FACTS

ABOUT THE IONA GAELS: The Gaels have gone on a bit of a skid recently, dropping four of their last five games while being ranked 10th in the conference. With four games remaining on the schedule, Iona is fighting with Niagara for the final spot in the MAAC Tournament. The four teams above the Gaels in the standings each have one more conference win than them.

Iona is led by the duo of CJ Anthony and Lamin Sabally. Anthony averages 14 points per game, putting him 13th in the MAAC in scoring. Sabally averages double-digit points, while leading the team in rebounding, pulling in 7.9 boards per outing.

Iona is coached by Dan Geriot who is in his first season as head coach of the Gaels.

MATCHUP HISTORY: This will be the 133rd meeting all-time between Saint Peter's and Iona. The Peacocks are 56-76 all-time against the Gaels and 28-48 against them on the road.

RUN BABY RUNNIN': The Peacocks have ran off to an impressive 12-1 start at Run Baby Run Arena this season, making it their best start at home since 1983-84. Saint Peter's has won 10 straight games at home.

O-BOARDS: The Peacocks are averaging 14.0 offensive rebounds per game which ranks 11th in the nation and second in the MAAC. They have recorded double-digit offensive boards in all but three games this season.

MASON'S MILESTONE: With the victory over Centenary earlier this season, head coach Bashir Mason recorded his 50th win at Saint Peter's. He accomplished the feat in 103 games, which makes him the fifth fastest head coach in Saint Peter's history to do so.

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS: Brent Bland currently ranks 11th in the MAAC in scoring, averaging 14.3 points per game. He also ranks 22nd in the nation in steals per game with 2.3.

Bryce Eaton helped the Peacocks take down Manhattan and Siena last week, averaging 21.5 points and 4.5 assists. On the season, Eaton is putting up 10.6 points, 3.9 assists and 3.1 rebounds per game this season. He was selected Preseason All-MAAC Second Team and currently ranks seventh in the MAAC in assists.

Zaakir Williamson recorded his third double-double of the season against the Stags last Sunday with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Williamson is averaging nine points and 5.2 rebounds, while shooting 49.0 percent from the field.

Elijah Perkins has been a lockdown defender for the Peacocks all season, and he's recently made his impact felt on the offensive end as well. In the win over Fairfield, Perkins rose up for a dunk in the second half that ended up as No. 1 on SportsCenter Top 10.

Lucas Scroggins notched his third double-double of the season in the Peacocks' win at Manhattan on Feb. 5. He finished the day with 11 points and 12 rebounds.

TJ Robinson led the way in the Peacocks' 83-74 victory over Fairfield on Sunday with 21 points and four assists off the bench. The 21 points set a new season-high for the standout freshman guard as she shot 9-for-10 from the free throw line.

THE NEW GUYS: The Saint Peter's coaching staff brought in seven new players, which includes six transfers and one true freshman. The true freshman is TJ Robinson and the incoming transfers are Jahki Gupton, Lucas Scroggins, Shaedon Simpson, Bol Agu, J'Quan Ewing and Akil Watson.

The Peacocks also hired a new Director of Basketball Operations, Chris Mastrangelo from UConn.

FAMILIAR FACES: The 2025-26 SPU men's basketball team features six returners from last season: Brent Bland, Bryce Eaton, Elijah Perkins, Zaakir Williamson, Adetokunbo Bakare and Eric Morgan Jr.

Brent Bland is the only remaining player from Saint Peter's 2022 Elite 8 Squad and has won two MAAC titles during his time in Jersey City.

Bryce Eaton was named to the Preseason All-MAAC Second Team.

Bashir Mason

Head Coach

4th Year at Saint Peter's - 60-57 (.513)
14th as a Head Coach - 225-187 (.546)

Bashir Mason enters his fourth season as head coach of the Peacocks in 2025-26. Mason, one of the most decorated young coaches in the country and a Jersey City native, was named the 16th head coach of the Saint Peter's University men's basketball program on April 12, 2022.

In three seasons leading the Peacocks, he has a 45-48 record with a career mark of 210-178 over 13 coaching seasons. During the 2024-25 season, Mason earned his 200th career coaching victory with a win over Saint Elizabeth on November 20, 2024.

Mason has had an immediate impact on the Peacocks program in his first three seasons. In 2023-24, he guided Saint Peter's to its second MAAC Championship in three seasons and the program's fifth MAAC title. The Peacocks, picked to finish in tenth place in 2023-24, finished in a three-way tie for third place during the regular season with a 12-8 conference mark. In the MAAC Tournament, the fifth seeded Peacocks defeated #4 Rider in the quarterfinals, upset top seed Quinnipiac in the semifinals and took home the title with a 68-63 victory over #2 seed Fairfield. Mason led Saint Peter's to a 19-14 overall record last season and the team's fifth NCAA Tournament appearance.

During Mason's first season in 2022-23, the Peacocks placed tenth during the regular season. Saint Peter's again made noise in the MAAC Tournament, knocking off seven seed Fairfield in the first round. Mason's squad upset #2 seed Rider in the quarterfinals, becoming the first #10 seed in MAAC Tournament history to reach the semifinals.

Prior to coming to Jersey City, Mason orchestrated an extremely successful decade at Wagner as the Seahawks' head coach, leading the team to three Northeast Conference (NEC) regular season titles while posting a 165-130 record over that span in Staten Island. He became just the second coach in the conference's 40-year history to win three Jim Phelan Coach of the Year honors during that time.

In his final season at Wagner, Mason led the Seahawks to a 21-6 overall record and an appearance in the NEC title game, marking the third time during his tenure and ninth time in program history that Wagner won 20 or more games in one season. The 2021-22 Seahawks were the first team in NEC history to boast four All-NEC players, led by NEC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-NEC selection Alex Morales, while Will Martinez and Raekwon Rogers earned Second Team honors and Elijah Ford picked up Third Team accolades. Zaire Williams also picked up a spot on the All-Rookie Team. Mason also took home hardware by season's end, as he was named the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC) District 15 Coach of the Year.

Wagner's 15 conference wins in 2021-22 also matched the most in program history, while its 14 consecutive victories set the record for the longest winning streak for a Seahawk team under Mason and was the longest winning streak for a Wagner squad since winning 16 straight during the 1978-79 season under P.J. Carlesimo. Wagner's 13-0 start in NEC play was two wins short of the conference record for longest unbeaten streak to start a season and represented the first time an NEC squad won 13 straight games in over a decade. Wagner's win over Fairleigh Dickinson marked the 100th career victory in conference play for Mason, who became the 11th coach in NEC history to reach the century mark; he also earned his 150th overall victory against Fairfield this past season. Wagner also appeared in the NEC Tournament title game for the third time in his tenure as head coach (2017-18, 2015-16).

Mason has been named the Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year three times, most recently after the 2020-21 season, where he helped the Seahawks post a 13-5 record in NEC play while dealing with the logistical challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. He also took home that honor after the 2015-16 and 2017-18 campaigns, leading Wagner to the regular season NEC conference title and tournament title game in both seasons.

The Seahawks have appeared in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) in three seasons under Mason, including the memorable 2015-16 installment of the tournament when he led Wagner to a 79-75 victory over top-seeded St. Bonaventure in the opening round. It was the first non-conference tournament postseason victory for Wagner in program history.

Mason leads Saint Peter's with a laundry list of national accolades, being named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award as the top minority Division I head coach five times (2023-24, 2020-21, 2017-18, 2015-16, 2012-13), a finalist for the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year award three times (2021-22, 2020-21, 2017-18) and was the NABC District 18 Coach of the Year in 2017-18.

The fastest coach to win 100 games in Seahawk history, Mason coached 21 All-NEC selections during his tenure, in addition to having eight student-athletes claim All-NEC Tournament accolades as well as six were named to the prestigious NABC (NABC) First and Second Team All-District. Most recently, Mason coached two-time NEC Player of the Year and 2022 NEC Defensive Player of the Year Alex Morales.

The 2020-21 season marked the first time Wagner has ever won NEC Coach of the Year, Player of the Year, and Rookie of the Year in the same season, and was also the first time since 2007-2008 that two Seahawks earned First Team All-NEC honors.

Upon his hire at Wagner, Mason was the youngest head coach at the Division I level when he was brought on staff in March of 2012. Prior to being named the head coach, Mason was a two year assistant with the Seahawks under now University of Connecticut head coach Dan Hurley.

Academically, Mason coached a total of 17 Academic All-NEC selections and has helped every player who exhausted their eligibility at Wagner earn their degree.

Mason is no stranger to the MAAC, arriving at Wagner after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Marist College from 2008-2010. He began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, St. Benedict's Prep of Newark, under Hurley during the 2007-2008 season. As coach of the school's prep team, the Gray Bees won the New Jersey State Prep A Title.

After playing under Hurley in high school, Mason went on to enjoy an outstanding four-year career as a member of the Drexel University basketball team. A four-year starter, Mason was a stellar player for the Dragons with 1,000 points and nearly 500 assists in his career.
