NEWS & NOTES

JASPERS AT A GLANCE:

Devin Dinkins - Guard - Redshirt Junior

- At the end of the 2024-25 season, Dinkins was named MAAC's Sixth Player of the Year by unanimous vote. As well as All-MAAC Third Team honors.
- Ranked atop the free-throw percentage chart averaging 87.7% in the MAAC.
- Before arriving in Riverdale, Dinkins was on the George Mason Men's Basketball team, but did not play in his sophomore campaign.
- Dinkins has logged double-digit points in 15 of his last 16 games played.

Jaden Winston - Guard - Junior

- Defense was on full display on 2024-25 for Winston, averaging 2.0 steals-per-game, which paced the Jaspers, and was good for fourth in the MAAC.
- Against Incarnate Word in the CBI on 3/23/25, Winston logged four steals.
- The now-Junior guard put on a defensive clinic against Niagara in the final road game of the regular season with a career-high five steals on 3/2/25.

Fraser Roxburgh - Forward - Sophomore

- Roxburgh recorded a season high 17 points at Saint Peter's on 12/6/24.
- Since returning from a foot injury that sidelined him for 12 MAAC games, freshman forward Fraser Roxburgh has averaged 9.83 points per game. The Jaspers are 10-8 in games Roxburgh has played in and 7-5 in contests without the Australian native. He also played a season high 32 mins v. UIW in the CBI.

Erik Oliver-Bush - Guard - Sophomore

- Transfer from the Saint Anselm Hawks in the Northeast-10 Conference (D2)
- Named NE10 Rookie of the Year and selected to the NE10 All-Rookie Team.
- Oliver-Bush finished his rookie campaign ninth in the NE10 with a 49.2 field-goal percentage. Additionally, Oliver-Bush averaged a double-double in '24-25.
- In his Division I debut at Monmouth in exhibition play, Oliver-Bush posted four boards, four points, and two blocks last Saturday in Long Branch.

Terrance Jones - Guard - Graduate Student

- Jones was a graduate transfer from Norfolk State in the MEAC after four successful seasons as a member of the Spartans.
- After sustaining a season ending injury just eight games into the 2023-24 season, the Trenton native appeared in 34 games and posted 6.2 points-per-game, 2.8 rebounds, and 1.0 assists a season ago.
- Against Monmouth in the exhibition, Jones grabbed two boards in 16 mins.

BROADCASTER TIPS

- Anthony Isaac sits second in the MAAC averaging 3.2 offensive caroms per game.
- Isaac also paces the Jaspers with a 47.8% clip from the field, 10th in the MAAC.
- Winston is now two steals away from becoming the program's single season record holder with 77 steals. On the all-time steals list, Winston is 17 steals away from becoming the program's all-time steals leader (List is on Page 5). Additionally, Winston sits tied for fourth in the nation with 75 total steals with Wright State's TJ Burch.
- Assistant Coach Anthony Doran was named to the "100 Most Impactful Mid Major Assistants/GM's by Silver Waves Media on Monday, January 5th.
- Junior guard Jaden Winston sits atop the MAAC averaging 2.5 steals-per-game The per-game total is also good for 7-7th in Division I with Lindenwood's Dontrez Williams.
- Against Quinnipiac on Friday, January 2, Winston recorded a career high 10 made field-goals with 15 total attempts from the floor. Both career highs.
- John Gallagher eclipsed the 200 win total as head coach against Quinnipiac on Fri. 1/2.
- Will Sydnor will be out due to an NCAA Eligibility matter. Please mention only once.
- Gallagher received a two-year contract extension on Friday 10/31, after posting 17 victories in 2024-25, a +10 year over year win margin from 2023-24.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION:

- The Iona Gaels are led by first year collegiate head coach Dan Geriot, who was the Assistant Coach and Director of Player Development for the New Orleans Pelicans last season, after spending two seasons as assistant coach of the Cavaliers.
- The Gaels have four players averaging double figures: CJ Anthony (14.4), Toby Harris (11.6), Lamin Sabally (11.2), and Kosy Akametu (10.8).
- On the defensive end, the Gaels' Lamin Sabally nearly averages a double-double with 8.2 boards-per-game and 247 total boards. Second in the league.
- Amongst the tops in the MAAC are the Gaels from beyond the arc with a 35.6 clip.
- The opposition averages 30.5 from distance against the Gaels, good for second in the conference. Iona also sits second in three's made with 9.6 per-game.
- Iona ranks third on the defensive rebound list averaging 25.5 per-game.
- Selflessness continues to be a strength for the Gaels, where the team averages 13.9 per-game and good for fourth in the conference.
- CJ Anthony sits second in the league averaging 5.3 assists-per-game, while also sitting second with 155 total assists on the year. Anthony also is second in the MAAC with a 2.0 assist-to-turnover ratio.
- Alliou Fall ranks second in the MAAC averaging 1.6 blocked shots, while totaling 44 on the season.
- Against the Marist Red Foxes on January 4, Iona turned the ball over a total of 24 times, tied for the most in the MAAC with Sacred Heart, when it played at Penn State on November 29.
- With a victory for the Iona Gaels over Manhattan on Sunday afternoon, it will play the Sacred Heart Pioneers in the 8-9 game. The Gaels are locked in to the #8 seed.
- In the 2025-26 MAAC Tip Off, the Gaels were selected to finish sixth in the Preseason Coaches' Poll in Atlantic City.

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering. An impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; Stephen Squeri, chairman and CEO of American Express, Vincent dePaul Draddy, who developed the Izod and Lacoste brands, and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

JASPER NOTES

NEW AUDIENCE!

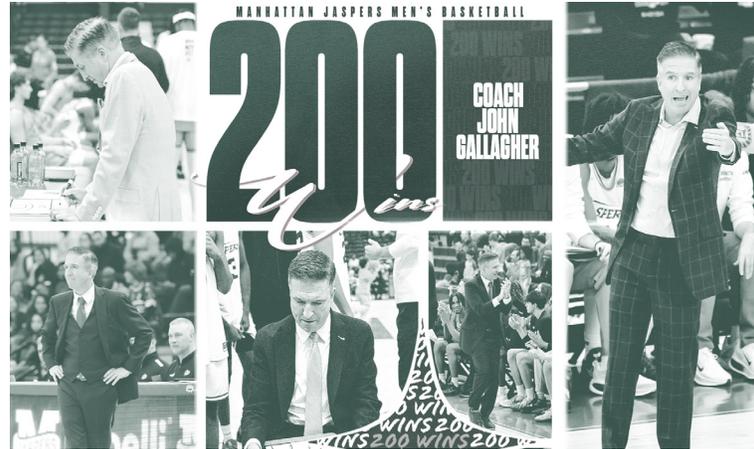

The MAAC reached regional television agreements with both SNY and NESN to air 18 combined MAAC men's and women's basketball games on linear television during the 2025-26 season. Through agreements, MAAC Hoops will be showcased on two of the nation's top-rated regional sports networks in the country's No. 1 and No. 9 media markets. SNY's reach spans across New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Northeastern Pennsylvania, while NESN reaches roughly four million households throughout the six-state New England region, including Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. Across the two networks, fans will enjoy 18 MAAC basketball broadcasts this season, 17 of which are conference matchups. The three-month slate is evenly divided between men's and women's contests, and 11 of the league's 13 institutions will be featured. Three Manhattan contests were selected, two women's and one men's games, one on NESN, and two on SNY. As part of the Conference's multi-year agreement with ESPN, every televised game will also be simulcast live nationwide on ESPN+ and accessible through the ESPN app with no digital blackouts. All broadcasts will be produced by the host institution's campus production team.

DINKINS AND HOLMES - JASPER SIXTH MAN LORE

An All-MAAC Third Team choice Dinkins was named as the best reserve in the MAAC, garnering unanimous MAAC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Appearing in all 29 games for the Jaspers, coming off the bench in all but one game, Dinkins logged over 30 minutes of action per game and averaged 13.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists, ranking 11th in the MAAC in points per game. A native of Washington, DC, he led the MAAC in free throw percentage, ranked third in free throws made, ninth in three-pointers per game, and 11th in total three-point field goals made. Dinkins becomes the second ever Jasper to receive the award, joining David Holmes, who won it back in 2002-03.

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

THE JOURNEY TO 200

After posting a marquee and emotional 80-79 victory over the Quinnipiac Bobcats, Men's Basketball's Head Coach John Gallagher posted his 200th career Division I victory, inside Draddy Gymnasium on Friday, January 2. He earned his first career victory as head coach against the Saint Francis Red Flash in a 60-55 effort on November 24, 2010 as Hartford's head man. Gallagher then earned his 50th victory against UMass Lowell in a 75-68 victory on February 19, 2014. Then, Gallagher clinched his 100th victory in a 79-62 effort at New Hampshire on January 31, 2018. Moving ahead, Gallagher logged his 150th career victory on January 10, 2021 in a 75-58 win over UMass Lowell in Worcester, exactly 149 wins after tallying his 50th, also in Worcester. Finally, his 175th victory came as the Manhattan Head Coach on March 7, 2024 against the Iona Gaels, 77-60.

'WHY NOT US'

The Jaspers' "Why Not Us" motto invented by Gallagher has helped guide them through a stretch of 9 wins a span of 12 games last year. The Jaspers were a unique bunch in 2024-25 with impressive numbers to back it up. Gallagher's team is one of only 15 teams in the nation with five or more players averaging in double figures. Led by Will Sydnor's 14.3 points-per-game, Devin Dinkins (13.5), Wesley Robinson (11.2), Shaquill Bender (11.1) and Masiyah Gilyard (11.1) also finished the regular season in double figures.

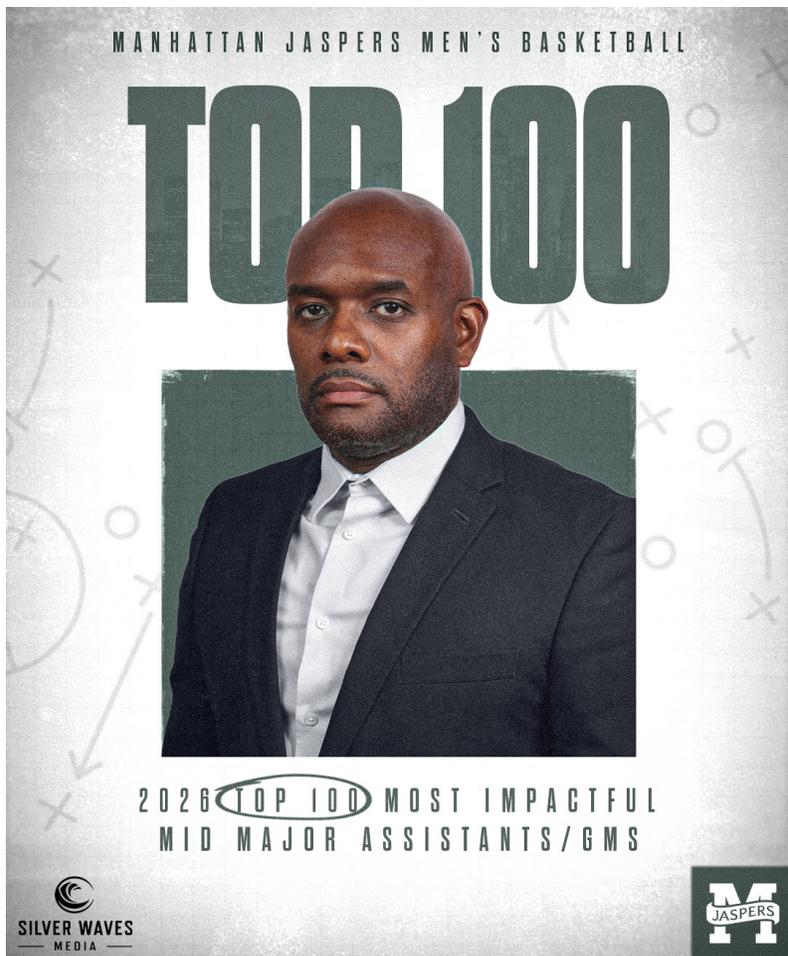

CROSSOVER FOES STARTING NEXT YEAR

The America East Conference and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) announced today the creation of the America East-MAAC Basketball Challenge, a new early season showcase that will debut at the start of the 2026-27 college basketball season and continue through the 2027-28 season as part of a two-year agreement. The inaugural America East-MAAC Basketball Challenge will take place Thursday, November 5 through Sunday, November 8, 2026, featuring men's and women's matchups between the two conferences. Teams will play two games - one at home and one on the road - against opponents from the opposing conference. Matchups for the second year of the Challenge will be determined in the lead-up to the 2027-28 season. Details on matchups, opponents, and tip-off times will be released closer to the event.

JASPER NOTES

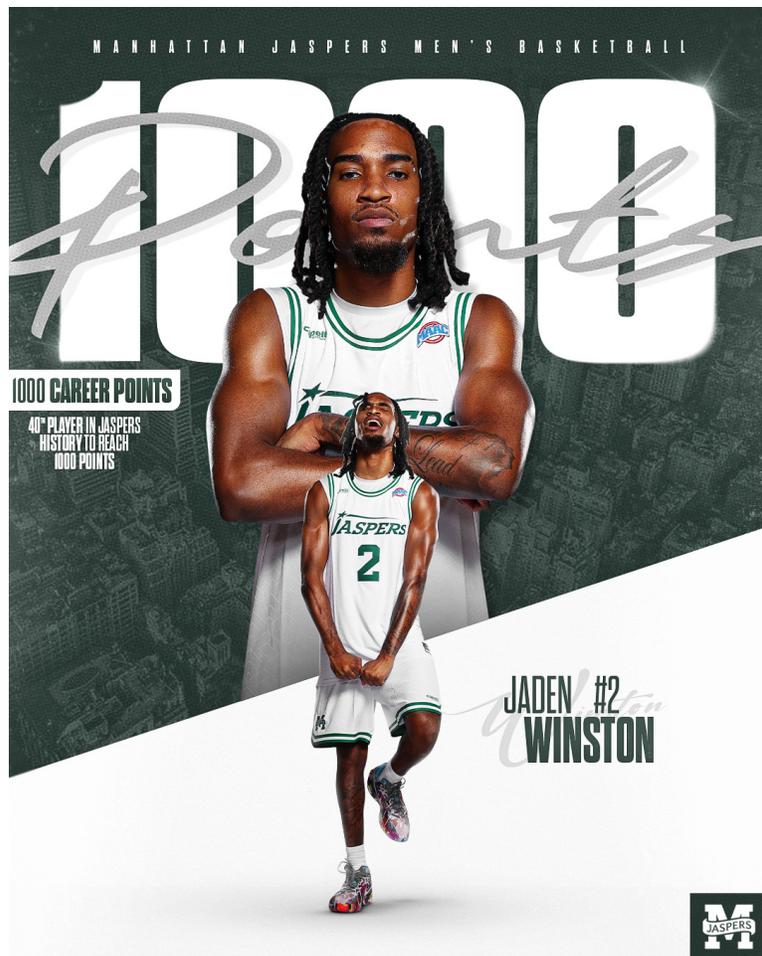

A.D. - A RISING STAR IN THE INDUSTRY

On Monday, January 5th, Assistant Coach Anthony Doran was named to the 2026 Top 100 Most Impactful Mid Major Assistant Coaches and General Managers listing, per release. He joined a prestigious list that included other MAAC assistants such as Siena's Ben Lee, Niagara's Chris Buchanan, Marist's Dalip Bhatia, Iona's Kris Saulny and Patrick Wallace, and Quinnipiac's Shaun Morris. Doran, a Bronx native and graduate of St. John's in 2001, has been part of the Men's Basketball program's staff for his fifth season, and third under current head coach John Gallagher. In 2023, Doran assisted in the emergence of then MAAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year Josh Roberts, and Anthony Nelson to receive All-MAAC First Team honors. Doran has overseen the elevation of forward play through the years, and well as assist in the team's largest win margin year over year.

100 POINT PLATEAU

The Jaspers logged its largest point total in program history on Tuesday, November 4th against the St. Joseph's Brooklyn Bears (03) by a wide margin of 125-59. The second largest margin of victory (66) in program history (68 - against Brooklyn College when it won 104-36 in 1953-54 season). This was also the first time in the John Gallagher era that the Green and White eclipsed the 100 point threshold. Against the Wagner Seahawks on Wednesday, November 26, the Jaspers put together its second 100 point performance, which featured an overtime effort. This is the second time the Green and White crossed the century mark twice in a season in nearly three decades, when Manhattan logged wins against Lehigh (106-67), and Fairfield (100-93) during the 1999-2000 campaign.

JADEN WINSTON - JASPER LORE

After seeing an increased role in his third year, Jaden Winston, nearly doubled his production this year, where he was able tack of 455 points and counting to become the 40th Jasper in program history to eclipse the 1,000 point threshold. Additionally, Winston currently alone in second place in program history with 203 career steals. Winston continues climbing the respective ladde, and has just surpassed: now-3. Ed Lawson (201) 1983-85, '86-88, and 1. Carey Wilson (218) 1989-93. Winston is 17 steals away from becoming the all-time steals leader in program history. On the assist all-time chart, Winston sits with 394. He is 25 assists away from tying Phil Lane '00 for second all time. Sitting atop the respective chart is Ed Lawson with 447 from 1983-85 and 1986-88.

On the Single Season Jasper record chart, Jaden Winston is two steals away from becoming the single season record holder in steals. He currently sits at 75. Above him is Billy Wheeler (1986-87) and Mugsy Green (2001-02) for the top spot.

ACCOLADES ON THE HORIZON

Individual accolades are set to be broken by numerous Jaspers heading down the stretch of the 2025-26 campaign. Graduate guard Terrance Jones is set to become the single-season free-throw percentage champion in program history. Currently sitting at 91.9 percent, and second in the conference, Jones would surpass Luis Flores, who set the single season record at 90.2 in 2002-03. In the same category, Devin Dinkins currently sits with an 88.5 percent clip from the line. Dinkins sits tied for fifth in the single season free-throw percentage chart with Zavier Turner ('16-17). As a member of the Jaspers, Dinkins sits atop the career free-throw percentage chart at 88.7. Luis Flores holds the title of free-throw champion with an 88.0 career clip spanning from his time in Riverdale from 2001-04.

At the end of the 2025 calendar year, HoopsHD's Jon Teitel reviewed all the numbers and announced his picks for the top five best players in each conference based on their all-around stats. Picked from the Jaspers, was Jaden Winston, while Iona's CJ Anthony, Merrimack's Kevair Kennedy, Quinnipiac's Amarri Monroe, Fairfield's Brandon Benjamin, and Player of the Year So Far, CJ Anthony, were the five selected from the MAAC.

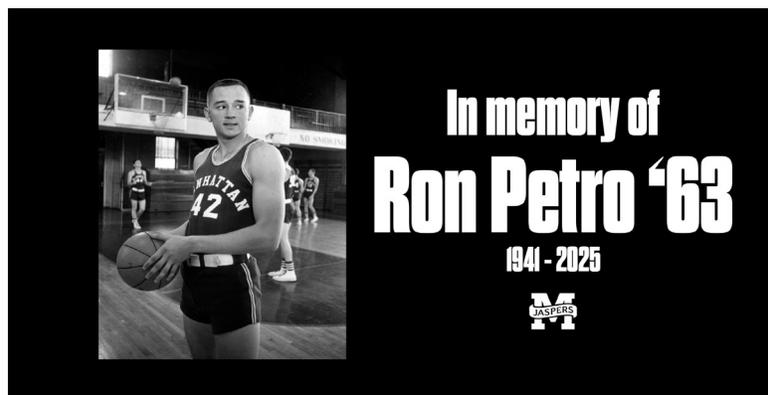

FREE THROWS ARE, IN FACT, FREE!

The Jaspers have been nearly automatic from the charity stripe this season, and sit third best in the nation averaging 79.3 from the line. The Green and White also sit second the MAAC in the respective category, .2 points behind the Marist Red Foxes (79.5). The only other team above Manhattan and Marist are the WCC's Saint Mary's (CA) (80.4), and Ivy's Harvard (79.6). Individually, graduate guard Terrance Jones sits second in the MAAC with a 79-of-86 clip from the charity stripe for a 91.9 percent clip. Exactly 1.0 behind Marist's Rhyjon Blackwell (92.9).

CAPELLI SPORT - NEW UNIFORMS!

This groundbreaking partnership ushers in a new era for Manhattan University's athletic programs and signifies Capelli Sport's first step and expansion into collegiate athletics. The joint announcement was made by Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics, and George Altirs, President and CEO of Capelli Sport, which was founded in 2011 and has strong roots in international soccer. The initial phase of the new partnership will provide all of Manhattan's student-athletes, coaches, and staff with customized, team and sport-specific, high-performance Capelli Sport uniforms and training gear. In addition, both Manhattan and Capelli Sport have agreed to explore and collaborate on select co-branding initiatives, retail opportunities, and sponsorship ideas to expand the partnership across Manhattan Athletics and provide campus-wide options for all students and the Jasper alumni base. "This partnership is about more than uniforms. It's about progress," said Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics. "Capelli Sport understands the power of storytelling through sport, and together, we're redefining what it means to be a Jasper. From the Bronx to the national stage, our teams will be competing with pride, purpose, and a brand that represents our vision for the future." "I am thrilled with this new, cutting-edge alliance between Manhattan and Capelli Sport, and know that this is just the first step of many between our two organizations that share a similar vision and passion for sports," said Frederick Bonato, President of Manhattan University. Capelli Sport is a U.S.-based sportswear and footwear company founded in 2011 by entrepreneur George Altirs. Headquartered in New York City, it operates as a subsidiary of GMA Accessories Inc. Capelli Sport's Manhattan University alliance marks the company's first comprehensive, NCAA Division I partnership. Capelli was recently announced as the official apparel partner of USA Lacrosse and USA Field Hockey. "This partnership with Manhattan University marks a pivotal moment in Capelli Sport's journey to becoming a leader in multi-sport outfitting. Supporting all 21 Division I programs at one institution reflects our commitment to excellence across every sport. Manhattan University sets the standard for what a comprehensive partnership should look like, and together, we're laying the groundwork for the next chapter of growth in collegiate athletics," said Capelli Sport Founder & CEO, George Altirs.

The Manhattan University Athletics Department mourns the loss of Ron Petro '63, who passed away on Friday, December 5 at the age of 84. Petro '63 was part of the Jaspers' Men's Basketball team for three seasons, where he finished his career seventh on the All-Time Leading Scorer's List with 1,031 points as a member of the Green and White, eventually leading to a 1999 induction to the Jaspers' Hall of Fame. As a student-athlete, Petro '63 led his team with career high averages of 21.5 points-per-game, while corralling 8.5 rebounds-per-game as a junior. The following season, he served as Team Captain in his senior year, while posting an average of 17.7 points-per-game. That year, he notched a career high 38 points in the Battle of the Bronx against Fordham. "Ron Petro was the ultimate Jasper- a distinguished hall of famer and a great teammate," described Jaspers Men's Basketball Head Coach John Gallagher. "Manhattan's basketball program and this institution were made better because of Ron's influence. Even more importantly, Ron impacted thousands of young people as a gifted coach and administrator." After his time in Riverdale, Petro went on to become the Athletics Director for Marist University, where he served as the Red Foxes' Director of Athletics for a seven-year stretch, where the Poughkeepsie based institution leapt into Division I. He also was the Red Foxes' Men's Basketball Head Coach for nearly two decades, where his 228 wins ranks second in program history. Petro then went on to serve as the Director of Athletics at Alaska-Anchorage from

QUOTES AFTER LAST GAME (CANISIUS)

Head Coach John Gallagher on the Griffins: "I have such respect for Jimmy (Christian), and the job he's done. He's been in so many close games. Look, a month ago, six games ago, we lose this game. I love the resilience of this group. I kept saying in the huddles, we're coming. We just missed six layups at the rim, but we're going to start making them."

Gallagher on adjustments made after loss to Canisius on January 9: "Well, points per possessions, this was one our best defensive games. I know we were below a point today; that's a huge point. The difference is, when we're getting deflections, it helps our offense. We're just so lucky to get out of Buffalo with a win and a weekend sweep."

Gallagher on the road ahead: "We haven't played great till the last few games. I feel like things are coming together. The momentum is huge. We just won our third game in a row. If we would've lost today? We lose all that momentum we've built to this point. Look, I know how big today was, and then we're staring at a five-point deficit. You just have to keep on playing. I'm proud of the guys that they just kept on playing. It's such a huge win for us."

I'LL HAVE A DOUBLE-DOUBLE!

Anthony Isaac and Fraser Roxburgh are two of 16 MAAC student-athletes who have posted at least three double-doubles this season. Marko Ljubicic recorded one against St. Joseph's Brooklyn to open the 2025-26 campaign. Fairfield's Brandon Benjamin and Quinnipiac's Amarri Monroe sit atop the leaderboard with 14 and 12, respectively.

MENTAL HEALTH ALWAYS COMES FIRST

Manhattan University is proud to announce a new partnership with The Zone, a leading platform for athlete mental health and performance, marking a transformative step in how the university prioritizes the well-being of its student-athletes. This collaboration strengthens Manhattan's mission to provide holistic care for athletes, recognizing that mental health is just as vital as physical health in achieving excellence both on and off the field. Through The Zone's innovative platform, Manhattan student-athletes will have access to: Personalized mental wellness resources tailored to the unique challenges of collegiate sports. Confidential tools and support to manage performance pressure, injury recovery, and the balance between academics and athletics. Data-driven insights to help coaches and staff stay connected to their athletes' evolving needs. "We're proud to announce our partnership with The Zone, a mental wellness platform now available to support our student-athletes whenever they need it," said Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics at Manhattan University. "A special thank you to our Holistic Committee for thoroughly evaluating and selecting a resource that offers 24/7 access. This reflects our ongoing commitment to prioritizing the well-being and overall support of our student-athletes." The Zone's approach blends evidence-based mental performance strategies with an accessible, athlete-friendly digital platform, making support available anytime, anywhere. By embedding these resources into the Manhattan athletic experience, the program reinforces that mental health is central to athletic success. "As someone from the Bronx, it's incredibly meaningful to bring The Zone to Manhattan University," said Ivan Tchatchouwo, Co-Founder & CEO of The Zone. "The school's commitment to athlete care aligns perfectly with our mission, and we're proud to equip their student-athletes with the tools to thrive in every aspect of life." The partnership launches in September 2025, with all Manhattan athletic teams gaining full access to The Zone platform. This initiative sets a new standard for how collegiate programs approach athlete well-being and performance. The Zone is the leading mental health and performance platform designed specifically for athletes, empowering them with on-demand tools, data-driven insights, and access to professional support. Serving over 200 collegiate teams nationwide, The Zone helps athletic departments strengthen connections between coaches and athletes while addressing the full spectrum of mental wellness and performance needs. From quick-hit strategies to licensed professional care, The Zone delivers an end-to-end system that supports student-athletes in reaching their potential - on the field, in the classroom, and in life.

RACK UP THOSE AIR MILES!

The Jaspers logged a grand total of 12,839.30 air miles in the first 21 days of the 2025-26 season. Throughout the trip that featured stops in California, Hawaii, and Texas, the team had posted two victories through the five games played. More detailed, from JFK to LAX is 2,479.90 miles. LAX to HON is 2,555.80 miles. Followed by a 10-hour trip back to New York from Oahu is 4,983.20 miles. Then, the Jaspers doubled down on its aviation seeking quest with a bit smaller trip, in distance, to the Lone Star State with LGA to HOU with a short 1,427.70 miles to face the Texas A&M Aggies just last week.

Gallagher begins his third season as the Jaspers' Men's Basketball Head Coach ahead of the 2025-26 season.

On March 29, 2023, John Gallagher was named the 24th head coach in the history of the Manhattan University men's basketball program. The 47-year-old coach has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience on the Division I level. Before accepting the head coaching job at Manhattan, Gallagher served as head coach for the University of Hartford men's basketball program for 12 seasons through the program's penultimate season in Division I (2021-2022).

In 2024-25, his second season at the helm, Gallagher led Manhattan to a 17-win season, which was the program's highest win total since winning 19 games in 2014-15. Gallagher engineered the third best improvement season-over-season in program history, going from seven wins and 23 losses in year one to 17 wins and 14 losses in year two. Nationally, the Jaspers tied for the 15th best turnaround from the previous season with their 9.5 game climb in 2024-25. Additionally, the Jaspers' line-up boasted five double-digit scorers, making them one of only 15 teams in America with five or more players averaging in double figures in points.

The Jaspers secured the No. 5 seed in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championship and later earned an invite to the Purple College Basketball Invitational held in Daytona Beach, Florida. Manhattan dropped its first round match-up with Incarnate Word, which represented the Jaspers' first non-NCAA Tournament playoff appearance since the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Under Gallagher, Manhattan has posted notable wins in rivalry games, including owning a 19-point average margin of victory versus Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. In Gallagher's second Battle of the Bronx and first at Draddy Gymnasium, Manhattan registered a 78-76 win over Fordham on November 15, 2024.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Manhattan and Merrimack were the only two teams in the MAAC to not lose a game by double-digits in conference play, underscoring the Jaspers' steadfast competitiveness during league play. Gallagher employed the same starting line-up for the first 24 games of the Jaspers' resurgent 2024-25 campaign. In showcasing his confidence in his personnel and his gameplans, Gallagher made the Jaspers one of only four teams nationally to roll out the same starting line-up—Winston, Bender, Gilyard, Sydnor, Robinson—that late into the season.

Under Gallagher's tutelage, two major award winners have emerged in Will Sydnor (2025 MAAC Rookie of the Year) and Devin Dinkins (2025 Sixth Player of the Year). Sydnor also took home All-MAAC Second Team and All-Rookie honors to cap off his sensational freshman campaign, while Dinkins took his spot on the All-MAAC Third Team to wrap up his redshirt sophomore season. Following the 2023-24 campaign, freshman Seydou Traore was tabbed to the All-Rookie Team on Gallagher's watch.

Gallagher has been instrumental in the development of key Jaspers including Jaden Winston, Masiah Gilyard, Fraser Roxburgh, Devin Dinkins, Will Sydnor and Seydou Traore. Over two seasons, Winston has started in the backcourt in every game over Gallagher's tenure in Riverdale. On March 7, 2024, Winston made history by posting 13 assists in a 77-60 win over Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. Winston's single-game assist output is the highest in program history.

Additionally, for the 2024-25 season, Masiah Gilyard ranked 13th in America in offensive rebounds per game with 3.52. His clip was the highest of any player in the country listed 6'3 or shorter. Gilyard is one of two players Gallagher has recruited from Blinn College (TX) with the other being 2025-26 newcomer Anthony Isaac.

In the era of Name, Image and Likeness in college athletics, Gallagher's roster retention skills have been touted by pundits. Entering his third season in 2025-26, Gallagher has retained rising sophomore Will Sydnor (MAAC Rookie of the Year), rising junior Devin Dinkins (MAAC Sixth Player of the Year), rising sophomore Fraser Roxburgh and rising junior Jaden Winston. In 2025-26, Manhattan will return 54.7 percent of its scoring from last season, led by the likes of Sydnor (13.9 PPG) and Dinkins (13.6 PPG).

During his 12 seasons at University of Hartford, Gallagher took the Hawks program to three postseason appearances highlighted by Hartford's at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after beating UMass Lowell in the America East Championship Game. Hartford matched up with Baylor, the eventual national champions, in a first-round match-up between the No.16-seeded Hawks and the No.1-seeded Bears. Additionally, Gallagher led Hartford to its highest winning percentage (.625) that season by winning 15 of 24 games.

Prior to the tournament berth, Gallagher oversaw a Hartford program that earned four straight top four finishes in the America East and notched back-to-back conference championship game appearances in 2019-20 and 2020-21. In 2020, the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the America East Championship Game which was set to feature Hartford and Vermont.

During the 2017-18 season, Gallagher spearheaded a Hawks team which set the program record win total with 19 victories and clinched a spot in the CIT. Hartford's ability to take a massive step up underscored the rapid improvements Gallagher was able to make in a short amount of time.

Gallagher consistently showed a knack of getting his teams to exceed expectations. While coaching the 11th-youngest team in the country, Gallagher architected the program's first-ever postseason campaign in 2012-13 with a bid to the CollegelInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). That season, Gallagher was named America East Coach of the Year by CollegelInsider.com.

Gallagher's Hartford teams had a chip on their shoulder defensively, too. In 2020-21, Hartford was 31st in the country in scoring defense (63.9) and 10th in 3-point defense (29 percent). The Hawks ranked second-best in America in 3-point defense the year before by holding opponents to a 27.5 percent clip. The 2012-13 campaign featured its own share of defensive bright spots, none more than a scoring defense which touted a program-record 61.2 points-per-game for opponents. Hartford also led the America East in steals (8.2) and forced turnovers (16) that season.

Gallagher was the associate head coach at Hartford from 2006-2008 during Dan Leibovitz's stint leading the program. He started his coaching career at La Salle in 1999 and was part of the Explorers' coaching staff under both Speedy Morris and later Billy Hahn. In 2003, Gallagher left to join Fran O'Hanlon's staff at Lafayette, spending three seasons in Easton while building his name in coaching circles. Gallagher also made an assistant coaching stop at University of Pennsylvania working under Glen Miller from 2008-2010.

Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1999. He played on the Hawks men's basketball team from 1996-1999 under the program's all-time winningest coach Phil Martelli. During the 1996-97 season, Saint Joe's went 26-7 and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Kentucky.

A native of Broomall, Pennsylvania, Gallagher is the father of four kids (Kenna, Alanna, Jack and Mary) and resides in Tuckahoe. He is one of four siblings in a basketball-loving family, as his sisters Ann and Joan both played college basketball at La Salle and Boston College.

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

Game #30 - Manhattan @ Saint Peter's - 2/27/26

JERSEY CITY, NJ – The Manhattan Jaspers Men's Basketball team (12-18, 8-11 MAAC) fell to the Peacocks of Saint Peter's University (16-11, 13-6 MAAC) by a score of 75-65 inside Run Baby Run Arena on Friday evening. After falling into a 25-7 hole, and its largest deficit of the game just ten minutes in, Terrance Jones knocked down a second chance triple. Four minutes later and looking to jump start the offense, Marko Ljubicic missed a three-point basket, before Fraser Roxburgh found some space after corraling his second offensive rebound. Then, it was Jones again from distance to the Jaspers' deficit to as little as 12. Down the stretch of the first half, Devin Dinkins joined the box score with his first made bucket, before capping off the first half with a floating jumper at the one second mark. Dinkins continued his sharp shooting to open the second half, before Roxburgh put back his own second chance bucket in the restricted area. Midway through the second half, the Jaspers posted six straight points off three consecutive possessions. It was Jones again, who continued to put his team on his back with another three point basket to keep the game within reach. In the double bonus were the Green and White, who nearly made all free-throws attempted down the stretch. Graduate guard Terrance Jones paced the Green and White with 22 points on six-of-12 shooting from the floor. Jones also converted three-of-seven from beyond-the-arc. He also grabbed four rebounds and assisted on two baskets in 33 minutes of play. Redshirt junior guard Devin Dinkins posted 11 points on four-of-seven, and assisting on one basket in 30 minutes of action. Sophomore forward Marko Ljubicic added nine points, while grabbing six rebounds, and posting two steals in 31 minutes of play. Manhattan won the second chance point battle 18 to 13 over Saint Peter's in the game.

Game #30 - Rider @ Iona - 2/27/26

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - The Iona University men's basketball team never trailed in an 80-53 victory over Rider in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference play at the Hynes Center on Senior Night. Junior Kosy Akametu paced the effort with 22 points as the Gaels delivered a commanding performance from start to finish. Prior to tipoff, the Maroon & Gold recognized graduate student-athletes CJ Anthony, Toby Harris and Keshawn Williams, graduate assistants Bobby Gerity and Jules Le Jamtel and senior content creators Will Quincy and Elizabeth Riccio for their contributions to the program. Anthony opened the scoring with a three-pointer on the first possession, setting the tone early. Rider cut it to 3-2 at the free throw line before Denver Anglin answered with a triple of his own. Zion Cruz trimmed the margin to 6-5 with a three, but it proved to be the closest the Broncos would come. Clinging to a 30-28 lead late in the first half, Iona strung together a 10-0 run to create separation and secure its first double-digit cushion. Cruz beat the halftime buzzer with a pull-up jumper in the paint, sending the home side into the break ahead 40-30. The advantage never dipped below 10 over the final 20 minutes. Another 10-0 spurt pushed the margin to 73-50 with 4:39 remaining. Two Anglin free throws extended the lead to a game-high 25 at the 3:35 mark, capping a decisive conference win. Akametu poured in 22 points and grabbed six rebounds, shooting 7-for-11 from the floor, 3-for-3 from beyond the arc and 5-for-6 at the stripe in an efficient outing. Anglin added 14 points behind four three-pointers while contributing four rebounds and three assists in a well-rounded effort. Harris finished with 12 points and six boards, knocking down three timely shots from distance. Anthony totaled 10 points, six assists and two steals while directing the offense throughout the evening. Sabally and rookie Alliou Fall chipped in five

LAST TIME OUT VS. IONA

Game #22 - Manhattan @ Iona - January 24, 2026

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - The Manhattan Jaspers Men's Basketball team (8-14, 4-7 MAAC) dropped the contest to the Gaels of Iona University (14-8, 6-5 MAAC) by a score of 66-57 inside the Hynes Athletic Center on Saturday evening. After both teams opened with unsuccessful attempts, followed by an Iona three, the Jaspers got on the board courtesy of Terrance Jones' steal and score, plus one to tie the game at three. Manhattan trailed by double-digits but clawed its way back. Fraser Roxburgh notched his second basket of the contest after Jones found the sophomore forward down low. The Gaels and Jaspers traded baskets down the stretch before Marko Ljubicic sank home a commanding three-pointer with a minute remaining, before Quron Elliott netted a basket downlow after missing a triple to allow the Jaspers to head into the locker room with momentum. Five minutes into the second half, Devin Dinkins led the charge with his first three-point basket of the evening. Four minutes later, he performed an encore, cutting the Gaels' lead back to exactly ten. The Green and White found its rhythm during a mini 6-0 run, continued by Jaden Winston with a floating jumper to cut its deficit to eight, before the and-one opportunity made it as low as seven. With nine and a half minutes to go, Elliott again drove on a fast break, keeping the deficit at seven. Two minutes later, Winston knocked down a three-pointer to further cut the Jaspers' deficit to two possessions for the first time since the beginning of the game. After Jones missed a three-pointer with four minutes remaining, the graduate guard grabbed his own carom before Winston knocked down a floating jumper to narrow the lead even further to four. With seconds remaining, Winston cut the Gaels' lead to one possession with a driving layup that led to a Gaels' foul. The play started with a lost ball from Iona, but it was not enough in the waning moments of the contest. Redshirt junior guard Devin Dinkins paced the Jaspers with 13 points, while grabbing two rebounds, assisting on two baskets, and converting on three free throws in as many attempts in a team-high 37 minutes on the floor. Junior guard Jaden Winston added 12 points to the scoresheet, while grabbing five rebounds, assisting on three baskets, and logging one block in 37 minutes on the floor. Graduate guard Terrance Jones netted 12 on the evening. He grabbed eight rebounds, assisted on a team high four baskets, and logged a game high five steals in 33 minutes. The Jaspers won the points off turnover battle, having posted 11 compared to Iona's eight. Additionally, the Green and White posted 11 second-chance points, while logging 10 fast-break points on the night.
