TOP STORYLINES

#1 - Manhattan (5-6; 4-6 MAAC) will hit the road for two games at Iona (5-3; 3-1 MAAC) on Friday, February 12 and Saturday, February 13, with each game starting at 5:00 pm.

#2 - Junior Warren Williams was dominant against Monmouth, averaging 18.0 ppg and 9.5 rpg while shooting a blistering 70.0 percent (14-of-20).

#3 - Williams registered his MAAC-leading fourth double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds in the opener, before hitting for a season-best 20 in the finale.

QUICK HITS

* The Jaspers have completed four games on their originally scheduled dates after playing at Saint Peter's, with the home games vs. Rider being the first two.

* Last year the teams split their two meetings, with each squad holding serve at home. Senior Nehemiah Mack averaged a team-best 10.5 ppg with 3.0 apg over two games against the Gaels.

* For his career, Mack is shooting 64.7 percent (11-of-17) from deep against Iona.

* Senior Ebube Ebube registered his first career double-double (12 points, 10 rebounds) two years ago against the Gaels.

* In head coach Steve Masiello's 10 years at the helm, the Jaspers are 62-12 (.838) when holding the opposition to less than 60 points, and 47-17 (.734) when registering double-digits in steals.

* Masiello is the longest tenured MAAC coach, and with the win over Quinnipiac moved past Jack Powers into third place on the all-time Manhattan wins' list. In December, he also set a school record for victories at Draddy with an 87-77 triumph over Rider.

* Williams is averaging 14.8 ppg and 9.2 rpg with three double-doubles over his last five games, while shooting 60.5 percent (26-of-43) from the floor.

* He also has ripped down double-figures on the glass on five occasions, and ranks among the MAAC leaders with 10.7 ppg (19th), 7.7 rpg (2nd), 1.5 bpg (5th MAAC) and field goal percentage (.543-6th).

 The teams will be meeting for the 100th time on Saturday*

QUICK HITS

- * Manhattan swept Niagara, thanks to limiting the Purple Eagles to less than 60 points in each game, while posting a +9.5 rebounding differential.
- * In the opener, the Jaspers forced Niagara into a season-high 19 turnovers, while notching a season-high 11 steals for the third time this year.
- * Manhattan turned Marist over at least 20 times in each match-up, doing so in back-to-back games for the time since early in the 2018-19 season (UNC Asheville, George Washington), and are 28-16 (.636) when forcing at least 20 miscues in Masiello's 10 years.
- * The Jaspers pulled down 30 rebounds in the first half in the finale against Monmouth, en route to registering a season-high matching 50.
- * The Green & White also grabbed 50 in the opener at Quinnipiac, while snaring 50 for the first time since for the first time since snaring 51 at Marist on January 2, 2017.
- * Manhattan yielded a season-low 42 points in the win over Quinnipiac, while also surrendering a season-low six turnovers.
- * The Jaspers lead the MAAC and is 34th nationally with a league-best 12.5 offensive rebounds per game, while also pacing the league and ranking 41st with 15.8 forced turnovers per game.
- * Manhattan also ranks among the NCAA leaders in scoring defense (65.3 ppg-59th), three-point percentage defense (.309-63rd) and field goal percentage defense (.412-79th).
- * Fueled by its stellar defense, the Jaspers are 4-1 when limiting teams to less than 60 points.
- * Junior Ant Nelson averaged 12.5 ppg and 5.5 apg against Monmouth, highlighted by handing out a season-best six assists with 11 points and five rebounds in the opener.
- * The Seton Hall transfer registered his first career double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds in the opener at Quinnipiac, and has registered double-figures in scoring a team-best 10 times, highlighted by recording at least 20 points twice.
- * The high-powered point guard earned MAAC Player of the Week honors for the week ending December 13, after averaging 23.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg and 3.0 apg while shooting 71.4 percent from the floor, including 85.7 percent from long range, and a perfect 100.0 percent from the line over two games against Rider.
- * Nelson scored 19 points in the opener, before notching a career-high 27 points with six rebounds and four assists in the finale.
- * He also had 23 points in the finale against Marist, and ranks among the MAAC leaders in scoring (13.5 ppg-6th), assists (3.1 apg-9th) and free throw percentage (.873-3rd).
- * Classmate Elijah Buchanan has established himself as one of the top defenders in the MAAC, ranking third with 1.7 spg, sixth with 1.3 bpg and eighth with 6.4 rpg, while adding 10.7 ppg (20th MAAC) over a team-high 33.4 mpg (8th MAAC).
- * Buchanan has increased his scoring average by 3.3 ppg while doubling his rebounding (+3.2 rpg) from last year, and has scored in double figures five times while pulling down at least seven rebounds on eight occasions.
- * He reached the 20-point mark in the win over Rider, finishing with a career-high 20 with seven rebounds, two assists and two blocks in the finale.
- * Buchanan's big performance along with Nelson's aforementioned career-high 27 against the Broncos, marked the first time the Jaspers had two 20-point scorers in the same game since Zavier Turner and Rich Williams did so in a 92-86 win over Quinnipiac on February 25, 2018.
- * Junior Samir Stewart scored a season-high 18 points in the finale at Saint Peter's, and over two games against the Peacocks averaged 14.0 ppg, on 46.7 percent (7-of-15) shooting from long range.
- * Stewart has notched 10.0 ppg and 2.9 apg over his last eight games, matched his career-high with five three pointers in the finale against the Peacocks and has drained at least two triples on seven occasions en route to making good on 32.7 percent (18-of-55) from deep.
- * Williams has also recorded double-doubles in the win at Delaware State (10 points, 11 rebounds), in the series-clinching victory against Niagara (12 points, 10 rebounds) and in the finale at Saint Peter's (13 points, 11 rebounds).
- * Williams was named to the preseason All-MAAC Second Team after a solid second year in Riverdale. He averaged 8.3 ppg, including 9.7 ppg during league play, and his combined .566 mark the last three seasons is tops in the MAAC.
- * The Jaspers' five junior transfers (Nick Brennen, Samba Diallo, Jason Douglas-Stanley, Nelson and Marques Watson) are averaging 30.8 ppg and 15.9 rpg, while accounting for 49.8 percent of the team's scoring and 42.6 percent of the rebounding.
- * Diallo a UMass transfer, matched Williams with a game-high 11 rebounds in the finale at Saint Peter's and has notched double-figures on the glass in three of the last five games, registering 7.6 rpg during that time.
- * Playing on his birthday the last time out against Monmouth, Diallo forced overtime with a late three-point play, en route to finishing with eight points and 10 rebounds.
- * He also snared 10 caroms in the series-clinching victory over Niagara, and ranks among the MAAC leaders in rebounding (5.7 rpg-14th) and steals (1.1 spg-12th).
- * Watson scored a career-high 12 points in the opener against Monmouth and has hit for double-digits three times.
- * Douglas-Stanley scored a career-high 19 points in the second game against Marist, and has recorded double-figures in points three times en route to averaging 6.9 ppg and has netted double-figures in points on three occasions.
- * In the win over Quinnipiac, the George Mason transfer bookended Manhattan's game-changing 14-2 run with a big three-point play, before also adding a momentum-altering three pointer that gave Manhattan a six-point advantage, while also grabbing a career-high five rebounds.
- * Senior Ethan Lasko scored a career-high matching nine points against Delaware State, on the strength of three triples, the last of which capped a game-changing 14-2 spurt that turned a two-point deficit into a 10-point halftime advantage.
- * The Jaspers drew nine offensive fouls in the second game against Marist with Lasko and Douglas-Stanley each recording two.
- * Manhattan was slated to finish fifth in the annual MAAC Preseason Poll, and returns 10 letterwinners, two starters, 46.2 percent of its scoring and 32.2 percent of its rebounding.
- * Masiello is in his 25th season as a player, assistant or a head coach, and holds a career record of 506-303 (.625). He is one of just nine active Division I coaches with a National Title as a player, and one of seven that is 43 or younger with two conference titles and two trips to the NCAA Tourney.
- * Masiello has led the Jaspers to a 145-157 (.480) record, including going 92-92 (.500) during MAAC play, while adding a school-record 11 MAAC Tournament wins. At Draddy Gym, he is 71-49 (.592), including 56-37 (.602) vs. league opposition. He has won two MAAC Championships, advanced to the title game three times and claimed two Metropolitan Coach of the Year awards with a pair of 20-win campaigns. Masiello has also participated in the NCAA Tourney in 13 of his 24 full seasons as a player or coach, including being a part of eight conference champions and one National Title.

 DYK??? Warren Williams is tied for the MAAC lead with four double-doubles

What Is A Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

This Is Manhattan College

- Why is Manhattan College in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer.
- 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering — an impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan College.
- Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

This Is Manhattan Basketball

- Manhattan has three wins in NCAA Tournament play, defeating West Virginia (1958), Oklahoma (1995) and Florida (2004).
- The Jaspers have won five MAAC Tournament titles in the last 25 years (1993, 2003, 2004, 2014, 2015).
- Manhattan received an at-large berth in 1995 and defeated Oklahoma before falling to Arizona State.
- Was the first team in NCAA history to win a game in Europe, defeating Holy Cross 70-54 on December 1, 2017 as part of the inaugural Belfast Classic.

Immediate Eligibility

Diallo (UMass), Douglas-Stanley (George Mason) and Nelson (Seton Hall) all were granted waivers for immediate eligibility from the NCAA.

Scouting Iona

The Gaels, which haven't played a game in 2021, are led by the high-powered trio of Isaiah Ross (22.3 ppg), Asante Gist (12.5 ppg, 4.1 apg) and Nelly Junior Joseph (11.8 ppg, 7.5 rpg).

The Worldwide Leader

For the second-straight season all of Manhattan's MAAC games will air on the ESPN family of networks. Most games will air on ESPN3 or ESPN+, with ESPN3 games able to be accessed through a cable subscription, and ESPN+ a standalone subscription to ESPN.

Masiello In College Basketball

Now in his 25th season as either a player or a coach, Masiello has a career collegiate record of 506-303 (.625), including 385-275 (.583) on the sidelines, with one National Title, two National Championship Game appearances, two Final Fours, six Elite Eight berths, eight conference championships, 13 NCAA Tournament appearances and 15 20-win seasons.

Mas At Manhattan

In his first tenure as an assistant, Masiello was a part of two MAAC titles and three 20-plus win seasons. All told, Masiello has been a member of four of Manhattan's five MAAC Championship teams and five of the school's 12 20-win seasons in recording a combined 228-193 (.542) record.

Interesting

Masiello was named at one of the "25 Most Intriguing Coaches" in college basketball by Yahoo and has twice been named as the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year (2012 | 2014).

Meet The Staff

Masiello is joined on the bench by Matt Grady, RaShawn Stores, Doug Thibault, Jon Mangel and Tyler Wilson. Grady is in his 10th year, Stores his fifth, Thibault his third, Mangel his second and Wilson his fourth.

115th Season Of Manhattan Basketball

In its 115th season, the Manhattan men's basketball program boasts a 1393-1274 overall record (314-344 MAAC). The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and took a two-year hiatus during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 season due to World War II.

Up Next

Manhattan will next play at Siena on Wednesday, February 24.

Steve Masiello (145-158; 92-93 MAAC)

10th Year at Manhattan University of Kentucky

2x Metropolitan Coach of the Year

Steve Masiello is in his 10th year as the Head Coach of the Manhattan Men's Basketball program.

During Masiello's tenure with Manhattan, he has experienced unprecedented success while leading the Jaspers to back-to-back MAAC Championships and subsequent trips to the NCAA Tournament.

He is one of just nine Division 1 Head Coaches to have won a National Championship as a player, and entering last season was one of just seven 42 or younger with two conference titles and two trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Additionally, Masiello, who also served as an assistant with the program from 2001-05, has been a member of the school's last four league titles, has a school-record 11 MAAC Tournament wins and an impressive .611 winning percentage during tournament play.

He is also third in school history with 145 victories, while his 71 wins in Draddy Gymnasium are the most ever.

Also under his guidance, Masiello has overseen the development of 13 All-MAAC performers, seven MAAC Major Award winners, 12 MAAC All-Academic performers, seven 1,000-point scorers and four MAAC All-Rookie honorees at the school with two Metropolitan Coach of the Year Awards.

Three years ago, the Jaspers became first-ever team to win a game in Europe under Masiello's watch as Manhattan defeated Holy Cross 70-54 in the first game of the inaugural Belfast Classic.

Pauly Paulicap '20 became the just the second player in school history to win MAAC Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining 3x winner Rhamel Brown '14.

Rich Williams '17 was named to the All-MAAC Second Team while Zane Waterman '18 earned All-MAAC Third Team recognition for the second-straight season.

Williams averaged 14.6 ppg and 4.8 rpg while Waterman garnered 11.9 ppg and 6.6 rpg en route to becoming just the 14th player in school history to earn at least two All-MAAC accolades.

In 2016-17, Masiello became just the fifth coach in school history to win 100 games in the Jaspers' thrilling 70-69 win over Niagara.

Under his guidance, Waterman developed into one of the top players in the league and earned All-MAAC Third Team honors, averaging 14.5 points and 7.0 rebounds per game.

Masiello, who has also guided Manhattan to three-straight MAAC Title game appearances and two 20-win campaigns, broke ESPN analyst and Jasper Hall of Fame selection Fran Fraschilla's school record for career MAAC Tournament wins in Manhattan's 79-69 victory over Iona in the 2015 Championship Game.

In guiding the program to its second-straight MAAC Championship in 2014-15, the Jaspers capped the season with seven wins over their final nine games and were an impressive 9-4 over the final two months of the season.

Leading the charge in Manhattan's run to the 2015 MAAC Championship was Emmy Andujar '15, who earned First Team All-MAAC and MAAC All-Tournament accolades after ranking among the top-five in the circuit in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage, assists and steals while graduating as the first player in school history to notch 1,300 points, 750 rebounds, 350 assists and 150 steals.

Far from a one-man team, Masiello also oversaw in the development of Ashton Pankey '15 and RaShawn Stores '15. Pankey earned Third Team All-MAAC honors before being named as the Most Outstanding Performer at the 2015 MAAC Championships. Stores paced the MAAC in assist/turnover ratio while spearheading a well-rounded Manhattan attack that featured a tenacious defense and a precision offense.

Shane Richards '16 battled injuries to earn MAAC All-Tournament Team honors while becoming the Jaspers' single-season and career three-point leader.

During Masiello's first seven years, his teams have continuously ranked among the NCAA's best in defensive categories such as blocks, steals, field goal percentage defense, three-point field goal percentage defense and turnover margin.

Four seasons ago, Manhattan went 25-8 and won the 2014 MAAC Championship over Iona by a 71-68 count. It was the Jaspers' first MAAC Title and first 25-win campaign since the 2003-2004 season. For his efforts, Masiello earned the prestigious 2014 Metropolitan Coach of the Year, awarded by the Met Basketball Writers Association.

In the landmark campaign, Brown earned his third-straight MAAC Defensive Player of the Year selection while George Beamon '14 collected his second First Team All-MAAC honor with Brown landing on the Third Team.

Despite a number of key early-season injuries in 2012-13, the Jaspers rallied to win eight of their last 11 games down the stretch. Manhattan reached the MAAC Championship game for the first time in nine years, coming up just three points short of reaching the NCAA Tournament in a miraculous run.

After the season, Brown was voted Second Team All-MAAC, Second Team All-Metropolitan and the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year. The accolades continued for the Jaspers as Richards earned MAAC Co-Rookie of the Year honors and was joined by Richards on the All-Rookie Team.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a NCAA-best 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history while the 21 wins were the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fraschilla's 23 set in 1992-1993.

As a result of the Jaspers' marked improvement, Masiello shared Metropolitan Co-Coach of the Year honors with Dan Hurley.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello as his players sport a perfect 100 percent graduation rate. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012.

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He returned to his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under Rick Pitino.

Over his six-year tenure with the Cardinals, Masiello helped lead Louisville to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. The Cardinals advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time while Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed Louisville's game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as the Cardinals amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two MAAC Championships and subsequent trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, Manhattan posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record with Masiello serving a key contributor to the Jaspers' coaching staff.

During that time Masiello also helped Manhattan to arguably one of the finest wins in program history when the Jaspers defeated Florida in the First Round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament. In terms of player development, Masiello helped Luis Flores '04 blossom into a NBA Player.

A four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, Masiello, played under head coaches Pitino (1996-1997) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year.
