THE LEAD

It's back to a blank slate for the Sacred Heart women's basketball team as they push the reset button and turn their complete attention to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference with the remaining 20 games on the schedule all coming in league play. First up for the Pioneers is a visit to Iona, a team they split the home-and-home series with last season. Tip-off from the Haynes Athletic Center is set for 6:00 p.m. with all of the action available on ESPN+.

SCOUTING SACRED HEART

After closing out its non-conference schedule with a 2-7 record, the Pioneers are looking to open MAAC play in the win column against a team they closed out the 2024-25 season defeating 69-57 at The Pitt Center. Leading the Pioneers into conference play is senior guard Amelia Wood who has scored double figures in seven of the nine games this season, including a season-high for all players of 20 on the road against CCSU. For the season she is the lone player to average double figures at 12.8 ppg. Additionally, Wood is second on the team in rebounding with a 5.3 per game average and assists with 15 and leads the team with 17 steals and six blocks. After increasing her career-high in scoring to 19 against UAlbany, junior forward Nalyce Dudley vaulted into the second position in the scoring column with an average of 9.4 ppg while shooting at a team-high 45 percent (33-of-74) with that average increased to 53.8 percent when shooting from inside the arc. As a team, the Pioneers are shooting 34.5 percent from the field (164-of-475) with 36 of the 164 baskets from outside the arc. Despite a season low 13 turnovers against UAlbany, the biggest area of improvement for the Pioneers needs to come in ball control as they are currently turning the ball over at a clip of 18.9 turnovers per game.

SCOUTING IONA

In its final test before opening up conference play, Iona had its five-game win streak snapped with a home loss to Dartmouth last Saturday. Overall, the Gaels closed out non-conference action with a 7-3 record, including a 2-0 showing in the Iona Turkey Tip-Off with wins over UIC and Saint Francis. For the season, Iona is averaging 57.4 points per game almost equal to their opponents (57.2). Leading the way is junior forward Zoey Ward who is averaging 13.1 points per game as one of four players who has started all 10 games. Despite being a post player, Ward is a threat from outside, currently sitting at second on the team with 11 three pointers. Additionally, she leads the team with 8.0 rebounds per game. Following her in the scoring column is graduate guard Isabella Middleton at 12.0 ppg.

SERIES HISTORY VS IONA

- Friday's game will be the 15th meeting between the Pioneers and Gaels in a series that dates back to the 1977-78 season.
- Overall, Iona owns a 10-4 record in the three previous 14 matchups.
- In the Pioneers Division I era, the two teams met nine times with Iona holding a 6-3 edge in those games.
- Last season marked the first time the two had met in conference play with each team winning on its own home floor.

GAME 10 | SACRED HEART AT IONA

- Under 13th year head coach Jessica Mannetti, the Pioneers hold a 2-5 record against Iona.

NEXT TIME OUT

One more game is all that stands between the Pioneers and the holiday break as Sacred Heart will close out the 2025 portion of its home schedule on Sunday, December 21 with a visit from the Rider Brons. Tip-off in the MAAC game is set for 2:00 p.m. with all of the action available live on ESPN+.

HONOR ROLL

Following her first collegiate double figure outing this past Thursday in the road win over Central Connecticut, first-year guard Sophie Nascimento picked up the second Air Force Reserve MAAC Rookie of the Week accoladed doled out this season. Nascimento finished the CCSU game with 15 points, 12 of which came in the second half, as she was 4-of-8 from the field, with a three pointer, and 6-of-6 at the free throw line. In addition, she added two assists and a steal.

LAST TIME OUT

Behind a team-high 13 points from Nalyce Dudley, the Pioneers closed out their non-conference schedule with a 63-46 loss to the visiting Vermont Catamounts. Dudley's 13 points was one of two players in double figures as she was joined by senior Amelia Wood who capped off the afternoon with 10 points. Combined the pair of leading scorers shot 7-of-14 while also going a perfect 7-of-7 at the free throw line. Fouling Dudley and Wood in the scoring column was junior Emma Kirby who finished with nine points and a team-high eight rebounds, while first-year point guard Sophie Nascimento finished with seven points to go along with two assists and three steals. As a team, the Pioneers shot 34.8 percent from the field, connecting on 16-of-46 field goal attempts, with four of the 16 field goals from outside the three-point arc. Combined, SHU also finished 10-of-12 from the free throw line.

CAREER-HIGHS ARE MADE TO BE BROKEN

Outside of the rookie class only one player has set a new career-high in scoring this season and it came at home against UAlbany when Nalyce Dudley finished 9-of-12 from the field for 19 points. The 19 points for Dudley was the second time this season she has scored double figures (23rd for her career). Her previous career-high of 16 came on two occasions, the most recent came almost two years ago against Fairleigh Dickinson (Jan. 27, 2024).

HOW THE STARTERS FARE

Last season, 13th year head coach Jessica Mannetti made just one change to the starting line-up, which came 12 games into the season and inserted now junior Nalyce Dudley into the rotation. Through nine games this season, Mannetti has made three adjustments to the starting five, first inserting freshman guard Sophie Nascimento prior to the Mercy game and adding Missy Nuku into the rotation against UAlbany. The most recent change was forced by injury, reinserting Grace John to the starting five against Coppin State. In her first game as a starter, Nascimento finished with nine points (3-6 FG, 3-3 FT) three rebounds, two assists and two steals in 15 minutes of work. Nuku closed out her first start with five points and four steals in 31+ minutes.

WE MISSY-ED YOU

After missing the first five games of the season, Missy Nuku made her season and career debut for the Pioneers in the home win over Mercy. Coming off the bench in her first appearance, Nuku entered the game with just under three minutes remaining in the first quarter and made an immediate impact dishing out her first, of five, assists to Emma Kirby 56 seconds later. For the game, Nuku finished with eight points, shooting 3-of-6 from the field with a pair of three pointers, and added two rebounds and two steals along with her five assists.

I'LL TAKE A VENTI

Senior Amelia Wood finished the CCSU win with 20 points becoming the first player this season to hit the 20-point plateau. Among the two returning players who have scored 20+ points in their career, Wood has done so now five times with a career-high of 25 points against Wagner in January of 2024. The only other player to reach 20 points is Emma Kirby who hit that mark once with 21 points against Puerto Rico - Mayaguez in November 2023.

The Pioneers first win of the season against CCSU came on the backs of four players who finished in double figures, a feat that happened just once last season when five players hit the mark in a win over Niagara (Jan. 25). Against the Blue Devils Amelia Wood led the way with 20 points while Nalyce Dudley and Sophie Nascimento finished with 15 and Sierra Johnson 12. Dudley, Nascimento and Johnson all hit double figures for the first time this season, while it was the second time for Wood.

FAST START OUT OF THE GATE

Four Pioneers call the 2025-26 season their rookie campaign with the Red and White and all four made their collegiate debut in the season opener against NJIT. Through the first nine games of the season, the rookie class has accounted for 99 points led by guard Sophie Nascimento who is averaging 6.6 points in 25.1 minutes and recently joined the starting five against Mercy. Two of the four freshmen have seen time in all seven games so far this season, with Jordanna Schrecker following Nascimento with 3.3 ppg in 12.1 minutes off the bench, including a team-high 11 at Northeastern. Schrecker has one thing the rest of her class doesn't and that is that she was the first of the rookie class to convert a field goal - a three pointer against NJIT.

PROTECT THE ROCK

The Pioneers need to continue to clean up their game a bit heading into MAAC play after committing 170 turnovers in the first nine games, which is 18.9 per game. In their home game against UAlbany, the Pioneers did see their lowest turnover total of the season with 13. By cleaning up their game, SHU will limit its opponent's possessions, as those 170 turnovers is an area where the first five opponents exploited averaging 19.0 points off of the Pioneers misfortunes.

SUCCESSFUL SIXTH WOMAN

Prior to making her debut in the starting five against Mercy, first-year guard Sophie Nascimento had proven to be a successful first option off the bench for the Pioneers. In the road win over CCSU, the rookie finished with 15 points, including 12 in the second half where she started the third quarter in place of game starter Grace John. Before entering the starting lineup, Nascimento was averaging 6.2 ppg, fourth on the team. The rookie was shooting 9-of-24 from the field, with a pair of three pointers, while also going 11-of-12 at the free throw line. Additionally, she dished out seven assists and had a trio of steals to her credit.

CLIMBING THE MOUNTAIN

Senior guard Amelia Wood has been known as a leading scorer her entire career at Sacred Heart and now finds herself on the hunt to become the newest member of the 1,000-point club. She enters Friday's game with 989 career points and with 11 more will become the 24th player in program history and the 16th player in the Division I era (since 1999-2000). Even after surpassing the 1,000-point plateau, Wood will continue to climb the all-time scoring ladder. Based on her current 9.4 career scoring average, she would graduate as the 19th leading scorer in program history.

GAME 10 | SACRED HEART AT IONA

In addition to having her eyes on the 1,000-point plateau, senior guard Amelia Wood also has her eyes set on two other top 10 lists in program history - career three-point field goals made and career steals. She enters Friday night with 130 career three pointers, needing just three more to tie Ashley Durmer (2000-03) and Kim Fila (1989-93) for 10th all-time. On the swipes list, Wood tied Adaysha Williams (2013-17) for 10th all-time with her three against Georgetown and with five more would take over ninth place from Chrissie Perkins (1994-98).

AT THE HELM

Entering her 13th season strolling the sidelines alongside her Pioneers, head coach Jessica Mannetti stands second all-time in career coaching wins with 181 and is the only coach in program history to lead the team to back-to-back conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In addition to the two NCAA Tournament appearances, Mannetti has led the Pios to three WNIT appearances (2016, 2017, 2019) and the programs first NCAA Tournament victory over Southern University on March 15, 2023 in the First Four.

TICKETS, TICKETS

With the 2026 Air Force Reserve MAAC Basketball Championship less than three months away, the league office announced recently that all-session tickets are on sale now. The 2026 Air Force Reserve MAAC Men's and Women's Basketball Championship will take place March 5-10 at Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City, NJ. All-session tickets are available for fans who would like to see multiple sessions throughout the championship. All-session ticket packages range from $125 to $230, plus additional online fees. The six-day event will feature the league's Men's and Women's Basketball championships and a number of MAAC ancillary events. All tickets can be purchased by visiting maacsports.com/basketball.
