MONMOUTH NOTES

MOST NON-CONFERENCE WINS IN THE LEAGUE

Monmouth was tied during non-conference play with Rider for the most non-league victories among MAAC schools this season. Each team won six games in the early part of the schedule.

SOLID PLAY FROM CHAPUT

In the MAAC opener against Siena, Samuel Chaput posted career highs in rebounds with five and steals with three in 26 minutes, as well as coming one assist shy of tying a career best with six helpers.

BUZZER BEATING

Ray Salnave hit game-winning shots in two games in a row in victories over Princeton and UAlbany to close out non-conference play. Against the Tigers, the redshirt junior knocked home a three at the buzzer to secure the win for MU, 67-66. It marked the second time in King Rice's tenure that MU won a game as the final horn went off, and the first since Deon Jones netted a coast-to-coast reverse layup against Mississippi Valley State on November 29, 2013. Against the Great Danes, Salnave converted a lefty driving layup plus the foul with 2.8 seconds remaining to send MU past UA, 72-70.

SALNAVE CLUTCH IN THE FINAL SECONDS

Ray Salnave has now scored to tie or put Monmouth up in the final 15 seconds of regulation or overtime nine times in his career, with six of them coming on the road (2017 at Siena - tie, 2018 at Hofstra - tie, 2018 at Penn - win, 2019 at Quinnipiac - tie, 2019 vs. Iona - win, 2019 at Princeton - tie, 2019 at Princeton - win, 2019 vs. UAlbany - win).

PILLARI HITS 100 GAMES PLAYED

Fifth year senior guard Louie Pillari played in his 100th career game against UAlbany. He is one of two Hawks on the current roster to play over 100 contests in the Blue and White, joining teammate Mustapha Traore.

#0 IS #5 AND #6 ON ESPN'S SPORTS CENTER

Ray Salnave was featured on December 10th's edition of ESPN's Sports Center, with his second-half crossover three pointer listed at #6 and his buzzer-beating three marked at #5.

MARTIN SCORES IN DOUBLES

Melik Martin posted his fifth career game in double figures, and first this season at Princeton with 10 points on 4-5 shooting, including a three. His last double-digit effort came at the 2018 Myrtle Beach Invitational on November 18, 2018, when he netted 10 points vs. Cal State Fullerton.

TWO GAMES IN DECEMBER

Monmouth will played twice in December, marking it as the least amount of games in the final month of the calendar in the programs Division I history. It marks the least amount of games the Hawks played in an regular-season month (November-February) in the King Rice era, and least in a month since November 2002, when MU played just twice. The 2002 season did not begin until November 23, and MU played on 11/23 and 11/30 for the only two games of the calendar month. In comparison, Monmouth had already completed seven games this season by November 23rd.

STAY HOT, DEION

In his last six contests, Deion Hammond is averaging 20 points, 3.9 rebounds and has five 20+ point performances in that stretch. He is shooting 46.7% from the field and 86.4% from the free throw line, leading the Hawks in every category during that stretch.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE ALERT

Mustapha Traore posted his second career double-double in the win over Radford, going for 16 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. He got into double digits with 1.4 seconds remaining in the opening half from the foul line, and corralled his first double-double since 12/22/17 at Yale. Traore's 14 boards is the most for a Hawk since Diago Quinn had 14 in a win at Penn on New Year's Eve 2018.

HITTING 80

MU hit 80 points for the first time this season against Radford, with three players scoring in double figures and nine pitching in on the scoring column.

WHEN HAMMOND AND SALNAVE HIT 30...

Monmouth is 10-7 in their careers when Ray Salnave and Deion Hammond combine to score 30+ points. The duo has 17 such games in their careers, including six this season, all coming in the last six games.

1,000 POINT WATCH

The Salnave-Hammond duo are each approaching 1,000 career points. Hammond is 33 points away through 77 career games. Salnave needs 137 points through 77 games. The last Hawk to top the 1,000-point threshold was Micah Seaborn in 2017.

MONMOUTH NOTES

SALNAVE AND HAMMOND ALMOST MATCHED

Since the beginning of last season, Monmouth's Preseason All-MAAC Second Team selections Ray Salnave and Deion Hammond are separated by just 24 points and 40 total minutes played in 45 games played together. Salnave has 570 points in 1,198 minutes, while Hammond has 594 points in 1,238 minutes.

LOCK DOWN DEFENSE

Monmouth posted strong defensive marks in the win over Kennesaw State, matching a defensive low under King Rice in allowing just 40 points, also done in a win over Canisius on 2/8/15. The Hawks have now allowed 21 points or less in a half three times in six games this season, and the 17 first-half points allowed is Monmouth's lowest allowed in a half since 3/4/16 in a MAAC quarterfinal game against Rider, where MU allowed 16. MU limited KSU to just three opening half field goals.

AN OLYMPIAN ON STAFF

According to the NCAA Division I media contacts, Monmouth assistant coach JR Reid is one of three former Olympians coaching on a DI staff. Reid represented the United States at the 1988 games in Seoul. Georgetown Head Coach Patrick Ewing was on the USA squad twice, both in 1984 in Los Angeles and 1992 in Barcelona. Rounding out the list is UT Arlington Player Development Coordinator Derrick Obasohan, who represented Nigeria in the 2012 London Games.

GRABBING REBOUNDS

Monmouth has had a different leading rebounder in six of 12 games this season, with the single-game high in boards coming from Mustapha Traore with 10 at Kansas State. Sam Ibiezugbe led the way with eight on opening night, and Nikkei Rutty, Ray Salnave, Deion Hammond and Jarvis Vaughan have all led the Hawks on the glass to this point in the season.

TRAVELING HAWKS

Monmouth traveled 6,035 miles before returning to West Long Branch for its first home game on November 26. That travel all took place in a 17-day span between November 5 and November 22, with MU traveling to Lehigh, Hofstra, Kansas State and Kansas, Pittsburgh and Orlando for seven contests before returning to the OceanFirst Bank Center.

BRINGING IN SIZE

Monmouth is one of just six teams nationwide to tout a freshman class with an average height of 6'8" or more. Illinois and Utah State come in at an average of 6'10", with Army West Point at 6'9". MU is tied with Georgetown and Tennessee in bringing in a freshman class averaging 6'8".

HAWKS INK HOLMSTROM FOR 2020... AND A KING RICE CONNECTION

Monmouth announced the signing of 2020 wing Jack Holmstrom, a left-hander from Rockford, Illinois. He plays his high school ball at Guilford High School. King Rice coaches Holmstrom's father, Ben, at Illinois State from 1996-98. A four-year varsity player for the Vikings, Holmstrom has scored nearly 13 points per game to go with four rebounds and three assists through three seasons. He has posted 12 career games of 20+ points, and netted a career-best 25 points on two occasions as a junior. He is averaging over 2.5 made triples per game scholastically, and is shooting 45% from downtown. He is on track to net 1,000 points at Guilford, and was an All-Conference selection the past two seasons.

MAAC PRESEASON

Monmouth was chosen to finish fourth in the MAAC by the league's head coaches. MU was five points behind third-selected Quinnipiac and two points clear of the fifth selection, Manhattan. Ray Salnave and Deion Hammond were selected to the conference's Preseason Second Team after finishing just four points apart from each other overall a season ago. Salnave led MU with 11.9 points per game with Hammond checking in at 11.8, while the latter led MU in made threes with 74.

ANOTHER TOUGH NON-CONFERENCE

Of Monmouth's 11 non-conference opponents, six of them were picked in the top-five of their respective league's preseason polls with three chosen to win their conference. Kansas was picked to win the Big 12, while Hofstra was the top pick in the CAA and Radford was the Big South leader. Six of 11 won 20 or more games last year, and four competed in major national postseason tournaments (NCAA/NIT).

SECOND LONGEST TENURED COACH IN THE MAAC

King Rice, entering his ninth season at MU, is the second longest tenured coach at their current institution in the MAAC. Only Iona's Tim Cluess has been at their school longer, with the Gaels head man entering his 10th season at the helm in New Rochelle. Rice was hired two weeks before colleague Steve Masiello at Manhattan, while Kevin Baggett took over at Rider the year after Rice was appointed at MU. John Dunne has been in the MAAC the longest, taking the Saint Peter's job in 2006, but has only been at his current school, Marist for one season. This year, three coaches are making their debuts at their current MAAC institutions in Greg Paulus at Niagara, Jay Young at Fairfield and Carmen Maciariello at Siena.

HEAD COACH KING RICE · North Carolina, 1992 · 9th Season · 137-139 Overall · MAAC: 70-47

King Rice has been on the Monmouth sideline for eight seasons and enters his ninth in 2019-20. He has 131 victories to his credit, as well as a pair of MAAC Coach of the Year honors. He has set Monmouth records for wins in a season with 28 and consecutive victories with 17. Rice also set a MAAC Record in 2016-17 by winning 18 league games for the first time ever. He has also won the JohnMcLendon National Coach of the Year honor, while being named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award.

Rice orchestrated a momentous turnaround in 2018-19, leading the Hawks to the conference finals while beating three teams in the MAAC Tournament that MU had not yet topped during the regular season. He tutored senior big man Diago Quinn into All-MAAC Third Team honors, while the New York City native graduated as the program's all-time games played leader.

Rice coached a pair of players to All-Conference honors in 2017-18, including fouryear guard Austin Tilghman, who was named to the Third Team and also became the first guard in school history to register a triple-double, doing so at Yale on December 22. He also mentored Deion Hammond to unanimous All-Rookie Team accolades, with the guard averaging 12 points per contest.

In eight years in West Long Branch, Rice has now graduated 23 seniors. Following the 2016-17 year, Monmouth men's basketball was one of 35 programs recognized across the nation in men's hoops for its multiyear Academic Progress Rate (APR) and received the NCAA's APR Public Recognition Award. Monmouth was the only school in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference as well as one of just three teams in the state of New Jersey. Rice's team has earned this recognition in three straight seasons.

With his second straight conference Coach of the Year honor in 2016-17, Rice became just the third coach in MAAC history to repeat and the second to do it outright, joining former Iona coach Tim Welsh and ex-LaSalle head man Speedy Morris. Rice secured a second consecutive regular season title and the top seed in the MAAC Tournament, coaching the Hawks to a National Invitation Tournament for the second time. He also earned his second straight NABC District I Coach of the Year accolade, the first MU coach to do so.

Rice mentored Justin Robinson to a second straight MAAC Player of the Year and third All-MAAC First Team, as well as being named the Lou Henson National Mid-Major Player of the Year. Robinson graduated as the school's all-time leading scorer at the Division I level and became the second 2,000-point scorer in MU history. He also coached his second MAAC Sixth Man of the Year in three years in quard Austin Tilghman, and a second straight all-league selection for Micah Seaborn, who was named First Team. MU won 17 straight games, including 16 straight to end the regular season, not losing after January 2. He secured a comeback win at Memphis in December, as well as a win over eventual Ivy champion Princeton at home.

In 2015-16, leading the Hawks to a program best 28 wins and a top seed in the National Invitation Tournament, as well as wins over five high-major programs. He coached the Hawks to the MAAC regular season title with a 17-3 league mark, collecting MAAC Coach of the Year honors in addition to being named John McLendon National Coach of the Year. Rice picked up ECAC and NABC District I Coach of the Year accolades as well, while being named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award.

Rice posted 17 league victories, including an 11-2 mark at home and a nation-leading 13 road tallies and 17 wins away from home, including neutral site wins. He secured Monmouth's first regular season title in 11 years and the top seed in the conference tournament while knocking off the program's first-ever ranked opponent in No. 17 Notre Dame on Thanksgiving night as well as wins at UCLA, Georgetown and Rutgers and a neutral site victory over Southern California. The Blue and White also notched its first national postseason win since 2006 and the first ever at home, topping Bucknell in the opening round of the NIT.

In his fifth season in West Long Branch, Rice mentored MAAC Player of the Year Justin Robinson and league Rookie of the Year Micah Seaborn, both of whom were all-conference selections along with senior Deon Jones. Robinson earned multiple national awards while setting the single-season scoring record under Rice's tutelage.

Following the 2015-16 campaign, Rice was rewarded with a contract extension, which extended his contract to 2020-21. Rice, who was named a finalist for the 2015 Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award, led the Hawks to an 18-15 overall record in 2014-15 and a 13-7 mark in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference action, which resulted in the No. 4 seed in the league postseason. The Hawks, who advanced to the conference semifinals in just their second season in the league, put a pair of guards on all-conference teams and held 26 of their opponents to 70 points or less

In 2014-15, the Hawks placed guard Justin Robinson on the All-MAAC First Team and the NABC All-District Second Team and guard Deon Jones on the All-MAAC Third Team, while senior guard Andrew Nicholas was honored as the league's Sixth Man of the Year.

Rice, whose roster featured nine first-year players and no seniors in 2013-14, guided the Hawks into their first season in the MAAC, where the Blue & White claimed the No. 9 seed in the league's postseason. In his first two seasons in the league, Monmouth outperformed its preseason coaches poll prognostication, as the Hawks were selected sixth prior to 2014-15 and finished the regular season in a tie for third place, with eventual tournament champion Manhattan.

In 2013-14, paced by one of the highest scoring duos in program history in Jones and Nicholas, the Hawks posted an 11-21 overall record, which included the championship trophy in the regional pod of the Barclays Center Classic, and the team's highest scoring average in 13 years.

The Hawks started the 2012-13 campaign with a 5-3 record before finishing their final season in the Northeast Conference with an overall mark of 10-21 and 5-13 in league play. Monmouth, which ranked near the top of the league in steals and turnover margin, capped its season with forward Ed Waite scoring his 1,000th career point and guard Jesse Steele writing his name all over the record books in just two and a half seasons.

In his first season with the Blue and White, Rice made an immediate impact on the program, leading the Hawks to a fifth place tie in the league standings. The Hawks finished 12-20 overall, but finished the year winners of nine of their last 12 games to claim a 10-8 league mark and grab the No. 6 seed in the conference postseason.

THE HOME OF THE HAWKS

Prior to the 2016-17 season, the arena formerly known as The MAC was renamed the OceanFirst Bank Center thanks to a naming rights deal with OceanFirst Bank. MU Basketball enters its eighth season in the building after playing previously in Boylan Gymnasium. Monmouth University ushered in a new era in the school's history with the completion and opening of the long anticipated arena in the Fall of 2009. It not only serves the school's 23 Division I Athletics programs, but is also a key asset for the entire University community. The facility features classroom and seminar space and a conference center that can be used for meetings, or be partitioned and used for study hall, clinics or workshops. The gym, which features a state-of-the-art fitness center, is also the location of the Leon Hess Champions' Hall, Monmouth Athletics Hall of Fame and Varsity Club, which will be used for hospitality for Blue/White Club members. Student lounges and study areas with complete wireless Internet access are also available.

The OceanFirst Bank Center, which is connected to Boylan Gym and the Steadman Natatorium, is 153,200 square feet of space for students and the community to utilize in many different capacities. It's most prominent feature is the 4,000 seat arena, which is the nest for the Monmouth men's and women's basketball programs. The arena also features a six-lane, 200-meter indoor track, which can be used for training and competition all year long. A fitness center with state-of-the-art strength and cardiovascular equipment is also housed here.

The arena provides varsity athletes & coaches with meeting facilities, locker rooms, practice and competition facilities & expanded and upgraded amenities. The University Bookstore was also relocated from the Stafford Student Center, which will improve accessibility for commuting students, and the additional square footage will enable the stocking of a greater variety of merchandise.

In the summer of 2011, with funds raised through private donations, Monmouth's varsity athletics weight room was given a $200,000 overhaul.

Renovations, which began in June and were funded entirely by the generous donations of Monmouth supporters, included a brand new Mondo floor, replaced HVAC system, new lights and a fresh paint job. The aesthetics of the room were improved with MU branded wall decorations.
