John Dunne (Ithaca '92)*Head Coach*12th Season

John Dunne enters his 12th season at the helm of the Saint Peter's University Men's Basketball team. He is coming off his most successful season at Saint Peter's since the MAAC championship in the 2010-2011 season, where his team earned an NCAA Tournament bid.

This past season was an exciting one with 23 wins (second highest in school history) and culminating with the program's first ever national post season tournament championship in the CollegeInsider.com Post Season

Tournament. The CIT proved to be challenging with three very difficult road victories. The Peacocks came from behind in all three road wins, including the championship game at Texas A&M Corpus Christi.

The Saint Peters Men's Basketball team also delivered the most wins in school history for a MAAC season with 14. They finished 14-6 in league play and second place overall.

The Peacocks had a very impressive 18-6 record after Jan. 1st, while winning 11 of their last 12 games.

The exciting year also brought about two All-MAAC selections in Quadir Welton (First Team) and Trevis Wyche (Second Team). The team was also rewarded with the program's first ever MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, Chazz Patterson. In addition, Welton was named as the CIT Most Valuable Player.

Over the course of the last three seasons, the Peacocks have had four wins in the MAAC Tournament including two semi-final appearances. They have had double digit wins in the MAAC in each of the last two years.

Dunne arrived at Saint Peters in May of 2006 and turned around the program in his first five years on campus, increasing the team's overall win total in each of those years. The program rose from five wins in year one to the program's first 20-win season since 1991 in year five including the 2011 MAAC Championship. Dunne also led the Peacocks to 11 MAAC wins in back-to-back years during the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, a first for the program since 1989.

In Dunne's time at Saint Peters, they have been one of the best defensive teams in the MAAC every year. The 2009-10 season saw the Peacocks limit their opponents to 37.7% shooting from the field. They would follow that up in 2010-11 limiting opponents to 37.6% shooting. Those numbers would be good for second in the NCAA both seasons. This past season the team finished 18th nationally in defensive efficiency. They were one of only eleven teams since 2001-02 to finish in the top 75 nationally in all four factors of defensive efficiency.

In his tenure at Saint Peters, Dunne has coached nine 1,000 point scorers, 13 All-MAAC selections, three All-Rookie selections, three All-MAAC Tournament selections including a MAAC Tournament MVP, four All-MAAC Academic honorees and a MAAC Defensive Player of the Year.

He has notable wins over Alabama, Seton Hall and an impressive 3-3 record versus Big Ten member, Rutgers.

Off the court, Dunne's commitment to his student-athletes' academics are unsurpassed. Dunne has graduated 100 percent of his recruits that have completed their eligibility at Saint Peter's.

Through various community service projects, Dunne has taught his players the importance and value of charity work. Peacock players and coaches have donated their time to local soup kitchens in Elizabeth, NJ as well as elementary schools in Jersey City, NJ. "Our philosophy is to develop our student-athletes not only as basketball players, but as active leaders in the community," said Dunne. "We are committed to developing the character of each individual in our program to prepare them for life after basketball."

Dunne's accomplishments, both on and off the floor at Saint Peter's have not gone unnoticed as he was named a finalist for the 2011 Skip Prosser Award. The Skip Prosser Award was established in 2008 to honor those who not only achieve success on the basketball court but who display moral integrity off of it as well.

Dunne was an assistant coach at Seton Hall University from 2001-06 before arriving in Jersey City. He helped guide the Pirates to two NCAA Tournaments and one NIT appearance.

Dunne spent two seasons at Siena College before arriving at Seton Hall. While there, the Saints won the MAAC Regular Season title in both seasons including posting an overall record of 44-20. The first season at Siena included an NIT bid where they advanced to the second round.

Prior to Siena College, Dunne spent one season as an assistant at Manhattan College and two seasons on the sidelines at Division II, Adelphi University. At Adelphi, Dunne worked on the staff for Steve Clifford (current Charlotte Hornets Head Coach). In Dunne's two seasons there, he helped Adelphi post a 43-17 record.

Dunne got his start in coaching at Division III, Wilkes University during the 1992-93 season. After two seasons at Wilkes, Dunne spent one year at Western Michigan University. He returned to Wilkes for the 1995-96 season which culminated with a trip to the Elite Eight and a 28-2 overall record.

Dunne was a four-year letter winner for the Ithaca College Men's Basketball team. He left the program as the Bombers all-time leader in steals and third all-time in assists. He currently sits fourth and fifth respectively. He also ranks on the single season steal list sitting in second place after recording 60 steals as a senior.

A Queens, NY native, Dunne played his high school basketball for legendary head coach Jack Curran at Archbishop Molloy High School. He earned a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Ithaca College in 1992 and a Master's degree in Sports Management at East Stroudsburg University in 1996.

SAINT PETER'S PEACOCKS NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

Davauhnte Turner (30 points) and Cameron Jones (14 points) combined for 44-points to lead the Saint Peter's men's basketball team to a 70-66 comeback victory over Marist on Thursday night in the Yanitelli Center. The Peacocks outscored the Red Foxes 25-10 over the final 7:28 to give the Peacocks their fourth MAAC victory of the season.

NEXT UP

The Peacocks will be away from Jersey City for the next three contests to close out the 2017-18 regular season before returning home for the regular season finale. The three-game road stretch begins on Tuesday, February 13 with a meeting against hOURglass Rival Monmouth at 7 p.m. on ESPN3.

JOHN D-FENSE

After finishing fourth in the country in scoring defense last season, John Dunne's squad is back among the nation's best in the category this year. The Peacocks are again at the forefront of the MAAC defensively, as Dunne's teams have been for the past four seasons, dating back to 2013-14. Saint Peter's currently leads the conference in scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, and turnover margin.

AMONG THE MAAC LEADERS

Nick Griffin ranks in scoring (13th), and three-point field goals made (ninth). Taylor ranks in rebounding (11th), free throw percentage (14th), and defensive rebounding (eighth). Elijah Gonzales ranks in steals (fifth). Samuel Idowu ranks in scoring (25th), in rebounding (19th), in free throw percentage (seventh), in blocked shots (third), and in offensive rebounds (14th). Davauhnte Turner ranks in scoring (19th).

CLIMBING THE ALL-TIME LADDER

Head coach John Dunne (149) currently ranks third on the Saint Peter's men's basketball all-time wins' list, trailing only Don Kennedy (323) and Ted Fiore (151).

DEFENSE (SPU) TRUMPS OFFENSE (NIAGARA)

When the top defense in the MAAC met the top offense in the MAAC, the defense of the Peacocks prevailed as Saint Peter's shut down Niagara in a 58-52 win (February 2). The Peacocks held the Purple Eagles to their lowest field percentage (.271), lowest point total in a half (18 points) in the first half, lowest game point total (52), and second lowest 3-point field goal percentage (.179) and assists total (6) of the season. The Niagara tandem of Kahlil Dukes and Matt Scott, who entered the game ranked second and third on the MAAC scoring chart respectively, combined scoring average was 41.8 points per game, but they were held to a combined point total of 26 points in the game.

MULTIPLE OVERTIMES, MULTIPLE TIMES

The Peacocks have played in two multi-overtime games this season, having gone into double-overtime at Elon (December 2) and triple-overtime at Siena (January 29). For the fourth time ever, the Peacocks played in a triple-overtime game and for just the third time in the programs history, Saint Peter's played in multiple, multi-overtime games in one season. The Peacocks previously played in three triple-overtime games in 1965-66, 1987-88, and 1990-91, only coming out victorious against Loyola in 1990-91. During the latter seasons of 87-88 and 90-91, the Peacocks also played in more than one multi-overtime games, having played in two double-overtime games in 87-88 and having played in one double-overtime contest in 90-91 in addition to the triple-overtime games.

DOWN, BUT NOT OUT BY MID-POINT OF MAAC SLATE

By the halfway point of the conference season, the Peacocks were 2-7, but the team's record did not tell the full story. The Peacocks held a two or more-point possession lead in eight out of the nine games, double-digit leads in five out of the nine contests, and led at the half in four out of the nine MAAC games. During the five game losing-streak to end the first half of the MAAC schedule, the Peacocks led at the half and by double-figures in three of the five games.

TURNER TAKING OVER
