NCAA TOURNAMENT 1995, 1999, 2008, 2014, 2017, 2021, 2025

last time was when Elijah Long had 14 points, seven rebounds, 12 assists and five steals in a 77-70 win over FDU on January 12, 2017. The other time was when Jeremy Goode had 22 points, five rebounds, nine assists and seven steals in the Mount's 70-58 victory against Loyola on December 1, 2007.

♦ Lipscomb was named to the Preseason All-MAAC Third Team. A team leader, he has been instrumental in helping head coach Donny Lind build the team culture. Lipscomb had 10 points while dishing out a career-high 13 assists for his first career double-double against Sacred Heart last season.

♦ Lipscomb began his career at Radford where he was recruited by head coach Donny Lind when he was assistant coach with the Highlanders.

► KEYES CHIPPING IN

♦ Senior Arlandus Keyes is averaging 13.4 points over the past seven games, reaching double figures in five of those contests. Keyes is shooting 51.6 percent (33-of-64) from the field and 46.8 percent (22-of-47) from three-point range over that stretch.

♦ Keyes set his career high with 22 points in the Mount's 95-90 overtime loss at Maryland in December and matched it in the win at Canisius. He is averaging 11.8 points per game while adding 3.2 rebounds and 2.9 assists on the year.

♦ Keyes hit 7-of-11 (.636) from three-point range in the Maryland game, the most threes in a game since Dakota Loeffel hit seven at Marist on February 2, 2024. He has made four or more three-pointers on eight occasions this season, and is 62-for-170 (.365) from beyond the arc this year.

♦ Keyes had 16 points, five rebounds, four assists and four made three-pointers in the Mount's victory at Loyola. Just six Mountaineers have posted those numbers in a game over the past 20 seasons, including teammate Xavier Lipscomb, who had 17 points, six rebounds, five assists and four three-pointers in the overtime loss at Maryland on November 19. The others Mountaineers on the list are Dakota Loeffel (four times), Elijah Long, De'Shayne Montgomery and Landy Thompson.

♦ Last season, Keyes was a key contributor in the Mount's postseason run, scoring in double figures in all five games. He was named to the MAAC All-Tournament team after averaging 12.7 points over the three games, including 14 points in the MAAC Championship game win over Iona. Keyes hit five three-pointers for 15 points in the Mount's loss to Duke in the NCAA First Round.

► DEVEAUX SOLID CONTRIBUTOR

♦ Trey Deveaux scored a team-high 15 points in the Mount's loss to Merrimack, and he is second on the team in scoring at 11.1 points per game. Deveaux has scored in double figures in 15 of his 22 games played this season.

♦ Deveaux posted a season high with 23 points while adding eight rebounds in the loss to Merrimack. Deveaux went 7-of-11 from the field and 9-of-14 at the foul line in the game. The 14 free throw attempts set a career high while it was the 11th 20-point game of his career (1st as a Mountaineer).

♦ Deveaux finished with 11 points and 11 rebounds in the Mount's 73-42 win over Penn State Brandywine for his first double-double as a Mountaineer.

♦ Deveaux has seven career double-doubles in NCAA action, five with Wayne State, one with Western Illinois and one at the Mount. His last double-double was a 17-point, 11-rebound game against Morehead State on February 15, 2025, for Western Illinois.

► McELDON'S EFFICIENCY

♦ Luke McEldon is averaging 10.7 points and 5.9 rebounds per game this season. McEldon leads the Mount and the MAAC in field goal percentage this season, converting 61.3 percent from the field. If he continues that pace, that would be the fourth-best single-season mark in field goal percentage in program history.

♦ McEldon leads the Mount in rebounding at 5.9 per game, and has grabbed five or more five or more rebounds in 20 of his 23 games played this season, topped by a 10-rebound effort in the Mount's win over Saint Peter's.

► SELLOUT CROWD

♦ The Mount played before a sellout crowd of 2,821 at Knott Arena in the home opener against Bucknell. It was the Mount's sixth sellout since 2007, and first since 2023.

♦ The last sellout at Knott Arena was on February 24, 2023, when the Mount lost to Iona and head coach Rick Pitino, 80-68.

♦ The largest crowd in Knott Arena history came on December 8, 1987, when Maryland visited. The crowd that day was listed as 3,700.

♦ Seating capacity at Knott Arena is now 2,821 after removing the end bleachers two years ago. The Mount is second in the MAAC in home attendance, averaging 1,965 fans per game.

► KNOTT ARENA ENHANCEMENTS

♦ Mount St. Mary's added to the fan experience at Knott Arena this year with new state-of-the-art video boards, sideline tables and sound system.

♦ Three new video boards feature on both sides on Knott Arena, made possible by Digital Scoreboards. On the far wall opposite the concourse will be a giant 50-by-21 foot screen running the length of the court. Across the way, two smaller 12-by-7 foot screens supplement the larger board. All three enhance the real-time stat update experience, provide additional windows for fan experiences, and increase utilization of advertising space.

♦ Along with the video boards, Digital Scoreboards provided new courtside tables with digital signage. These boards will also house the score's table, DV Sport Replay, statisticians, and broadcasting.

♦ Accompanying the video board is a brand new sound system from CW Technology. The arena is now equipped with surround sound, enabling fans to listen in on promotions, ceremonies, and announcements from each side of the arena, floor seats, the Truly Terrace Party Deck, and the Lynne Robinson Concourse.

► BUILDING THE 2025-26 ROSTER

♦ Head coach Donny Lind has a roster of 16 players for the 2025-26 season. It is comprised of six returnees, six transfers, two true freshmen and two new walk-ons.

♦ Guards grad student Xavier Lipscomb (36 GP, 6.8 ppg) and senior Arlandus Keyes (32 GP, 6.8 ppg) are the top returnees for the Mount in 2025-26. Junior Patrick Haigh averaged 1.8 points in 19 games as a walk-on last year, earning a scholarship for this season. Sophomore Abdou Khadre Kébé averaged 2.6 points in 29 games last year. The other two returnees are redshirt freshman Elijah Espinosa and walk-on Jaxon Hartman.

♦ Six transfers were added to the fold for the 2025-26 season as well. Trey Deveaux (Gr., Western Illinois), Justin Amadi (R-Sr., Tulsa), Luke McEldon (R-Jr., Santa Clara), Anthony Arrington (R-Jr., Wofford), Mason So (Jr., UNC Greensboro) and Anastasios Rozakeas (So., Florida State) comprise the group of transfers.

♦ True freshmen Justin May and Yakhya Diop along with walk-ons Noah Rogers (So.) and John Miller IV (Gr.) round out the roster. Miller IV joins the basketball team after playing for the Mount's men's lacrosse team the previous four seasons.

► A LOOK BACK AT 2024-25

♦ Mount St. Mary's won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) title last season to earn the school's seventh appearance in the NCAA Division I tournament.

♦ The Mount finished the season with a 23-13 record, the most wins by a Mount team since the school moved to NCAA Division I in 1988-89. The only other 20-win seasons in the Mount's D1 era came in 1995-96 (21-8) and 2016-17 (20-16).

♦ The Mountaineers earned wins over Marist (62-58), Merrimack (57-55) and Iona (63-49) to capture the MAAC title, the first by the team since moving to the MAAC for the 2022-23 season.

♦ The Mount earned a trip to Dayton, Ohio, and a matchup with American in the First Four. The Mount rolled to an 83-72 victory over American to advance to an NCAA First Round matchup with top-seeded Duke. The win over American was the school's third NCAA Division I tournament victory. The Mount fell to Duke, 93-49, in Raleigh, N.C. to end the season.

♦ Head coach Donny Lind led the Mount to 23 wins in his first season in Emmitsburg, the most wins in program history by a Mount coach in their debut season. The previous mark was set by Jim Phelan, who led the Mount to a 22-3 record in his first season in 1954-55.

♦ The Mount defeated Miami (Fla.), 78-74 in overtime, on December 21 last season. The win was the Mount's first over an Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) team since a 71-69 win over #21 Georgia Tech on December 18, 1995.

2nd Season at Mount St. Mary's; 2nd Season Overall ◆ Career Record: 33-28 ◆ Loyola (Md.) (2010)

Donny Lind, hired as the 23rd head coach in the Mount's men's basketball history, made an immediate mark on the program as the 2024-25 team captured the university's first Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) championship with a victory over Iona in the conference title game. They would notch a NCAA Tournament victory - the program's third - by defeating American in the First Four. The 23 wins by the team set a Division I record and were the most by any Mount St. Mary's squad since 1986-87.

Lind was hired as the 23rd head coach in men's basketball program history in April of 2024. An assistant coach at University of North Carolina Greensboro the previous several years, Lind brings tremendous energy along with an up-tempo offense and defense to Emmitsburg.

The 2024-25 season was a magical one for the Mountaineers, posting a 23-13 record, the most wins by a Mount team since the school moved to NCAA Division I in 1988-89. The Mountaineers knocked off Marist and Merrimack to advance to the MAAC Championship game against Iona. The Mount came through with a 63-49 victory for the school's first MAAC title, securing the Mount's seventh trip to the NCAA Division I Tournament.

The Mount faced American in the First Four in the NCAA Tournament, and earned a scintillating 83-72 win to advance to play top-seeded Duke in the First Round. Despite the loss to the Blue Devils, the Mountaineers season will go down as one of the best in program history.

Lind served on coaching staffs at both Radford and UNCG under head coach Mike Jones. Radford won back-to-back Big South regular season titles in 2018-19 and 2019-20 during his tenure in Virginia. He also helped the Highlanders win the 2017-18 Big South Tournament, leading to a First Four win over LIU Brooklyn for the program's first NCAA Tournament win. Earning high marks at UNCG as well, the Spartans earned the No. 2 seed in the SoCon last year after earning a 21-11 record. Electric from long range, UNCG ranked fourth in the country for three-point percentage, making 39.7 percent of all shots and drilling over 10 shots per game from beyond-the-arc.

Serving as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Mount from 2013 to 2016, Lind was on staff for the 2014 Northeast Conference Championship and helped put many of the pieces together for the team's 2017 run. He worked on both sides of the ball, improving the Mountaineers offense before transitioning to directing the "Mayhem" full court pressure defense. Using a background in basketball analytics, he improved both sides of the ball, producing the top offense in the NEC for the 2013-14 season.

Following the 2019-20 season after Radford went 21-11 with a 15-3 Big South record, Lind was recognized as a Top 50 Impactful Low Major Coach in D1 by Silver Waves Media and a top five assistant coach for the Big South by Jeff Goodman.

Former Mount Head Coach Jamion Christian brought Lind along from Virginia Commonwealth University where he worked as a graduate manager before being elevated to video coordinator. He was part of the Rams' storied run as the team won 84 games, including seven NCAA Tournament games and the team's run to the 2011 Final Four.

Originally hailing from New Knoxville, Ohio, he graduated with an economics degree from Loyola in Baltimore in 2010. He went on to earn his M.Ed in Sports Leadership from VCU while employed there.

Lind lives in Frederick with his wife, Ciara, and his two children, Magnolia and Silas.
