THE LATEST

- Merrimack clinched a share of the MAAC Regular Season Championship Friday with a thrilling 79-72 overtime win over Siena on Friday in a sold out Lawler Arena. Kevar Kennedy scored a career-high 32 points, for his 8th game with 20+ points in the last 10 games. Ernest Shelton hit 5 3s and had 17 points and Tye Dorset had 13.
- The Warriors have won 4 conference regular season championships in 7 years in Division I. A victory Sunday would clinch the MAAC Regular Season title outright, along with give Joe Gallo his 4th 20-win season.
- The Warriors have the best MAAC conference record since joining the league last season, with a 29-8 conference record, ahead of Quinnipiac (26-11) and Marist (24-14) for the best record over the last two seasons. For the 32nd time in 38 MAAC games, the Warriors enter a contest in first place in the conference standings.
- Iona is the only MAAC team that Joe Gallo has not defeated.
- Kevar Kennedy has put himself in position to sweep the MAAC Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors. He just swept the MAAC Player and Rookie of the Week awards on Monday and is now a 5x MAAC Rookie of the Week. Kennedy is leading the league in scoring at 18.3 ppg and is also averaging a league-best 20.8 ppg in conference games. He has scored in double-figures in all but one collegiate game - including 26 straight. He leads Merrimack and is 5th in the conference in assists (4.0 apg) and ranks 4th in the league in steals (1.9 spg).
- Ernest Shelton, a high school teammate of Kevar Kennedy at Philadelphia's Father Judge High School, is second on the team and 6th in the MAAC in scoring at 16.0 points per game. Shelton, a Division II transfer from Gannon University in Erie, PA, has scored 20 or more points 6 times, and in double figures in 24 of the 27 games. He has made a 3-pointer in every game and has 9 threes in the last three games.
- The Warriors have won 7-straight, 9 of the last 10 and are 17-3 in the last 20 games. Merrimack is 10-0 at home and will be looking to become the first Warrior team to go undefeated at home since the 1990-91 team went 11-0.
- The Warriors are 11-0 when they scores 70 points or more and are 2nd in the MAAC in steals (8.18) and turnover margin (+2.74).
- The Warriors #MakeChaos zone defense has continued to cause problems for opponents. Merrimack has allowed over 66 points in regulation only 4x in the last 20 games and held teams under 60 points in 3 of the last 4 and 6 of the last 9.

Coach of the Year

Continuing a transformative era for the Merrimack College men's basketball program, Joe Gallo '04 has positioned himself as one of the most successful coach's to navigate the move up to Division I ever.

Since the Warriors started playing a Division I schedule in the 2019-20 season, Gallo has led Merrimack to three NEC regular season championships in five seasons, one NEC conference tournament championship and now the best record in MAAC play since joining the league.

The Warriors were not allowed to participate in the NCAA Tournament after winning the NEC Tournament title, because it was during the transition period.

In their first season in in the MAAC, Gallo led the Warriors to a 14-6 conference mark to finish in second place. Merrimack advanced to the MAAC Semifinals, where they lost by two points to eventual champion Mount Saint Mary's. Adam "Budd" Clark was named to the All-MAAC First Team and Bryan Etumnu was honored with MAAC Defensive Player of the Year. After the season concluded, Gallo signed a 10-year contract to stay in North Andover.

The eighth head coach in school history, Gallo completed a run of three NCAA Tournament appearances in three years in 2018-19 to put a bow on the program's Division II history. The Warriors won the 2018-19 Northeast-10 Conference Championship, before moving up to Division I.

Gallo and the Warriors did not miss a beat at the Division I level, taking the Northeast Conference by storm during their five years in the league. Merrimack won the 2023 Northeast Conference Tournament Championship, and would have played in the Division I NCAA Tournament if not for the reclassification process. The Warriors also won three Northeast Conference regular season titles (2019-20, 22-23, 23-24) and 100 Division I games in their first six seasons at the highest level. During Merrimack's first six years in Division I, they had an impressive 72-34 record in conference play, Player development has also been a calling card for Gallo and his coaching staff. The Jersey native has coached three NEC Defensive Players of the Year, two NEC Players of the Year, two first team, three second team, two third team, and four all-rookie NEC members. Coach Joe Gallo received a litany of awards following the season including Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year, HoopDirt.com NCAA Div. 1 Coach of the Year, John McLendon Award (Top collegiate coach nationwide, ECAC Coach of the Year, NABC District Coach of the Year, and USBWA Coach of the Year.

Gallo led Merrimack to the 2019-20 NEC Regular Season Championship, becoming the first team ever to win a conference title in its first season of Division I membership. Merrimack's conference title came on the heels of being selected last in the conference's preseason poll, and the team went on to win 14 of 18 NEC contests to win the regular season crown in outright fashion. The 2019-20 season featured historic victories including the program's win at Northwestern, which was the team's first-ever Division I triumph, and the NEC's second victory ever over a Big Ten foe. The program added non-conference wins against UMass Lowell, Jacksonville, Hartford, and Army. The conference slate featured a nine-game winning streak, the longest for any NEC team during conference play since 2014-15, and a conference-title-clinching win in the regular season finale against Central Connecticut.

In 2019-20, Merrimack set a new NCAA record for wins by a program in its first year of reclassification to Division I.

The 2019-20 campaign featured a myriad of media coverage as well, both regional and national. The Warriors made multiple appearances on ESPN throughout the year, and were featured in the Associated Press, Wall Street Journal, theScore Sports App and Forbes among other outlets. The team's "Make Chaos" mantra followed an effective defensive unit that led the NEC in scoring defense, 3-point field goal percentage defense, steals per game and turnover margin.

Gallo took over as head coach at Merrimack, after four seasons (2012-16) as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris. During his time in Pittsburgh, Gallo help the Colonials to 76 wins, a NEC Championship, two regular season titles and NCAA Tournament berth, and the school's second-ever NCAA Tournament win.

Gallo graduated from Merrimack in 2004 after a successful playing career, earning a business degree with a concentration in management. He received a Masters degree in Organizational leadership from Robert Morris University in 2019.
