JUST DOWN THE ROAD

An overtime thriller against Quinnipiac didn't end the way the Green and White had hoped on Monday afternoon. On Saturday night, it'll be a rematch of the 2025 MAAC Tournament against the Iona Gaels in New Rochelle. The Jaspers played one of its best games of the season that featured five players in double-figures. Manhattan has now lost five of its last six games with the lone victory coming against Niagara inside Draddy. On the road this year for the Green and White, the Jaspers have allowed nearly 20 points more than it has posted, while allowing an average of 49% from the floor. In this week's KenPom ranking, the Jaspers sit ninth in the nation in defensive free-throw rate, while allowing 23.9 free-throws per game, tied with Duke and Butler.

NEWS & NOTES

JASPERS AT A GLANCE:

Devin Dinkins - Guard - Redshirt Junior

- At the end of the 2024-25 season, Dinkins was named MAAC's Sixth Player of the Year by unanimous vote. As well as All-MAAC Third Team honors.
- Ranked atop the free-throw percentage chart averaging 87.7% in the MAAC.
- Before arriving in Riverdale, Dinkins was on the George Mason Men's Basketball team, but did not play in his sophomore campaign.
- Dinkins has logged double-digit points in 15 of his last 16 games played.

Jaden Winston - Guard - Junior

- Defense was on full display on 2024-25 for Winston, averaging 2.0 steals-per-game, which paced the Jaspers, and was good for fourth in the MAAC.
- Against Incarnate Word in the CBI on 3/23/25, Winston logged four steals.
- The now-Junior guard put on a defensive clinic against Niagara in the final road game of the regular season with a career-high five steals on 3/2/25.

Fraser Roxburgh - Forward - Sophomore

- Roxburgh recorded a season high 17 points at Saint Peter's on 12/6/24.
- Since returning from a foot injury that sidelined him for 12 MAAC games, freshman forward Fraser Roxburgh has averaged 9.83 points per game. The Jaspers are 10-8 in games Roxburgh has played in and 7-5 in contests without the Australian native. He also played a season high 32 mins v. UIW in the CBI.

Erik Oliver-Bush - Guard - Sophomore

- Transfer from the Saint Anselm Hawks in the Northeast-10 Conference (D2)
- Named NE10 Rookie of the Year and selected to the NE10 All-Rookie Team.
- Oliver-Bush finished his rookie campaign ninth in the NE10 with a 49.2 field-goal percentage. Additionally, Oliver-Bush averaged a double-double in '24-25.
- In his Division I debut at Monmouth in exhibition play, Oliver-Bush posted four boards, four points, and two blocks last Saturday in Long Branch.

Terrance Jones - Guard - Graduate Student

- Jones was a graduate transfer from Norfolk State in the MEAC after four successful seasons as a member of the Spartans.
- After sustaining a season ending injury just eight games into the 2023-24 season, the Trenton native appeared in 34 games and posted 6.2 points-per-game, 2.8 rebounds, and 1.0 assists a season ago.
- Against Monmouth in the exhibition, Jones grabbed two boards in 16 mins.

BROADCASTER TIPS

- Graduate guard Terrance Jones sits second in the MAAC with a 54-for-58 clip from the charity stripe. The total is good for 1-8th in Division I with New Orleans' Coleton Benson.
- Assistant Coach Anthony Doran was named to the "100 Most Impactful Mid Major Assistants/GM's by Silver Waves Media on Monday, January 5th.
- Junior guard Jaden Winston sits tied for second in the MAAC averaging 2.6 steals-per-game. The total is also good for 1-13th in Division I with North Dakota's Eli King.
- Winston is now 21 steals away from taking hold of second place on the Jaspers' Men's Basketball all-time steals chart (Entire list is on Page 5).
- Jaden Winston paces the Jaspers with a 48.1% clip from the field, 11th in the MAAC.
- Against Quinnipiac on Friday, January 2, Winston recorded a career high 10 made field-goals with 15 total attempts from the floor. Both career highs.
- John Gallagher has eclipsed the 200 win total as head coach against Quinnipiac on Fri.
- Will Sydnor will be out due to an NCAA Eligibility matter. Please mention only once.
- Gallagher received a two-year contract extension on Friday 10/31, after posting 17 victories in 2024-25, a +10 year over year win margin from 2023-24.
- JR Lynch was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the beginning of September 2025.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION:

- The Iona Gaels are led by first year collegiate head coach Dan Geriot, who was the Assistant Coach and Director of Player Development for the New Orleans Pelicans last season, after spending two seasons as assistant coach of the Cavaliers.
- Iona has four players averaging double-figures heading into the contest against Manhattan. The Gaels have also averaged 74 points per game, while surrendering on average nearly the same amount with the scoring margin at +0.2.
- Leading the charge for the Gaels, is CJ Anthony with 14 points per-game, while pacing Iona in assists with a whopping 112, 47 more than the next Gael.
- Lamin Sabally paces Iona and sits second in the MAAC averaging 7.8 rebounds-per-game. He is tied with Fairfield's freshman forward Declan Wucherpfenning.
- CJ Anthony sits second in the MAAC in assists per game with 5.6, while sitting second in assist/turnover ratio with a 2.2 total.
- The Gaels are nearly unstoppable at home having won eight of its first nine inside the Hynes Athletic Center, with the most recent victory coming in near-buzzer beater fashion against the Merrimack Warriors on Thursday evening.
- The Gaels have put together the highest win percentage of any MAAC member, with a .623 clip.
- CJ Anthony continued raking in the accolades after being selected to the MAAC Player of the Week three times, while Toby Harris was the most recent one to receive the award on December 22, at the end of non-conference season.
- The Gaels rank second in the MAAC in three-point field goals made averaging 9.5 per game. Iona's three-point percentage also sits at .356, third in the conference.
- In the 2025-26 MAAC Tip Off, the Gaels were selected to finish sixth in the Preseason Coaches' Poll in Atlantic City.

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering. An impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; Stephen Squeri, chairman and CEO of American Express, Vincent dePaul Draddy, who developed the Izod and Lacoste brands, and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

WILL SYDNOR - TOP TIER ROOKIE

Sydnor, a unanimous All-Rookie Team choice and an All-MAAC Second Team member, claimed MAAC Rookie of the Year accolades. From Bronx, NY, the freshman forward averaged 14.3 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 1.1 blocks per game this season. Sydnor's scoring and rebounds both ranked ninth in the MAAC. He was second in defensive rebounds, fourth in blocks, fifth in field goal percentage, eighth in double-doubles, and ninth in field goals. Sydnor joins a list of Jaspers garnering the respective award featuring Tim Cain ('81-82), Perry Bromwell ('82-83), Leo Parent ('84-85 as Co-Rookie OTY), Keith Bullock ('89-90), Jason Hoover ('93-94), Heshimu Evans ('94-95), Bruce Seals ('99-00), CJ Anderson ('04-05), and Shane Richards ('12-13 as Co-Rookie OTY).

DINKINS AND HOLMES - JASPER SIXTH MAN LURE

An All-MAAC Third Team choice Dinkins was named as the best reserve in the MAAC, garnering unanimous MAAC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Appearing in all 29 games for the Jaspers, coming off the bench in all but one game, Dinkins logged over 30 minutes of action per game and averaged 13.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists, ranking 11th in the MAAC in points per game. A native of Washington, DC, he led the MAAC in free throw percentage, ranked third in free throws made, ninth in three-pointers per game, and 11th in total three-point field goals made. Dinkins becomes the second ever Jasper to receive the award, joining David Holmes, who won it back in 2002-03.

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

NEW AUDIENCE!

The MAAC reached regional television agreements with both SNY and NESN to air 18 combined MAAC men's and women's basketball games on linear television during the 2025-26 season. Through agreements, MAAC Hoops will be showcased on two of the nation's top-rated regional sports networks in the country's No. 1 and No. 9 media markets. SNY's reach spans across New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and North-eastern Pennsylvania, while NESN reaches roughly four million households throughout the six-state New England region, including Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. Across the two networks, fans will enjoy 18 MAAC basketball broadcasts this season, 17 of which are conference matchups. The three-month slate is evenly divided between men's and women's contests, and 11 of the league's 13 institutions will be featured. Three Manhattan contests were selected, two women's and one men's games, one on NESN, and two on SNY. As part of the Conference's multi-year agreement with ESPN, every televised game will also be simulcast live nationwide on ESPN+ and accessible through the ESPN app with no digital blackouts. All broadcasts will be produced by the host institution's campus production team.

'WHY NOT US'

The Jaspers' "Why Not Us" motto invented by Gallagher has helped guide them through a stretch of 9 wins a span of 12 games last year. The Jaspers were a unique bunch in 2024-25 with impressive numbers to back it up. Gallagher's team is one of only 15 teams in the nation with five or more players averaging in double figures. Led by Will Sydnor's 14.3 points-per-game, Devin Dinkins (13.5), Wesley Robinson (11.2), Shaquil Bender (11.1) and Masiah Gilyard (11.1) also finished the regular season in double figures.

CROSSOVER FOES STARTING NEXT YEAR

The America East Conference and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) announced today the creation of the America East-MAAC Basketball Challenge, a new early season showcase that will debut at the start of the 2026-27 college basketball season and continue through the 2027-28 season as part of a two-year agreement. The inaugural America East-MAAC Basketball Challenge will take place Thursday, November 5 through Sunday, November 8, 2026, featuring men's and women's matchups between the two conferences. Teams will play two games - one at home and one on the road - against opponents from the opposing conference. Matchups for the second year of the Challenge will be determined in the lead-up to the 2027-28 season. Details on matchups, opponents, and tip-off times will be released closer to the event.

A.D. - A RISING STAR IN THE INDUSTRY

On Monday, January 5th, Assistant Coach Anthony Doran was named to the 2026 Top 100 Most Impactful Mid Major Assistant Coaches and General Managers listing, per release. He joined a prestigious list that included other MAAC assistants such as Siena's Ben Lee, Niagara's Chris Buchanan, Marist's Dalip Bhatia, Iona's Kris Saulny and Patrick Wallace, and Quinnipiac's Shaun Morris. Doran, a Bronx native and graduate of St. John's in 2001, has been part of the Men's Basketball program's staff for his fifth season, and third under current head coach John Gallagher. In 2023, Doran assisted in the emergence of then MAAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year Josh Roberts, and Anthony Nelson to receive All-MAAC First Team honors. Doran has overseen the elevation of forward play through the years, and well as assist in the team's largest win margin year over year.

100 POINT PLATEAU

The Jaspers logged its largest point total in program history on Tuesday, November 4th against the St. Joseph's Brooklyn Bears (03) by a wide margin of 125-59. The second largest margin of victory (66) in program history (68 - against Brooklyn College when it won 104-36 in 1953-54 season). This was also the first time in the John Gallagher era that the Green and White eclipsed the 100 point threshold. Against the Wagner Seahawks on Wednesday, November 26, the Jaspers put together its second 100 point performance, which featured an overtime effort. This is the second time the Green and White crossed the century mark twice in a season in nearly three decades, when Manhattan logged wins against Lehigh (106-67), and Fairfield (100-93) during the 1999-2000 campaign.

QUOTES AFTER LAST GAME (SIENA)

Opening Statement: "Tip your hat to Siena. I thought while watching them, and seeing Shoats coming in and banging a few threes, and then Doty with a three, they really had great pace. I thought the difference was Coyle. Just got free, and hasn't shot it to the level before this game. I thought he had his rhythm. He looked really good. I thought he was the player of the game in my mind. They came in ready. The first half was the difference. I thought we were better in the second half. Our attention to detail was not great in the first half. We're a team that is built in a certain way, and we have certain guys that just aren't playing to the level we know they can play. There's no panic. We'll get this right."

Gallagher on reflection after Wednesday till Saturday v. Siena: "I think anytime you look at this league. I don't know the numbers, but if you're coming off a bye, like Fairfield was, and you're waiting for us, I think the winner's got to be at 80%. The team that has the bye the next game. It's just the way the league shakes out. With the 13 teams, the league does a great job with it. Listen, I just thought, we haven't performed to the level that we need to. It's a combination of our offense to put too much pressure on our defense. Then, our defense not giving any relief to our offense. It's like football, complimentary. The run game. The defense, they compliment each other. Right now, neither is complimenting us. When we're playing well, it compliments each other."

Gallagher on next steps: "I think on the offensive end, you have to play inside out. We're playing to much on the perimeter. We have to get the ball either to the elbow, or to the block to relieve pressure. We've been here before. We have to put our expectations aside."

I'LL HAVE A DOUBLE-DOUBLE!

Anthony Isaac and Fraser Roxburgh are two of 11 MAAC student-athletes who have posted at least three double-doubles this season. Marko Ljubicic recorded one against St. Joseph's Brooklyn to open the 2025-26 campaign. Fairfield's Brandon Benjamin and Quinnipiac's Amarri Monroe sit atop the leaderboard with nine and eight, respectively.

ACCOLADES ON THE HORIZON

Seeing an increased role in his third year, is Jaden Winston, who sits with 874 total points through 21 games this season. The South Laurel, MD product is 124 points away from eclipsing 1,000 points as a member of the Jaspers Men's Basketball program. Winston would become the 40th student-athlete in program history to accomplish the feat. Additionally, Winston currently alone in third place in program history with 181 career steals. Winston continues climbing the respective ladder featuring: 2. Ed Lawson (201) 1983-85, '86-88, and 1. Carey Wilson (218) 1989-93.

SITTING ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP

Heading into the weekend against Iona, the Jaspers are the lone team in the MAAC that featured five players averaging double-digit points through their first 21 games of the season. Those featured Jaden Winston (15.4), Devin Dinkins (13.0), Fraser Roxburgh (10.9), Terrance Jones (10.9), and Anthony Isaac (10.2). After the game vs. Siena, The Jaspers no longer have sported the same lineup through 20 games. The Warriors are now the only team in the MAAC to start the same five all season long.

RACK UP THOSE AIR MILES!

The Jaspers logged a grand total of 12,839.30 air miles in the first 21 days of the 2025-26 season. Throughout the trip that featured stops in California, Hawaii, and Texas, the team had posted two victories through the five games played. More detailed, from JFK to LAX is 2,479.90 miles. LAX to HON is 2,555.80 miles. Followed by a 10-hour trip back to New York from Oahu is 4,983.20 miles. Then, the Jaspers doubled down on its aviation seeking quest with a bit smaller trip, in distance, to the Lone Star State with LGA to HOU with a short 1,427.70 miles to face the Texas A&M Aggies just last week.

At the end of the 2025 calendar year, HoopsHD's Jon Teitel reviewed all the numbers and announced his picks for the top five best players in each conference based on their all-around stats. Picked from the Jaspers, was Jaden Winston, while Iona's CJ Anthony, Merrimack's Kevair Kennedy, Quinnipiac's Amarri Monroe, Fairfield's Brandon Benjamin, and Player of the Year So Far, CJ Anthony, were the five selected from the MAAC.

CAPELLI SPORT - NEW UNIFORMS!

This groundbreaking partnership ushers in a new era for Manhattan University's athletic programs and signifies Capelli Sport's first step and expansion into collegiate athletics. The joint announcement was made by Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics, and George Altirs, President and CEO of Capelli Sport, which was founded in 2011 and has strong roots in international soccer. The initial phase of the new partnership will provide all of Manhattan's student-athletes, coaches, and staff with customized, team and sport-specific, high-performance Capelli Sport uniforms and training gear. In addition, both Manhattan and Capelli Sport have agreed to explore and collaborate on select co-branding initiatives, retail opportunities, and sponsorship ideas to expand the partnership across Manhattan Athletics and provide campus-wide options for all students and the Jasper alumni base. "This partnership is about more than uniforms. It's about progress," said Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics. "Capelli Sport understands the power of storytelling through sport, and together, we're redefining what it means to be a Jasper. From the Bronx to the national stage, our teams will be competing with pride, purpose, and a brand that represents our vision for the future." "I am thrilled with this new, cutting-edge alliance between Manhattan and Capelli Sport, and know that this is just the first step of many between our two organizations that share a similar vision and passion for sports," said Frederick Bonato, President of Manhattan University. Capelli Sport is a U.S.-based sportswear and footwear company founded in 2011 by entrepreneur George Altirs. Headquartered in New York City, it operates as a subsidiary of GMA Accessories Inc. Capelli Sport's Manhattan University alliance marks the company's first comprehensive, NCAA Division I partnership. Capelli was recently announced as the official apparel partner of USA Lacrosse and USA Field Hockey. "This partnership with Manhattan University marks a pivotal moment in Capelli Sport's journey to becoming a leader in multi-sport outfitting. Supporting all 21 Division I programs at one institution reflects our commitment to excellence across every sport. Manhattan University sets the standard for what a comprehensive partnership should look like, and together, we're laying the groundwork for the next chapter of growth in collegiate athletics," said Capelli Sport founder & CEO, George Altirs.

The Manhattan University Athletics Department mourns the loss of Ron Petro '63, who passed away on Friday, December 5 at the age of 84. Petro '63 was part of the Jaspers' Men's Basketball team for three seasons, where he finished his career seventh on the All-Time Leading Scorer's List with 1,031 points as a member of the Green and White, eventually leading to a 1999 induction to the Jaspers' Hall of Fame. As a student-athlete, Petro '63 led his team with career high averages of 21.5 points-per-game, while corralling 8.5 rebounds-per-game as a junior. The following season, he served as Team Captain in his senior year, while posting an average of 17.7 points-per-game. That year, he notched a career high 38 points in the Battle of the Bronx against Fordham. "Ron Petro was the ultimate Jasper- a distinguished hall of famer and a great teammate," described Jaspers Men's Basketball Head Coach John Gallagher. "Manhattan's basketball program and this institution were made better because of Ron's influence. Even more importantly, Ron impacted thousands of young people as a gifted coach and administrator." After his time in Riverdale, Petro went on to become the Athletics Director for Marist University, where he served as the Red Foxes' Director of Athletics for a seven-year stretch, where the Poughkeepsie based institution leapt into Division I. He also was the Red Foxes' Men's Basketball Head Coach for nearly two decades, where his 228 wins ranks second in program history. Petro then went on to serve as the Director of Athletics at Alaska-Anchorage from Gallagher begins his third season as the Jaspers' Men's Basketball Head Coach ahead of the 2025-26 season.

On March 29, 2023, John Gallagher was named the 24th head coach in the history of the Manhattan University men's basketball program. The 47-year-old coach has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience on the Division I level. Before accepting the head coaching job at Manhattan, Gallagher served as head coach for the University of Hartford men's basketball program for 12 seasons through the program's penultimate season in Division I (2021-2022).

In 2024-25, his second season at the helm, Gallagher led Manhattan to a 17-win season, which was the program's highest win total since winning 19 games in 2014-15. Gallagher engineered the third best improvement season-over-season in program history, going from seven wins and 23 losses in year one to 17 wins and 14 losses in year two. Nationally, the Jaspers tied for the 15th best turnaround from the previous season with their 9.5 game climb in 2024-25. Additionally, the Jaspers' line-up boasted five double-digit scorers, making them one of only 15 teams in America with five or more players averaging in double figures in points.

The Jaspers secured the No. 5 seed in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championship and later earned an invite to the Purple College Basketball Invitational held in Daytona Beach, Florida. Manhattan dropped its first round match-up with Incarnate Word, which represented the Jaspers' first non-NCAA Tournament playoff appearance since the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Under Gallagher, Manhattan has posted notable wins in rivalry games, including owning a 19-point average margin of victory versus Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. In Gallagher's second Battle of the Bronx and first at Draddy Gymnasium, Manhattan registered a 78-76 win over Fordham on November 15, 2024.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Manhattan and Merrimack were the only two teams in the MAAC to not lose a game by double-digits in conference play, underscoring the Jaspers' steadfast competitiveness during league play. Gallagher employed the same starting line-up for the first 24 games of the Jaspers' resurgent 2024-25 campaign. In showcasing his confidence in his personnel and his gameplans, Gallagher made the Jaspers one of only four teams nationally to roll out the same starting line-up—Winston, Bender, Gilyard, Sydnor, Robinson—that late into the season.

Under Gallagher's tutelage, two major award winners have emerged in Will Sydnor (2025 MAAC Rookie of the Year) and Devin Dinkins (2025 Sixth Player of the Year). Sydnor also took home All-MAAC Second Team and All-Rookie honors to cap off his sensational freshman campaign, while Dinkins took his spot on the All-MAAC Third Team to wrap up his redshirt sophomore season. Following the 2023-24 campaign, freshman Seydou Traore was tabbed to the All-Rookie Team on Gallagher's watch.

Gallagher has been instrumental in the development of key Jaspers including Jaden Winston, Masiah Gilyard, Fraser Roxburgh, Devin Dinkins, Will Sydnor and Seydou Traore. Over two seasons, Winston has started in the backcourt in every game over Gallagher's tenure in Riverdale. On March 7, 2024, Winston made history by posting 13 assists in a 77-60 win over Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. Winston's single-game assist output is the highest in program history.

Additionally, for the 2024-25 season, Masiah Gilyard ranked 13th in America in offensive rebounds per game with 3.52. His clip was the highest of any player in the country listed 6'3 or shorter. Gilyard is one of two players Gallagher has recruited from Blinn College (TX) with the other being 2025-26 newcomer Anthony Isaac.

In the era of Name, Image and Likeness in college athletics, Gallagher's roster retention skills have been touted by pundits. Entering his third season in 2025-26, Gallagher has retained rising sophomore Will Sydnor (MAAC Rookie of the Year), rising junior Devin Dinkins (MAAC Sixth Player of the Year), rising sophomore Fraser Roxburgh and rising junior Jaden Winston. In 2025-26, Manhattan will return 54.7 percent of its scoring from last season, led by the likes of Sydnor (13.9 PPG) and Dinkins (13.6 PPG).

During his 12 seasons at University of Hartford, Gallagher took the Hawks program to three postseason appearances highlighted by Hartford's at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after beating UMass Lowell in the America East Championship Game. Hartford matched up with Baylor, the eventual national champions, in a first-round match-up between the No.16-seeded Hawks and the No.1-seeded Bears. Additionally, Gallagher led Hartford to its highest winning percentage (.625) that season by winning 15 of 24 games.

Prior to the tournament berth, Gallagher oversaw a Hartford program that earned four straight top four finishes in the America East and notched back-to-back conference championship game appearances in 2019-20 and 2020-21. In 2020, the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the America East Championship Game which was set to feature Hartford and Vermont.

During the 2017-18 season, Gallagher spearheaded a Hawks team which set the program record win total with 19 victories and clinched a spot in the CIT. Hartford's ability to take a massive step up underscored the rapid improvements Gallagher was able to make in a short amount of time.

Gallagher consistently showed a knack of getting his teams to exceed expectations. While coaching the 11th-youngest team in the country, Gallagher architected the program's first-ever postseason campaign in 2012-13 with a bid to the CollegiateInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). That season, Gallagher was named America East Coach of the Year by CollegiateInsider.com.

Gallagher's Hartford teams had a chip on their shoulder defensively, too. In 2020-21, Hartford was 31st in the country in scoring defense (63.9) and 10th in 3-point defense (29 percent). The Hawks ranked second-best in America in 3-point defense the year before by holding opponents to a 27.5 percent clip. The 2012-13 campaign featured its own share of defensive bright spots, none more than a scoring defense which touted a program-record 61.2 points-per-game for opponents. Hartford also led the America East in steals (8.2) and forced turnovers (16) that season.

Gallagher was the associate head coach at Hartford from 2006-2008 during Dan Leibovitz's stint leading the program. He started his coaching career at La Salle in 1999 and was part of the Explorers' coaching staff under both Speedy Morris and later Billy Hahn. In 2003, Gallagher left to join Fran O'Hanlon's staff at Lafayette, spending three seasons in Easton while building his name in coaching circles. Gallagher also made an assistant coaching stop at University of Pennsylvania working under Glen Miller from 2008-2010.

Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1999. He played on the Hawks men's basketball team from 1996-1999 under the program's all-time winningest coach Phil Martelli. During the 1996-97 season, Saint Joe's went 26-7 and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Kentucky.

A native of Broomall, Pennsylvania, Gallagher is the father of four kids (Kenna, Alanna, Jack and Mary) and resides in Tuckahoe. He is one of four siblings in a basketball-loving family, as his sisters Ann and Joan both played college basketball at La Salle and Boston College.

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

Game #21 - Manhattan @ Quinnipiac - 1/19/26

HAMDEN, CT – Despite five players in double-figures, the Manhattan Jaspers Men's Basketball team (8-13, 4-6 MAAC) fell to the Bobcats of Quinnipiac University (13-7, 6-3 MAAC) in overtime by a score of 98-92 inside M&T Bank Arena on Monday afternoon. Opening the game trailing by eight just four minutes in, Anthony Isaac jump-started the Jaspers with a driving layup, before he was able to use his height to capitalize on a second chance basket after an initial Terrance Jones miss. Seven minutes into the game, the Jaspers were trailing by a pair of possessions before the combination of Fraser Roxburgh and Jaden Winston brought Manhattan back within four. The Green and White slowly mounted its comeback after the slow start, capitalized by Roxburgh and Erik Oliver-Bush with back-to-back baskets, courtesy of Quinnipiac's traveling call. With Jaden Winston continuing to climb the steal ladder, the junior guard logged his third steal before sinking the floating jumper to bring Manhattan's deficit to just one. Then, Dinkins netted the tying basket off a layup before Marko Ljubicic joined the defensive party with a steal to give Roxburgh an opportunity to give the Jaspers their first lead of the afternoon. Building off his career afternoon against Siena was freshman guard Quoron Elliott, who capitalized on Isaac's offensive carom to net his first second-chance bucket of the day. Both teams traded baskets before Terrance Jones netted a deafening three-pointer to tie the game at 35 with seconds remaining in the stanza, before Quinnipiac went back in front into the locker room. Coming out of the room red hot were the Green and White, who supplied four three pointers in a span of as many minutes to take a three-possession lead, courtesy of Devin Dinkins and Jaden Winston, three times and twice, respectively. With a double-digit lead, defense turned to offense for the Jaspers with Devin Dinkins adding another three-pointer to give the Green and White its largest lead, at 15, and continue its run of 23-10 in the first eight minutes of the stanza. The Bobcats would mount their comeback inside their home building, before Terrance Jones took advantage of a Quinnipiac miscue to keep the lead at two possessions, before Jaden Winston kept his hot shooting alive with another three. With seconds remaining, and leading by one, the Bobcats were looking for an insurance bucket, but Roxburgh denied Asim Jones down low, before Dinkins gave Manhattan an 80-79 lead with 16 seconds remaining.

Game #21 - Merrimack @ Iona - 1/22/26

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Graduate Toby Harris buried a step-back corner three with 1.1 seconds remaining to lift the Iona University men's basketball team to a dramatic 61-60 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference victory over Merrimack Thursday night at the Hynes Center. The Gaels closed the contest on a 5-0 run over the final 20 seconds to earn the hard fought win. Junior Denver Anglin delivered a season-high 22 points while graduate Lamin Sabally added 18 in the victory. The entire 40 minutes unfolded within two possessions, with the largest leads for both teams coming in the opening half. Merrimack struck first, claiming its biggest advantage less than five minutes in on a Andres Marrero three to make it 14-9. Iona answered with a surge of its own later in the half, building a six-point lead after a triple from graduate CJ Anthony pushed the score to 23-17. The Warriors closed the period with a late run, however, sending the Gaels into the locker room trailing by two at the break. The second half remained a one possession affair for all but seven possessions. Iona briefly moved in front 45-40 on a corner three from junior Chase Cormier at the 14:29 mark, then reclaimed a 52-48 edge with 8:24 remaining following an Anglin three. Sabally extended the margin to four once more at 5:52 with a pair of free throws. Trailing by two with 35 seconds left, Merrimack's zone forced a turnover and a quick Iona foul. Two free throws stretched the margin to four with 17 seconds on the clock. The Maroon & Gold responded immediately as Sabally finished a dunk off an Anthony feed to cut the deficit to 60-58 with 12 seconds left. Another foul sent the Warriors to the line for a one-and-one, but the front end was missed. The Gaels secured the rebound and raced down the court. Sabally secured the ball at the free throw line, spun toward the lane, and with time closing out fired a pass to Harris in the corner. Harris slipped his defender, stepped back, and buried the game winner. Merrimack's desperation heave at the buzzer fell short as Iona escaped with the one-point victory.

LAST TIME OUT VS. IONA

Game #30 - Manhattan vs. Iona - March 13, 2025

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ - Facing an early deficit in Atlantic City, Manhattan men's basketball shifted the tide over the last 10 minutes of the first half and into the opening two minutes of the second half to take a six-point lead in a win-or-go home Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Quarterfinals match-up. However, Iona caught fire in the second half and Manhattan struggled to hit shots for long stretches, falling short by a 77-65 margin to No. 4 Iona. Iona came out swinging and took a 14-6 lead by the first media timeout (16:12). Masiah Gilyard notched the first six points of the game for Manhattan while bringing a spark of energy. Gilyard was relegated to the bench after picking up his second foul at the 13:43 mark of the first half. A driving reverse finish for Bender made the Jaspers deficit 12, but Iona continued its crisp offense with four straight points capped by a jumper from Dejour Reaves that pushed the Jaspers deficit up to 16. Manhattan turned the game around in the first half with a 16-3 run that spanned six-plus minutes. Bender canned back to back threes during that stretch to help give Manhattan new life. The Jaspers received a basket from Fraser Roxburgh, and one from Devin Dinkins on a tough finish inside, that shrunk Manhattan's deficit to 29-26 with 3:50 left. Roxburgh continued to work hard for points, drawing a foul with one second left and adding a pair of free throws from the line to send the Jaspers into the locker room with a minuscule deficit (33-31). Manhattan looked prime for an offensive explosion in the second half and gained momentum with a trio of three-pointers that helped establish its largest lead of the night (42-36). Iona's Reaves took control of the game with a stretch of seven straight points that regained a four-point lead for Iona. Reaves added four more threes the rest of the way to dig a hole that Manhattan was unable to get out of. Manhattan ends its season 17-13 and 12-9 versus MAAC opponents. The overall win total is the Jaspers highest since winning 19 games in 2014-15. With earning the fifth seed, Manhattan entered the MAAC Championships with its highest seed since getting fifth in 2017-18. Thursday's game was the Jaspers' first double-digit point loss of the season against a MAAC opponent. In the regular season series versus Iona, Manhattan outscored Iona by 32 points outside of the first half at Iona on February 21 when the Gaels led by 16 after one. Manhattan was +4 for points in the paint and +6 in rebounds in the first half. Manhattan outscored Iona in bench points 20-10. Dinkins and Robinson each tied the Jaspers' scoring high with 15 points. Bender contributed 12 points with two threes. Will Sydnor was held to just two points.
