DOUBLE TROUBLE

Manhattan is 4-0 this season when facing teams a second time. The Jaspers will look to get the better of Iona on Friday at Hynes after previously beating the Gaels, 76-55, at Draddy Gym on Jan. 31. The Jaspers are eyeing its first-season sweep of Iona since the 2006-07 season.

JASPER NOTES

FANTASTIC FIVE

Manhattan is one of three teams (Saint Mary's, Marquette) who has started the same five players in every game this season. The line-up of Jaden Winston, Shaquil Bender, Swish Gilyard, Will Sydnor and Wesley Robinson have been a constant since day one for John Gallagher's squad which has won 5 of its last 6 games.

BROADCASTER TIPS

- Jaspers have won 5 out of its last 6 games for the first time since the 2021-22 season.
- Fraser Roxburgh (7.6 PPG) is back in the line-up tonight at Iona.
- Roxburgh missed the last 12 MAAC games due to a foot injury.
- Manhattan has won back-to-back home games vs. Iona by double-digits.
- This is the third time in the last four years that the Manhattan-Iona rivalry will be featured on national television.
- The victory over Iona in late January was the Jaspers' largest margin of victory over Iona since a 23-point triumph at Draddy on Feb. 2, 2020.
- Manhattan is one of 14 teams to play 4 or more overtime games this season.
- Swish Gilyard ranks 12th in the country in offensive rebounding with 3.65 offensive caroms per game.
- On Sunday at Fairfield, Swish set a DI career-high in points with 21.
- Devin Dinkins and Wesley Robinson are the only two MAAC players to rank in the Top 25 for FG%, 3FG% and FT%.
- Dinkins ranks first in the MAAC in three-point percentage at 46.7% (49-105) and is second in the conference in free throw percentage at 86.6% (97-112).
- Winston leads the Jaspers with 4.69 assists per game which is tops on the team and ranks 85th nationally.
- Winston hit the 250-mark for assists in his career after registering 5 helpers in the win over Merrimack on Friday. Last season, Winston set the program record for assists in a single game with 13 vs. Iona (3/7).
- Gilyard posted a career a DI-career high 14 rebounds in the loss at Sacred Heart. This season, Gilyard has six double-digit rebounding efforts including three instances with at least 13 boards.
- Will Sydnor leads the Jaspers and all conference first-years with 15.3 PPG and ranks 7th among all MAAC players. Dinkins is 12th in the conference with 13.6 PPG.
- Sydnor has 18 double-digit scoring outputs in his first 23 career games.

- Manhattan is tied with Quinnipiac for first in the MAAC in free-throw shooting at 75.9%.
- The Jaspers average 15 assists per game, which is tied for 67th nationally.
- Manhattan is a much-improved rebounding unit in 2024-25, averaging 36.8 rebounds per game which is fourth best in the MAAC. Last season, the Jaspers averaged 33 caroms per game and were -5 in average rebounding margin.
- The Jaspers have canned the second-most three-pointers per game in the MAAC this season at 8.4. Sacred Heart's 9.7 leads the way.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

Iona possesses a swarming pressure defense under Tobin Anderson, with the Gaels sitting in 6th place in the MAAC at 8-7. The Gaels boast an explosive backcourt featuring senior Dejour Reaves (16.4 PPG) and freshman Adam Njie (11.8 PPG). The Gaels only rank 6th in the MAAC in scoring at 68.8 PPG, but make up for it with their grit and intensity. Iona tops the offensive rebounding charts with 14.3 caroms per game and are second in turnover margin at 1.81. Iona is on a two-game skid after being swept last weekend in games vs. Rider and at Quinnipiac.

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering — an impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

GROWING FAMILIARITY

Merrimack is one of two new members in the MAAC this season along with Sacred Heart. The first meeting this season between the Jaspers and the Warriors was also the first time in history that the two programs clashed. Manhattan's visit to Sacred Heart almost two weeks ago was also the first meeting between both northeast programs.

On March 29, 2023, John Gallagher was named the 24th head coach in the history of the Manhattan University men's basketball program. The 47-year-old coach has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience on the Division I level. Before accepting the head coaching job at Manhattan, Gallagher served as head coach for the University of Hartford men's basketball program for 12 seasons through the program's penultimate season in Division I (2021-2022). During his time in West Hartford, Gallagher took the Hawks program to three postseason appearances highlighted by Hartford's at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after beating UMass Lowell in the America East Championship Game. Hartford matched up with Baylor, the eventual national champions, in a first-round match-up between the No.16-seeded Hawks and the No.1-seeded Bears. Additionally, Gallagher led Hartford to its highest winning percentage (.625) that season by winning 15 of 24 games. Prior to the tournament berth, Gallagher oversaw a Hartford program that earned four straight top four finishes in the America East, and notched back to back conference championship game appearances in 2019-2020 and 2020-2021. In 2020, the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the America East Championship Game which was set to feature Hartford and Vermont.

During the 2017-2018 season, Gallagher spearheaded a Hawks team which set the program record win total with 19 victories and clinched a spot in the CIT. Hartford took a massive step up after finishing the previous season with a 9-23 record, underscoring the rapid improvements Gallagher was able to make in a short amount of time. Gallagher consistently showed a knack of getting his teams to exceed expectations. While coaching the 11th youngest team in the country, Gallagher architected the program's first-ever postseason campaign in 2012-2013 with a bid to the CIT. That season, Gallagher was named 2013 America Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

Gallagher's Hartford teams had a chip on their shoulder defensively, too. In 2020-2021, Hartford was 31st in the country in scoring defense (63.9) and 10th in 3-point defense (29 percent). The Hawks ranked second best in America in 3-point defense the year before by holding opponents to a 27.5 percent clip. The 2012-2013 campaign featured its own share of defensive bright spots, none more than a scoring defense which touted a program-record 61.2 points-per-game for opponents. Hartford also led the America East in steals (8.2) and forced turnovers (16) that season. Gallagher was the associate head coach at Hartford from 2006-2008 during Dan Leibovitz's stint leading the program. He started his coaching career at La Salle in 1999 and was part of the Explorers' coaching staff under both Speedy Morris and later Billy Hahn. In 2003, Gallagher left to join Fran O'Hanlon's staff at Lafayette, spending three seasons in Easton while building his name in coaching circles. Gallagher also made an assistant coaching stop at University of Pennsylvania working under Glen Miller from 2008-2010. Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1999. He played on the Hawks men's basketball team from 1996-1999 under the program's all-time winningest coach Phil Martelli. During the 1996-97 season, Saint Joe's went 26-7 and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Kentucky.

A native of Broomall, Pennsylvania, Gallagher is the father of four kids (Kenna, Alanna, Jack and Mary) and resides in Bronxville. He is one of four siblings in a basketball-loving family, as his sisters Ann and Joan both played college basketball at La Salle and Boston College.

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

Game #23 - Manhattan @ Fairfield - 2/16/25

FAIRFIELD, CT - Manhattan led by six at halftime, and then fended off an early second-half run by the Stags to take control of the game in a 80-67 rout. Devin Dinkins hit a dagger three from the corner to put Manhattan ahead by 13 with 1:01 left. After getting beat inside early, Manhattan launched a 9-0 run to take an 18-16 lead with 11:50 left. After a three from Prophet Johnson gave the Stags a 23-21 lead, back-to-back baskets in the form of a dunk from Will Sydnor and a steal and fastbreak lay-up for Jaden Winston retook a lead for Manhattan at 25-23 with 7:05 left in the first half. The Jaspers closed the half on a 14-6 run to stake out a 39-33 lead at halftime. An early 7-0 run from the Stags in the second half tied the game at 40. Manhattan finally got the board with its first bucket of the half by virtue of a three-pointer from Winston at 17:04. Manhattan went up by eight following a smooth jumper from Dinkins after some great passing around the key. Another 7-0 run from the Jaspers stretched the lead to 12 following a three from Dinkins and a fastbreak dunk from Shaquil Bender. Fairfield cut it back down to nine within the final two minutes, before another lay-up from Bender, a free throw from Gilyard and the clutch three from Dinkins put the game out of reach. Manhattan has won 5 of its last 6 games and are now tied for fourth in the standings with Mount St. Mary's at 8-6. 14 of Gilyard's 21 points came in the first half. The point output was a new DI career-high for Swish. Manhattan posted a 16-7 advantage for points on the fastbreak. Manhattan had 16 assists on 30 made field goals. Dinkins, who made both of his three-point attempts on Sunday, has hit at least two threes in five of his last six games. Dinkins is 15-31 (48.3%) from three during that stretch. Gilyard and Sydnor each pulled down seven boards. Manhattan had five double-digit scorers, including a season high-matching 18 points from Winston, Sydnor (13), Bender (12) and Dinkins (10) were among the other double-digit scorers.
