Fairfield University as a preferred walk-on after attending Suffield Academy. The guard attended Campbell Hall High School before joining Suffield Academy. He showed his all-around ability at Suffield last season, averaging six points, four assists, five rebounds, and two steals per game. The team ended the campaign with an 11-5 record and advanced to the New England Class B Quarterfinals. Harper played football, basketball, and baseball while at Campbell Hall. In his final season at Campbell Hall, he helped the basketball team post a 16-12 record.

Nolan's Biography

2016-17

After a redshirt year in 2015-16, Thomas Nolan became involved during the 2016-17 season by gaining entry into 16 games. He did not score in his first five appearances, but hit the scoreboard with six points as a reserve at Iona in early January. One game later, Nolan earned his only start of the season at Monmouth, and responded with a career-high 11 points by making three three-point field goals. He also set up career-bests with four rebounds and two assists in 35 minutes against the Hawks. Nolan scored points in seven games, all of which came over his final 11 appearances of the season. The guard ended the season with 30 points (1.9 ppg), 13 rebounds (0.8 rpg), and eight assists (0.5 apg).

2015-16

Nolan sat out the 2015-16 season as a redshirt student-athlete.

Before Fairfield

Nolan stayed close to home as a graduate of Fairfield Preparatory School. He was an All-State first team selection (Class LL) in 2015 after securing All-State second team accolades as a junior. He is a two-time Connecticut Post All-Star Selection and also collected two berths to the New Haven Register All-Star teams in 2014 and 2015. He secured the SCC Tournament Most Valuable Player award in 2014. With his play, Fairfield Prep posted a 25-2 record and captured their first state LL championship since 1997.

Notebook

Double-Double: Jonathan Kasibabu picked up his third career double-double but first on the road with his 14 points and 13 rebounds at Manhattan on December 30. The achievement was his first since the 2015-16 campaign when he posted 16 points and 10 rebounds against Saint Peter's and 12 points and 15 rebounds versus Sacred Heart. Kasibabu joins Matija Milin as the only Stags with a double-double this year as Milin secured 18 points and 11 rebounds in the Loyola Maryland game.

High Percentage: Jonathan Kasibabu continues to shoot effectively from the floor, leading the team with a .588 field goal percentage (40 of 68). Last year, Kasibabu led the team in field goal percentage with a .585 percentage, which would have been enough to lead the MAAC if met the field goal percentage minimum of 3.5 made per game. Over the last two seasons, Kasibabu is shooting 58.6 percent from the floor (116 of 198).

On The Blocks: Jonathan Kasibabu blocked two shots at Manhattan, his fifth multiple block game of the season. He currently has nine blocks in his last five games, giving him a team-leading total of 14 rejections. Kasibabu was the team's leading shot blocker in 2016-17 with 44 in 31 games (1.4 per game).

Perfection: Jonathan Kasibabu made all four of his field goal attempts and both of his free throw attempts to reach double figures with 10 points in the New Hampshire game. With his three blocks last Friday, Kasibabu enjoyed his best overall performance since making all five shots at Manhattan last year, finishing with 13 points, nine rebounds, and five blocks in the game.

Board Room: Jonathan Kasibabu secured six rebounds against New Hampshire after he picked up a season-high nine rebounds in the Old Dominion game. He has recorded six or more rebounds in four of the last seven games including the last three contests. The junior has raised his rebounding average significantly during that time, more than doubling the number. After four games, Kasibabu had nine rebounds for a 2.3 average, but has averaged five caroms per contest since then which raised his season rebounding average to 4.1 per game.

One-And-One: Jonathan Kasibabu's conversion of a one-and-one situation with 29 seconds left in the second half turned a two-point game into a four-point game which Fairfield would eventually win over LIU Brooklyn by a 76-72 score. The center made another free throw in the closing seconds of that game to ice the victory. After the LIU Brooklyn win, Kasibabu was shooting 69.6 percent from the line.

Second Half Surge: Jonathan Kasibabu averaged 12.3 points per game during the team's stay at the Wright State tournament over Thanksgiving weekend. The junior posted 13 points against Jacksonville, tying his career high with that performance. One game later, the forward reset the mark with 15 points in the victory against Gardner-Webb. He just missed double figures with nine points in the Wright State game.

Season Highs: After setting his season-high with 13 points against Jacksonville on November 24, Jonathan Kasibabu reset his season-best with 15 points against Gardner-Webb. The junior just missed his season high of 16 points set on two different occasions. The 28 points in back-to-back games represents his best two-game scoring total since hitting the same mark in two-game trip to Buffalo last season. He started the run

Kasibabu's Biography

2016-17

Jonathan Kasibabu continued his development as one of the top big men in the MAAC, ranking among the conference leaders in both rebounding and blocked shots. The sophomore posted 4.9 rebounds per game which placed him 19th in the MAAC, while his 1.4 blocks per contest was fifth-best among the conference leaders. Kasibabu started the year with four straight multi-block games and went on to register two or more rejections in 11 more games to bring his season total to 15. Kasibabu led the team in field goal percentage, netting 76 of 130 shots in 2016-17 for a .585 mark. Over his final 10 games, Kasibabu shot 60.7 percent from the floor (34 of 56), highlighted by his 6 of 7 performance at Niagara that led to a career-high tying 16 points. He just missed a double-double at Niagara with a nine rebounds, a mark he would surpass one game later with 10 caroms at Siena. Kasibabu was a member of the starting lineup in the first three games of the year, came off the bench for 19 straight outings, before starting the final nine games of the campaign. His best bench performance included 13 points, nine rebounds, and a career-best five blocks at Manhattan.

2015-16

Jonathan Kasibabu led all Stags with 181 rebounds in 2015-16 which broke out to 5.5 rebounds per game. The forward was ranked in three MAAC statistical categories, namely rebounding (16th with 5.5 per game), blocked shots (7th with 1.2 per game), and eighth in offensive rebounding (2.1 per game). He was among the top rebounders during the MAAC tournament by averaging 8.0 per contest, highlighted by nine against Monmouth. He posted 10 or more rebounds in five games, two of which completed a double-double. The forward garnered 12 points and a personal-best 15 caroms against Sacred Heart and followed up with 16 points and 10 rebounds versus Saint Peter's. He blocked at least one shot in 21 games, putting together a run of 10 straight games with a block. He totaled 19 rejections over those 10 games (1.9 per game). He tallied four blocks in the MAAC tournament quarterfinal game against Saint Peter's, tying his season high set earlier at Marist. Kasibabu was the team's most accurate shooter with a .514 field goal percentage, the only Stag who made more than half of his attempts for the season. He earned the MAAC rookie of the week award on November 23.

Before Fairfield

Kasibabu attended Westtown School (Pa.) where he earned All-Friends School League first team honors. The 6-8 forward also gained attention when he was labeled a "Player to Watch" at the Chic-Fil-A Classic Holiday Tournament earlier in the season. He was voted team captain by his teammates and helped the team post a post a 25-8 record and capture the 2015 Friends School League title. Before his time in the United States, Kasibabu was selected to the Euroleague Nike International Junior Tournament All-Tournament team in 2014 and was one of 12 players who were designated Top Prospect that showed best potential at the same tournament.

Notebook

More From Milin: Matija Milin just missed a double-double against Manhattan with nine points and eight rebounds against Manhattan, one game after he put together an impressive game with 11 points, seven rebounds, and a pair of assists against Saint Peter's. The junior continues to be the team's top rebounder with 5.2 caroms per contest.

Sweet 16: Matija Milin earned 16 points against Old Dominion, the ninth time in his career that he has tallied at least 16 points in a game. He just missed his season high of 18 points set against Loyola Maryland on November 14. Most of his points came from behind the line as his career-high four three pointers represented 12 of his 16 points.

Top Spot: Matija Milin has emerged as the team's top rebounder so far, grabbing 5.0 caroms per contest. In comparison, Milin averaged a personal-best 4.1 rebounds per game last year, slightly higher than his 3.7 average as a freshman. He has been the team's top rebounder three times this year - Loyola Md. (11), Gardner-Webb (6 - co-leader), and Wright State (8).

Hall Pass: Matija Milin has posted six multi-assist games this season, highlighted by a season-best three against Penn in the season opener. Through the first eight games, Milin has 15 assists, more than halfway to his total of 25 assists in 29 games a year ago. His career best total stands at 32 set in his freshman campaign which he accomplished in 31 games.

Double-Double: Matija Milin secured the season's first double-double for Fairfield with his 18-point, 11-rebound performance against Loyola-Maryland. The effort represented the forward's third career double-double, also picking one up against Columbia (10 points, 11 rebounds) as a freshman and another as a sophomore against UMBC (20 points, 12 rebounds) in last year's season finale.

Milin's Biography

2016-17

Matija Milin began the year as a starter, getting the nod through the first 15 games of the campaign. He came off the bench for the remainder of the regular season, not earning a start until the MAAC tournament quarterfinal game against Siena. He added another start at UMBC in the CIT tournament as well, posting a double-double with 20 points and a career-high 12 rebounds. As a reserve, Milin reached double figures twice – 14 points at Iona and 11 points vs. Rider. He would tack on one more double-digit effort as a starter when he posted a double-double against UMBC in the CIT first round, recording 20 points and grabbing 12 rebounds in 37 minutes. The performance against UMBC was one point shy of his personal best of 21 points, set against Iona, playing a career-high tying 40 minutes against the Gaels. Milin ended the season with an 8.3 scoring average and a .483 field goal percentage. His field goal percentage was third among his teammates.

Matija Milin developed into one of the top sixth-men in the MAAC during the 2015-16 campaign, coming off the bench in all regular-season games. He garnered his first start in the MAAC quarterfinal game against Saint Peter's and remained among the starting five in the next two postseason games against Monmouth and New Hampshire. Milin reached double figures for the first time as a Stag with 11 points at Maryland-Eastern Shore which started a run of five straight double-digit scoring games. During that run, Milin posted his only double-double of the season with 10 points and 11 rebounds against Columbia. He fell one rebound short of a double-double in three other games – Manhattan (19 pts.), Saint Peter's (10 pts.) and Monmouth (16 pts.). The latter two in that list came in the MAAC tournament which enabled him to be the team's top rebounder in the MAAC tournament with a 9.0 average. Milin was named the MAAC rookie of the week when he averaged 16 points in a 1-1 week against Siena and at Saint Peter's in the final week of the season. The forward later surpassed that five-game run of double-digit scoring when he hit the 10-point mark six times over the final four regular-season games and the two MAAC tournament dates. He was also successful distributing the ball, posting at least one assist in 15 games and three or more assists in six contests.

Better Than Benning: It would be tough to have a better run than Taj Benning, who tied his career-high with 25 minutes played at Rider. The freshman set a career-best with seven points and did not commit a turnover despite his lengthy time on the court. Benning has not recorded a turnover in his last six appearances which translates into 65 minutes on the court and has a turnover in just two of his 12 appearances this year.

Board Room: After not recording a rebound for the first time in his five appearances against Gardner-Webb, Taj Benning responded with a career-high five rebounds against Wright State on the following day. The freshman also picked up a personal-best three assists in that same game, both numbers coming as part of his career-high 25 minutes played.

Key Three: Taj Benning scored the first points of his Fairfield career with a three-point field goal against Penn. The freshman's long-range basket was part of the team's 15-1 run that turned a 12-point deficit into a two-point lead. Benning's basket tied the game before Jesus Cruz's jumper capped the run and gave the Stags the lead. The basket by Cruz also represented his first points as a Stag.

Before Fairfield: Taj Benning is a highly-decorated guard who looks to make an immediate impact as a freshman. As a sophomore at Bergen Catholic High School, Benning helped the basketball team capture the Bergen County championship, earning a spot on the All-Tournament team. He also received berths to the All-Big North Conference first team as well as the All-Bergen County second team. In his junior season, Benning also captured All-Tournament honors after leading the high school to a semifinal appearance. He ended the year with spots on the All-County and All-League first teams. As a senior, Benning garnered an honorable mention berth to the All-State team in addition to first team accolades for All-County and All-League. He was also honorable mention MSG Varsity Tristate.

Eight Is Enough: Kevin Senghore-Peterson tied his career-high for rebounds with his eight caroms against New Hampshire, tying his total against Jacksonville on November 24. The effort comes one game removed from being shutout in the rebounding column by Old Dominion. The forward is averaging 4.5 rebounds per game, second only to Matija Milin's team-best average of 4.8.

Line Up: Kevin Senghore-Peterson has found his touch from the free throw line in the Wagner and Houston games. Through his first six games, Senghore-Peterson went 0 for 4 from the line but rebounded with six free throws in his last eight attempts. He went 3 of 4 from the charity stripe at Wagner, and followed up with the same numbers at Houston.

Doubled Up: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson nearly doubled up his total during the first six games of the season in one evening as the forward established a personal best with 17 points against Wagner. Senghore-Peterson came off the bench and netted his points in 28 minutes of work, connecting on six of 10 field goal attempts which included a pair of three pointers in four attempts. He entered the game with 19 points through his first six games and only one three pointer in five tries.

On The Rebound: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson leads the team in offensive rebounding with 14 caroms in his eight appearances. Matija Milin is the next closest Stag with 12 offensive rebounds. He posted a personal best four offensive caroms against Purdue.

Slam Dunk: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson won the slam dunk contest at the team's annual Red Sea Madness which officially tips off the basketball season on campus. The freshman used a variety of dunks to compete against his teammates but in the end the judges selected Senghore-Peterson as the best.

Before Fairfield: Kevin Senghore-Peterson brings a great deal of international experience to the Fairfield University basketball team, playing with the Sweden national program since 2013. During his five years with the program, the forward averaged 9.9 points and 8.6 rebounds. He has the ability to dominate a game

All-Around Performance: Wassef Methnani comes off his best all-around game following his performance at Rider. The freshman set personal bests with nine rebounds and five assists as well as tying his career high with three blocks. He added eight points to his game total, his best offensive output since his nine points at LIU Brooklyn. He also made his fourth three pointer of the season and his first since November 25 against Gardner-Webb. For the season, Methnani is averaging 4.5 points and 3.6 rebounds per game.

Securing Six: For the third time in his brief career, Wassef Methnani secured at least six rebounds in a game with his six caroms at Houston. He started the year with 15 rebounds in his first two games, including a career-best eight rebounds in his debut against Penn. He is currently averaging 3.2 rebounds every 40 minutes.

Weekly Honors: Senior Tyler Nelson and freshman Wassef Methnani earned weekly honors from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) on Monday. Nelson secured the Player of the Week after scoring 30 points in the team's win over Penn. Methnani collected the Rookie of the Week following his 20-point, eight-rebound debut against the Quakers.

Dynamic Debut: Wassef Methnani registered 20 points in his first game as a Stag, the best single-game scoring performance by a freshman in a season opener since Kyle Commodore posted 22 points in his debut in the 1995-96 campaign. Commodore scored all but one of his points from behind the three-point arc, making seven of nine shots from long range. Methnani connected on 8 of 13 shots from the field including two three pointers against Penn, which helped him earn MAAC Rookie of the Week.

Double-Double: Freshman Wassef Methnani secured a double-double in the Bridgeport exhibition when he posted 13 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in 22 minutes as a reserve. The forward/center made six of nine field goal attempts and grabbed nine defensive rebounds in the effort. Methnani was the top rebounder in the two exhibition games, averaging 8.5 caroms per contest.

Before Fairfield: Wassef Methnani joins the Fairfield University men's basketball program after spending last season at The Knox School. He played at Knox along with current teammate Omar El-Sheikh. Methnani developed into one of the program's top big men, especially with his defensive abilities. The forward was among the team's top shot blockers at The Knox School. He brings international experience to the program, having represented Tunisia in several international tournaments, including a 14-point, five-rebound effort against Rwanda in the FIBA Afrobasket 2017 tournament.

Notebook

Original Lineup: For the first time since the Jacksonville game, Ferron Flavors Jr. joined the starting lineup when he received the nod at Rider, ending his run of nine straight games as a reserve. He switched places with freshman Jesus Cruz, who took Flavors Jr. place in the starting lineup for the Gardner-Webb game. Flavors Jr. posted eight points in his return to the starting five while Cruz came off the bench to add five points as a reserve.

One More: Ferron Flavors Jr. registered his fifth game with 10 or more points as a reserve when he netted 14 markers in the New Hampshire game. He now has more double-figure games as a reserve (5 in 9 games) than he did as a starter (3 in 4 games). Flavors Jr. reached double figures against New Hampshire which represents the first time in his Fairfield career that he netted 10 or more point in three straight games as a reserve.

Long-Range Jumpers: Ferron Flavors Jr. leads the team with 38 three-point field goals which break down to 2.7 per game. That per game average places him third in the MAAC. On the team's season long seven-game road trip, the sophomore shot 44 percent (22 of 50) from the three-point area, averaging 3.3 three pointers per game during the run. Since that stretch, he is averaging 2.6 three pointers per game (13 in five games).

Rising Stock: Ferron Flavors Jr. saw his scoring average improve in each of the first four games this season. The sophomore started the year with nine points against Penn and followed up with 11 points versus Loyola. He surpassed that effort with a 13-point night at Purdue before posting a season-high 20 points in the Jacksonville game. He is the only newcomer on Fairfield's roster to hit double figures three times this year.

Before Fairfield: Ferron Flavors Jr. comes to the Fairfield University basketball program after spending last season with Stone Mountain Community College. During his stay, Flavors averaged 17.6 points and an assist per game during his 28 appearances. The guard netted 20 or more points in 12 games a year ago, posting a season high 28 points three times. His last 28-point effort came in a 126-123 triple overtime win against Tohono O'odham Community College, netting eight of his 12 three-point field goal attempts. He played scholastic basketball at Federal Way High School where he averaged 12 points and three rebounds per game as a senior, helping the team capture its second straight Washington state championship. He was named to the All-State Tournament team and named the tournament most valuable player in 2016. He earned first team All-City honors and was a member of the Associated Press All-State team (honorable mention).

Original Lineup: For the first time since the Jacksonville game, Ferron Flavors Jr. joined the starting lineup when he received the nod at Rider, ending his run of nine straight games as a reserve. He switched places with freshman Jesus Cruz, who took Flavors Jr. place in the starting lineup for the Gardner-Webb game. Flavors Jr. posted eight points in his return to the starting five while Cruz came off the bench to add five points as a reserve.

Back On Track: After going without a steal for three straight games, Jesus Cruz has registered seven steals in the last three outings including a career-best five steals at Manhattan. Cruz recorded at least one steal in each of his first eight games for a total of 17 before coming up empty against LIU Brooklyn, Old Dominion, and New Hampshire, . The guard currently averages 1.7 steals per game which ranks third in the MAAC.

Cruzin': Jesus Cruz posted his first game without a turnover when he went 30 minutes against Houston without a miscue. Cruz has registered one turnover or less in seven of his 13 appearances and is averaging one turnover every 19.6 minutes on the court. In his two games against majors, Cruz had one turnover in 56 minutes of work (1 in 26 minutes vs Purdue, 0 in 30 minutes vs. Houston). In road games, Cruz has 10 turnovers in 215 minutes of work.

First Time: Guard Jesus Cruz earned his first career start in the Gardner-Webb game and responded by setting personal bests with 11 points and six rebounds as well as tying his career high with four steals. The freshman also played all 40 minutes in the game, the first time that he went the distance in a contest. Cruz received the nod in lieu of Ferron Flavors Jr., who started the first four games.

Foursome: Jesus Cruz accounted for four of the Stags' five steals at Purdue, becoming the most steals by a Stag since Jerome Segura picked up four steals against Boston College and Penn in consecutive games last season. The total was the most by a freshman since Curtis Cobb posted four steals against Marist during the 2015-16 season. Earlier that season, freshman Jerry Johnson Jr. accumulated five steals in the win over Maryland-Eastern Shore.

Before Fairfield: Jesus Cruz comes off a successful stint with Puerto Rico at the FIBA U-19 tournament, helping his team placed ninth in the championship tournament. He finished eighth in scoring with a 13.4 scoring average and second in steals for the tournament. The guard attended St. Francis School in Puerto Rico before enrolling at Immaculata-LaSalle High School in Miami. From there, Cruz spent a year at the Loomis Chaffee School where he also played basketball.

One Off The Bench: Omar El-Sheikh was the one reserve to reach double figures against Saint Peter's with his career-high tying 11 points on December 28. The freshman also netted 11 points in his collegiate debut at Wagner on December 2. El-Sheikh is the second-leading scoring freshman since joining the lineup (5.0 ppg) trailing only starter Jesus Cruz (9.2 ppg).

Dynamic Debut: Fairfield witnessed another dynamic debut in the Wagner game as Omar El-Sheikh played his first game as a Stag. The freshman just missed a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds along with three assists, three blocks, and a steal without a turnover in 24 minutes of work. In the season opener, Wassef Methnani turned heads with his dynamic debut that included 20 points, eight rebounds, and three blocks.

Before Fairfield: Omar El-Sheikh comes to the Fairfield University basketball program after spending last season at The Knox School, a teammate of Stags classmate Wassef Methnani. El-Sheikh's most recent time on the hardwood came over the summer when he played in the FIBA U-19 world championship in Egypt. El-Sheikh averaged 8.7 points, 7.5 rebounds, and 1.3 assists in his six appearances for the national team. He placed 16th in rebounding among tournament players, highlighted by his 10-carom night against Japan.

Head Coach Sydney Johnson

Sydney Johnson became the 12th head coach to oversee the Fairfield University men's basketball program when he was introduced in April, 2011. Johnson joined the Stags program after spending four seasons as the head coach at his alma mater Princeton University.

Head Coach Sydney Johnson begins his seventh season at Fairfield University, leading the Stags to the postseason in four of those campaigns. The 2011-12 Stags reached the MAAC Tournament Championship game, the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) semifinals, and defeated Arizona State, Old Dominion, and Iona, among others, en route to a 22-win season. In 2012-13, the Stags earned another postseason berth as a participant in the 2013 CIT.

Fairfield posted 41 victories under Coach Johnson in his first two seasons and 90 wins overall. His 41 wins through his first two campaigns ties him for the most by any Fairfield men's basketball coach through his first two seasons. The Stags three postseason wins in 2012-13 were the most by any team in school history. Fairfield also led the MAAC in scoring defense at 61.1 ppg in his inaugural season.

Since his arrival, seven Fairfield student-athletes have signed professional contracts, namely Rakim Sanders (Israel), Ryan Olander (Lithuania), Derek Needham (Lithuania), Colin Nickerson (Canada), Maurice Barrow (Austria), Marcus Gilbert (Italy), and Amadou Sidibe (Spain).

At Princeton, Johnson led the Tigers to the 2010-11 Ivy League championship and an automatic berth to the NCAA tournament. Princeton took the University of Kentucky to the final seconds before dropping a 59-57 decision in the NCAA tournament second round. It marked the second straight season that the program advanced to postseason play, playing in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2009-10. During his tenure, Johnson owned a 66-53 record as the Tigers' head coach.

Johnson helped turn around the Princeton program in his four-year stay as the Tigers posted a 6-23 overall record and a 3-11 Ivy League slate in his first season. After improving to 13-14 overall and 8-6 in Ivy play in 2008-09, Johnson led Princeton to its first 20-win season since 2004 when the team finished the year with a 22-9 overall record. This year, the Tigers tied the second-highest win total in Princeton history with a 25-7 mark.

Under his guidance, Princeton has become one of the top defensive teams in the country. The Tigers led the nation in scoring defense during the 2009-10 season, allowing fewer total points (1652) and fewest points per game (53.3) than any other Division I team that year.

Johnson was named the Ivy League Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com following the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons.

Before taking over the Princeton program, Johnson was an assistant coach at Georgetown University under John Thompson III. He helped the Hoyas advance to the program's first Final Four in 22 years. Georgetown owned a 30-7 record that season, winning the Big East regular season and tournament titles. Georgetown advanced to the postseason in all three of his years as an assistant coach which included two NCAA tournaments and one NIT berth.

Johnson also experienced postseason play as a student-athlete, leading the Tigers to the NCAA tournament during the 1995-96 and 1996-97 seasons. In the 1996 tournament, Princeton upset defending national champion UCLA to advance to the second round.

As a student-athlete, Johnson earned the 1997 Ivy League Player of the Year as well as an All-Ivy League first team honors in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He is the only three-time captain in Princeton men's basketball history. He earned an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship in 1997, but decided to continue his basketball career overseas.

He was a starter for Gorizia Pallacanestro in Italy and helped the team capture the Italian Second Division championship. The following season, he was part of another championship team as Reggio Calabria won the league title.
