ONE MORE WEEK

Heading into the final weekend, the Manhattan Jaspers look to win their fifth consecutive game, this time against the Gaels from Iona. Leading Manhattan in the points category has been Senior guard Brianna Davis, averaging 15.1 points a night, including a Division I high of 28 points three times this month. Her scoring average puts her in fourth place across the MAAC. Senior guard Hana Mühl has helped spread the rock, with a nightly average of 4.2 holding second place in the MAAC. On the defensive end, Graduate forwards Colette Mulderig and Agar Farrés Garcia have helped anchor that end of the floor, with the former's 1.6 average on blocks putting her in second place across the MAAC, while the latter's 8.0 rebound average puts her in fourth. The Jaspers will look to tally one more win before closing out their regular season against Saint Peter's on Saturday (2/28).

NEWS & NOTES

JASPERS AT A GLANCE:

Hana Muhl - Guard - Senior

- Averages 4.2 assists per contest, good enough for second place across the MAAC. Registered a career-high of 10 against Marist on Feb. 19.
- Muhl has tallied 14 points on four separate occasions this season, coming against Navy, Fairfield, Marist, and now Merrimack last time out on Feb. 21.
- Registered a career-high 28 points in the 2024-25 season opener at Rutgers on Mon. November 4. Muhl converted 9-of-14 from the field.

Elisa Solé Sanchez - Guard - Graduate Student

- Scored in double figures ten times this season, including back-to-back 23 point outings in her last two against Marist and Merrimack.
- Collected a career-high nine assists against Saint Peter's on Jan. 1.
- Spent her last two seasons at Converse, appearing in 56 games and starting in 48 of those contests, averaging 10.3 points a night.

Agar Farrés Garcia - Forward - Graduate Student

- Averaging 8.0 rebounds per game (5th in MAAC) down the stretch, pulling down 10 or more in her last four games, including a career-high of 18 at Marist on Feb. 19.
- Pulled down a career-high 18 boards last time out at Marist on Feb. 19.
- Former Sooner Athletic Conference Newcomer of the Year (2023-24).

Colette Mulderig - Forward - Graduate Student

- Posted a Division I high 24 points at Niagara on 1/10/25, knocking down ten field goals, an individual best among all Jaspers thus far.
- Swatting 1.6 shots a game, (2nd in MAAC) including four each against Saint Peter's, Marist, Mount St. Mary's, and Niagara.
- NEIO All-Conference First Team, CSC Academic All-District Team last year.

Kristina Juric - Forward - Redshirt Sophomore

- Posted 8.2 points per-game in 16 starts to begin 2025-26.
- Converted 67 of her 125 shot attempts for a .536 clip, good enough for 3rd in the MAAC.
- Has accumulated seven double digit scoring performances, including a career-high of 22 against Mount St. Mary's on Jan. 14.

Brianna Davis - Guard - Senior

- Has led the Jaspers in scoring with 15.1 a night in 2025-26, currently in fourth place across the MAAC.
- Notched a Division I high of 28 points three times this month.
- In 2022-23, Davis was named the ECC Rookie of the Year at Queens after recording five-double-doubles.

BROADCASTER TIPS

- Senior guard Brianna Davis earned preseason recognition this offseason, being selected to Preseason All-MAAC Third Team.
- Manhattan returns five from the 2024-25 squad, with the trio of Davis, Muhl, and Juric expected to be major contributors to Heather Vulin's 2025-26 Jaspers.
- This will serve as the Green and White's final conference road game, winning their last one in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. against Marist 66-61 in overtime.
- Davis, Muhl, and Juric all return as the sixth, seventh, and eighth contributors off the bench for the Jaspers. Combined, the crew accounted for 18.1 points-per-game in 2024-25.
- Manhattan brings in ten freshman and four graduate students, giving Vulin's current batch a unique blend of youth and experience.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION:

- After starting the 2025-26 season 7-3 through the non-conference slate, the Iona Gaels have since gotten to 11-8 so far through the MAAC schedule, now in fourth place, a half game above Sacred Heart.
- Iona has now won four consecutive games, coming against Canisius, Niagara, Siena, and Saint Peter's.
- The Gaels are led by the two-headed monster of Graduate guard Isabellah Middleton (14.0) and Junior forward Zoey Ward (13.7), averaging a combined 27.7 points a night.
- Two other players average at least eight points apiece, in Graduate guard Ella Fajardo (8.2) and Junior guard Mya Zaccagnini (8.1). Zaccagnini's 30.8% clip from beyond the arc leads the team.
- Iona was selected to finish sixth in this year's edition of the MAAC Preseason Poll, two places below where they currently stand.
- The Gaels finished the 2024-25 season with an overall record of 11-21, going 8-12 within the MAAC.
- Squeezing into the last spot in the 2025 MAAC Championship at the 10 seed, Iona upset seventh-seeded Saint Peter's in the first round by the final score of 42-40. Their season came to an end in the quarterfinals against Quinnipiac, 79-51.
- This will serve as the 97th meeting all-time between Iona and Manhattan, with the Gaels taking the first meeting this season 65-51 inside Draddy Gymnasium.

WINNING TIME BETWEEN DEEP ROOTED RIVALS

The Jaspers find themselves in an advantageous position heading into the final week of the season. Last week, they continued their two-game winning streak with another pair of wins against Marist and Merrimack. The Warriors are third place in the MAAC, with that win now standing as the best conference win this season for the Lady Jaspers. The win also provides major implications for conference tournament seeding once the regular season ends. With the two wins last week, Manhattan has positioned themselves in a tie for sixth place, along with Mount St. Mary's and Siena. The Green and White have only played each program one time this season, winning against The Mount and losing to Siena, both inside Draddy Gymnasium. The sixth seed plays a pivotal role in the current format of the MAAC Championship, as the third-sixth seeded teams don't play until Day 3 of the tournament, compared to playing on one or both of the first two days on Thursday and Friday. Manhattan won't leave a 10 mile radius the rest of the regular season, as after Thursday they will return home on Saturday for Senior Day in a matchup against Saint Peter's, who they defeated in their initial meeting at Run Baby Run Arena in Jersey City for the Jaspers first win of the season. In the Green and White's first meeting with Iona this season, they suffered a 65-51 defeat in their first home game without starter Kristina Juric. Two Jaspers scored in double figures, as Brianna Davis put up 20 points on eight-for-19 shooting, while Colette Mulderig posted 13 points while swiping and swatting a ball. A win today keeps Manhattan alive for their six seed aspirations for Atlantic City.

#PLAYGREEN

The Jasper's team motto "playGREEN" is a concept developed by Vulin for the team, playGREEN is a commitment to the pursuit of excellence. Vulin expects her players to have that mindset every day, as they play for their teammates, for their program, and to represent Manhattan College at a championship level. The Jaspers use #playGREEN on all of the team's social media channels.

WELCOME TO THE UNITED STATES

This year, Manhattan continues the trend of having a variety of players from outside the United States on their 2025-26 roster. With a total of four international players, they are as follows:

#1 Hana Muhl from Zagreb, Croatia

#6 Kristina Jurić from Zagreb, Croatia

#9 Elisa Solé Sanchez from Sant Andreu de Llavaneres, Spain

#22 Agar Farrés Garcia from Barcelona, Spain

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering — an impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

JASPERS SIGN FOUR ON NATIONAL SIGNING DAY

Manhattan women's basketball head coach Heather Vulin is pleased to announce four new additions to her squad for the class of 2026; Kennedy Brown (5-8 G, Jefferson, N.J.), Cortney Howell (6-2 F, Boston, Mass.), Bleu Kerr (5-9 G, Boston, Mass.) and Nisan Sel (5-8 G, Ankara, Turkey). Kennedy Brown - Plays her prep ball at Morris Catholic High School in New Jersey and was former teammates with current Jasper Tatianna Collins. She shows a further connection to the program as former Manhattan Head Coach Michelle Sharp (1992-1998) is her mentor at the AAU level. Brown was a vital piece to two state championship teams at Morris Catholic, also contributing as a four-year starter. Why she chose Manhattan: "The location is beautiful and the campus is filled with genuine people who have my best intentions in mind." From Vulin: "We love the fierceness and toughness that Kennedy plays with. She will be an impact on both sides of the ball and will be a dynamic combo guard that will blossom in our uptempo style of play," Cortney Howell: Played her high school basketball at St. Mark's School in Massachusetts. There, she averaged a double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds per contest. For her efforts in the northeast, she was awarded the ISL All-Leyte Award, St. Mark's School MVP, as well as being an honorable mention for NEPSAC MVP. Why she chose Manhattan: "Off the bat, it was an open and welcoming community that offers both high academics and athletics." From Vulin: "Cortney is an elite athlete that can play both the power forward and small forward. Besides her athleticism, she is a threat from the three point line and has shown she can score and rebound at an elite level." Bleu Kerr: Kerr also comes to Riverdale via Boston, and also from St. Mark's School, playing alongside her current and future teammate in Howell. There, she was both an all-star and an honorable mention for All-NEPSAC. Howell and Kerr also both played on the AAU level together. Why she chose Manhattan: "The community, it feels like a home away from home." From Vulin: "Bleu is a powerful athlete and crafty scoring guard. We think she will be a tough matchup with her ability to be a playmaker and create scoring opportunities for herself and her teammates. We also think the on-court chemistry between her and Cortney will be exciting." Nisan Sel: Hails from Turkey where she represented her country on both the U-16 and U-18 national teams over a three-year period. Serves as the lone international signee for Vulin, a trend she has used to her advantage on the court. There, playing for TED Ankara Kolejliler Sports Club, she has averaged nearly 13 points per game, along with seven assists and five rebounds. Why she chose Manhattan: "Great engineering program and I felt a connection to coach Heather from the beginning." From Vulin: "Nisan has elite court vision as a point guard. She has consistently throughout her career made her teams better with her ability to set up her teammates and push the tempo. Her experience and success at the international level is an incredible addition to our program."

JASPER NOTES

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

THE WORLDWIDE LEADER

For the seventh-straight season all of Manhattan's MAAC games will air on the ESPN family of networks. Most games will air on ESPN+ with ALL games able to be accessed through a cable subscription, and ESPN+ a standalone subscription to ESPN.

WINNING JANUARY

These Jaspers have had quite the start to the New Year, winning five of their first seven games in 2026. After starting 0-11, the Jaspers got started right away with a win on New Year's Day over Saint Peter's in Jersey City. Since then, the Green and White have picked up victories over Canisius, Niagara, Mount St. Mary's, and Rider. Manhattan put together six wins across the month of January in 2023-24 and 2021-22, the most in the Heather Vulin era.

NEW SEASON, NEW FACES

In this new era of college basketball, the 2025-26 Jaspers show no signs of wavering the storm. This upcoming season, head coach Heather Vulin brings in double-digit new faces with ten. Four of those come in the form of Freshmen, in Tatianna Collins, Johlana Tatum, Celeste Harper, and Meghan Thompson. One comes as a Junior in Autumn Taylor after two seasons at Clarion. Most in the experienced spectrum comes in Graduate Students, as Elisa Solé Sanchez, Agar Farrés Garcia, and Colette Mulderig use their fifth seasons in the Green and White.

DAVIS WITH PRESEASON MAAC RECOGNITION

Brianna Davis, after arriving from the Division II level at Queens two seasons ago, took a big leap in development throughout 2024-25. Due to her efforts, she was selected to the Preseason All-MAAC Third Team. While getting acclimated in Riverdale, the then-junior averaged 7.6 points-per-game, adding on 2.2 assists-per-game, and also becoming a threat on the defensive end of the floor, finishing in a tie with teammate Hana Muhl for third on the team, for 1.2 steals a contest. All of that taking place while only making two starts, and averaging less than 20 minutes a night. Davis looks to take advantage of her increased minutes in 2025-26 to lead Manhattan.

NEW RECORD HOLDER

Head Coach Heather Vulin rewrote the history books last time out against Merrimack, as the upset win proved to be her 139th win while leading the Jaspers. That number surpasses the previous all-time wins leader Kathy Solano, who coached the Lady Jaspers in their early days from 1983-1992. In her time, Manhattan won two MAAC Championships coming with two NCAA Tournament appearances. In what is now her tenth season, Vulin has won at least 16 games each season dating back to the 2021-22 campaign. This includes an appearance in the 2023 MAAC Championship Game, upsetting second seed Niagara 81-68. Current Assistant Coach Dee Dee Davis was a member of that team, scoring 10 points in the semifinal win, and adding another 11 in the championship game. The record-breaking win against Merrimack on Feb. 21 was fitting to serve as the 139th, as the Jaspers played arguably their best game of the season. The Green and White scored 82 points and converted on 24 chances from the free throw stripe, both team-bests in 2025-26. In addition, Senior guard Brianna Davis accumulated 28 points, her third such game this season, a Division-I high for the Bronx, N.Y. native. In addition, Graduate guard Elisa Solé Sanchez tied her Division-I high of 23 points, knocking down all six of her chances from the free throw stripe. Contributing on the defensive end, Graduate forward Agar Farrés Garcia pulled down 12 rebounds, her fourth consecutive game with 10 or more as she establishes her presence in the paint. Vulin will look to make even more history in the rest of her tenure with the Green and White, currently aiming to cut down the nets for the first time in 23 years, since the last MAAC Championship won by Manhattan in 2003.

POSTSEASON:

WBI (2020-21): 1-2

Manhattan College Head Coach Heather Vulin enters her tenth season with the Jaspers in 2025-26. Known as a tenacious and tireless recruiter with over 20 years of coaching experience, she was named the eighth head coach in program history on April 25, 2016.

Throughout her last two campaigns in 2023-24 and 2024-25, Vulin has combined for 20 conference wins inside the MAAC, including two consecutive quarterfinal appearances at the 2024 and 2025 MAAC Championships, respectively. In the former season, Vulin's coaching of Petra Juric earned her a Second Team All-MAAC selection, bolstered by a 10.1 scoring average on top of being an inside threat down low, putting up 7.6 rebounds a contest. Also chiming in on the defensive end, the Croatian native swatted 25 shots on the year, second on the Jaspers.

With a talented roster from top to bottom, the 2022-23 squad had multiple threats on offense and were able to use that to their advantage down the stretch. The Jaspers found themselves in the 2023 MAAC Tournament championship game for the second year in a row after a 10-10 MAAC regular season mark and sixth place finish. In the classroom, the Jaspers were named a Top 25 WBCA All-Academic Team for their GPA. Dee Dee Davis earned Second-Team All-MAAC honors and was named Second-Team All-Met for the second straight year.

The 2021-2022 campaign saw Vulin continue to build on the team's successes in the previous two years. She led the Jaspers to a 21-11 record, the most wins in a single season since the 2010-2011 season, and the team's third straight winning season, including a 14-6 record in MAAC play. She guided the team to the finals of the MAAC Tournament while earning the third seed in the tournament. En route to the finals, the team took down Canisius (61-49) and then proceeded to upend the second-seeded Quinnipiac (72-59). Vulin coached four players, Dee Dee Davis, Courtney Warley, Brazil Harvey-Carr, and Petra Juric to All-MAAC honors. Davis and Warley both earned first-team nods, another first for the program, while Harvey-Carr earned third-team honors while Juric earned a spot on the All-Rookie team. Davis and Warley also earned second-team All-Met honors. Vulin guided Warley to be the second player in program history to score 1,000 points and pull down 1,000 rebounds.

The 2020-2021 campaign was highlighted by Vulin earning her first postseason appearance, while leading the program to its best MAAC winning percentage (9-3; 750) since 2002-03 as well a second-straight winning season (11-9). The Jaspers earned a bid to the 2021 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI), and after losing a hard-fought battle to eventual champion Cleveland State, defeated Loyola Chicago in securing Manhattan's first postseason win the 2011-12 season. Prior to the year, the Jaspers were also tabbed as the MAAC's Top Team and defeated Saint Peter's on February 6 before a nationally televised audience on ESPNU. Center Courtney Warley averaged a double-double en route to earning All-MAAC Second Team honors, which also marks her third-straight all-league honor. Warley also stood out in the classroom, and was named as one of 30 finalists for the prestigious Senior Class Award. Guard Dee Dee Davis joined Warley on the All-MAAC Second Team and paced the team in scoring, while her backcourt mate Emily LaPointe provided the season's signature moment as her putback at the buzzer was the difference in Manhattan's 71-70 overtime win vs. perennial MAAC power Quinnipiac.

In 2019-20, Vulin led the Jaspers to the program's best finish since 2011 (15-14, 12-8 MAAC), going 6-1 down the stretch and winning five straight to tie for third place in the MAAC and earn a first round bye (#4 seed) in the 2020 conference tournament. The Jaspers' 12-8 MAAC record marked the fourth time in eight years that the program has finished .500 or better in league play, three under Vulin's leadership. Though Manhattan's season came to an abrupt end when the 2020 MAAC tournament was cancelled due to the spread of COVID-19, the Jaspers finished the season ranked 66th in Division I for scoring defense and 74th in turnover margin.

Warley received First Team All-MAAC honors, as well as All-ECAC Second Team and All-Met Second Team accolades. LaPointe became the program's first unanimous MAAC Rookie of the Year, while being named to the MAAC All-Rookie Team and All-Met Third Team. It was the third-straight season that a Vulin player earned MAAC All-Rookie recognition, as well as the third-straight year a Jasper took home one of the conference's major postseason awards.

During the 2018-19 campaign, Vulin led the Jaspers to a fourth-place tie in the MAAC, finishing the year 9-9 in conference (12-19 overall). After knocking-off perennial powerhouse Marist and No. 2 Rider during the regular season, Manhattan reached the quarterfinals of the 2019 MAAC Championship, the second consecutive year the Jaspers advanced to that round.

In Vulin's second season, the Jaspers finished with a 13-18 overall record (9-9 MAAC), facing a challenging schedule that included seven games against opponents that qualified for postseason play, including California and Virginia. In her first year as head coach (2016-17), Vulin led the Jaspers to an 8-22 overall record, going 4-16 in conference play. Despite an injury-plagued year, her inaugural season brought a renewed commitment to the program's culture (known as #play-GREEN), an intense focus on recruiting, and a tenacity on defense that has set the stage for years to come.

Player development on and off the court is essential to Vulin. As a result, multiple Jaspers have earned individual accolades during her tenure, including LaPointe and Warley (who was also the 2018-19 MAAC Defensive Player of the Year and has earned All-MAAC Third Team and MAAC All-Rookie honors), as well as Kayla Grimme, a 2017-18 All-MAAC Second Team and All-Met Third Team selection who played basketball professionally in Portugal in 2018; Amani Tatum, a 2017-18 All-MAAC Third Team selection; Gabby Cajou, the MAAC's 2017-18 Sixth Player of the Year, the first in program history; and Davis, a unanimous selection to the 2018-19 MAAC All-Rookie Team.

In 2015-16, Vulin served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the ACC's Virginia Tech. Vulin helped the Hokies post a seven-win turnaround from the 2014-15 campaign and earn a berth in the postseason WNIT, their first postseason appearance in nine years, where Virginia Tech advanced to the second round. The Hokies received votes in both the USA Today and AP polls, and finished the season ranked 11th nationally in field goal percentage defense (.346), as well as 15th in scoring defense (52.9 ppg).

Prior to her time at Virginia Tech, Vulin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Villanova for seven seasons, from 2008-2015, under Harry Perretta, who in 2016 became the 10th active and 14th overall Division I women's basketball coach to win 700 games at one school. The Wildcats won four Big Five titles, made two NCAA Tournament appearances and earned three postseason WNIT appearances during that span, reaching the quarterfinals of the postseason WNIT in 2015. Villanova posted three consecutive 20-win seasons from 2012-13 to 2014-15. In addition, the Wildcats led the nation in fewest turnovers per game four-straight times (2011-15).

During her time at Villanova, Vulin was responsible for the recruitment of three Gatorade Players of the Year, including Caroline Coyer, the 2013 Virginia Player of the Year and a member of the 2015 U.S. Team at the Pan American Games, and the three-time Delaware Player of the Year. Among the players she recruited and developed were three Big East All-Rookie Team selections, four Big East Sixth Men of the Year, and seven All-Big East performers.

After beginning her coaching career as a graduate assistant at North Dakota State under Women's Basketball Hall of Fame member Amy Ruley from 2000-02, Vulin spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Sacred Heart University from 2002-04, before being promoted to recruiting coordinator at Sacred Heart from 2004-08, helping the Pioneers post a 124-55 overall record and win a pair of Northeast Conference (NEC) championships. She recruited the 2008-09 squad that became just the third team in NEC history to go undefeated in the regular season and win the tournament championship. While at Sacred Heart, she mentored two NEC Players of the Year (one of which is the all-time leading scorer in program history) and two NEC Rookies of the Year, as well as seven all-NEC players and five NEC All-Rookie selections.

A two-sport athlete at Minnesota-Morris, Vulin was a four-year letterwinner in both basketball and volleyball, receiving academic all-conference honors in each. Vulin earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education - social sciences, psychology and women's studies from Minnesota-Morris in 1999, and a master's degree in education from North Dakota State in 2003.

Vulin is married to Kevin Vulin, who played basketball at Sacred Heart University and professionally overseas. He previously served as assistant men's basketball coach at Sacred Heart, where the couple met in 2002. They have a son, Jack, and a daughter, Ava and reside in Hartsdale, NY.

2025-26 JASPERS

#3 TATIANNA COLLINS • FRESHMAN • FORWARD • 5-10 ROSELLE, NJ • HUDSON CATHOLIC

Prior to College: Attended Hudson Catholic High School ... Played four years of Girl's Varsity Basketball ... AAU Team was Castle Athletics ... Siblings are Troy, Cidney, Timothy, Imani, Charlie, Skyler, and Andrea ... Father is Charles Cheston ... Majoring in Business.

Why Collins Chose Manhattan: "From the moment I stepped into the school I felt at home. The staff and community made me feel welcome

Vulin on Collins: "Tati is going to be someone that is going to be a menace on the defensive side of the ball. Her length and athleticism and ability to guard anybody on the court is going to be really fun to coach and open up a lot of options for us defensively. Plus, Tati is a strong finisher in transition converting on her steals and deflections."

#4 JOHLANA TATUM • FRESHMAN • GUARD • 5-8 BROOKLYN, NY • NAZARETH REGIONAL

Prior to College: Attended Nazareth Regional High School ... Earned Clutch Performer Award at WNBP Camp in Brooklyn ... Averaged 5.8 rebounds-per-game as junior ... Siblings are Josiah, Alijah, Jonathan, and Arielle ... Parents are Jonathan and Abigail ... Recruited by South Carolina State ... Majoring in Criminal Justice.

Why Tatum Chose Manhattan: "Because people here made me feel welcomed. I love their energy, and I can't wait to be a part of their family."

Vulin on Tatum: "JT's athleticism reminds me of Dee Dee Davis, and comparing anybody to Dee Dee is a huge compliment. I think JT is going to make an impact with her elite athleticism on both the offensive and defensive side of the ball."

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

GAME #27 - Merrimack at Manhattan - 2/21/26

RIVERDALE, N.Y. - The Manhattan Jaspers women's basketball team (9-18, 9-9 MAAC), led by 51 combined points from Brianna Davis (28) and Elisa Solé Sanchez (23), became winners of four straight games for the first time this season, this time against the Warriors from Merrimack (16-11, 13-5 MAAC) by a final score of 82-67 inside Draddy Gymnasium on Saturday afternoon. Who else but Davis to get things started, connecting on a shot from beyond the arc to get the scoring underway. Her second three pointer upped her scoring total to eight out of the first 11 Jasper points. Stretching their lead to seven at one point, the Warriors finished the quarter on a 17-6 run to give the visitors a four point edge after the first ten minutes. Colette Mulderig and Solé Sanchez contributed in the scoring column in the second frame, as Merrimack extended their advantage to nine with 1:44 to play in the half. Hana Mühl converted on a pair from the free throw line, trimming the margin to six by the halftime break. While another inside layup from Davis got the game back to within four to start the quarter, the Warriors further emboldened their lead, at one point getting to 12 with around 3:30 left in the third. Mühl, Davis, and Solé Sanchez combined for 11 points the rest of the way, going in to the fourth with only a five point deficit. Tatianna Collins and Mühl connected on their layups in consecutive possessions, as the Jaspers tied the game with 7:36 to play for the first time since the first quarter. A successful and-one opportunity from Davis capped off a 12-0 run from Manhattan, now giving the hosts a seven point lead with six and a half to play. Merrimack didn't let the Jaspers off easy, as Madison Roman's own three point play put the game back within two with three minutes to go. After getting back up to a six point edge, Mühl found Solé Sanchez in the corner after pulling the defense into the paint, and the Spanaird knocked down her third and most important shot from deep, cementing Manhattan's fourth consecutive win.

GAME #29 - Iona at Saint Peter's - 2/21/26

JERSEY CITY, N.J. - The Iona University women's basketball team extended its winning streak to four straight on Saturday afternoon with a 66-55 victory at Saint Peter's. The Gaels pulled ahead in the second quarter at Run Baby Run Arena to earn the season series split against the Peacocks. Junior Zoey Ward had a career afternoon for Iona with a career-high 29 points and a career-high 15 rebounds for her eighth double-double of the season. Graduate student Ella Fajardo chipped in 11 points and a game-high six assists. Graduate student Isabellah Middleton tallied 10 points, four rebounds and two steals. Saint Peter's made the first run of the game with an early 5-0 ledger after scoring on its first two possessions. Ward got the Gaels on the scoreboard with 7:41 left to play. That set off a 9-5 closing stretch for Iona with Ward tallying seven points and rookie Johanna Flores adding a basket. The Peacocks took a narrow 10-9 lead at quarters end. The home team continued to hold the slight lead two minutes into the second stanza. From there it was all Iona with a 20-10 margin that saw six different scorers contribute to take a 31-24 lead into the halftime break. Fajardo led with six points in the final 7:40 of the quarter and Ward chipped in five points. Momentum carried over for the Gaels to start the second half as Fajardo opened the scoring with a layup, followed by a knockdown triple from junior Mya Zaccagnini and then a driving layup from Ward. That forced the Peacocks to take a timeout as Iona held a 38-24 lead with 6:56 left. Down the stretch, Saint Peter's held a slight 12-10 scoring margin in the final five minutes to bring the score to 48-36 in favor of the Gaels heading into the final frame. The Gaels continued to hold the Peacocks at bay in the fourth quarter as the home team held a 19-15 margin the final nine minutes of play. Ward had seven points and Middleton chipped in four points as the Gaels preserved the road win.
