HEADING TO HYNES

Fairfield University Men's Basketball concludes the month of January with a Jan. 30 trip to New Rochelle and the Hynes Athletics Center to challenge Iona. Opening tip-off is at 7 p.m. with David Resnick and Kevin Hamilton calling the action on ESPN+.

LAST TIME OUT

Fairfield completed the sweep of a pivotal MAAC home weekend with a 61-55 win over visiting Canisius on Saturday at Mahoney Arena. Deuce Turner and Braden Sparks each scored 14 points, and Brandon Benjamin recorded his 10th double-double of the season in the home triumph.

Offensively, Sparks and Turner each knocked down two three-pointers on their way to 14 points apiece. Sparks also hauled in four rebounds and dished out a team-leading four assists. For Turner, his 14 points were more than half of the 22 tallies contributed by the Fairfield bench.

Benjamin's double-double consisted of 13 points and a game-best 13 rebounds to go along with four blocked shots. The MAAC's leading rebounder has grabbed double-digit boards in 11 contests this season and scored in double figures in eight of his last 11 outings. Benjamin was 5-for-7 from the floor and converted all three of his free throw attempts.

Supplementing the scoring, Eric Mejia had six points as a part of a full statline that also included four rebounds, three steals, and two assists. Declan Wucherpfennig had five points and nine rebounds, and Tony Williams also netted five points.

COACH CASEY ON CANISIUS

"I thought our defense really set a tone for the game. I think that's the closest we've come to playing 40 minutes of defense and getting after somebody. They're big, they're physical, they're well-coached, they run stuff well. It's very important that you guard them well."

"I'm proud of our guys. They grinded it out. This time of the year, there's a lot of grind it out wins. The scores start to come down a little bit and you've got to be able to grind. And I thought we did a good job of that this weekend in two MAAC wins."

TAKE FIVE

For the fifth time this season, Brandon Benjamin has been named the MAAC Rookie of the Week. Benjamin recorded a double-double in both ends of the weekend sweep.

Benjamin averaged 15.5 points per game on .684 shooting from the floor and hauled in 12.0 rebounds per game last week as the Stags dispatched Niagara and Canisius. He posted a game-best 18 points and corralled 11 boards in the Thursday win over the Purple Eagles. In Saturday's victory over the Griffins, Benjamin scored 13 points and a game-leading 13 rebounds and also registered four blocked shots.

EVERY POSSESSION MATTERS

Fairfield holds a 9-5 record in one possession games under Head Coach Chris Casey and has won its last five contests decided by three points or less.

The Stags are 22-13 in all games under Casey that were decided by either one or two possessions (six points or fewer).

THE MATCHUP

FAIRFIELD vs. IONA

THE IONA UNIVERSITY GAELS

Iona most recently won both ends of a MAAC home weekend, knocking off Merrimack and rival Manhattan, to improve to 14-8 overall and 6-5 in MAAC play. The Gaels are 9-1 at home with lone loss coming in their MAAC opener against Quinnipiac by a score of 89-68.

C.J. Anthony leads four Gaels scoring in double figures with 13.9 points per game and slots second in the conference with 5.6 assists per contest. Lamin Sabally ranks second in the MAAC in rebounding with 8.0 caroms per game to go along with 11.4 points per outing.

The Gaels are one of the top three-point shooting teams in the MAAC, knocking down 9.4 triples per game with a .353 three-point percentage.

US AND THEM

Through 126 meetings between the Stags and Gaels, Iona owns a 78-48 lead. The Stags recently snapped a seven-game skid against the Gaels with wins in the 2024 MAAC Championship Quarterfinals and a split of the home-and-home series last season.

Fairfield is seeking its first win at the Hynes Center since 2007 and only its 15th victory in 59 total games in New Rochelle dating back to 1950.

The Stags are 3-0 this season when playing an opponent for the second time. Fairfield earned a home-and-home sweep of Niagara and took the back half of series splits with both Manhattan and Canisius.

EARLY ENDINGS

Fairfield has completed the season series with five MAAC opponents — Merrimack (one game), Rider (one game), Manhattan, Niagara, and Canisius — before beginning this year's ledger against Iona (one game), Quinnipiac, Sacred Heart, or Mount St. Mary's (one game).

The Stags' only regular season game with defending MAAC Champion Mount St. Mary's is on March 1 — the final day of the regular season.

LET THE SPARKS FLY

Braden Sparks is the MAAC's leading scorer at 17.0 points per game. The senior ranks third in the MAAC in three-point percentage (.394) and fourth in three-pointers per game (2.86).

BUTTA BEATS THE BUZZER

The game-winning three-pointer for Tony "Butta" Williams last Thursday against Niagara sealed Fairfield's first win when trailing in the final minute of regulation since last season's 59-56 win over Marist on a 70-foot buzzer beater by Deon Perry.

DOUBLE DOUBLE-DOUBLES

The Jan. 22 win over Niagara marked the third time this season that freshman forwards Brandon Benjamin and Declan Wucherpfennig both recorded a double-double in the same game.

Nov. 30 vs. New Hampshire (W, 72-68)

Benjamin: 16 pts., 10 reb. | Wucherpfennig: 14 pts., 14 reb.

Jan. 9 vs. Rider (W, 68-62)

Benjamin: 10 pts., 13 reb. | Wucherpfennig: 17 pts., 11 reb.

Jan. 22 vs. Niagara (W, 62-61)

Benjamin: 18 pts., 11 reb. | Wucherpfennig: 13 pts., 13 reb.

They are the first Fairfield teammates to record a double-double in the same game since Taj Benning (24 pts., 12 reb.) and Supreme Cook (11 pts., 14 reb.) led the Stags to a 2021 MAAC Semifinal win over Monmouth.

REBOUNDING ROOKIES

Brandon Benjamin had 13 rebounds in Saturday's win, increasing his season total to 214. He is only the third true freshman Stag to grab 200+ rebounds in their rookie campaign.

TOTAL REBOUNDS BY A TRUE FRESHMAN

1	Drew Henderson	1989-90	220	(7.6 rpg)
2	Brandon Benjamin	2025-26	214	(10.2 rpg)
3	Amadou Sidibe	2012-13	210	(6.2 rpg)

8	Declan Wucherpfennig	2025-26	172	(7.8 rpg)

ALL ABOUT THE BENJAMIN

Brandon Benjamin is one of 15 players in the nation to average a double-double, posting 14.0 points and a MAAC-best 10.2 rebounds per outing. Among those 15, Benjamin is one of only four true freshmen on the ledger. He ranks 12th in the nation in total rebounds per game and fourth nationally with 4.29 offensive boards per outing.

A five-time MAAC Rookie of the Week, Benjamin also leads the MAAC in field goal percentage (.598) and ranks second in blocked shots (1.52/game). He slots ninth overall in the conference and second among MAAC freshmen in scoring (14.0 ppg) and leads the league with 10 double-doubles this season.

CHAIRMEN OF THE BOARDS

Led by Benjamin's conference-best 10.2 rebounds per game, as well as 7.8 per contest from Declan Wucherpfennig, the Stags are currently leading the MAAC in total rebounding (38.91/game) and rebounding margin (+4.2).

The Stags' offensive rebounding average of 13.95 caroms per game is also good for second in the MAAC and 15th in the nation.

ONWARD AND UPWARD

With their 13th victory of the season on Saturday, the Stags have already improved upon last year's 12-win campaign with a minimum of nine games remaining.

EFFICIENT AND EFFECTIVE

Benjamin's 10-for-11 shooting performance at Siena marked the first time that a Stag shot .900 or better from the floor (min. 10 made FGs) since 2005 when DeWitt Maxwell shot 12-for-13 in a win over Iona.

The single-game record for most field goals made without a miss belongs to Hall of Famer Mark Young, who went 11-for-11 in a win over Southern Connecticut in 1979.

STAGS TAKE MANHATTAN

The 98-62 victory over Manhattan on Jan. 14 was only the fifth time that Fairfield defeated a Division I opponent by at least 36 points and the first time that the Stags won a MAAC game by that margin.

The program record for margin of victory against a Division I opponent is a 104-60 win over St. Francis (N.Y.) on Dec. 6, 1972.

The 98 points marked the most scored by Fairfield in a MAAC game or against a Division I opponent since the 102-98 double-overtime win against Quinnipiac on Feb. 17, 2018.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Stags have started four true freshmen (Benjamin, Rawlins, Williams, Wucherpfennig) in nine games this season. To date, no other Division I team has reported a starting lineup featuring four true freshmen this season.

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

WEEKLY WINNERS

After leading Fairfield to victory over Rider on Jan. 9, Braden Sparks was named the MAAC Player of the Week and Declan Wucherpfennig was tabbed as the MAAC Rookie of the Week, both for the second time this season.

Sparks netted a team-leading 23 points; he made five three-pointers, pulled down five rebounds, and dished out a team-high three assists.

Wucherpfennig scored 17 points and hauled in 11 rebounds to cap his fourth double-double of the season.

NON-CONFERENCE NOTES

Fairfield finished with an 8-3 record against non-conference opponents. The Stags last won eight non-conference games during the regular season in 2012-13, matching the most by a Fairfield team in the era of playing 18-20 MAAC games.

121 POINT INSPECTION

The Stags' 121 points against CCNY marked the second-highest scoring game in Fairfield history, topped only by the 123-103 win over #14 Holy Cross on Jan. 21, 1978.

The 63-point margin of victory is a new program record, surpassing the 110-55 victory over Medgar Evers in 2021.

NOVEMBER REIGN

With the victory over New Hampshire on Nov 30, the Stags won five games in the month of November for the first time in program history.

MAHONEY CLASSIC CHAMPIONS

Fairfield went 2-0 at the inaugural Mahoney Classic presented by NIVEA MEN -- the first-ever MTE hosted at Leo D. Mahoney Arena.

The Stags defeated Stonehill, 73-71, in overtime and Loyola, 85-82, to cap an unbeaten home weekend.

THE BUS CAME BY AND I GOT ON

Fairfield opened the campaign with three consecutive true road games for the second straight season.

This season also marked the fifth straight year in which the Stags played their first three DI opponents in true road contests.

CAROM COLLECTORS

Fairfield's 54 rebounds at NJIT were the most against a DI opponent since also grabbing 54 against American on Nov. 10, 2006.

The 19-board margin was the largest since besting Manhattan by a 37-18 count on Jan. 10, 2020.

STAY (JUST A LITTLE BIT LONGER)

Nine members of Fairfield's 18-man roster in 2025-26 were a part of the 2024-25 Stags. This year's Stags return 34.9% of their scoring, 37.9% of their rebounding and 34.9% of the total minutes played from last season's squad.

Five current Stags were also members of the 2023-24 team (Curtis, Davidson, Ganton, Rogan, Smith).

Rogan is the lone four-year member of the Stags with a tenure dating back to 2022-23.

NEW KIDS IN TOWN

The other half of Fairfield's roster is comprised of nine newcomers. Five of the new Stags are true freshmen (Rodriguez, Williams, Rawlins, Benjamin, Wucherpfennig), three played elsewhere in the Division I ranks last season (Turner, Estevez, Zan), and Eric Mejia comes to Fairfield after a JUCO All-America campaign on the JUCO circuit.

FOR STARTERS

Fairfield has used seven different starting lineups this season. Braden Sparks and Declan Wucherpfennig have both started all 21 games, and Brandon Benjamin has been in the starting five for all 20 games in which he was available.

THIRD SEASON • WESTERN CONNECTICUT '86

College basketball veteran Chris Casey was tabbed as the interim head coach of Fairfield University Men's Basketball prior to the 2023-24 season and was named the 14th head coach in program history on March 12, 2024.

Before assuming the head coaching role at Fairfield, Casey most recently served as an assistant with the Stags for four campaigns and previously led the programs as head coach at Niagara, LIU Post and Rutgers-Newark.

The 2025-26 season will be Casey's 40th consecutive season coaching college basketball. He has been to seven NCAA postseason tournaments at the Division I, II and III levels and has recruited or coached more than 30 all-conference players and 11 conference major award winners.

In his first season leading the Stags, Casey guided Fairfield to a 24-13 record -- the second-most victories in school history. Fairfield finished second in the MAAC regular season at 14-6 and advanced to the MAAC Championship Game. The Stags also participated in the CBI, winning two games in Daytona Beach to reach the Semifinals of the national tournament. Casey was named a finalist for the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award.

The 2023-24 Stags set a program record with 2,794 points scored as well as the highest scoring average (75.7 ppg) since 2017-18. Fairfield also knocked down a program-record 342 three-pointers, ranking 11th in the nation in conversions from beyond the arc, and amassed a program-program record 314 steals.

Individually, the Stags boasted three All-MAAC players (Jalen Leach, Caleb Fields and Brycen Goodine) for the first time since 2010-11 and two NABC All-District honorees (Leach, Fields) for the first time since 2011-12.

Previously as a head coach, Casey was a part of the MAAC for six years at Niagara from 2013-19. His tenure in Western New York included a 19-win campaign in 2017-18 that saw the Purple Eagles finish 12-6 in the MAAC as the third-seeded team in the conference. Casey recruited and coached Khalil Dukes to MAAC co-Player of the Year honors, with Matt Scott getting an All-MAAC Second Team nod in that campaign.

Casey joined Niagara after a three-year stretch at LIU Post highlighted by back-to-back East Coast Conference Championships and NCAA postseason appearances. He was the 2012 ECC Coach of the Year and Met Writers Division II Coach of the Year. Casey coached the ECC Player of the Year in each of his campaigns leading the Pioneers.

Casey's first head-coaching stop was at Division III Rutgers-Newark from 1998-2001. He was the New Jersey Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading the Scarlet Raiders to the ECAC Tournament.

Casey's assistant coaching career began as a part of the first two Division I seasons in Central Connecticut State history from 1986-88. After a return to his alma mater Western Connecticut State for one season, a year in which the Wolves reached the Sweet Sixteen of the 1989 NCAA Division III Tournament, he reentered the Division I ranks with stops at St. Francis and Saint Peter's. He was a part of two MAAC Championship teams with the Peacocks (1991, 1995).

Following his stint as head coach at Rutgers-Newark, Casey rejoined the staff at CCSU from 2001-06. He was a part of the Blue Devils' 2002 NEC Championship squad and was recognized as an AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003. In 2006, he moved on to Norm Roberts' staff at St. John's for a four-year tenure that included a trip to the 2010 National Invitation Tournament.

Casey graduated from Western Connecticut State in 1986 with a Bachelor of Business Administration. He earned an M.S. in Education from Central Connecticut State in 1993.

Casey and his wife Hope have two daughters, Lauren and Jordan.
