IONA
GAELS
14-16 (11-8 MAAC)

OPENING TIP

- Sacred Heart and Iona will wrap up the regular season with their second meeting this year. Fighting for playoff seeding, Iona is in a three-way tie for fourth place, and the Pios are currently seventh.
- The Pioneers are coming off a road loss at Manhattan, 90-74 on Thursday evening. Amiri Stewart led three players in double figures.
- Stewart (20) and Bryce Johnson (18) scored in double figures for the third straight game, and Tanner Thomas added 12 in the loss.
- Three Pioneers are averaging double figures: Thomas (14.7), Anquan Hill (12.8), and Amiri Stewart (12.2).
- Thomas is the team leader in rebounds with 6.4, followed by Bryce Johnson (5.9) and Hill (5.3).
- Mekhi Conner is 12th in the nation with 194 assists and 11th in assists per game, with 6.6 this season.
- Sacred Heart's 9.5 three-pointers per game are 40th in the country, 44th in 3PT attempts at 27.2, and 37th in assists per game at 16.2.
- Thomas was named to the All-MAAC preseason third team.
- This is Sacred Heart's first season as a full-time member of the MAAC.
- The Pioneers have 10 new players on the team.
- Head Coach Anthony Latina is in his 12th season as head coach and 20th year overall with the Pioneers.

NEW ERA

Sacred Heart University is entering a new era. The 2024-25 season will be the Pioneer's first year in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), after spending the previous 24 years in the Northeast Conference (NEC). SHU announced the move on Oct. 23, 2023, and officially kicked off its membership on July 1, 2024. This transaction connects a school with a growing national presence and media following to a conference of like-minded, predominantly catholic schools founded in 1980. For SHU, the MAAC also includes a natural rivalry with a pair of Connecticut schools with similar philosophies, Fairfield and Quinnipiac.

OUT WITH THE OLD, IN WITH THE NEW

Sacred Heart just completed renovations to the William H. Pitt Center, which began in March 2024. The facility has served as the heart of SHU Division I athletics and is the competition home to multiple sports, including men's and women's basketball, volleyball, and wrestling. In the upgraded layout, the court has rotated 90 degrees from its previous position and is surrounded by permanent bleacher-style and backed arena-style seating, bringing fans closer to the action and creating a true home-court advantage. This redesign will maximize the footprint of the building and allow for ample practice options, creating a top-tier experience for SHU's talented student-athletes. The renovations provide a high-quality fan experience, especially with the addition of a mezzanine for VIP seating and events, video boards, sound systems, and lighting. Sacred Heart officially opened the facility with a men's and women's basketball doubleheader on Thursday, Nov. 21. The women defeated Monmouth, 63-56, while the men beat Central Connecticut State 67-54.

WHAT'S ON TAP

The Pioneers have 31 games this season, including 13 in the newly renovated William H. Pitt Center, and 20 games in MAAC play. SHU will face four Connecticut teams including UConn, Central Connecticut State, and new conference foes Quinnipiac and Fairfield. For the sixth time in program history, Sacred Heart made the in-state trip to Storrs, Conn., to take on the defending back-to-back National Champions, UConn, on Nov. 6 in their first matup since 2019. Sacred Heart's home opener was Thursday, Nov. 21, against another in-state rival, Central Connecticut State. The Pios capped off an opening-night doubleheader with a 67-54 win over CCSU in renovated Pitt Center. SHU went 1-1 in its opening week of MAAC play with a home win against Iona on Dec. 6, followed by a road loss at Quinnipiac on Dec. 8. The Pioneers took a three-game break from conference action with a pair of losses to UAlbany at home and Miami (OH) on the road, followed by a home win over Manhattanville. Sacred Heart returns to conference play on Jan. 5, at home against Canisius. The Pioneers will face eight MAAC opponents twice and will meet four opponents once during the season. The regular season will wrap up on the road at Iona on Mar. 8. The MAAC Championship will take place on March 11-15 at Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City, N.J.

WELCOME TO PIO COUNTRY

The Pioneers have seven first-years on the 2024-25 roster. A handful of transfers join the SHU squad; Bryce Johnson, a graduate student from Northeastern, Griffin Barrouk, a junior from Hofstra, and Amiri Stewart, a senior from Wilmington University. Redshirt sophomore Jaden Slaughter joins the Pioneers from St Joseph's Collegiate Institute prep school. Junior Keyishon Miller is a new addition to SHU from Fort Hays Tech Northwest from the National Junior College Athletic Association.

WE'RE FROM PHILLY...

Five of the Pioneers hail from in and around the Philadelphia, Pa. area. Keyishon Miller, Griffin Barrouk, Nyle Ralph-Beyer, Amiri Stewart, and Anquan Hill have spent time playing together growing up. All from the Philly area, the five guys have either been on teams together or have played as opponents throughout their childhood and high school careers. Now, they will suit up together for the Pioneers.

ROTATING PIOS

The Pioneers have been hit with injuries this season. There have been three games in which everyone was healthy and available: Dartmouth, Central Connecticut, and Iona. With that, SHU has seen 13 different starting lineup rotations. The longest streak with the same lineup was 13 games from 12/19-2/16.

CONNECTICUT CONNECTION

SHU has a trio of players who are originally from Connecticut. Aidan Carpenter is from Hamden, CT. He played high school basketball at Hamden High School before transferring to the Hyde School in Maine as a junior. He then attended the Lee Academy for prep school before attending Siena. Mekhi Conner, from New Haven, had a stellar career at Notre Dame-West Haven and turned into one of the top recruits for SHU. He played a post-grad year at Putnam Science and then made his way to Sacred Heart. Tanner Thomas, a Stamford, CT native, has been named to the All-MAAC Preseason Third Team. In high school, he played at Amity before heading to Willison Northampton to finish his high school career.

FIRST-YEAR CONNECTION

Sacred Heart has seen tremendous production from their rookie class. Mekhi Conner, Nyle Ralph-Beyer, Fallou Gueye, and Taj Bryant have all contributed to the Pioneers. Conner has been a tremendous starting point guard for SHU, appearing in all 28 contests, starting all but one. He has 11 double figure scoring performances during the season and has five or more assists in 19 games, and 10 or more in four games. Ralph-Beyer has provided excellent three-point shooting off the bench for the Pios but made his way into the starting lineup for the first time on Friday, Feb. 21 against Merrimack. He has scored in double figures in 11 games, including a career-high 20 points, twice. He is shooting 43.2 (57-132) from three-point range while averaging 9.4 points per game. Gueye has appeared in all but one game this season with four starts. He has scored in double figures in three games, averaging 2.2 ppg. Bryant has made 11 appearances this season, averaging 2.5 ppg, 1.9 rebounds, and 1.1 assists.

SHU ON THE U

Sacred Heart played its first ESPN U game as a MAAC member on Friday, February 14, against Quinnipiac. Bobcats defeated the Pioneers and took the season series, 2-0. The previous time SHU was on ESPNU was 2/9/23 at Saint Francis University.

IN THE RANKINGS

Mekhi Conner is 12th in the nation with 194 assists and 11th in assists per game, with 6.6 this season. Sacred Heart's 9.5 three-pointers per game are 40th in the country, 44th in 3PT attempts at 27.2, and 37th in assists per game at 16.2. In the MAAC, SHU's offense is 2nd 76.0; the team FG % is 5th at 44.1%. The Pios are 2nd in the MAAC in 3-PT FG % at 35.0%. Tanner Thomas is 7th in the MAAC in scoring, 14.7, and 11th in rebounding, 6.4. Anquan Hill's 54.5 FG% is 3rd in the MAAC and Bryce Johnson's 53.6% is 5th. Nyle Ralph-Beyer (43.2) and Hill (42.5) have two of the top four 3-PT FG% in the conference. Conner's 6.5 assists are first in the league. Conner (1.9) is 5th and Amiri Stewart (1.7) is 9th MAAC in steals. Stewart and Hill are 9th and 10th in the league in blocked shots (0.9).

NUTMEG STATE OF MIND

Sacred Heart will face all but one Division 1 men's basketball program in Connecticut. With new natural rivalries within the conference with Fairfield and Quinnipiac, out of conference play, the Pioneers will face Central Connecticut State and the University of Connecticut. Yale is the only CT school that the Pios will not play this season. Sacred Heart will meet UConn in the Huskies season opener at Gampel Pavilion on Wednesday, Nov. 6. The two teams have met six times prior, with the last meeting in 2019, and UConn holds a 0-6 advantage. SHU and CCSU have a long history as rivals in the Northeast Conference and even early during the team's DII days, dating back to 1970-71. They have met 64 times overall, and until last season, the Pioneers had won its previous 15 games over Central. CCSU won a pair last season to break the streak. Sacred Heart and Fairfield have met 10 times overall, a majority of the games were played at a neutral site up until the 2021-22 season. SHU is still looking for its first win over the Stags. SHU and Quinnipiac will meet for the first time since the 2019-20 season. The Pioneers have won 41 games, while the Bobcats have won 24 of the meetings.

SCOUTING THE GAELS

- Iona is 14-16 in the season, 11-8 in the MAAC, and currently in a three-way tie for fourth place.
- The Gaels are coming off a pair of wins at Niagara (65-63) and Canisius (82-52) last weekend.
- Two players are averaging double figures, Dejour Reaves (16.6) and Adam Njie Jr. (12.). Yaphet Moundi is the leader in rebounds (7.0).
- Iona's offense is 6th in the MAAC (69.1) and 4th in defense (70.2).

Anthony Latina enters his 12th season at the helm of the Sacred Heart University men's basketball program in 2024-25. He has engineered a strong resurgence of the Pioneers' program during his tenure. Sacred Heart enters a new era in its first year in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) in 2024-25.

Latina and the Pioneers made 10 Northeast Conference Tournament appearances, including back-to-back top-four finishes in the last two seasons and six straight appearances from 2019-24.

Latina's strong ability to recruit talented student-athletes and focus on player development annually had Sacred Heart amongst the leaders in the NEC's postseason awards. During his time as head coach, Latina has produced the program's first Defensive Player of the Year (Jare'l Spellman) and Player of the Year (Cane Broome), along with a pair of Most Improved Players (Tyler Thomas and E.J. Anosike). In addition to the major award winners, 16 athletes were named to All-NEC teams, and SHU has had six players named to the NEC All-Rookie team during Latina's tenure.

The 2019-20 season saw Sacred Heart have its best campaign at the Division I level as the Pioneers won 20 games and advanced to the semifinals of the NEC Tournament. The 2019-20 squad was the first Pioneer team to reach 20 wins since the 1988-89 season and was the first team to reach that mark in the DI era. The team also won its first postseason game since 2009, earning a 61-59 win over Mount Saint Mary's.

During the 2015-16 campaign, Latina led the Pioneers to a second-place finish in the NEC and coached the NEC Player of the Year, Broome. Broome is the only player in program history to win the conference's Player of the Year honor and the second sophomore in league history to win the award. Broome led the NEC and ranked 10th nationally in scoring during the season.

Latina took over the reins of the Sacred Heart program after spending eight seasons as an assistant under the legendary Dave Bike. He joined Bike's staff in 2005-06 after spending the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State University. At CCSU, he helped guide the Blue Devils to two NCAA Tournament appearances and three trips to the NEC title game. He was part of the staff that helped produce the first-ever NBA draft pick from CCSU, Corsley Edwards, who was taken in the second round by the Sacramento Kings in 2002.

Before joining Central Connecticut's staff, Latina worked for four years as an assistant coach at Division II UMass-Lowell.

Latina was a four-year starter and two-year captain as a point guard at Brandeis University. He was part of the 1991-92 squad that won the ECAC Championship. An honor student in the classroom, Latina also received the Athletic Director's Award and Stein Attitude and Dedication to Basketball Award at Brandeis. He earned his undergraduate degree in history and American Studies from Brandeis and his Master's in Education from UMass-Lowell.

The Connecticut native was a captain of the 1990-91 Connecticut State Championship team at South Catholic High School under legendary coach Joe Reilly.

Latina and his wife, Jodi, and children, Luke and Zoe reside in Wethersfield, Conn.
