QUICK HITS

Siena returns to the Capital Region to continue a stretch where they play five of seven at MVP Arena

The Saints are seeking to snap a four-game home losing streak

The four-game home losing streak is the program's longest since dropping five straight at home from Feb. 18 - Nov. 24, 2018

Siena has been outscored by an average of 18.3 points during their four-game home losing streak

The Saints are in search of some home cooking as they look to get back on track

Siena has dropped 21 of their past 24 games dating back to last season

Through Wednesday, the Saints rank in the bottom-10 nationally in bench scoring (10.7 - second worst), turnover margin (-5.7 - third worst), assist-to-turnover ratio (0.65 - fourth worst), scoring margin (-14.7 - fifth worst), scoring (62.1 - sixth worst), turnovers (16.5 - seventh worst), fastbreak points (5.0 - eighth worst), three-point field goal percentage (.270 - ninth worst), and free throw percentage (.627 - 10th worst)

Leading scorer and rebounder Sean Durugordon (23.0 points, 8.4 rebounds) missed the first 10 games (transfer), reigning MAAC Rookie of the Year and Preseason Second Team All-MAAC selection Michael Eley (14.1) has missed seven full games and all but 2:17 of an eighth (ankle/hamstring), and fellow starting guard Zek Tekin (9.1) missed three games (various ailments)

Siena has received a scoring boost from the addition of Durugordon, who made his debut on Dec. 19 vs. Cornell

Durugordon posted a program DI record six straight 20-plus point performances to begin his Siena career (Dec. 19 - Jan. 15)

Durugordon has scored 184 points - 51 more than anyone else in their first eight games as a Saint (Jalen Pickett: 133 in 2018-19)

Averaging 23.0 points - which would rank third in Division I if he had enough games to qualify - and 8.4 rebounds

Tallied three double-doubles and posted consecutive 30-point performances on the Western New York trip

Saints are averaging 68.8 points in eight games with Durugordon (averaged 56.7 points in first 10 games without him)

Two-time undergraduate transfer (Austin Peay, Missouri) was cleared to play with the Dec. 13 federal court ruling

Durugordon had his request for a waiver seeking immediate eligibility this season denied by the NCAA on Nov. 8, and was awaiting a decision on his appeal when the federal court ruling came down

Led Austin Peay in scoring (12.4) while appearing in 27 games (23 starts) last season

Ranked second in the ASUN in offensive rebounding (2.44), sixth in double-doubles (four), and 10th in rebounding (6.0)

Killian Gribben leads the MAAC averaging 1.4 blocks following his career-high five block output at Brown

Seven of Siena's first 18 games have been decided by five points or fewer (3-4 record)

The other 11 have been decided by 12 points or more (all losses)

The Saints are 47-12 (.797) when scoring 70 or more points under Maciariello

Siena has failed to hit the 70-point mark in 19 of its past 24 games, going 3-21 during that span

Siena snapped streaks and racked up the accolades in their 93-88 win at Niagara on Jan. 15

Secured first win in 45 days dating back to a conference-opening 67-65 victory over Rider on Dec. 1 at MVP Arena

Snapped an eight-game losing streak - the program's longest since dropping 11 straight from Nov. 8, 2012 - Jan. 6, 2013

Ended a 13-game drought away from home - including 10 straight road losses

First true road win since a 72-65 victory at Mount St. Mary's on Feb. 10, 2023

Had been program's longest true road game losing streak since dropping 11 straight from Dec. 20, 2017 - Nov. 6, 2018

Siena had entered play second-to-last nationally in free throw percentage (59.8%)

Four three-point field goal attempts - fewest since not attempting a three-point shot in a 72-56 win at Hartford on Feb. 27, 1987 (first year of college three-point line)

Durugordon erupted for a collegiate career-high 36 points and shot a program record 16-16 from the free throw line

Two separate Saints recorded double-doubles

Siena also grabbed 50 rebounds in its next home game vs. Cornell (Dec. 19)

The Saints posted season-highs in rebound margin (+16) and offensive rebounds (22)

Siena ranks 39th nationally in offensive rebounding (12.9)

Siena is in the midst of the program's 35th season of Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference competition

The Saints have won at least a share of nine MAAC Regular Season Championships and claimed six MAAC Tournament titles

Siena is 384-288 (.571) all-time overall in MAAC competition

The Saints 344 MAAC Regular Season wins are second most in conference history, trailing only Iona (440) who entered the conference eight years prior

Siena has more wins than Manhattan, Saint Peter's, and Fairfield, despite joining the MAAC eight years after each of those three league rivals

The Saints were projected fourth (out of 11 teams) according to the MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll

Siena has finished, on average, at least three spots higher than their preseason poll prediction in each of Maciariello's first four seasons, save for his second year when the Saints made good on their preseason favorite pick

The Saints are tied with Iona for the most conference regular season victories amongst all MAAC programs since the start of the 2018-19 season

The Saints were in the midst of the program's longest losing streak since dropping 11 straight from Nov. 18, 2012 - Jan. 6, 2013

A pair of Saints showcased their talents on the global stage this summer

Rising sophomore Killian Gribben co-captained his native Ireland at the FIBA U20 European Championships in North Macedonia

Siena and MVP Arena

Officially renamed on Jan. 1, 2022, MVP Arena in downtown Albany has served as the exclusive home court for Siena Men's Basketball since 1997. Over that time, Siena's attendance has soared to new heights, bringing national acclaim to the mid-major program that competes in a major basketball setting. The Saints have ranked in the top-100 nationally in average home attendance for a milestone 25 consecutive seasons, and have been the most highly attended Northeast mid-major three years running.

Siena ranked 75th nationally out of 363 Division I programs in average home attendance during the 2022-23 season, marking the program's second-highest ever ranking after checking in at 66 in both 2002-03 and 2009-10. The Saints average home attendance of 6,415 over 13 total home dates at MVP Arena last season also reflected the program's highest mark in 11 years, dating back to 6,509 in 2011-12. Siena achieved a record 16.2% increase in its average home attendance from the prior 2021-22 season (5,519), marking the program's highest-ever annual increase since making the full-time move downtown in 1997-98.

The Saints average home attendance last winter was 24% greater and 16 spots higher in the national rankings than its nearest Northeast mid-major competitor, Rhode Island, which checked in 91st with an average of 5,158. The Northeast comprises nine states according to the United States Census Bureau: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Mid-major teams are defined as programs from the 25 conferences which do not comprise "high majors," which are the Power 5 (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, and SEC), AAC, and Big East.

Siena impressively out-drew, on average, 22 high-major programs nationally including 14 Power Fives last season: Boston College (ACC), California (Pac-12), Colorado (Pac-12), Georgia Tech (ACC), Miami (ACC), Northwestern (Big Ten), Notre Dame (ACC), Ole Miss (SEC), Oregon (Pac-12), Oregon State (Pac-12), Stanford (Pac-12), TCU (Big 12), USC (Pac-12), and Washington State (Pac-12).

The Saints average home attendance also once again out-ranked the national NCAA Division I average home attendance of 4,354 by a whopping 47% – a 19% increase from the season prior.

Additionally, Siena ranked 10th nationally out of 276 mid-major programs in average home attendance last season. The Saints were also 10th among all Northeast programs overall – trailing only high-major schools – and third out of 22 Division I programs in the State of New York behind only Syracuse and St. John's.

Siena's 25-season streak of ranking in the top-100 nationally in average home attendance has coincided with the program's full-time move downtown to what is now known as MVP Arena beginning in 1997-98. The 25-season run does not include the 2020-21 COVID impacted season in which fans were not permitted to attend most if not all games nationwide due to the pandemic.

The Saints have now drawn 2,745,917 fans – an average of 6,431 fans – over 427 all-time games at MVP Arena, dating back to the program's first home contest in the facility during the 1990-91 season. Siena welcomed their two-millionth fan on Dec. 23, 2014 vs. Cornell, and have drawn crowds in excess of 10,000 on 33 occasions. The Saints hold a 280-147 (.656) all-time record at MVP Arena, including a stellar 265-125 (.679) mark since permanently making the facility its home beginning with the 1997-98 season.
