MAAC Tournament Notes

Seed Selection: Fairfield will enter this tournament as the 6th seed, the fifth time that the Stags have had that distinction since the tournament began 1982. The Stags own a 3-4 mark in MAAC tourney games as the 6th seed which includes a 76-72 setback against Loyola at the Arena at Harbor Yard during the 2007 Tournament. The Stags' first win as the #6 seed came during the 2004 MAAC Tournament, defeating Manhattan 81-74 in the tournament quarterfinals. Fairfield also lost as the #6 seed in 1994, an 84-73 setback to Siena, and in 1983, a 70-67 setback to Saint Peter's.

Against Iona: The Stags own a 4-2 record against Iona in MAAC tournament play, including a win in the 1987 MAAC Championship game. Fairfield last played Iona during the 2012 MAAC tournament, picking up an 85-75 win over the top-seeded Gaels. The Stags also picked up a win against the top-seeded Gaels during the 1997 campaign as the Stags would go on to win the tournament as the eighth seed. The two teams have played two overtime games in MAAC tournament play with the Stags winning in 1995 (81-79) and in the 1987 MAAC title game (73-70).

Capital District: The Stags have not fared well in the city of Albany, owning an 13-18 record at this facility during MAAC tournament games. As the name changed, the Stags have seen some improvement, going 4-7 (.363) when it was Knickerbocker Arena, 2-5 (.286) as Pepsi Arena, and 6-6 (.454) as the Times Union Center. Head Coach Sydney Johnson owns a 3-3 mark at this venue during the tournament.

On The Chart: Head Coach Sydney Johnson's four wins in his first two MAAC tournaments are second only to Mitch Buonaguro in Fairfield history. Buonaguro won his first six games as he led the Stags to back-to-back championships in his inaugural two seasons with the program. Johnson's five wins (5-6) tie him with Tim O'Toole (5-8) on the Fairfield MAAC tournament coaching wins list. Buonaguro owns a 7-4 record followed by Paul Cormier (6-6), and Ed Cooley (4-5). Terry O'Connor started the MAAC run for the Stags and posted a 1-5 mark through the first four years of the tournament.

Three Championships: Fairfield has won three MAAC championships in its 37 years of conference competition. The Stags won the 1986 title as the number one seed; won the 1987 championship as the number seven seed; and won the 1997 crown as the number eight seed. Fairfield lost four times in the title game - 1996 vs. Canisius (52-46); 2003 vs. Manhattan (69-54); 2010 vs. Siena (72-65 in overtime); and 2012 vs. Loyola (48-44).

Most Valuable Player: Greg Francis is the only Fairfield University player to earn the tournament most valuable player. He secured the award after leading the team to the 1997 tournament title. The Stags placed three players on the All-Tournament team that season. In Fairfield's other two tournament titles, Jim McCaffrey of Holy Cross won the MVP in 1986 and Kevin Houston of Army won the award in 1987.

Don't Get Them Started: Getting a win in its quarterfinal game usually is a significant event for the Stags. The Red and White have won 14 quarterfinal games in their history. Of those 14 tournaments, the Stags will advance play in its eighth championship game. In the first seven championship games, the Stags have earned the crown three times (1986, 1987, and 1997). The Stags lost the Championship game to Canisius in 1996, Manhattan in 2003, Siena in 2010, and Loyola in 2012.

OT Is OK: The Stags have played six overtime games in their MAAC tournament history, and won three of those outings. Fairfield defeated Iona College by a 73-70 count in the 1987 MAAC championship game, the Red and White's first-ever MAAC overtime game. The Stags followed up with five more overtime games - 1990 first round win over Niagara (66-63); 1995 quarterfinal win over Iona (81-79); 1998 play-in round loss to Marist (74-73) the 2010 championship game loss against Siena (72-65), and the 2014 first-round loss with Saint Peter's (65-62).

Series History

- The Gaels hold a 65-44 edge which includes a series split in 2017-18. Tyler Nelson led the Stags offense with 16 points while Deyshonee Much posted 32 points with most of his points coming from behind the three-point line (six three pointers) in a 84-65 win for Iona. Fairfield responded with a 103-100 overtime win in the rematch a few weeks later behind 32 points from Tyler Nelson and 26 points by E.J. Crawford.

- The two teams split the last three regular season series with the home team winning each of the games a year ago. Last season, Fairfield posted a 93-87 win at home while Iona responded with a 96-89 victory. Tyler Nelson averaged 22 points per game in the two games a year ago.

- Fairfield and Iona played a five-over-time game during the 1981-82 season which the Gaels won 102-100. Nine players fouled out in the game with the Gaels losing five student-athletes to disqualification. The game was tied 65-65 after regulation and no team scored more than nine points in any of the overtime periods.

- Fairfield and Iona played another memorable overtime game in which the Stags overcame a double-digit second-half deficit to defeat the Gaels in overtime and win the 1987 MAAC Championship. Jeff Gromos registered a double-double for Fairfield with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Nestor Payne recorded 16 points and eight rebounds to aid the Iona cause.

Climbing The Charts

Senior Tyler Nelson became Fairfield's all-time leading scorer with a second-half basket against Quinnipiac on February 17. Here are the top seven scorers in school history.

1) Tyler Nelson	2147	2015-
2) Tony George	2006	1983-86
3) Joe DeSantis	1916	1975-79
4) Derek Needham	1875	2010-13
5) Marcus Gilbert	1661	2013-16
6) Troy Bradford	1648	1985-89
7) Mark Young	1643	1975-79

Scouting Fairfield: The Stags advanced to the MAAC Championship game with its 74-64 win over Quinnipiac University on Sunday night. Fairfield trailed only twice during the game, both times were one-point deficits in the first and second half. On both occasions, Fairfield's Jesus Cruz put Fairfield back in front, using a three-point play in the first half and a jumper in the second half. Ferron Flavors Jr. posted a team-high 21 points and added 11 rebounds in the win, while Tyler Nelson added 19 points with three assists in his 38 minutes of work. Cruz also reached double figures with 11 points and joined Flavors Jr. as the two Stags to play all 40 minutes. Fairfield was especially effective at the free throw line, shooting 95.5 percent (21 of 22) with Flavors responsible for seven of those charity tosses. Nelson continues to lead the conference in scoring with his 22.1 scoring average, while Flavors Jr. saw his scoring average improve to 12.4 points every forty minutes. Nelson and Flavors Jr. are both over 90 three pointers for the season as Flavors Jr. made four against Quinnipiac to raise his total to 93. Nelson picked up three more three points which gives him 98 for the year. Jonathan Kasibabu collected eight rebounds last night which improved his season average to 5.5 per game.

Scouting Iona: The Gaels earned their ticket to the MAAC Championship game with its 65-62 come-from-behind win against Saint Peter's. Iona trailed by 10 points at halftime, scoring just 20 points, before coming back in the second half by 64 percent from the field (14 of 22) and 67 percent from three-point range (6 of 9) over the final 20 minutes. At the heart of the team's come back was Schadrac Casimir, who scored 16 points in the second half by netting five of his seven field goal attempts. Iona used a 12-2 run over four minutes to turn a five-point deficit into a five-point lead with just over a minute to go. Casimir finished the game with 24 points to lead all scorers, while Zach Lewis (12 points) and E.J. Crawford (10 points) also reached double figures in the game. TK Edogi added eight points, eight rebounds, and three steals to the Iona cause. Rickey McGill represents the team's top scorer with 13.7 points per game, slightly better than Crawford's 13.1 scoring average. Deyshonee Much leads all Gaels with 66 three-point field goals which helped him post 11.0 points per game. Edogi averages 7.1 rebounds per game which leads all Gaels.

Seven In A Row: Fairfield brings a seven-game winning streak into tonight's game which represents the longest streak under Head Coach Sydney Johnson. Before the current streak, the Stags won six straight games under Johnson during the 2015-16, 2012-13, and 2011-12 seasons. The team's current run is the program's longest win streak since an 11-gamer under Head Coach Ed Cooley in the 2010-11 campaign.

Championship Appearance: Fairfield will play in its eighth championship game on Monday night. In the first seven championship games, the Stags have earned the crown three times (1986, 1987, and 1997). The Stags lost the Championship game to Canisius in 1996, Manhattan in 2003, Siena in 2010, and Loyola in 2012.

Career Highs: Ferron Flavors Jr. picked up career highs for both points and rebounds in the win over Quinnipiac. The sophomore posted 21 points and 11 rebounds to record his second double-double of the season. Flavors Jr. also posted a double-double against Marist in mid-February, registering 16 points and 10 rebounds in the Stags' win.

Five On The Floor: Wassef Methnani recorded a personal-best five blocked shots in the decision over Quinnipiac. The freshman surpassed his previous personal best which stood at three rejections, accomplished at Rider and against Penn in the season opener. Methnani posted three of his blocks in the first half.

Nothing But Net: Fairfield went 19 for 19 from the free throw line during the second half of its win over Quinnipiac and finished the game with a 95.5 free throw percentage (21 of 22). The percentage was the best for a Fairfield single game this season, eclipsing the 91.7 percent performance against New Hampshire in mid-December (11 of 12). The performance was Fairfield's fifth 20-plus free throw game of the season.

All-MAAC: Tyler Nelson earned a spot on the All-MAAC first team following his performance during the 2017-18 campaign. Nelson, who was named the MAAC Pre-Season Player of the Year, was an All-MAAC first team selection as a junior, a second-team pick as a sophomore, and an All-Rookie player as a freshman.

Efficiency Expert: Wassef Methnani came off the bench to 22 points in 29 minutes of work in the wins against Niagara and Quinnipiac. The freshman has been highly efficient during his first year with the Stags. In his other double-digit games, Methnani was highly efficient by scoring 20 points in 26 minutes against Penn, 14 points in 17 minutes against Rider, and 18 points in 26 minutes at Canisius.

Record Players: Tyler Nelson set the school record for most three pointers in a season with his second three-point field goal against Marist on March 1. He enters the Niagara game with 91 shots from beyond the arc, surpassing Mike Van Schaick's mark of 88 set during the 2006-07 season. Ferron Flavors Jr. could also surpass Van Schaick's mark as the sophomore starts the day with 85 three pointers.

Up A Notch: Tyler Nelson (98) and Ferron Flavors Jr. (93) have now combined for 191 three pointers this season holds the seventh best teammate total in Division I this year. Wofford's Fetcher Magee (137 three pointers) and Nathan Hoover (66 three pointers) lead the nation (203 combined three-pointers).

Staying In Neutral: Fairfield will meet Iona at the neutral setting of the Times Union Center. The Stags own a 4-2 record in those other three games, falling to Jacksonville and defeating Gardner-Webb as part of the Wright State Thanksgiving Tournament. The team also dropped a decision to Quinnipiac at the Nassau Coliseum as part of a MAAC Tripleheader. Over his seven years with the Stags, Head Coach Sydney Johnson has posted a 16-13 record in games played on a neutral court.

Coming Back: The Stags erased an 11-point deficit with six minutes to go against Monmouth in the regular-season finale to win by a 69-66 count. It marked the third time this season that Fairfield overcame a double-digit lead to win a game. The team trailed Penn by 12 in the first half before winning by an 80-72 score. Fairfield fell behind Quinnipiac by 16 points in the second half before winning 102-98 in double overtime. Also, the Stags won three other games in which the opposition led by nine points at one point (at Monmouth, New Hampshire, and Iona).

20/20: The Stags featured two student-athletes who scored more than 20 points in the win over Monmouth last weekend, namely Tyler Nelson (23 points) and Jonathan Kasibabu (20 points). The game marked the second time in three games and the fourth time this season that the Stags had the luxury of two 20-point scorers in a game as Nelson posted 31 points while Kasibabu added 22 markers against Quinnipiac.

Another Day, Another Record: Tyler Nelson set the school single-season scoring mark with his 23-point performance against Monmouth (February 24) which gave him 633 points in 2017-18. He pushed past the previous mark of 630 points set by Tony George '86 during the 1985-86 campaign. He surpassed 700 points for the season in the Quinnipiac game on March 4, checking into tonight's game with 707 points.

Come Back Kids: The Stags trailed at halftime by a 36-30 count against Monmouth but rallied to win the game 69-66. Fairfield has won its last three regular-season games after falling behind at intermission, including its win against Quinnipiac when the team erased a 12-point halftime deficit, and at Siena after it trailed the Saints by six points. The program has won five of the last six games in which it trailed at halftime, giving the team a 5-11 record this season when behind at the half.

Last Time: Fairfield ended the regular-season with four straight wins for the first time since the 1985-86 squad defeated Army, New Hampshire, Manhattan, and Holy Cross. In 2015-16, the Stags won five straight before falling at Saint Peter's in the regular-season finale. The 2010-11 squad had a five-game win streak with a loss at Iona in the final regular-season game.

Half Century: Jonathan Kasibabu picked up eight rebounds against Quinnipiac which pushed him over 500 career rebounds. The junior has 172 offensive and 331 defensive rebounds in his 95 career games (5.4 rebounds per game). He grabbed a personal-best 181 rebounds as a freshman and currently stands with a team-high 148 caroms this year.

For The Record: Tyler Nelson set the Fairfield University career scoring record when he netted his 2,007th point in the second half of the Quinnipiac game (February 17). He surpassed Tony George '86 who scored 2,006 points during his career, and checks into tonight's action with 2,147 points. Nelson became only the second Fairfield player to reach 2,000 career points when he made a free throw in the final minute against Marist (February 15) to record the prestigious point.

National Stats: Tyler Nelson enters tonight's game ranked 13th in the nation for scoring, averaging 22.1 points per game. Nelson also ranks nationally for free throw percentage. He also places 20th in free throw percentage (.887). He made 6 of 6 free throws against Quinnipiac, giving him 165 made charity tosses in 186 attempts. He ranks 29th in three pointers per game with 3.06 made per game (95 in 31 games). Ferron Flavors Jr. ranks 47th in three pointers per game (2.91).

600 Points: Tyler Nelson became the first Stag to score 600 points in two seasons when he scored his eighth point at Siena (February 21). The guard tallied 604 points in 31 games last season, joining Tony George (630 points in 1985-86), Rakim Sanders (615 points in 2011-12), and Troy Bradford (614 points in 1987-88) as the only Stags to reach 600 points in a season.

Defeating The Deficit: The Stags overcame a 12-point halftime deficit to beat Quinnipiac on February 17. The 12-point come back was the program's best since erasing a 13-point deficit against Yale University as part of the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. The Stags found themselves down 13 points at intermission, 39-26, but outscored the Bulldogs by a 42-17 count to win the game 68-56 at Webster Bank Arena. Rakim Sanders scored 21 points and grabbed 11 rebounds.

100 Or Bust: Fairfield reached the 100-point mark against Quinnipiac, the third time this season that the team posted

100 or more points. The three 100-point performances are the most in a single season since the 1977-78 team posted triple digits in four different games, defeating Bridgeport (100-89), American (105-88), Hofstra (112-86), and Holy Cross (123-103). Like this year's team, the 1977-78 squad scored those wins at home.

Quarter Century: It's no secret Tyler Nelson is a critical piece of the Stags offense. The team owns an 11-3 record when he scores 25 or more points in a game this year. Conversely, the Stags are 4-9 when Nelson fails to reach the 20-point mark in a game this season.

Double Figures: Fairfield won 10 home games this year at Webster Bank Arena. It marks the third time that the Stags hit double figures at home under Head Coach Sydney Johnson. Fairfield finished 10-3 at home this season which translates into a .769 winning percentage, the best single-season home percentage under Johnson. The 2015-16 squad went 11-5 (.687 winning percentage) while the 2011-12 team posted a 13-4 record (.764 percentage).

Century Mark: Head Coach Sydney Johnson picked up his 100th win as the Stags' head coach with the decision over Siena (February 5), becoming the fourth mentor to reach the century mark. George Bisacca (158), Fred Barakat (151), and Tim O'Toole (111) are the other Fairfield coaches to reach 100 wins.

Hurricane Relief: Fairfield and Hofstra played an exhibition game to help raise funds for hurricane relief efforts that affected residents in Texas, Louisiana, Florida, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The two teams raised $4,300 during the event which benefitted Save the Children, which is based in Fairfield.

International Flair: The Fairfield roster features student-athletes from nine countries plus one United States commonwealth, giving CBS Sports' Matt Norlander reason to call the Stags one of the most international rosters in the country. He listed the note as number 36 on his 50 fun facts for the 2017-18 college basketball season. The Stags roster includes student-athletes from Canada, Lithuania, Sweden, Democratic Republic of Congo, Serbia, Tunisia, Egypt, Kuwait, and the United States.

Notebook

On The Board: Olivier Cadieux posted his first stats of the 2017-18 season when he netted a pair of free throws and grabbed a rebound in the MAAC tournament first round game. The game represented his second appearance of the year, the first coming against Niagara at home.

Four On The Floor: Olivier Cadieux posted a career-high four rebounds in three different games as a freshman, beginning with the game at Wagner in mid-November. He also hit that mark at Rider and against Saint Peter's. For the season, Cadieux is the top returning rebounder among last year's freshman class, collecting 18 rebounds in 18 appearances.

Five Spot: Olivier Cadieux netted a personal best five points against Army West Point, making two of four field goal attempts with one coming from behind the three-point line. His next best scoring performance would be three points which he accomplished against Dartmouth, Rider, Bucknell, and Saint Peter's.

Scoreboard: Olivier Cadieux scored his first collegiate points with a first-half free throw at Dartmouth. The freshman later added a basket in the second half. He became the first member of the class of 2020 to score multiple points in a game in 2016-17.

Notebook

Starting Nod: Jerome Segura returned to the starting lineup against Monmouth on February 24, his first start since getting the nod against Manhattan on January 11. The senior made the most of his opportunity, netting 10 points for his first double-digit performance since securing a season-high 14 points at LIU-Brooklyn on December 10.

Segura 400: Jerome Segura became the latest Fairfield student-athlete to reach 400 career assists when he set up a three-point shot for Jesus Cruz in the first half of the Marist game (February 15) and now has 409 assists for his career. He is looking to move into ninth place on the Stags career assist list, and needs five more assists to surpass Johnnie Jones '94 (413 assists from 1990-94) who stands ninth in Fairfield history.

Finding His Niche: After his seven points against Niagara, Jerome Segura has posted five points or more in five of his 11 reserve appearances this season. The guard is shooting 46 percent from the floor (19 of 41) as well as 44 percent from three-point range (8 of 18) since becoming a reserve.

Season High: Jerome Segura tied his season-best with two three pointers at Niagara, tying his two three-pointers against Iona. His personal best is three three pointers which he accomplished twice, the last coming against Saint Peter's in January, 2017.

Back-To-Back: Jerome Segura tallied a season-high for scoring for the second straight game when he posted 14 points in the win at LIU Brooklyn. One game earlier, Segura netted 11 points against the University of Houston, his first double-digit effort of the season. Before the two-game run, the guard has tallied 14 total points through his first seven games. Over those two contests, Segura netted 12 of his 17 field goal attempts (.706) including a sizzling 7 of 9 at LIU Brooklyn.

Houston Homecoming: Jerome Segura made the most of his homecoming when he tallied 11 points at Houston. A Houston native, Segura made five of eight shots and his only free throw attempt to reach the point total. He also went 27 minutes without a turnover, dishing off one assist. Segura had scored 14 total points through the first seven games before reaching double figures

Notebook

For The Record: Tyler Nelson set the Fairfield University career scoring record when he netted his 2,007th point in the second half of the Quinnipiac game (February 17). He surpassed Tony George '86 who scored 2,006 points during his career, and checks into tonight's action with 2,147 points. Nelson became only the second Fairfield player to reach 2,000 career points when he made a free throw in the final minute against Marist to record the prestigious point.

MAAC Moment: Tyler Nelson enters today's game with 2,147 points which places him seventh all-time among the MAAC scoring leaders. He recently surpassed Rider's Jason Thompson '08 (2,040 points), Luis Flores '04 (2,046), Rider's Jerry Johnson '05 (2,047) and Siena's Doremus Bennerman '94 (2,109). LaSalle's Lionel Simmons '90 is the MAAC all-time leading scorer with 3,217 points.

#3 For Three: On February 10, Tyler Nelson made a three-point field goal with 7:20 left in the second half at Niagara which was his 282nd three pointer to become the program's all-time leader in three pointers made. Nelson eclipsed Derek Needham '13, who netted 281 three pointers during his career. Coming into this game, Nelson has 309 three pointers in his 126 games. He also set the school record for three pointers in a season with his second against Marist (March 1), pushing him past Mike Van Schiack's 88 three pointers set in 2006-07. Nelson enters today's game with 98 baskets from behind the arc.

National Player Of The Week: Tyler Nelson earned the Lou Henson National Player Of The Week as chosen by CollegeInsider.com after averaging 24.7 points in a 2-1 week (February 12-18). It was also the week in which he scored his 2,007th career point to set the school's career points record. Nelson posted 32 points in a double-overtime win against Quinnipiac and 29 points in a win over Marist. He started the week with 13 points at Canisius.

National Stats: Tyler Nelson enters tonight's game ranked 13th in the nation for scoring, averaging 22.1 points per game. Nelson also ranks nationally for free throw percentage. He also places 20th in free throw percentage (.887). He made 6 of 6 free throws against Quinnipiac, giving him 165 made charity tosses in 186 attempts. He ranks 29th in three pointers per game with 3.06 made per game (95 in 31 games). Ferron Flavors Jr. ranks 47th in three pointers per game (2.91).

Player Of The Week: Tyler Nelson earned his second MAAC Player of the Week award (February 5) after helping the Stags post a 2-0 record the previous week. The guard averaged 29 points per game, including a 32-point effort in the Stags' overtime win over Iona (103-100). He followed up with 26 points in the team's victory at Monmouth. For the week, Nelson shot 54 percent from the floor, 52 percent from three-point range and averaged 4.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game in the two games. He also secured the player of the week on November 14 after he netted 30 points in the team's win over Penn.

Top Dog: Tyler Nelson holds the lead in the latest MAAC scoring stats, checking into tonight's game with a 22.1 scoring average. The senior is one of two MAAC student-athletes averaging better than 20 points per game, holding a slight edge of Niagara's Khalil Dukes (21.2 ppg).

End Of A Streak: Tyler Nelson saw his consecutive free throw streak end with a miss against Rider (January 23), stopping the run at 34 charity tosses. He missed for the first time since January 11 when he went 2 for 3 at Manhattan. Trailing by two points with one second left in regulation, Nelson missed the first free throw and was forced to miss the second with the hopes of the Stags getting a tip in.

In The 30s: Tyler Nelson eclipsed the 30-point mark for the fourth time this season and the sixth time in his career when he scored 32 points in the overtime win against Iona. Earlier, the senior posted 35 points in 45 minutes of action at Marist, netting 11 field goals with five three pointers and eight free throws. The Stags own a 4-2 record in games in which Nelson reaches 30 points falling at Marist and in last year's postseason game against UMBC (30 pts).

Round Number: Tyler Nelson made five free throws at Iona on January 5 which sent him over 400 charity tosses made in his career and made him the fourth Stag to accomplish the task. He enters tonight's game with 492 career charity tosses. He surpassed Joe DeSantis (462) on the single-season free throws made list with his final charity toss against Quinnipiac (February 17). Mark Young '79 holds the school record with 543, followed by Tony George '86 (510).

It's Been A While: Senior Tyler Nelson tallied 30 points in the season opener against Penn, becoming the second Stag to score 30 points in a season opener. Mark Pleafka netted 36 points against Loyola University in the 1977-78 opener, a game which Fairfield won by a 100-89 count. The Stags almost had two 30-point scorers in that game as Kim Fisher netted 28 points in the victory. Tony George, Fairfield's all-time leading scorer, just missed the mark with 29 points in the 1984-85 season opener which ended in a victory over Marist.

Notebook

Career-High: Jonathan Kasibabu continues to show his inner point guard by dishing off a career-high four assists in the win against Monmouth last weekend. The big man has dished off 20 assists against nine turnovers over the last 13 games. In those 13 games, he has recorded no turnovers five times and one turnover seven times. His only multiple turnover game came at Canisius with two miscues. On the other hand, he has posted four games with three or more assists during that stretch.

Half Century: Jonathan Kasibabu picked up eight rebounds against Quinnipiac which pushed over 500 career rebounds. The junior has 172 offensive and 331 defensive rebounds in his 95 career games (5.4 rebounds per game). He grabbed a personal-best 181 rebounds as a freshman and currently stands with a team-high 148 caroms this year.

Number One: Jonathan Kasibabu currently leads the conference with his .680 field goal percentage. Over the last 13 games, Kasibabu made 52 of 67 field goal attempts (.776 field goal percentage) including his 1 for 2 performance vs Quinnipiac (March 4). Kasibabu also leads the MAAC in field goal percentage for conference games only, shooting 69.6 percent from the floor (64 of 92).

Off The Bench: Jonathan Kasibabu came off the bench for the first time this season and set a personal-best with 22 points in the double overtime win against Quinnipiac on February 17. He finished off his second double-double of the season with a career-best tying 15 rebounds in that game. The junior made 9 of 13 field goal attempts, including a three pointer.

New Role: Jonathan Kasibabu did not turn the ball over in his 16 minutes at Siena, the sixth time in 2017-18 that he did not commit a turnover. Over the last 12 games, the forward has 20 assists to nine turnovers in 266 minutes of action (January 20-March 1). Over those 12 games, Kasibabu is averaging 11.1 points (142 points) and 6.3 rebounds per game (75 rebounds).

Glass Wear: Jonathan Kasibabu secured 10 rebounds against Monmouth on February 24 the 10th time this season that he reached at least seven caroms in a game. Since December 17, Kasibabu has averaged 6.6 rebounds per game with 128 caroms in those games (December 17 to March 1) He remains the team's top rebounder with 5.4 per contest.

Double-Double: Jonathan Kasibabu picked up his third double-double of the season and the fifth career double-double with his 20 points and 10 rebounds against Monmouth in the regular-season finale.

Best Of The Bench: Matija Milin posted 15 points as a reserve against Niagara (January 20), nearly reaching his personal best of 19 points when he came off the bench against Manhattan as a freshman. The 15-point effort is the best by a Fairfield reserve since Kevin Senghore-Peterson netted 17 at Wagner on December 1. His seven field goals against the Purple Eagles tied for his season-high which he also accomplished against Loyola-Maryland.

10 Spot: Matija Milin picked up 10 points against Manhattan (January 11), his first game with 10 points since netting 11 against Saint Peter's in late December. He added a fifth double-digit scoring game with 15 points off the bench against Niagara. All five of Milin's double-digit games have come at home, where he is averaging 10.7 points per game (85 points in eight games).

More From Milin: Matija Milin just missed a double-double against Manhattan with nine points and eight rebounds against Manhattan, one game after he put together an impressive game with 11 points, seven rebounds, and a pair of assists against Saint Peter's. The junior continues to be one of the team's top rebounder with 4.7 caroms per contest.

Sweet 16: Matija Milin earned 16 points against Old Dominion, the ninth time in his career that he has tallied at least 16 points in a game. He just missed his season high of 18 points set against Loyola Maryland on November 14. Most of his points came from behind the line as his career-high four three pointers represented 12 of his 16 points.

On Board: Matija Milin has emerged as the one of the team's top rebounder so far, grabbing 4.8 caroms per contest. In comparison, Milin averaged a personal-best 4.1 rebounds per game last year, slightly higher than his 3.7 average as a freshman. He has been the team's top rebounder four times this year - Loyola Md. (11), Gardner-Webb (6 - co-leader), Wright State (8), and Houston (7).

Hall Pass: Matija Milin has posted nine multi-assist games this season, highlighted by a season-best three against both Penn and Gardner-Webb. Through the first 19 games, Milin has 23 assists, nearly reaching his total of 25 assists in 29 games a year ago. His career best total stands at 32 set in his freshman campaign which he accomplished in 31 games.

Double-Double: Matija Milin secured the season's first double-double for Fairfield with his 18-point, 11-rebound performance against Loyola-Maryland. The effort represented the forward's third career double-double, also picking one up against Columbia (10 points, 11 rebounds) as a freshman and another as a sophomore against UMBC (20 points, 12 rebounds) in last year's season finale.

Threepeat: Taj Benning picked up three rebounds against Marist (March 1), the sixth time that he has posted three rebounds or more in a game this year. It's the first time that he posted three rebounds in a game since hitting that mark against Rider in late January.

Little Bit Of Everything: Taj Benning came off the bench to score seven points at Niagara, his best scoring effort since netting a personal-best against Rider in late January. He has three games with seven or more points with the first two coming against the Broncs. Benning topped off his game at Niagara with a rebound, an assist, and a block.

Broncs Buster: Taj Benning posted a career-best eight points when the Stags hosted Rider on January 23. The point total surpassed his previous high of seven points, which was set when Fairfield traveled to Rider on January 5. Benning also established career-bests for three-point field goals (2), minutes (26) and tied his personal best with three assists.

Run Of Five: Taj Benning scored in five consecutive appearances for the first time when he extended his run with seven points at Niagara. He started the streak with a point against Niagara and added to it with a career-high eight points against Rider, and two points at Monmouth. The streak came to an end at Canisius when he went scoreless in five minutes.

Board Room: After not recording a rebound for the first time in his five appearances against Gardner-Webb, Taj Benning responded with a career-high five rebounds against Wright State on the following day. The freshman also picked up a personal-best three assists in that same game, both numbers coming as part of his career-high 25 minutes played.

Key Three: Taj Benning scored the first points of his Fairfield career with a three-point field goal against Penn. The freshman's long-range basket was part of the team's 15-1 run that turned a 12-point deficit into a two-point lead. Benning's basket tied the game before Jesus Cruz's jumper capped the run and gave the Stags the lead. The basket by Cruz also represented his first points as a Stag.

Before Fairfield: Taj Benning is a highly-decorated guard who looks to make an immediate impact as a freshman. As a sophomore at Bergen Catholic High School, Benning helped the basketball team capture the Bergen County championship, earning a spot on the All-Tournament team. He also received berths to the All-Big North Conference first team as well as the All-Bergen County second team. In his junior season, Benning also captured All-Tournament honors after leading the high school to a semifinal appearance. He ended the year with spots on the All-County and All-League first teams. As a senior, Benning garnered an honorable mention berth to the All-State team in addition to first team accolades for All-County and All-League. He was also honorable mention MSG Varsity Tristate.

Within Distance: Aidas Kavaliauskas handed off his 91st assist against Niagara and is just 18 away from catching Tyler Nelson who leads the team with 109 assists. Kavaliauskas (4.8 assists per game) will be playing in his 20TH game while Nelson (3.3 assists per game) will enter his 33rd game of the season today.

Deja Vu: Aidas Kavaliauskas recorded 14 points at Niagara, tying his career-high which he also set at Marist and versus Niagara at home. His numbers on Saturday were the same as his Marist shooting totals, netting 6 of 7 shots from the floor and both of his three-point field goal attempts.

Two Minute Warning: Over his 19 appearances this year, Aidas Kavaliauskas has only three turnovers in the final two minutes of games. He is also one of the team's top shooter in the final two minutes, making 55 percent of his tries (5 of 9) which trails Jonathan Kasibabu (5 of 7 - .714) and Omar El-Sheikh (.625 - 5 of 8).

Double-Double: Aidas Kavaliauskas picked up his third double-double with his 10 points and 12 assists against Iona on January 29. He also earned the distinction with his 14 points and 11 assists against Niagara as well as 14 points and 10 assists at Marist. The sophomore becomes the first Stag to register a double-double with assists this year and the first Fairfield student-athlete to accomplish the task since Tyler Nelson's 24 points and 12 assists in an overtime win at Quinnipiac on February 17, 2017.

Long Time Coming: Aidas Kavaliauskas posted a point-assist double-double in back-to-back games at Marist and against Niagara, the first Fairfield student-athlete to accomplish the task in 40 years. The last Stag to have back-to-back doubles with points and assists was Joe DeSantis, who registered 18 points and 10 rebounds against St. Joseph's and 12 points with 11 assists against St. Bonaventure in February 1978.

Rookie Of The Week: Aidas Kavaliauskas earned the MAAC Rookie of the Week award after helping the Stags end Niagara's five-game winning streak with his second straight double-double. He becomes the second Fairfield rookie to earn the honor, joining Wassef Methnani for the distinction. Kavaliauskas' 14 points and 11 assists were instrumental in the win, but six of those points were decisive. After Niagara turned an 18-point deficit into a six-point disadvantage, Kavaliauskas made back-to-back three pointers that doubled Fairfield's lead to 12 points and the Stags never led by less than 10 points after that point.

Dishin': Aidas Kavaliauskas did not have an assist against Quinnipiac (March 4), giving the freshman 91 assists in 19 appearances. He averaged 2.8 assists as a reserve but has more than doubled that total as a starter, dishing off 5.2 assists (83 assists) in his 16 starts to date. He has registered just 38 turnovers against his 91 assists so far.

In The Game: Aidas Kavaliauskas made his Fairfield debut in the Rider game, scoring six point with two assists and no turnovers in 16 minutes off the bench. The redshirt sophomore made both of his field goal attempts inside the arc and both of his free throw attempts.

Before Fairfield: Aidas Kavaliauskas brings an impressive basketball resume to Fairfield University, including a year at SPIRE Academy in Geneva, Ohio. Kavaliauskas, a 6-1, 175-pound guard, was named the Best Point Guard of the European Youth Basketball League in 2014. Kavaliauskas helped his team capture the Holland Nordic Tournament championship in 2013. His international experience includes playing with the Lithuanian Junior National Team in 2011. He was also a member of the European-A Championship Team in that same year. Also in 2011, he was selected to the Jordan Brand Classic Camp in 2011, which was for the top 50 players in Europe.

Eight Ball: Kevin Senghorn-Peterson picked up eight points at Marist (January 13), his best scoring performance since a career-high 17 points at Wagner and his third-best game total this year. He netted nine points at Purdue which was his career best until the New Hampshire game. His best scoring game since the Wagner performance was six points versus New Hampshire.

Eight Is Enough: Kevin Senghore-Peterson tied his career-high for rebounds with his eight caroms against New Hampshire, tying his total against Jacksonville on November 24. The effort comes one game removed from being shutout in the rebounding column by Old Dominion.

Line Up: Kevin Senghore-Peterson has found his touch from the free throw line in the Wagner and Houston games. Through his first six games, Senghore-Peterson went 0 for 4 from the line but rebounded with six free throws in his last eight attempts. He went 3 of 4 from the charity stripe at Wagner, and followed up with the same numbers at Houston.

Doubled Up: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson nearly doubled up his total during the first six games of the season in one evening as the forward established a personal best with 17 points against Wagner. Senghore-Peterson came off the bench and netted his points in 28 minutes of work, connecting on six of 10 field goal attempts which included a pair of three pointers in four attempts. He entered the game with 19 points through his first six games and only one three pointer in five tries.

On The Rebound: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson leads the team in offensive rebounding with 14 caroms in his eight appearances. Matija Milin is the next closest Stag with 12 offensive rebounds. He posted a personal best four offensive caroms against Purdue.

Slam Dunk: Freshman Kevin Senghore-Peterson won the slam dunk contest at the team's annual Red Sea Madness which officially tips off the basketball season on campus. The freshman used a variety of dunks to compete against his teammates but in the end the judges selected Senghore-Peterson as the best.

Before Fairfield: Kevin Senghore-Peterson brings a great deal of international experience to the Fairfield University basketball team, Start It Up: Wassef Methnani earned his second career start in the Marist game, his first nod since the game at Iona on January 7. With Methnani in the lineup, Fairfield's starting lineup included four first-year players among the five - Ferron Flavors Jr., Aidan Kavaliuskas, Jesus Cruz, and Methnani. In his two starts, Methnani is averaging seven points and four rebounds per game.

Off The Bench: Wassef Methnani posted 15 points against Niagara (March 3) which was best among reserves. It marked the sixth game in seven that he was the top scoring reserve, netting nine points against Siena, a co-leading six points at Monmouth (with Jerome Segura), nine points at Niagara, 18 points at Canisius, and eight against Marist (MAAC tournament).

From Long Range: Wassef Methnani added a three-point basket against Quinnipiac (March 4) and now the freshman has at least one three pointer in 10 of his last 17 games. On two occasions this year (Rider and Penn), Methnani recorded two three pointers in a game and reached double figures for scoring both times. He started his career by going 2 for 4 from behind the arc, leading to his career-high 20 points. Against Rider, he went 2 for 2 from three-point range and finished with 14 points. Over his last 15 games, Methnani has made 10 of 14 three-point tries.

First Timer: Wassef Methnani joined the Fairfield starting lineup for the first time when he received the nod at Iona on January 7. He responded with six points and six rebounds in his 21 minutes of work. It marked the second straight game in which Head Coach Sydney Johnson tinkered with the starting lineup, as Ferron Flavors Jr. rejoined the first five for the Rider game after coming off the bench for the prior nine games. Methnani becomes the second Fairfield freshman to earn a start, joining Jesus Cruz (nine starts) for that distinction.

All-Around Performance: Wassef Methnani enjoyed his best all-around game at Rider. The freshman set personal bests with nine rebounds and five assists as well as tying his career high with three blocks. He added eight points to his game total, his best offensive output since his nine points at LIU Brooklyn. He also made his fourth three pointer of the season and his first since November 25 against Gardner-Webb. For the season, Methnani is averaging 4.6 points and 3.8 rebounds per game.

Weekly Honors: Senior Tyler Nelson and freshman Wassef Methnani earned weekly honors from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) on Monday. Nelson secured the Player of the Week after scoring 30 points in the team's win over Penn. Methnani collected the Rookie of the Week following his 20-point, eight-rebound debut against the Quakers.

Dynamic Debut: Wassef Methnani registered 20 points in his first game as a Stag, the best single-game scoring performance by a freshman in a season opener since Kyle Commodore posted 22 points in his debut in the 1995-96 campaign. Commodore scored all but one of his points from behind the three-point arc, making seven of nine shots from long range. Methnani connected on 8 of 13 shots from the field including two three pointers against Penn, which helped him earn MAAC Rookie of the Week.

Teammates: Omar El-Sheikh and Wassef Methnani were teammates before sharing the floor at Fairfield. The two student-athletes came to Fairfield after spending time at The Knox School and being part of the school's first men's basketball teams.

Before Fairfield: Wassef Methnani joins the Fairfield University men's basketball program after spending last season at The Knox School. He played at Knox along with current teammate Omar El-Sheikh. Methnani developed into one of the program's top big men, especially with his defensive abilities. The forward was among the team's top shot blockers at The Knox School. He brings international experience to the program, having represented Tunisia in several international tournaments, including a 14-point, five-rebound effort against Rwanda in the FIBA AfroBasket 2017 tournament.

National Stats: Ferron Flavors moved into the top 50 in Division I for three pointers made per game. He currently averages 2.91 three-point field goals made every forty minutes which places 49th in the nation.

Up A Notch: Tyler Nelson and Ferron Flavors Jr. have now combined for 191 three pointers this season holds the eighth best teammate total in Division I this year. Wofford's Fetcher Magee (134 three pointers) and Nathan Hoover (62 three pointers) lead the nation (196 combined three-pointers).

Record Players: Tyler Nelson set the school record for most three pointers in a season with his second three-point field goal against Marist on March 1. He enters the Iona game with 98 shots from beyond the arc, surpassing Mike Van Schaick's mark of 88 set during the 2006-07 season. Ferron Flavors Jr. also surpassed Van Schaick's mark as the sophomore starts the day with 93 three pointers after netting four against Quinnipiac.

First Year First: Ferron Flavors Jr. became the first first-year Stag to net 70 three pointers in a season with his four long-range jumpers at Niagara. He enters tonight's action with 85 three pointers in 30 games. Jermaine Clark (69 in 1998-99) had the highest single-season total for a first-year player. Flavors Jr. also surpassed Tyler Nelson (64 in 2014-15), Derek Needham (58 in 2009-10), Kyle Commodore (51 in 1995-96), and Mike Evanovich (50 in 2006-07) on his ascent. Clark, Nelson, Needham, and Commodore were all freshmen. Evanovich was a sophomore transfer like Flavors Jr.

Double Double: Ferron Flavors Jr. posted his first double-double as a Stag when he registered 16 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Marist. He fell a rebound short in two other bids for a double-double, picking up 11 points and nine rebounds against Loyola-Maryland and 14 points with nine caroms at Niagara.

Team Leader: Ferron Flavors Jr. secured a team-best seven rebounds at Siena, the fourth time in a stretch of six games that the sophomore led the team in that category. He had not been a leading rebounder all season until accomplishing the task against Siena (six rebounds), at Niagara (nine rebounds), versus Marist (10 rebounds) and at Siena. His 10 caroms against Marist represented a career high, surpassing nine rebounds at Niagara and in the team's win over Loyola-Maryland. Flavors Jr. averages 3.3 rebounds per game.

Finding Ferron: Ferron Flavors Jr. posted his 20th double-digit game with his 14 points at Siena on February 21. The sophomore has 15 games as a starter with 10 or more points and another five games in double figures as a reserve. Since returning to the starting lineup 16 games ago, Flavors Jr. is averaging 12.6 points per game (201 points).

Before Fairfield: Ferron Flavors Jr. comes to the Fairfield University basketball program after spending last season with Stone Mountain Community College. During his stay, Flavors averaged 17.6 points and an assist per game during his 28 appearances. The guard netted 20 or more points in 12 games a year ago, posting a season high 28 points three times. His last 28-point effort came in a 126-123 triple overtime win against Tohono O'odham Community College, netting eight of his 12 three-point field goal attempts. He played scholastic basketball at Federal Way High School where he averaged 12 points and three rebounds per game as a senior, helping the team capture its second straight Washington state championship. He was named to the All-State Tournament team and named the tournament most valuable player in 2016. He earned first team All-City honors and was a member of the Associated Press All-State team (honorable mention).

Career High: Jesus Cruz collected a personal-best 13 rebounds in the team's MAAC tournament win against Marist, his second double-digit rebounding performance this year. He tallied a double-double with 21 points and 10 rebounds against Quinnipiac in January which represented his previous high for rebounding.

40/40: Jesus Cruz currently has 51 steals this season, making him a 40/40 player along with his 44 assists. He is the first Stag to have a 40/40 season since Tyler Nelson recorded 95 assists and 44 steals during the 2015-16 season. Cruz is also the first freshman to have a 40/40 season with assists and steals since Derek Needham posted 177 assists and 60 steals in his 34 starts during the 2009-10 campaign.

Buzzer Beater: Jesus Cruz scored the game-deciding points with two seconds remaining in regulation at Monmouth, lifting the Stags to a 79-78 win. The freshman finished the game with 13 points along with two assists and two steals.

Double-Double: Jesus Cruz registered his first career double-double with a career-high 21 points and a personal-best 10 rebounds against Quinnipiac on January 27. The freshman also added four steals in the game which was one off his career high. Cruz becomes the first Fairfield freshman to register a double-double this season.

Back On Track: After going without a steal for three straight games, Jesus Cruz has registered 29 steals in the next 18 outings including a career-best five steals at Manhattan. Cruz recorded at least one steal in each of his first eight games for a total of 17 before coming up empty against LIU Brooklyn, Old Dominion, and New Hampshire. The guard currently averages 1.6 steals per game which places him for fourth in the MAAC.

Cruzin': Jesus Cruz posted his first game without a turnover when he went 30 minutes against Houston without a miscue. Cruz has registered one turnover or less in 18 of his 32 appearances, including eight of the last 11 contests. In his two games against majors, Cruz had one turnover in 56 minutes of work (1 in 26 minutes vs Purdue, 0 in 30 minutes vs. Houston). In road games, Cruz has 10 turnovers in 215 minutes of work.

First Time: Guard Jesus Cruz earned his first career start in the Gardner-Webb game and responded by setting personal bests with 11 points and six rebounds as well as tying his career high with four steals. The freshman also played all 40 minutes in the game, the first time that he went the distance in a contest. Cruz received the nod in lieu of Ferron Flavors Jr., who started the first four games.

Foursome: Jesus Cruz accounted for four of the Stags' five steals at Purdue, becoming the most steals by a Stag since Jerome Segura picked up four steals against Boston College and Penn in consecutive games last season. The total was the most by a freshman since Curtis Cobb posted four steals against Marist during the 2015-16 season. Earlier that season, freshman Jerry Johnson Jr. accumulated five steals in the win over Maryland-Eastern Shore.

FIBA Foes: Omar El Sheikh and Jesus Cruz matched up in their respective countries' first FIBA tournament game over the summer with Egypt edging Puerto Rico in a tournament played in Egypt.

Before Fairfield: Jesus Cruz comes off a successful stint with Puerto Rico at the FIBA U-19 tournament, helping his team placed ninth in the championship tournament. He finished eighth in scoring with a 13.4 scoring average and second in steals for the tournament. The guard attended St. Francis School in Puerto Rico before enrolling at Immaculata-LaSalle High School in Miami. From there, Cruz spent a year at the Loomis Chaffee School where he also played basketball.

First & Last: Omar El-Sheikh secured six rebounds as a reserve in the Monmouth game last weekend, tying his high for a home game. He also grabbed six caroms in the MAAC opener against Saint Peter's. El-Sheikh has been consistent on the boards regardless of location this year, averaging 3.0 rebounds at home (27 in nine games) and 2.8 caroms on the road (28 in 10 games).

Pairing Up: Omar El-Sheikh came off the bench to score eight points and grab a team-high eight rebounds at Canisius, his best single-game total since securing a career-best nine caroms against Wagner in his collegiate debut. The performance also marked the second time he led the team in rebounding for a game, also hitting the mark at Wagner. El-Sheikh averages 3.3 rebounds per game away from campus (33 in 10 games) and 2.6 per game at home (26 in six games).

Shooter's Touch: Omar El-Sheikh has found his touch from the floor as of late, making 20 of his last 36 field goal attempts (.568) over the last 11 games which includes a career-best seven field goals in nine attempts against Iona on January 29.

Career High: Omar El-Sheikh recorded a career-high for scoring when he came off the bench to register 15 points against Iona on January 29. The effort was his third double-digit game, an 11-point night at Wagner in his debut and an 11-point game against Saint Peter's in his MAAC debut. Against Iona, he made seven of nine shots and also added a personal-best two steals in 18 minutes.

Dynamic Debut: Fairfield witnessed another dynamic debut in the Wagner game as Omar El-Sheikh played his first game as a Stag. The freshman just missed a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds along with three assists, three blocks, and a steal without a turnover in 24 minutes of work. In the season opener, Wassef Methnani turned heads with his dynamic debut that included 20 points, eight rebounds, and three blocks.

Teammates: Omar El-Sheikh and Wassef Methnani were teammates before sharing the floor at Fairfield. The two student-athletes came to Fairfield after spending time at The Knox School and being part of the school's first men's basketball teams.

Head Coach Sydney Johnson

Sydney Johnson became the 12th head coach to oversee the Fairfield University men's basketball program when he was introduced in April, 2011. Johnson joined the Stags program after spending four seasons as the head coach at his alma mater Princeton University.

Head Coach Sydney Johnson begins his seventh season at Fairfield University, leading the Stags to the postseason in four of those campaigns. The 2011-12 Stags reached the MAAC Tournament Championship game, the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) semifinals, and defeated Arizona State, Old Dominion, and Iona, among others, en route to a 22-win season. In 2012-13, the Stags earned another postseason berth as a participant in the 2013 CIT.

Fairfield posted 41 victories under Coach Johnson in his first two seasons and 90 wins overall. His 41 wins through his first two campaigns ties him for the most by any Fairfield men's basketball coach through his first two seasons. The Stags three postseason wins in 2012-13 were the most by any team in school history. Fairfield also led the MAAC in scoring defense at 61.1 ppg in his inaugural season.

Since his arrival, seven Fairfield student-athletes have signed professional contracts, namely Rakim Sanders (Israel), Ryan Olander (Lithuania), Derek Needham (Lithuania), Colin Nickerson (Canada), Maurice Barrow (Austria), Marcus Gilbert (Italy), and Amadou Sidibe (Spain).

At Princeton, Johnson led the Tigers to the 2010-11 Ivy League championship and an automatic berth to the NCAA tournament. Princeton took the University of Kentucky to the final seconds before dropping a 59-57 decision in the NCAA tournament second round. It marked the second straight season that the program advanced to postseason play, playing in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2009-10. During his tenure, Johnson owned a 66-53 record as the Tigers' head coach.

Johnson helped turn around the Princeton program in his four-year stay as the Tigers posted a 6-23 overall record and a 3-11 Ivy League slate in his first season. After improving to 13-14 overall and 8-6 in Ivy play in 2008-09, Johnson led Princeton to its first 20-win season since 2004 when the team finished the year with a 22-9 overall record. This year, the Tigers tied the second-highest win total in Princeton history with a 25-7 mark.

Under his guidance, Princeton has become one of the top defensive teams in the country. The Tigers led the nation in scoring defense during the 2009-10 season, allowing fewer total points (1652) and fewest points per game (53.3) than any other Division I team that year.

Johnson was named the Ivy League Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com following the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons.

Before taking over the Princeton program, Johnson was an assistant coach at Georgetown University under John Thompson III. He helped the Hoyas advance to the program's first Final Four in 22 years. Georgetown owned a 30-7 record that season, winning the Big East regular season and tournament titles. Georgetown advanced to the postseason in all three of his years as an assistant coach which included two NCAA tournaments and one NIT berth.

Johnson also experienced postseason play as a student-athlete, leading the Tigers to the NCAA tournament during the 1995-96 and 1996-97 seasons. In the 1996 tournament, Princeton upset defending national champion UCLA to advance to the second round.

As a student-athlete, Johnson earned the 1997 Ivy League Player of the Year as well as an All-Ivy League first team honors in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He is the only three-time captain in Princeton men's basketball history. He earned an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship in 1997, but decided to continue his basketball career overseas.

He was a starter for Gorizia Pallacanestro in Italy and helped the team capture the Italian Second Division championship. The following season, he was part of another championship team as Reggio Calabria won the league title.
