IONA SERIES

ALL-TIME SERIES: 1-0

FIRST MEETING: December 10, 2024, W 49-38

LAST MEETING: December 10, 2024, W 49-38

OF NOTE: UMass Lowell holds a 1-0 lead in the series after a 49-38 win on December 10, 2024. Last year's meeting marked Iona's first trip to Lowell and the River Hawks' first game against a MAAC opponent since the 2021-22 season.

NOTEBOOK

A NEW CHAPTER BEGINS

The River Hawks tip off a new era under first-year head coach Jon Plefka, who takes the helm after leading multiple successful Division II programs. Plefka inherits a roster split evenly between returners and newcomers, emphasizing daily growth, communication, and a blue-collar mindset that mirrors the city of Lowell.

GLOBAL IMPACT

This year's roster includes student-athletes from eight countries: Austria (Sophie Baydanov), Spain (Carla Subirats, Anabel Latorre Ciria), Germany (Adna Halilbasic), Israel (Ella Ner), Sweden (Sabrina Larsson), North Macedonia (Klimentina Modeva), and Canada (Nia Chima). — underscoring the program's international diversity.

EXPERIENCED ANCHORS

Eight returners provide continuity from last season's roster: Jennah Johnson, Amina Kameric, Emina Kameric, Carla Subirats, Sophie Baydanov, Maddie Rice, Nia Chima, and Ella Ner. The group accounts for nearly 60 percent of last year's total minutes played.

PROVEN TALENT JOINS THE MIX

Seven additions bolster the 2025-26 roster, including multiple players with prior Division I experience and international standouts. Edmonds, Gilmore, Larsson, Latorre Ciria, Modeva, Halilbasic, and Medina expand Lowell's depth and competition across the lineup.

NOTEBOOK

EARLY IDENTITY

UMass Lowell closed November on a high note with an 82–36 win over Maine Fort Kent, its largest scoring margin (+46) of the season. The River Hawks have now won two of their last three and turned in their most efficient offensive outing of the year behind 32 made field goals and 82 total points.

REBOUND OUTPUT BACK ON TRACK

The River Hawks posted a season-high 57 rebounds against UMFk, raising their season average to 37.4 per game — the top mark in the America East entering the week. Lowell also ranks No. 3 in both offensive rebounds (12.1 per game) and defensive rebounds (25.3 per game) after grabbing 23 offensive boards in the UMFk win.

NOTEBOOK

500-POINT MILESTONE FOR EDMONDS

Jaini Edmonds became the newest River Hawk to hit the 500-point plateau, reaching the milestone during her 18-point performance against UMFK. She now sits at 511 career points, delivering her highest scoring total since the CCSU win and shooting 5-for-12 with two made threes.

CAREER DAY BREAKTHROUGHS

Two sophomores turned in career performances in the victory. Nia Chima pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds, the highest single-game total by any River Hawk this season, while adding a season-best nine points on 4-for-8 shooting. Adna Halilbasic recorded career highs in points (10), field goals made (4), and threes made (2), joining Edmonds, Gilmore, and Modeva in double figures.

BALANCED SCORING ACROSS THE BOARD

Four River Hawks finished in double digits against UMFK: Edmonds (18), Gilmore (14), Modeva (13), and Halilbasic (10). It marks the third game this season with at least three players in double figures and the second time this year Lowell has had four.

DEFENSIVE TURNOVER PRESSURE

Lowell forced 23 turnovers against UMFK — tied for its second-highest total forced this season — converting those giveaways into 19 points. The River Hawks now average 6.4 steals per game.

SECOND-CHANCE PRODUCTION

Powered by 23 offensive rebounds, the River Hawks generated 21 second-chance points, the most in any game this season. Lowell continues to rank third in the America East in offensive boards per game.

JON PLEFKA*HEAD COACH • FIRST SEASON
CAREER RECORD: 107-70

Jon Plefka was named the 10th head coach of the UMass Lowell women's basketball program in April 2025. A seasoned leader with a strong track record, Plefka most recently served as an assistant coach at Stony Brook.

During the 2024-25 season with the Seawolves, Plefka aided with duties both on and off the court, not only scouting opponents and developing players, including a pair of Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) All-Conference guards, but also serving as the team's academic and external relations liaison.

"I am incredibly honored and excited to be named the head coach of UMass Lowell women's basketball," stated Plefka. "From the moment I connected with the administration and saw the passion they have for this university, I knew this was a special opportunity. I want to sincerely thank Lynn Coutts and the search committee for trusting me with this role and believing in my vision. I'm committed to building a culture of excellence, accountability and growth — on the court, in the classroom and in the community. I can't wait to get to work with our student-athletes and represent River Hawk Nation with pride."

Prior to Stony Brook, Plefka was a head women's basketball coach at the Division II level for seven seasons. In the 2023-24 season at Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM), he led the Warhawks to their first home Gulf South Conference (GSC) postseason game and GSC semifinal appearance in program history after finishing the year with a program-best 20-10 (17-7 GSC) record. In addition to surpassing 100 career wins while at the helm, he also guided the program to its first-ever NCAA Division II South Regional Ranking and helped Allasha Dudley become AUM's first player to be named to the All-GSC First Team.

The New Britain, Connecticut native previously spent six seasons as the head women's basketball coach at Post University, compiling an 84-55 overall record. He helped the team to the 2023 Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC) Championship title game and three North Division Regular-Season Championships, which were both firsts in program history at Post. Plefka ended his journey with the Eagles boasting a 69-33 (CACC) league record with the team that had just one winning season in 15 years before his arrival.

Before Plefka became the head coach of Post for the 2017-18 season, he served under two-time WNBA champion Taj McWilliams-Franklin as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Eagles in the 2016-17 season. He increased the win total by six games in his first season, eight victories to 14, then increased the win total to a program-record 22 wins in the 2019-20 season.

During his time with the Eagles, he recruited and coached five CACC All-Conference Team selections, including a CACC Rookie of the Year. In the classroom, his teams maintained a 3.0 cumulative GPA in each of his six seasons as head coach. Plefka was also a member of the inaugural Next Generation Institute of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

No stranger to the big stage, Plefka played basketball at Texas Tech of the Big 12 and graduated cum laude in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in human development and family studies.

Plefka, and his wife Elizabeth, who was born and raised in Harvard, Mass., welcomed twins Luka and Lola in September of 2024. Elizabeth was also a collegiate athlete, playing four years of basketball at Drexel University and Flagler College.
