Coach of the Year

Continuing a transformative era for the Merrimack College men's basketball program, Joe Gallo '04 begins his 10th season on the Warriors sidelines in 2025-26, having led the Warriors to a second-place finish in their inaugural season in the MAAC.

In their first season in the MAAC, Gallo led the Warriors to a 18 wins and a 14-6 conference mark to finish in second place. Merrimack advanced to the MAAC Semifinals, where they lost by two points to eventual champion Mount Saint Mary's. Adam "Budd" Clark was named to the All-MAAC First Team and Bryan Etumnu was honored with MAAC Defensive Player of the Year. After the season concluded, Gallo signed a 10-year contract to stay in North Andover.

The eighth head coach in school history, Gallo completed a run of three NCAA Tournament appearances in three years in 2018-19 to put a bow on the program's Division II history. The Warriors won the 2018-19 Northeast-10 Conference Championship, before moving up to Division I.

Gallo and the Warriors did not miss a beat at the Division I level, taking the Northeast Conference by storm during their five years in the league. Merrimack won the 2023 Northeast Conference Tournament Championship, and would have played in the Division I NCAA Tournament if not for the reclassification process. The Warriors also won three Northeast Conference regular season titles (2019-20, 22-23, 23-24) and 100 Division I games in their first six seasons at the highest level. During Merrimack's first six years in Division I, they had an impressive 72-34 record in conference play.

Player development has also been a calling card for Gallo and his coaching staff. The Jersey native has coached three NEC Defensive Players of the Year, two NEC Players of the Year, two first team, three second team, two third team, and four all-rookie NEC members. Coach Joe Gallo received a litany of awards following the season including Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year, HoopDirt.com NCAA Div. I Coach of the Year, John McLendon Award (Top collegiate coach nationwide, ECAC Coach of the Year, NABC District Coach of the Year, and USBWA Coach of the Year.

Gallo led Merrimack to win the 2019-20 NEC Regular Season Championship, becoming the first team ever to win a conference title in its first season of Division I membership. Merrimack's conference title came on the heels of being selected last in the conference's preseason poll, and the team went on to win 14 of 18 NEC contests to win the regular season crown in outright fashion. The 2019-20 season featured historic victories including the program's win at Northwestern, which was the team's first-ever Division I triumph, and the NEC's second victory ever over a Big Ten foe. The program added non-conference wins against UMass Lowell, Jacksonville, Hartford, and Army. The conference slate featured a nine-game winning streak, the longest for any NEC team during conference play since 2014-15, and a conference-title-clinching win in the regular season finale against Central Connecticut.

In 2019-20, Merrimack set a new NCAA record for wins by a program in its first year of reclassification to Division following its 17th victory of the year at Saint Francis Brooklyn.

The 2019-20 campaign featured a myriad of media coverage as well, both regional and national. The Warriors made multiple appearances on ESPN throughout the year, and were featured in the Associated Press, Wall Street Journal, theScore Sports App and Forbes among other outlets. The team's "Make Chaos" mantra followed an effective defensive unit that led the NEC in scoring defense, 3-point field goal percentage defense, steals per game and turnover margin.

Gallo took over as head coach at Merrimack, after four seasons (2012-16) as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris. During his time in Pittsburgh, Gallo helped the Colonials to 76 wins, a NEC Championship, two regular season titles and NCAA Tournament berth and the school's second-ever NCAA Tournament win.

Gallo graduated from Merrimack in 2004 after a successful playing career, earning a business degree with a concentration in management. He received a Masters degree in Organizational leadership from Robert Morris University in 2019.

Gallo currently resides in Salem, N.H. with his wife Megan and their sons, Joseph Andrew Gallo Jr. and Trey Richard Gallo.
