Quick Hits

Southern Miss heads to New Rochelle, N.Y., to take part in the Iona Tuckey Tip-Off on November 27-28. Southern Miss faces Drexel on day one of the invitational before taking on the winner of Iona and UMBC.

Southern Miss and Drexel will play each other for the first time on Friday.

Head coach Missy Bilderback enters her second season leading Southern Miss and fourth overall in Division I after guiding the Lady Eagles to a 15-16 overall record and an 8-10 conference mark in 2025-26.

A new-look Lady Eagle squad features six returners from last season and eight newcomers. Southern Miss used the portal to bring in five Division I transfers, including four who played in the Sun Belt last season, while adding two junior college transfers and two high school signees.

Overall: 5-2 | Sun Belt: 0-0
Home: 5-1 | Away: 0-1 | Neutral: 0-0

Missy Bilderback was named as the fifth head coach in Southern Miss women's basketball program history on March 23, 2025. A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., and alumna of The University of Southern Mississippi, Bilderback's return home was a dream realized in more ways than one.

While prepping at Forrest County Agricultural High School (Brooklyn, Miss.) just outside of the Hub City, Bilderback routinely attended some of Southern Miss' greatest games at Reed Green Coliseum. As some of the greatest Lady Eagles to ever wear the uniform made their way through Hattiesburg, Bilderback looked on from the stands.

After making her collegiate debut at Pearl River Community College (Poplarville, Miss.), Bilderback's admiration for Southern Miss and Coach Kay James only grew stronger. After a two-season career at the River that earned her the best female athlete award in 1998, she enrolled at Southern Miss and quickly got involved with the Lady Eagle program, soaking up every moment around James and her Lady Eagles.

While assisting the Lady Eagles on and off the court, Bilderback's love for basketball continued to push her towards her next step. In 1999, the first step on a decades-long path came from a surprising source: Presbyterian Christian School. At that time, PCS was a small, single-A member, of the Mississippi Private School Association, and not an ideal starting spot for a young coach with aspirations of coaching at the highest levels.

However, with James' support and encouragement, Bilderback – just a senior in college at the time – took a leap of faith and accepted the offer to become the school's first girl's basketball coach. Over the next 16 years, Bilderback and the Bobcats grew together and reached heights once thought unreachable.

Slowly but surely, the college senior became a college graduate while the rookie head coach became one of the best in Mississippi. Bilderback compiled a 482-117 overall record with the Bobcats while leading the Bobcats to six MPSA/MAIS State Championships and two overall MAIS crowns in 2008 and 2014.

In 14 of their 16 seasons under Bilderback, the Bobcats posted at least 20 wins. Her success with PCS saw her earn praise from around the region. Bilderback was named the Hattiesburg American's Coach of the Year five times (2002, 2005, 2007, 2013, 2014) and coached in four MAIS All-Star Games (2001, 2003, 2006, 2016).

Eventually, it was time to make the move to the next level. Already an established entity in the high school prep circuit, Bilderback's next move and what followed it made her truly stand out from her peers. In 2015, she accepted a job at Jones County Junior College (Ellisville, Miss.) as the program's associate head coach. However, following the retirement of JC's head coach, Bilderback assumed the head role on April 29, 2015.

When she accepted the job in 2015, Jones had never been to the NJCAA National Tournament, nor had they captured an NJCAA Region 23 Tournament Title. Her first year in Ellisville was not quite one to silence the few critics that remained. Jones' record improved by just one game and the Bobcats once again fell out of the league tournament and did not win a game at the NJCAA Region 23 Tourney either.

After one year on the job, Bilderback assembled her first full signing class and did nothing short of the miraculous. The 2016-17 Jones Bobcats re-wrote the program's history books with a 30-2 season and 13-1 ledger in MACJC play, netting Bilderback and her squad the MACJC South Division title. At the league tournament on their home floor, Bilderback's squad finished a perfect 3-0 to claim the championship and continued their hot streak into the Region 23 Tournament, sweeping their way to the Region title and the program's first-ever berth in the NJCAA Tournament.

Bilderback's squad did more than just make the tournament, their statement-making season continued all the way to the Elite Eight before Jones ultimately fell 81-75 to Salt Lake City. Not just a flash in the pan either, Bilderback's breakout 2016-17 campaign was just the start of a seven-year stretch of domination in Ellisville.

From 2016 until 2023, Bilderback's squads won no less than 20 games and no fewer than 24 games in seasons not affected by COVID-19. The Bobcats rattled off seven-straight NJCAA Tournament appearances thanks to seven-consecutive Region 23 Tournament Championships. Her 2022 squad advanced to the Elite Eight again while the 2023 group set a program record and fought to the final four in Lubbock, Texas.

Her prowess in Ellisville netted her a 198-33 overall record with a gaudy 110-11 mark in MACJC/MACCC play. In eight seasons leading Jones, 30 Bobcats were named to All-MACCC teams while 20 were named to All-Region 23 teams. Twelve Bobcats earned NJCAA All-American laurels, highlighted by First Team All-Americans Alexis Tolefree (2017), Daishai Bradford (2022) and Sakyia White (2023).

In addition to their success at the junior college level, 44 players were able to earn spots on four-year rosters, including 40 on Division I squads. One of the best talent evaluators in the region and a proven talent developer, Bilderback earned the respect of coaches from around the country and fended off multiple offers to move to the next level.

Finally, after her Final Four run in 2023, Bilderback made the move to the Division I level. On March 29, 2023, she accepted the job at ULM, another program longing for success. In the previous four seasons, the Warhawks had won just 17 combined games and had not posted a winning record since 2011.

After assembling her first ULM squad – many her former stars at Jones – Bilderback quickly proved herself as one of the best turnaround coaches in the industry. A season-opening setback against Arkansas was followed by eight-straight victories, already the best in the last five years just nine games into the campaign.

The winning streaks continued, including a six-game unbeaten streak in the heart of Sun Belt Conference play that placed ULM within reach of one of the top spots in the Sun Belt Tournament. Entering the tournament, the Warhawks held the fifth seed and had not won in the conference postseason in seven years. Bilderback won her first game in the conference tournament and gave ULM its first quarterfinals appearance since 2013.

While ULM did fall short in pursuit of a conference tournament championship, the Warhawks did receive and accept a bid to play in the 2024 Postseason WNIT. ULM earned a first round bye and grabbed its first postseason win in 39 years in dominate fashion over Grambling State.

Bilderback knocked Southern Miss' Magnificent Seven out of the tournament in the next round to advance to the Postseason WNIT's Great Eight. ULM fell to Troy to end their postseason run, though the trip to the Great Eight was the program's best postseason since 1985.

ULM took a step back in 2024-25 but still managed to win 11 games and post a 7-11 Sun Belt Record. In two years in Monroe, Bilderback had won 32 games – the most in a two-year stretch at ULM since 2005. ULM earned three spots on All-Sun Belt Conference teams as Daisha Bradford (2024 second team) and Jakayla Johnson (2024 third team, 2025 first team) made names for themselves in the Sun Belt. Bradford also earned SBC Newcome of the Year honors in 2024 while Kaitlyn Manuel was named as the league's Sixth Woman of the Year

Bilderback is married to Chip Bilderback, a native of El Centro, Calif., and current head football coach at Columbia High School. The two have one son, Drew.

LAST TIME OUT

Southern Miss saw a 24-game win streak over nonconference opponents at home come to an end on Sunday, falling to Mississippi State 90-73.

The Lady Eagles trailed by four at the end of the first period, but big quarters in the second and third by the Bulldogs allowed State to pull away. Southern Miss did outscore State 24-19 in the final stanza.

Southern Miss had three players log ten or more points, led by Hayleigh Breland with 19, while Whitney Hart posted a season-high 13 points, and Jada Gay had 11.

ABOUT SOUTHERN MISS

Southern Miss is coming off of a 15-16 season that saw them finish with a 8-10 record in Sun Belt Conference play and a quick exit in the first round of the league tournament.

Six palyers return from last year's Lady Eagle squad and are bolstered by nine newcomers. Bilderback's staff remains the same from last year with her associate head coach Lauren Pittman back and assistant Jonathan Williams and assistant coach Lauren Gross as well as Southern Miss' director of operations Mack Gardner.

The scoring starts with Hayleigh Breland, who has eclipsed double-figure points in all seven games this season and is averaging a team-high 16.4 points per game. Breland is shooting at a 50.0 percent clip from the field and has posted a team-high 12 three-pointers on 42.9 percent from deep. The graduate guard is also the Black and Gold's top facilitator with 28 assists dished out, including 15 in her last three games.

Kylie Marshall and Chrysta Narcisse have backed Breland in the scoring efforts, as the pair are averaging 9.6 and 8.0 points per game. As a team, Southern Miss is averaging 72.4 points per game and has scored 70 or more points in all but one game this season. The Lady Eagles' shooting has picked up over the last three games, as the team shot 32.3 percent from the field through the first three games and has since averaged a 44.8 percent mark from the floor in their last four games.

Southern Miss was recently held to its lowest rebound total against Mississippi State, recording 32 boards. The Black and Gold have pulled down 323 rebounds this season and are averaging 46.1 per game, including 15.8 offensive rebounds. Narcisse paces the side at the glass with 7.0 rebounds per game, while Whitney Hart leads the team with 17 offensive rebounds and is averaging 5.6 rebounds per contest.

ABOUT DREXEL

Drexel has won its last two games, with wins over American and Loyola (MD), to move to 3-3 on the season. The Dragons are led by head coach Amy Mallon, who enters her seventh season leading Drexel and is 123-67. Last season, Mallon helped guide the Dragons to the WNIT for the third time in her career and the program's third time. Drexel has also won the CAA championship twice under her leadership.

The Dragons have two players averaging 10 or more points per game, led by Lanie McGurk at 13.0. McGurk has accounted for 11 of the team's 36 three-pointers, as the senior guard is shooting 37.9 percent from deep, while also converting 40.8 percent from the field. At the glass, Molly Lavin leads Drexel with 6.3 rebounds per game, including a team-high 12 offensive boards, while Julia Garcia Roig is the team's main facilitator with 38 assists.

RECAPPING THE 2025-26 SEASON

In Head Coach Missy Bilderback's first season, she and the Lady Eagles saw early success, winning the first six games of the season. Southern Miss carried a 7-3 record into the first conference game of the season, and coach Bilderback and the Lady Eagles would win their first two SBC games against South Alabama and Louisiana.

The middle of the conference slate proved tough for Southern Miss, as the team suffered four straight defeats in January before getting back to winning ways in an overtime win over Old Dominion.

Southern Miss picked up three wins in its last five regular-season games to earn a berth in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament, where they met ULM in the first round. The Lady Eagles led at halftime 41-40, but a charge by the Warhawks in the second half saw ULM capture the win 89-72.

Southern Miss finished the year 15-16 overall and 8-10 in conference play in Coach Bilderback's first year leading the Lady Eagles.

WHO'S BACK

Southern Miss returns six players for the 2026-27 season with the departure of eight players from last year's squad.

All five returners played in ten or more games, while Hayleigh Breland and Whitney Hart started in at least 15 games, led by Breland's 30 starts.

Breland brings back the most experience, as she played and started 30 games in her first season wearing black and gold. Breland was one of the tone setters for Southern Miss last season, starting and creating for the offense, with 32 steals and 67 assists. The graduate guard from Wiggins, Miss., was also one of the top scorers for Southern Miss, averaging 11.7 points per game on 37.1 percent shooting from the field.

Hart brings size and a physical presence near the basket for the Southern Miss squad after leading the team in rebounds last year with 152. Hart pulled down a team-high 78 offensive rebounds across 25 appearances in 2025-26. Additionally, the Baton Rouge, La., native provided a strong presence on the defensive end of the court, recording 11 blocks and 23 steals.

Ramiah "Moonie" Augurson was the lone freshman on the squad for the Golden Eagles in 2025-26 and made 29 appearances.

team's five returns. The newcomers consist of five Division I transfers, two junior college transfers and two high school signees.

Both incoming freshmen are Mississippi products, with Jada Gay out of Starkville High School and Meg Barbour joining from Jackson Prep. Gay helped lead the Lady Jackets to a 2026 7A State Championship title, while Barbour was a two-sport standout, playing basketball and soccer.

The Golden Eagles have four transfers who are familiar with the Sun Belt, with the additions of Chrysta Narcisse from South Alabama, Nakiyah Allen from Old Dominion, Kylie Marshall from James Madison and Mariah Clayton from Old Dominion.

Narcisse, a Lafayette High School (Lafayette, La.) product, played three seasons at South Alabama and was a key figure in the Jaguars' run to the 2025-26 Sun Belt Conference Tournament quarterfinals, earning All-Tournament Team honors.

Allen began her collegiate career at Kilgore College, where she spent two seasons before transferring to Old Dominion in 2025-26. Allen is one of two Old Dominion transfers on the Southern Miss roster, as Clayton played two seasons with the Monarchs in 2024-25 and 2025-26. Marshall spent last season with James Madison following stops at SMU in 2024-25 and Texas A&M in 2023-24.

Kennedy Langham rounds out the Division I transfers for Southern Miss, joining the Black and Gold from Butler. Langham joined Butler in 2025-26 after spending two seasons at Samford, where she earned Southern Conference Freshman of the Year (23-24) and Southern Conference All-Freshman Team (23-24) honors. She also picked up All-Southern Conference Second Team honors in 2024-25.

Nadia Norfleet is one of two junior college transfers and enters her sophomore season, having started her collegiate career at Shelton State. Bruna da Silva is a junior transfer who joins Southern Miss after spending a season at Eastern Florida State College, following her freshman year at Garden City Community College (Kan.).

SBC PRESEASON POLL & AWARDS
Heading into her second season leading the Southern Miss women's basketball program, Head Coach Missy Bilderback and the Lady Eagles were voted tied for seventh in the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Poll.

Newcomer Chrysta Narcisse highlighted the Lady Eagles on the All-Conference Team, as the South Alabama transfer was voted Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference Third Team.

Last season at South Alabama, Narcisse averaged 8.2 points and 4.9 rebounds per game over 35 games, including 30 starts. Narcisse reached double-digit points in 13 games, including two 20-point outings, with a high of 24 points against Coastal Carolina (3/4).

SEEING DOUBLE
Chrysta Narcisse entered the 2026-27 season with zero career double-doubles after spending three seasons at South Alabama.

In her first three games at Southern Miss, she leads the team with two, picking up double-doubles against Mississippi Christian and Mississippi Valley State. Through the first three games, Narcisse is one of 32 players in Division I with multiple double-doubles this season.

Narcisse saw her first career double-double against Mississippi Christian (Nov. 2) with 11 rebounds and ten points, and later followed with a 13-point and ten-rebound outing in the win over Mississippi Valley State (Nov. 9).

IT'S A BLOCK PARTY
Southern Miss recorded 11 blocks in its win over Misssissippi Valley State (Nov. 9). The 11 blocks mark the most by a Southern Miss team since the 2002-03 season, when they recorded 11 blocks against ULM on November 14, 2002. Eight players recorded a block in the 75-55 win over MVSU, led by Jada Gay, Moonie Augurson and Kylie Marshall, who each had two denials.

THE NEW RGC

Southern Miss Athletics announced its new vision for the 61-year-old Bernard Reed Green Coliseum on May 1, 2024. Dubbed 'Reed Green Rising,' the plan for the new and improved RGC includes a myriad of fan- and player-focused upgrades, including a new north main entrance, improved box office, re-imagined south facade, practice facility, weight room and luxury suites.

Renovations also include two new scoreboards, wrap-around ribbon boards along the full circumference of the inner dome, 200 premium loge-style seats along the top of the bowl, 625 sideline premium seats, a new arena club level with drink rails and casual seating, updated concessions and restroom facilities, ADA accessibility improvements and a reduction in capacity from 8,095 to around 6,800.

The Coliseum just completed its 60th season of competition in 2024-25 and has gone largely unchanged since its first game outside of a minor renovation in 2009. The Reed Green Rising campaign will transform the overall and competitive experience at RGC. The project has an overall budget of around $43 million and is primarily funded by a $35 million bond measure approved by the Mississippi IHL Board in November 2023. Southern Miss will incur the remaining $7-8 million itself and pay off the expense with the City of Hattiesburg's 'Your Penny at Work' tax, which charges a one percent tax on transactions at Hattiesburg restaurants, hotels and motels with half of that percent going to Southern Miss for facility upgrades and the other half to the City's Parks & Recreation Office. Southern Miss' portion of the tax amounts to roughly $150,000 per month and around $1.8 million per year. For more on the tax and its efforts, visit yourpennyatwork.com.

In total, the renovation will add 33,000 square feet of new space to the cramped Coliseum footprint through new entrances and concourse additions. The project is finalizing its plans construction set to begin in a limited capacity in January 2026 and full-scale construction at the end of the 2025-26 season. Construction is slated to take no less than 24 months.

The long-awaited roof restoration was completed in late 2024, revitalizing the aging outer shell of the Coliseum. Visit ReedGreenRising.com for more information and to see the full renderings.

UP NEXT

Southern Miss will either play Iona or UMBC in the championship game at 12:30 p.m. CT on Saturday or in the consolation game at 10 a.m. CT.

REED GREEN COLISEUM

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Bernard Reed Green Coliseum has been home to Lady Eagle Basketball since the program's first season in 1975-76, and even served as home court for the club sport predecessor Southernettes before the first season of official sponsorship.

The Lady Eagles own a 522-206 all-time record on their home floor and have hosted 16 postseason games (13-3) at RGC as well as the 1985 Metro Conference Tournament where Southern Miss advanced to the final game. Southern Miss won its 500th game at Reed Green Coliseum on Nov. 7, 2024.

Southern Miss saw its 24 nonconfere home game win streak since Dec. 11, 2022 come to end against Mississippi State on Nov. 22, 2026. Overall, Southern Miss is 35-3 at home in nonconference since the start of the 2021-22 season.

Since its first home opener in Reed Green Coliseum in 1975, Southern Miss holds a 42-10 overall record in home-openers.

Southern Miss has won 13-straight home openers, last dropping the first game at RGC on Nov. 9, 2012, in 78-41 fashion to Hampton. The 2026-27 home-opener will also be the Lady Eagles' season-opener, marking the 32nd time Southern Miss will play its season-opener at home.

Southern Miss is now 26-7 all-time in season-openers in Hattiesburg. Four games have also been played as a variation of the Lady Eagle Classic (4-0).
