SERIES HISTORY WITH IONA

Iona leads the all-time series 36-27. The Gaels defeated the Broncs twice in 2024-25. In the game in Alumni Gym, Rider used a 19-5 third quarter to tie the game entering the final 10 minutes, and even lead early in the final frame, but Iona broke open a tie game with a 4-0 run in the final minute to secure the win. Gabby Turco led Rider with 22 points in the setback.

SCOUTING THE GAELS

The Gaels are 7-5 on the season, but have started 0-2 in conference play, after falling in overtime against Sacred Heart before a 10-point setback against Mount St. Mary's. Isabellah Middleton leads the Gaels at 13.5 points per game with Zoey Ward adding 12.7 points and a team-high 8.1 rebounds per game.

IT'S NOT ABOUT WHERE YOU START

The Broncs were picked to finish 13th by the league's coaches in the annual Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Coaches Poll. The Gaels were picked to finish sixth. Both teams are 0-2 to start MAAC play, including a setback against Sacred Heart.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

The Broncs roster is one of the most unique in the country, featuring zero seniors and just one graduate student in transfer Kristina Ekofo, who joins the Broncs following two seasons each at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and North Dakota State University and has impressed thus far in the preseason. Despite the youth movement, the Broncs do have a veteran presence with incoming transfer junior Deb Okechukwu following a season at both CCBC - Essex and Harcum CC, and returners Aliya McIver and Kaylan Deveney, who have both played over 50 games in Cranberry and Gray. The Broncs also feature one of the most unique schedules in the country, playing three games in four days that are all true road contests and not a part of an MTE, when the Broncs visited Boston College, Stonehill, and Bryant.

VAMOS

FRESH MEAT

The freshman class is rounded out by a pair of domestic products, Daniya Brown and Alena Cofield. Brown, 5-7 guard from Fairfax, VA was a Second-Team All-WCAC selection, who averaged 14 points and four steals as a senior at Bishop O'Connell High School. Cofield was a one-time First-Team SOL and one time Second-Team SOL honoree who earned Division MVP honors as a member of the SOL Division Championship team.

KEEPING UP WITH THE (MARA) JONESES

Returning sophomore Jocelyn Chavez and returning junior Kaylan Deveney have kept athletic trainer Marah Jones busy already this season. Chavez will miss the entirety of the 2025-26 season due to injury and Deveney is in the process of returning to play following an injury suffered last year.

'O' NO

Originally nicknamed the Rough Riders by the father of Rider Athletics and Naismith Hall of Famer, Clair Bee, Rider's nickname later changed to the Broncs. What is a Bronc? It's a Bronco. But you can keep the second o. Why do we call ourselves the Broncs, then? The quick answer is a newspaper writer at least 70 years ago either made a typo or wanted a shorter word to fit their headline and called us the Broncs. Enough people actually liked it, so it stuck. Bee was not one who enjoyed the change, later saying he "damn near went through the ceiling" when he first read of the change. Still to this day, broadcasters and public address announcers routinely call us the Broncos in error, setting off a firestorm of tweets to our social media and much more work for our SID (Please don't make me do more work).

STAT SHEET STOCKING STUFFER

Aliya McIver did a little bit of everything against FDU last season, setting then career-highs in points (9), rebounds (11), and assists (8). The sophomore had five points, six rebounds, and five assists in the second half that saw both teams score 31 points. She then had a career game in the season finale last year at Niagara. In her final game as a sophomore, McIver set career highs with 11 points and 12 rebounds for her first career double-double, and Rider's lone double-double of the 2024-25 season. The now-junior picked up where she left off to start the year, tying her then career-high with 11 points, to go along with eight rebounds in the season-opening victory. She poured in a new career-high 14 points against Boston College, tying that mark against Bryant.

EMMY AWARD WORTHY

Emmy Roach was all over the place in Rider's season opener, tying a then career-high with 10 points, and setting career bests with five steals and three blocks. It was the first time a Rider player had five steals and three blocks in a game since Stella Johnson produced the same stat line against NJIT in November of 2018. At LIU, Roach drained three second-half three pointers, scoring 13 of her career-high 19 points in the second half as the Broncs turned a 26-24 halftime deficit into a 15-point victory.

UNITED NATIONS

The Broncs' roster features players from four different countries. In addition to the ten domestic products on the team, Rider has one from Belgium, one from Australia, and two from Spain. The Broncs have featured players from multiple foreign countries in every season since 2011-12.

ONE BUCKET AFTER ANOTHER

Deb Okechukwu had her best game as a Bronc against Bryant. The transfer junior led the Broncs with a career-high 18 points, tripling her previous career best. She also secured five rebounds in the game, one off her prior high. Okechukwu became the fourth different Bronc to lead the team in scoring in a game this season. She followed up that performance with Rider's first double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds against Navy.

AINA ON THE PRIZE

Aina Perez Mesquida has been hot on the offensive end lately, scoring in double figures in three-straight games. She started the run with 11 points against Wagner, knocking down three threes. She continued with 10 points against Fairfield and a career-high 13 points at Sacred Heart.

2025-26 Rider Women's Basketball

THE BIG SHORT

The Broncs got strong debuts from a pair of newcomers in big 6-1 forward Kristina Ekofo, who led all scorers with 19 points to go along with nine rebounds in her Rider debut as a graduate student, and short 5-3 guard Alena Cofield, who added 14 points, including going 3-for-6 from beyond the arc, and six rebounds in her first collegiate action. Ekofo reached double figures in eight of the first 11 games for the Broncs this season.

ENERGIZER BUNNY

Aliya McIver keeps going, and going, and going. McIver has played 411 of a possible 440 minutes so far this season, including playing all 40 minutes in four different games this season. Her 37.4 minutes per contest are currently the most in the nation.

KICKSTART MY HART-ZELL

Rider's season opener was the first for the Broncs under new Head Coach Jackie Hartzell. Hartzell comes to Lawrenceville from Arcadia University, where she posted a 54-26 record and was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the 2024-25 season. Prior to her time at Arcadia, Hartzell produced a 185-57 record in eight seasons at University of the Sciences, highlighted by a trip to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 in 2018, after which she was named the HERO Sports Women's Basketball Division II National Coach of the Year. Rider's sixth coach in the Division I Era, the previous five coaches were 2-3 in their debuts with Eldon Price topping Saint Francis 100-55 and Lynn Milligan defeating Monmouth 59-46 for the Broncs' victories. Hartzell added to the win column with the Broncs topping Lafayette, 65-58, to open the season.

MERRY-MACK

The Broncs won both games last season against Merrimack by three or fewer points, getting a game-winning layup from Emilee Tahata with 3.8 seconds remaining in the opening meeting, then winning 64-61 in the return game in Alumni Gym. Aliya McIver found an open Camryn Collins in the corner with 40 seconds remaining to break a 57-57 tie, then Gabby Turco went 4-for-4 from the line to seal the victory. The Broncs are 3-0 all-time against the Warriors.

CUTTING DOWN THE NET RANKINGS

Despite being picked 13th in the MAAC preseason coaches poll, the Broncs are currently 10th of the 13 teams in the last NET rankings, released by the NCAA. The Broncs recently saw a jump in the rankings following their win at LIU.

JACKIE HARTZELL

HEAD COACH FIRST SEASON DELAWARE VALLEY '05

Rider University Director of Athletics Don Harnum has announced the hiring of Jackie Hartzell as the next head coach of the women's basketball program in April of 2025. Hartzell becomes the 20th head coach in the history of the program and sixth in the Division I era.

"I am honored and humbled to be named the head coach at Rider University," said Hartzell. "I want to thank President Dell'Omo, Athletic Director Don Harnum, and Senior Women's Administrator Karin Torchia for believing in me and giving me this incredible opportunity. I look forward to this new and exciting challenge and I can't wait to get started."

Hartzell comes to Rider from Arcadia University, where she produced an instant turnaround, posting a 54-26 (.675) record over three seasons with a 28-16 (.636) conference mark, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year following the 2024-25 season. In her first season, Hartzell led the women's basketball team to their first MAC postseason victory in program history. In her second season at the helm of the program, Hartzell set a program record for wins and guided the Knights to the team's first-ever appearance in the conference championship game.

Her time at Arcadia came after a successful eight-season run as head coach at University of the Sciences, where she compiled a 185-57 (.765) record, going 123-28 (.815) against conference opponents, won three CACC Championships, made five NCAA Tournament appearances, and earned five NCAA Division II Tournament victories, highlighted by a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2018.

"The preference going into the search was to attract someone that had successful head coaching experience and strong recruiting ties to the region," said Harnum. "After speaking to numerous individuals with strong knowledge in women's basketball coaching circles and interviewing several impressive candidates, I am confident we found what we were looking for in Jackie Hartzell. She has a proven track record of supporting student-athlete development, both academically and athletically, while creating a positive environment that produces winning results."

A four-time CACC Coach of the Year, Hartzell was selected as the HERO Sports Women's Basketball Division II National Coach of the Year following the 2017-18 season and the NCAA East Region Coach of the Year in 2019. Locally, she was selected as the Philadelphia Coaches Conference Collegiate Coach of the Year in 2017 and the City of Basketball Love Coach of the Year in 2022.

Hartzell's athletes have benefitted from her success with junior Delaney Bell becoming the first player in Arcadia program history to be named MAC Freedom Player of the Year following the 2024-25 season. While at USciences, Hartzell's team was the NCAA Statistical Champion for scoring defense, holding opponents to just 49.8 points per game for the season.

Additionally, Hartzell's teams have been equally honored off the court, finishing as a WBCA Academic Top 25 Team for six-straight seasons during her tenure at USciences.
