STACK WINS

Manhattan is looking to stack wins for the first time in MAAC play when it hosts Iona (8-12, 5-4 MAAC). The trip to Mount St. Mary's last weekend was a successful getaway for the Jaspers after a heartbreaking overtime loss to Fairfield two days prior. In the bounce-back win over the Mountaineers, the Jaspers hit 10-of-30 attempts from long range, the most made threes for Manhattan since knocking down 10 in the win at Rider on January 5. Manhattan is looking to stay hot from three and will look to Devin Dinkins (team-high 45.7%) to lead the charge. Dinkins and Manhattan are seeking its first two-game winning streak in MAAC play this season.

Iona is the best offensive rebounding unit in the MAAC with 15.5 offensive caroms per game. The Gaels are led by Tobin Anderson, who is in his second season with the program, and added 16 new players this past offseason.

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering — an impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

On March 29, 2023, John Gallagher was named the 24th head coach in the history of the Manhattan University men's basketball program. The 47-year-old coach has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience on the Division I level. Before accepting the head coaching job at Manhattan, Gallagher served as head coach for the University of Hartford men's basketball program for 12 seasons through the program's penultimate season in Division I (2021-2022). During his time in West Hartford, Gallagher took the Hawks program to three postseason appearances highlighted by Hartford's at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after beating UMass Lowell in the America East Championship Game. Hartford matched up with Baylor, the eventual national champions, in a first-round match-up between the No.16-seeded Hawks and the No.1-seeded Bears. Additionally, Gallagher led Hartford to its highest winning percentage (.625) that season by winning 15 of 24 games. Prior to the tournament berth, Gallagher oversaw a Hartford program that earned four straight top four finishes in the America East, and notched back to back conference championship game appearances in 2019-2020 and 2020-2021. In 2020, the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the America East Championship Game which was set to feature Hartford and Vermont.

During the 2017-2018 season, Gallagher spearheaded a Hawks team which set the program record win total with 19 victories and clinched a spot in the CIT. Hartford took a massive step up after finishing the previous season with a 9-23 record, underscoring the rapid improvements Gallagher was able to make in a short amount of time. Gallagher consistently showed a knack of getting his teams to exceed expectations. While coaching the 11th youngest team in the country, Gallagher architected the program's first-ever postseason campaign in 2012-2013 with a bid to the CIT. That season, Gallagher was named 2013 America Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

Gallagher's Hartford teams had a chip on their shoulder defensively, too. In 2020-2021, Hartford was 31st in the country in scoring defense (63.9) and 10th in 3-point defense (29 percent). The Hawks ranked second best in America in 3-point defense the year before by holding opponents to a 27.5 percent clip. The 2012-2013 campaign featured its own share of defensive bright spots, none more than a scoring defense which touted a program-record 61.2 points-per-game for opponents. Hartford also led the America East in steals (8.2) and forced turnovers (16) that season. Gallagher was the associate head coach at Hartford from 2006-2008 during Dan Leibovitz's stint leading the program. He started his coaching career at La Salle in 1999 and was part of the Explorers' coaching staff under both Speedy Morris and later Billy Hahn. In 2003, Gallagher left to join Fran O'Hanlon's staff at Lafayette, spending three seasons in Easton while building his name in coaching circles. Gallagher also made an assistant coaching stop at University of Pennsylvania working under Glen Miller from 2008-2010. Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1999. He played on the Hawks men's basketball team from 1996-1999 under the program's all-time winningest coach Phil Martelli. During the 1996-97 season, Saint Joe's went 26-7 and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Kentucky.

A native of Broomall, Pennsylvania, Gallagher is the father of four kids (Kenna, Alanna, Jack and Mary) and resides in Bronxville. He is one of four siblings in a basketball-loving family, as his sisters Ann and Joan both played college basketball at La Salle and Boston College.
