CAROLINE MCCOMBS

FOURTH SEASON
YOUNGSTOWN STATE '98

Caroline McCombs completed her third season as the head coach of the Stony Brook women's basketball team in 2016-17, as the Seawolves head coach has risen among the winningest coaches in Stony Brook's Division I era.

McCombs has won 51 games on Long Island, the second most among Stony Brook coaches in the Division I era. The Seawolves featured a top-40 scoring defense in 2016-17, as Stony Brook stifled opponents from beyond the arc, allowing the third-fewest three-pointers in the nation. Stony Brook held 20 of 30 opponents to 60 points or less during the campaign. McCombs coached a senior backcourt tandem of Kori Bayne-Walker, a 1,000-point scorer and the program's all-time leader in assists, and Christa Scognamiglio, who in just three years on campus ranked among the top three-point shooters in program history.

At Stony Brook, McCombs has groomed five players into all-conference selections. Sabre Proctor was selected to the all-conference first team in 2014-15, while Kori Bayne-Walker made the second team and Brittany Snow landed on the third team. In 2015-16, Snow improved to earn second-team recognition, while Bayne-Walker was a second-team selection in 2016-17.

In 2015-16, McCombs became the first coach in Stony Brook Division I history to lead her team to two postseason appearances, finishing 17-15 and accepting a bid to the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) for the second consecutive season. McCombs collected her first career win in the America East Tournament when the Seawolves beat Hartford 60-42 in the America East Quarterfinals on March 5.

Two members from coach McCombs' first recruiting class (Ogechi Anyagaligbo and Davion Wingate) landed on the America East All-Rookie team in 2015-16 with Anyagaligbo earning America East Rookie of the Year. She became the first freshman to lead the America East in rebounding since the 2005-06 season.

In her first season in 2014-15, McCombs led the Seawolves to 17 overall wins and 10 wins in the America East Conference. She also guided Stony Brook to only the third postseason berth in program history, as the program was selected to participate in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI).

Under McCombs, the Seawolves were 12-3 in the new Island Federal Credit Union Arena, including a 68-64 home victory over America East champion Albany.

McCombs squad is not only excelling on the court, but in the classroom as well. Her 2014-15 team earned the NCAA Public Recognition Award, given to programs that score in the top 10% in Academic Progress Rate (APR) in their respective sports. Two players also earned America East All-Academic Team selections.
