Opening Tip

CofC, the preseason Coastal Athletic Association favorites, opened the 2025-26 campaign 2-0 inside TD Arena last week. Charleston began the season in historic fashion, setting a program record with 135 points in a 135-41 route over Covenant College on Monday. Then on Friday, CofC defeated Charleston Southern 80-65 in a cross-town matchup.

Charleston looks to remain perfect on the year, and inside TD Arena, with a matchup against Iona at 4 p.m. on Friday. Charleston and Iona have only met twice, with both teams earning a win on the opponents' home court.

The Cougars return two starters from last years WNIT Super 16 squad, including the reigning CAA Player of the Year in Taryn Barbot.

CofC returns six key contributors from last year's team, while adding seven newcomers, including three key transfers in Tyja Beans (Western Carolina), Grace Ezebilo (Tyler Junior College) and Chynell Mitchell (UTRGV).

The 2024-25 Charleston women's basketball team set a record for the most wins in the program's Division I era with 25. Charleston also earned its first Power 4 win since 2009 with a 68-62 victory over Northwestern at the Hawk Classic on December 20, 2024.
