LAST TIME OUT

Sacred Heart put on a defensive showcase to defeat Manhattan by a 61-50 final on Thursday evening at the Pitt Center. The Pioneers got off to a strong start with an impressive first half, holding the Jaspers to 22 points in the opening 20 minutes, forcing 12 turnovers with 10 steals. The Pioneers never looked back after building a 31-22 halftime lead. Ny'Ceara Pryor led the way with a historic performance Thursday. The standout junior tallied a 24-point, 10-rebound, 11-steal triple-double. Her 11 steals are a new single-game program record. Amelia Wood also put on a show against Manhattan, tallying 15 points, three rebounds, three assists, and three 3-pointers in 34 minutes. Dianne Crespo López also crossed double figures with 10 points, her third 10+ point game as a first year.

OH WHAT A NIGHT

Pryor had one of the best performances in SHU women's basketball history on Thursday evening. The junior sensation set a new single-game program record with 11 steals, topping her own mark set earlier this season. She is now eight steals shy of tying the program record. Eleven steals are also tied for the second most in a game by a Division I player this season. Pryor also tallied her second career triple-double with 24 points, 10 rebounds and 11 steals. Pryor owns two of the three triple-doubles in program history. She also climbed to fourth on the SHU points leaderboard with 1,766.

SWIPER KEEPS SWIPING

Pryor continues to be one of the best defenders in the country, as she tied a program record with 10 steals against the Great Danes on Nov. 16. She continues to be one of the best defenders in the country, as she ranks third in DI with 3.93 steals per game and in total steals with 106.

1,500 CLUB

On Jan. 18, Pryor became the eighth player in program history to reach 1,500 career points, the first since Hannah Kimmel reached the milestone in 2017. After Saturday's win, Pryor passed Alisa Apo (1,551) for sixth on the program's all-time scorers leaderboard with 1,561 in her standout career. The next milestone for Pryor to reach would be to become the second player in program history to score 2,000 points, joining Amanda Pape (2,045) for this rarefied accomplishment.

FIRST MAAC POW NOD

On Monday, Dec. 9, Pryor became the first Pioneer to be tabbed as the MAAC Player of the Week. The conference recognized the junior guard for her outstanding showing in SHU's win over Morgan State at the Pitt Center. Pryor is no stranger to Player of the Week awards as she won the honor a whopping 10 times last season in the NEC, the most in the conference's history.

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

In the Pioneers' historic 2023-24 season, SHU was nearly unbeatable at home at the Pitt Center. Sacred Heart went 13-2, with one loss coming to Fairfield by five points in OT and Le Moyne by four points. The Pios were better on both sides of the ball, scoring 68.3 points at home and 65.5 on the road. Defense is where the team really shined, as they allowed 51.5 points at the Pitt and 60.6 away from it. SHU's scoring margin jumped from +4.9 on the road to +16.8 at home.

KIRBY SUPER STAR

Kirby had one of the best games of her young career at Hofstra. The sophomore forward tallied 16 points and 10 boards in her 30 minutes of playing time. The Chadds Ford, Pa., native was outstanding all over the court, tallying a pair of fastbreak layups, while also chipping in a game-high two blocks. Kirby last tallied a double-double against the University of Puerto Rico-Mayaguez on Nov. 23 of last season, when she racked up career highs of 21 points and 11 rebounds in a 31-point Pioneers' victory.

PRYOR KNOWLEDGE

Heading into her third collegiate season, SHU standout Pryor looks to add to her impressive list of accomplishments heading into her first season in the MAAC. Hopes are high for the junior guard, as she was named to the preseason watch list for the 2025 Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Award and was tabbed First Team Preseason All-MAAC. Last year, Pryor set the Pioneers' scoring record and led the NEC in points (18.7 PPG), assists (4.5 APG), steals (3.2 SPG, fourth in the country) and field goal percentage (46.4%). She also has two NEC Player of the Year and NEC Tournament MVP awards to her name.

WELCOME TO THE MAAC

The 2024-25 campaign will mark SHU's first as a full-time member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). With the addition of the Pios and Merrimack, the MAAC will feature 13 teams, which will include a natural rivalry for Sacred Heart with a pair of Connecticut schools with similar philosophies in Fairfield and Quinnipiac. After being a part of the Northeast Conference for the past 24 years, the Pios announced the move to a new league in October 2023. Sacred Heart tallied unrivaled success in the NEC, winning 73 team championships and a league-best nine Brenda Weare Commissioner's Cups for overall supremacy. SHU student-athletes have also been prolific in the classroom, winning four NEC institutional academic awards since 2015.

JESSICA MANNETTI, 12TH SEASON

Head Coach Jessica Mannetti enters the 2024-25 season, her 12th as the SHU women's basketball head coach, as one of the most decorated coaches in program history. Last year, she became the first coach in team history to lead the team to back-to-back conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. Mannetti was already the first coach in NEC history to win an NCAA Tournament game when she led the Pioneers to a 57-47 win over Southern in the NCAA First Four in 2023. Her other accolades include two NEC regular-season titles and three appearances in the WNIT. She was also named the 2015-16 NEC Coach of the Year. Sixteen Pioneers have earned All-Conference honors under Mannetti, including returners Pryor and Amelia Wood.

THE PITT IS BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

SHU fans will have to wait a little while to see their Pioneers hit the court at the Pitt Center this season, as both teams start the year with extended road trips. Dave Bickel Court in the Pitt Center has undergone quite a transformation since last season's NEC Championship game. The changes are highlighted by new stadium-style seating that will surround the court and a trio of new video boards that will enhance the fan experience. Both Sacred Heart basketball teams will help open the Pitt with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 21. The Pioneer women will play the opening game at 5:30 p.m. against Monmouth, while the men welcome CCSU at 8 p.m.

LAST DANCE

The Pioneers have three players heading into their final collegiate seasons, as Ciara Brannon enters into her graduate season, while Williams and Afia Owusu-Mensah are both seniors. Brannon has played the last two seasons with SHU after transferring from Wagner. Owusu-Mensah has played 62 games in three seasons with the Pios. Williams joined Sacred Heart after transferring from George Mason as a junior. She also played a pair of seasons at Radford.

JOYOUS JUNIORS

The heart of the Pioneers' lineup will come from the junior class, as it features three of the team's four minutes leaders from last year. Pryor paces the group, while Wood and Sierra Johnson both played over 900 minutes last season. Wood, a Third Team All-NEC selection in 2024, ranked second on the team with career highs in scoring (10.3 PPG) and steals (1.8 SPG). Johnson was one of three Pioneers to start all 34 games last year, averaging 6.7 points, 3.6 rebounds and 1.6 assists per game. Faith Pappas and Grace John also enter their third collegiate seasons. After transferring from Fordham, Pappas played 30 games in her first campaign with the Pios. In contrast, John will play her first Division I season after competing for two years at Barton Community College in Great Bend, Kansas.

SOPHOMORE SURGE

If last season's sophomore class tells us anything, it's that we shouldn't expect a slump out of this year's group of second years. Nalyce Dudley paced the class last season, playing all 34 games, averaging 7.6 points, 5.2 rebounds and 0.7 steals per game. She finished second on the team in rebounds per game. Kirby, Thai Davis and Montana Nicks all made an impact in their first collegiate seasons. Kirby saw time in 30 contests, tallying 2.4 points and 2.2 rebounds per game. Davis appeared in 22 games last year, while Nicks played 17.

DEBUTING THE FIRST YEARS

Esther Kursite and López are the Pioneers' two first years. The duo made quite the trek to play at Sacred Heart, as Kursite comes from London and López comes from Puerto Rico. Both players had decorated careers before coming to SHU and should make an immediate impact in year one.
