Boyle-led teams own nine of the 13 20-win seasons in team history, the top five single-season win totals and six of the top seven. With a record of 276-173 at CU, his 61.5 winning percentage is second all-time just behind Forrest "Frosty" Cox at 62.3 from 1936-50.

Boyle has 118 Pac-12 regular season wins ranking 19th in conference history.

OPENERS: Colorado improved to 86-35 (.711) in all-time season openers and has won its last eight. The Buffaloes are 12-2 under head coach Tad Boyle and 39-5 in overall season openers since 1980-81.

The Buffaloes are 97-24 (.802) all-time in home openers, have won their last 16 and 22 of their last 23. Boyle's teams are 13-0 in home openers.

PRESEASON POLL: Colorado was picked to finish fifth in the annual Pac-12 Preseason Media Poll released Oct. 11. Arizona, which received 18 first place votes, was picked to win the league, followed by USC, UCLA, Oregon, Colorado and Arizona State.

GOLD STANDARD: Colorado is 86-6 in the Tad Boyle era when meeting the program's "Gold Standard" of holding an opponent to 40 percent or less from the field and having a plus-8 rebounding edge. The Buffaloes have reached that mark in both games this season. Colorado held Grambling State to 38.9 percent and had a plus-17 advantage on the boards (41-24). Colorado held Towson to 35 percent shooting and held a plus-12 advantage on the boards (38-26).

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado was 2-4 against ranked teams in 2022-23. The Buffaloes had nonconference wins over No. 11 Tennessee, 78-66, on Nov. 13, and No. 24 Texas A&M, 103-75, on Nov. 18. He was a first-team All-Big Seven performer for the second straight year and was named a first-team All-American. CU eventually went on to finish third in the nation, losing in the Final Four to eventual champion San Francisco and the legendary Bill Russell. The Buffs defeated Iowa in the then-third place game to match the '42 team for the school's still highest finish ever in the NCAA tournament.

Towson	24	33	57
Colorado	28	47	75

BOULDER — Colorado's defense set the tone in the first half and the Buffaloes' offense came alive in the second Monday as CU rolled to a 75-57 win over Towson in the season opener at the CU Events Center.

The Buffs led by four at the half but exploded with a 17-1 run to open the second half and Towson never threatened again, as CU pushed its lead to as much as 28 down the stretch.

Colorado improved to 14-0 in home openers in the Tad Boyle era. KJ Simpson led the Buffs with 22 points and Tristan da Silva added 13, all in the second half. J'Vonne Hadley added 13 points and a game-high nine rebounds and Luke O'Brien had seven points and seven boards.

Dylan Williamson led Towson with 15 points. Colorado shot 52 percent from the floor, including 8-for-17 from 3-point range. The Buffs missed all seven attempts from beyond the arc in the first half but then hit eight in a row in the second half to build their lead.

CU held the Tigers to 35 percent shooting and had a 38-26 edge on the boards. The Buffs are now 85-6 under Boyle when holding an opponent to 40 percent or less shooting and having at least a plus-8 rebounding edge.

Colorado finished with 21 assists on 26 baskets, with the only downside of the night 16 turnovers.

"That was a good first game," Boyle said. "A tale of two halves, obviously. I thought we fought adversity in the first half offensively and came out in the second half and figured things out a little bit. I was really proud of our defensive effort that first 20 minutes. We really guarded at a high, high level and we did that pretty much the whole game. I'm really happy with this team's defense and rebounding."

HOW IT HAPPENED: Colorado led 28-24 at the half after the Tigers sliced a 13-point deficit to four with a late 11-2 run.

"It's not how we wanted to start offensively," Simpson said. "There was a lot of standing around and not moving the ball. But we got better in the second half."

Indeed, the Buffs needed just a few minutes after intermission to blow the game open.

After missing all seven of their 3-point tries in the first half, the Buffs drained eight in a row to start the second half. Simpson hit two in the first three minutes of the period and da Silva and O'Brien each hit one in the span as Colorado quickly rebuilt its lead to double digits, 40-24.

Towson never threatened again as Colorado steadily built its lead. Another da Silva 3-pointer pushed Colorado's edge to 20 less than six minutes into the period and the cushion ballooned to 28 with 5:26 to play.

Boyle had no gripes about the Buffs' defense in this one. Colorado held Towson to just four points in the first seven minutes of the second half and limited the Tigers to under 30 percent shooting for much of the period.

"We have a chance to be a really good defensive team," Boyle said. Colorado's defense established the tempo early as the Buffs jumped out to a 14-4 lead in the first eight minutes. The Buffs forced a 6-minute scoring drought from the Tigers in that stretch and got six points from Simpson on the offensive end.

The Buffs continued to apply the pressure and with 6:39 left in the half, pushed their lead to 13 when an Eddie Lampkin Jr. bucket inside gave Colorado a 24-11 edge.

But CU's offense then went stagnant and Towson put together an 11-2 run, thanks in part to a handful of Colorado turnovers. A 3-pointer from Messiah Jones with 1:34 left in the half pulled the Tigers to within 26-22 and the two teams traded buckets in the final minute to send Colorado into the break with just a four-point lead, 28-24.

Along with eight turnovers in the opening half the Buffs also shot 0-for-7 from 3-point range.

BOULDER — From the very beginning Friday night, the Colorado Buffaloes made it clear they wouldn't set themselves up for another upset at the hands of Grambling State.

Instead, the Buffs avenged last year's loss at GSU with a dominating 95-63 win over the Tigers at the CU Events Center.

Tad Boyle's Buffs improved to 2-0 while Grambling State dropped to 1-1. A year ago, the Tigers shocked the Buffs with an 83-74 win in Grambling. Friday, Colorado left no doubt that another upset wasn't in the cards. The Buffs built a 10-point lead six minutes in, extended it to 20 midway through the first half and had a 30-point cushion at the break, 50-20.

The second half proved to be more of the same. The Buffs extended their edge to as much as 34 early in the second half and GSU never came closer than 25 again.

Colorado put six players in double figures, led by 21 points from senior Tristan da Silva. J'Vonne Hadley added 17 points, Julian Hammond III scored 14, KJ Simpson had 12 points and Luke O'Brien and Eddie Lampkin Jr. each tallied 10. Hadley and Lampkin each had eight rebounds for Colorado and Simpson had a career-high eight assists and just one turnover while Hammond tied his career high with six assists.

TraMichael Moton led GSU with 26 points. The Buffs dominated virtually every statistical category. CU shot 55.6 percent from the floor (35-for-63) while holding GSU to 38.9 percent from the floor (21-for-54). CU also finished with 28 assists and had a 41-24 rebound edge. Colorado is now 86-6 in the Boyle era when holding an opponent to 40 percent shooting or less and having at least a plus-8 rebound edge.

"I was pleased with everything except for the second half defense," said Boyle, whose Buffs outscored Grambling 45-43 after the break. "I thought we got a little soft."

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs were in control from the outset. CU jumped out to a 14-2 lead after six minutes, then bumped the margin to 20 when a Hadley three-point play gave the Buffs a 30-10 cushion with just under eight minutes to play in the half.

By halftime, Colorado's lead had been extended to 30 as the Buffs put three players in double figures en route to building a 50-20 edge at the break. Da Silva led CU in the first half with 16 points, Hammond — who hit his first three 3-point tries — added 11 and Hadley had 10.

The Buffs also delivered a clinic on sharing the ball and making the extra pass in the first 20 minutes. CU finished with 17 assists on 21 baskets in the opening half as Hadley and Hammond each had four assists. The Buffs also dominated the boards, finishing the half with a 25-11 rebound edge as da Silva and Lampkin each hauled down five boards.

"J'Vonne Hadley, I can't say enough good things," Boyle said of his do-everything wing. "His grit, his toughness, his hustle. He handles the ball, he passes the ball, he's just doing so many good things."

Defensively, the Buffs forced two four-minute scoring droughts from the Tigers in the first half and the offense took advantage.

Colorado continued the onslaught early in the second half, building the edge to as much as 34 and the Tigers never cut the deficit below 25 again.

Simpson, who scored 22 points in CU's opening win, turned his attention to making plays for his teammates and had five of his eight assists in the second half. "KJ had eight assists and one turnover — that's phenomenal," Boyle said. "I talked to KJ before the season. There's gonna be some nights where you need to distribute the ball rather than shoot the ball and tonight was one of those nights. He made a lot of plays."

Da Silva's 21 points came on efficient 8-for-12 shooting and he also had seven rebounds and three assists.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — Colorado's KJ Simpson scored 23 points and the No. 18 Buffaloes survived a tough shooting night Monday to take a 64-59 win over scrappy Richmond in the Sunshine Slam semifinals.

Tad Boyle's Buffs, who jumped seven spots in the AP poll released Monday, improved to 4-0 while Richmond fell to 2-2.

The Buffs will next face Florida State in Tuesday's championship game at 2 p.m. (CBSSN) at Ocean Center.

Monday's game, CU's first away from home this season, wasn't decided until the final minutes.

Colorado led for the majority of the game, jumping out to a quick 6-0 lead and taking a 28-25 edge into intermission. But the Spiders wouldn't go away and took their second lead of the game, 44-42, with nine minutes to play.

The Buffs, though, responded with a quick 6-0 run to regain control. Richmond managed to cut the deficit to one point again before the Buffs finally put the game away. A Tristan da Silva basket with just more than a minute to play bumped CU's edge to five and following a pair of defensive stops, Simpson, da Silva and J'Vonnie Hadley each hit two free throws to give Colorado a nine-point edge, 62-53, with 32 seconds remaining.

Simpson had three rebounds and a pair of assists to go with his 23 points, bolstered by a 9-for-10 effort from the free throw line. Da Silva added 15 points and eight rebounds while Hadley had six points and six boards.

Jordan King led Richmond with 23 points.

Colorado entered the game as the nation's leading 3-point shooting team (51.7 percent) and the sixth-best field goal shooting team (55.7 percent). But the Buffs struggled to find their shooting eye all night, finishing just 20-for-47 from the floor. They did, however, hit 21 of their 25 free throw tries while also holding a 32-26 rebound edge.

Richmond hit 23 of its 51 field goal tries but was just 5-for-20 from long range.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Colorado led 28-25 at the break and pushed the cushion to seven early in the second half on four Simpson free throws.

But the Buffs could never shake the Spiders. Richmond stayed within range and finally took its second lead of the game, 44-42, when King hit two of three free throws at the 9:07 mark.

Colorado answered with a 6-0 run, getting a Simpson 3-pointer and a Cody Williams layup in transition for a 48-44 lead.

But Richmond stayed within striking range and with just more than four minutes to play, cut Colorado's lead to one on a long King 2-pointer.

Colorado then pushed its lead back to five on a pair of free throws from Simpson and Hadley before Richmond narrowed the gap to three one more time.

CU's defense then stepped up. Eddie Lampkin Jr. forced a turnover, then found da Silva underneath with a beautiful pass. Da Silva rammed it home and Colorado had a 58-53 lead with 1:29 to play.

Colorado then recorded back-to-back stops and the Spiders had to foul. Simpson, da Silva and Hadley all hit free throws in the final 1:03 to keep the Spiders at bay and give Colorado the win.

Colorado jumped out to a quick 6-0 lead, sparked by a pair of buckets from Tristan da Silva.

But the Spiders answered with an 8-0 run to take their only lead of the half. Colorado endured a three-minute scoring drought that covered five straight empty possessions, including two turnovers.

CU finally ended the drought on a Lampkin bucket, then regained the lead when RJ Smith drained a long 3-pointer to give Colorado an 11-8 lead.

Richmond did manage to tie the game again at 13-13 before the Buffs took the lead on a Simpson 3-pointer. The Buffs then used a 6-0 run to take their biggest lead of the half, 22-15, on the heels of a Cody Williams steal and basket, two free throws from Julian Hammond III and a Lampkin basket inside.

But Richmond once again battled back to close the gap to two and Colorado led by just three, 28-25, at the break.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — Colorado overcame a 10-point second-half deficit Tuesday to force overtime but the No. 18 Buffaloes came up short in the extra period, falling 77-71 to Florida State in the Sunshine Slam championship game.

Tad Boyle's Buffs fell to 4-1 overall while the Seminoles improved to 4-1.

Cold shooting doomed the Buffs, as CU shot just 35 percent from the floor (25-for-72), including 5-for-20 from 3-point range. Colorado also committed 20 turnovers, which the Seminoles converted into 19 points.

The Seminoles shot 47 percent from the game (25-for-57), but were 15-for-28 in the second half and overtime, including 4-for-4 in the extra period.

Cody Williams led CU with 17 points on 6-for-10 shooting. Colorado's two leading scorers for the young season, KJ Simpson and Tristan da Silva, both suffered poor shooting nights. Simpson finished with 15 points on 5-for-22 shooting (1-for-6 from long range) while da Silva had eight points on 2-for-9 shooting.

FSU had four players in double figures, led by Jalen Warley with 19.

In a game that featured nine lead changes and 13 ties, Colorado held a 30-27 edge at the break. FSU used a 20-7 run early in the second half to take a 10-point lead, but Colorado quickly put together a 10-0 run to tie the game.

The Buffs fell behind again but used an 8-0 surge to regain the lead, only to go scoreless over the last 2:48 of regulation as FSU rallied to force overtime.

Florida State then scored the first nine minutes of the extra period to take control for good.

"We gave one away," a disappointed Boyle said after the game. "We were not very good. We knew Florida State was going to pressure, but when you have 20 turnovers against anybody, it's going to be hard to win. ... When something like this happens, it's hard to blame anyone but the coach. I've got to do a better job."

HOW IT HAPPENED: Colorado led 30-27 at the half but a cold start and some hot Seminole shooting from long range resulted in FSU taking a 10-point lead early in the second half. Florida State opened the period with a 20-7 run that included four 3-pointers and CU trailed, 47-37, less than seven minutes into the half.

But the Buffs rallied. Colorado put together a 10-0 run, capped by a Simpson 3-pointer, to tie the game at 47-47.

FSU then regained the lead, taking a 55-49 edge before Colorado staged another rally. J'Vonnie Hadley sparked an 8-0 run with a pair of baskets and two da Silva free throws gave CU a 57-55 edge with 4:24 to play in regulation.

CU then took a 60-57 lead on a 3-pointer from Julian Hammond III before the Seminoles tied it with 1:15 on the clock — and that's how regulation play ended, with both teams coming up empty on offensive possessions in the final minute.

Florida State then took control early in the overtime, scoring the first nine points of the period and a CU rally in the final minute came up short.

"Our guys battled, our guys competed," Boyle said. "It's not a toughness factor, it's not a competitiveness factor, it's not not being ready to play. It was just simply taking care of the basketball and taking great shots and the ability to finish and we weren't good enough with that tonight."

Shooting woes hounded the Buffs for nearly the entire game. CU was just 4-for-17 from the floor to open the first half and while the Seminoles were also having a tough time finding the bucket, FSU finally put together a 6-0 run to take an 18-12 lead with 7 minutes to play in the half.

But the Buffs finally found their shooting eye coming out of a timeout. Williams hit a bucket from the lane to start a 9-0 run that included a pair of Simpson buckets (both off feeds from da Silva), a Williams free throw and two charity tosses from da Silva.

With four minutes to go in the half, Colorado held a 21-18 lead, and they extended the margin to 23-19 on a Luke O'Brien dunk at the 3:31 mark.

Florida State rallied to tie the game at 27-27 before Hammond III drained a 3-pointer just before the halftime buzzer to give Colorado a 30-27 lead at the break.
