THE LATEST

Cooking in 2026

- The Warriors are rolling in the New Year, winning five straight games. The Merrimack defense has kept opponents under 60 points in four of the five victories. In their last game, the Warriors used two 20 point performances from Lydia Melaschenko and Madison Roman to defeat the Siena Saints by 17. The 82 points scored by the Warriors is the most against a MAAC opponent since joining the conference in 2024.

Who to Watch

- Madison Roman tallied her fifth straight double-double last Saturday in the win over Siena. She scored 21 and came down with 13 rebounds. Roman put up a double-double in the teams last home game against Marist, posting 14 points and 13 rebounds. Roman powered her way to a 21-point game with a season high 17 rebounds against the Peacocks last week. She had 12 points and 11 rebounds against Rider and she exploded for a 20-point and 14-rebound double-double against Mount St. Mary's. The Connecticut native shattered her season high in steals tallying five against the Mountaineers.
- Lydia Melaschenko has hit 19 3-pointers in her last five games. In the teams last contest against Siena, Melaschenko went off from six 3-pointers made and led the team to a 17 point win. Melaschenko electrified the Warriors second half domination with four three pointers in the win over Saint Peter's two weeks ago. Her 10 points at Rider marked her eighth double-figure scoring game of the season, and her fifth consecutive. Melaschenko hit 50% of her shots against Fairfield scoring 13. In the Warriors contest against High Point, Melaschenko erupted for seven 3-pointers coming just shy of the school record. The 21 points at High Point was her new career high. In her last five games, Melaschenko has made 19 three pointers.

Grad Year Balling

- Oralye Kiefer has been a force in the paint for the Warriors shooting just shy of 50% during the season. Oralye Kiefer scored 15 points last week in their dominant win over Siena. She added six rebounds and a season high five assists. She scored 12 points against Rider and had tallied her first double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds in the win over Mount St. Mary's. She averaged 13.4 points, 7.2 rebounds, and 2.4 blocks per game in the month of December.

Heating Up

- Paloma Garcia scored 12 points and came down with eight rebounds on Thursday, leading the team to a comeback win over Marist. In last week's contest against Rider, Garcia went off for a career-high 21 points, shooting 7-of-13 (54%) from the field.

AWARDS

2013-14 OAC Coach of the Year
2018-19 OAC Coach of the Year

Kelly Morrone will begin her sixth season at the helm of the Merrimack women's basketball team in 2025-2026. Morrone is fresh off of a MAAC semifinals appearance in the 2024-2025 season.

Since her hire as the head coach at Merrimack, Morrone has achieved numerous great feats. She has helped ease the program through the transition period from Division two to Division one and has seen success at the next level. Morrone has 40 division one wins as the head coach of Merrimack entering her fifth year. She was able to guide the Warriors to a combined 18-14 conference record throughout the past two seasons, earning a third and fourth place finish respectively in the NEC. She has oversaw back to back NEC semifinal appearances from her team to close out their time as a member of the Northeast Conference. Her team was able to win the first postseason game in the Division one era in 2022-23. Morrone mastered an 8 game winning streak that was the longest such streak in almost two decades. She has continuously improved this team, molding All-Conference players, manufacturing wins and instilling a culture into the program. In 2021-22 they were top 100 in pace per possession, 64th in 3PT field goal % at 33.3, and top 75 in offensive rebounds per game.

Since becoming the coach, Kelly has always made sure to keep the competition in her schedules as a premium. The Warriors have faced off against highly regarded opponents and postseason perennials that include Kentucky, Notre Dame, USC, Utah, and USEF. Morrone's teams have played numerous teams that would fight their way to the WNIT or NCAA tournament. Those teams include Holy Cross, Albany, Vermont, Harvard, and Boston University. In 2022-2023 Merrimack was the lone team to sweep a Sacred Heart team that made it all the way to the NCAA tournament.

Morrone has also been in charge of bringing in and maintaining student athletes at the school. She has recruited such impact players as Ava Owens, Amaya Staton, and Paige McCormick. Morrone has also done an outstanding job of keeping players within the program. She has been able to retain great players such as Jayme Decesare, Diamond Christian, and Kaylee Thomas among many others. Morrone welcomed eight new faces including seven freshmen recruits and one transfer to her roster in the 2023-24 season. Morrone's ability to recruit high level talent has been a knack. She has not only gotten these recruits to come to Merrimack but developed them into even better players and student athletes.

Under Morrone's tutelage she has seen enormous growth both in the program and the players. Mayson Kimball and Kate Mager, twice, were able to earn All Conference team honors in 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 respectively. In 2022-2023 Morrone saw not one, not two, but a trio of her players earn All Conference team honors in Jayme Decesare, Marissa

Hamilton, and Kaylee Thomas. It was the first time in the program's history that they had three all conference selections in the same year. Morrone, along with her many athletic accomplishments and improvements to her teams and players, has overseen growth academically as well. In 2022-2023 her team had nine NEC Winter Honor Roll athletes. Lydia Melaschenko, Marissa Hamilton, Molly Manion, Amaya Staton, Jayme Decesare, Diamond Christian, Sidni Wise-Wright, Kaylee Thomas, and Mackenzie Bray all were a part of this honor. Under Morrone the team also had a 3.44 GPA, best in the NEC.

Morrone was a student-athlete at the University of South Carolina, where she contributed to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances for the Gamecocks. South Carolina reached the Elite Eight during her junior season (2001-02), and followed that up with an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament during Morrone's senior year (2002-03). Morrone ranks third all-time in South Carolina history in career three-point percentage, three-pointers made and three-point attempts. She was also a three-year captain while a player at South Carolina and a four-year SEC Academic Honor Roll selection. Morrone graduated from South Carolina with a degree in sport & entertainment management.
