Game 2

No. 13/14 St. John's (1-0) vs. Iona (2-0)
Sunday, Nov. 8, 2026 • 12 p.m. • Madison Square Garden (19,812) • New York, N.Y.
TV: Peacock (Jason Knapp, Tarik Turner)
RADIO: 880 AM ESPN New York (John Minko, Vin Parise)

News & Notes

- The Red Storm will make its regular season debut at Madison Square Garden on Sunday afternoon. The contest against the Gaels will be the first of 13 regular season games for St. John's at The Mecca this season, the program's highest total since 1950-51.
- Since the start of the 2024-25 season, St. John's is 25-2 (.926) in games played at Madison Square Garden. The Johnnies have won their last 11 games played in Midtown, including a three-game run through the BIG EAST Tournament last spring that saw the Red Storm lead for 118:16 out of a possible 120 minutes.
- St. John's and Iona will face off at The Garden for the second straight year. Before taking over in Queens, Rick Pitino spent three years as the head coach at Iona from 2020-23. He guided the Gaels to three postseasons, earning two NCAA Tournament berths and one trip to the NIT.
- Starting Sunday, St. John's will play four straight games against teams in New York State (Iona, Colgate, Syracuse, Siena). The Johnnies have won 21 straight games against teams from The Empire State dating back a 93-60 win over Syracuse on Dec. 21, 2016.
- St. John's will welcome back a familiar face on Sunday in Iona graduate student Sadiku Ibine Ayo. Ibine Ayo began his collegiate career with Pitino at Iona before transferring to St. John's in 2023. He spent three years with the Red Storm, winning two outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championships and two BIG EAST Tournament titles. He was a two-time team captain for the Red Storm in 2024-25 and 2025-26.

About the Series with Iona

Record

St. John's leads, 8-3 (6-2 H, 0-0 A, 2-1 N)

Overview

St. John's and Iona will meet for the 12th time in a series that began in December of 1946. The teams will meet for the second straight season and the third time in the last 30 years. Last season, St. John's won the matchup, 91-64. This will be the fourth straight game in the series that takes place at Madison Square Garden.

Coaches

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Rick Pitino is in his fourth season at St. John's. Pitino owns an 916-318 career record in 39 seasons as a Division I head coach. The winningest active coach in NCAA Division I has led his teams to 30 postseason appearances with 25 trips to the NCAA Tournament, including seven Final Four berths. He is the first coach to lead three different programs to the Final Four and the only coach to lead two different schools to a National Championship (Kentucky-1996, Louisville-2013). Dan Geriot is in his second season at Iona. He led the Gaels to an 18-14 in year one, including a 10-10 record in the MAAC (now Metro). Geriot was an assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers and New Orleans Pelicans before taking over in New Rochelle. He also spent time as an assistant at Campbell and Princeton.

St. John's 78 - Monmouth 63

Nov. 2, 2026

Carnesecca Arena - Queens, N.Y.

The No. 13/14 St. John's men's basketball team opened its 2026-27 season with a 78-63 win over Monmouth on Monday night at Carnesecca Arena.

The Red Storm (1-0) trailed for just 17 seconds and led by 10 or more points for 36:17.

Keyshawn Hall paced the Red Storm in his St. John's debut, scoring 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half. The Auburn transfer went 9-of-16 from the floor and 7-of-7 from the free throw line. Hall also grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and grabbed two steals.

Ian Jackson poured in 15 points on 6-of-12 shooting, including a 3-for-5 showing from beyond the arc.

Tounde Yessoufou finished with 12 points, five rebounds and a pair of steals.

Quinn Ellis stuffed the stat sheet in his St. John's debut, tallying eight points, seven assists, five steals and five rebounds.

The Red Storm forced 18 turnovers, 14 of which came off steals. The Johnnies' 14 thefts matched the second-highest total of the Rick Pitino Era at St. John's, surpassed only by the 15 recorded against Bucknell on Nov. 20, 2025.

St. John's has now won 13 consecutive season openers dating back to the 2014-15 campaign. The Johnnies are now 63-3 all-time in Carnesecca Arena openers dating back to the building's opening in 1961.

- Led the team in 3-point percentage (62.5%), connecting on 15 of his 24 attempts in 2025-26
- Went 4-for-4 from beyond the arc in the Sweet 16 against Duke

Scouting Iona

- Iona comes to The Garden with a record of 2-0 after taking down Vermont on the season's opening night and defeating NJIT on Thursday in New Rochelle.
- Against the Catamounts, Iona trailed by as many as 10 in the first half before charging back for a 56-55 victory. Kevon Vanderhorst drove the length of the court and laid in the game-winning bucket with 0.6 seconds remaining. Vanderhorst led all scorers with 27 points, shooting 10-of-15 from the field and 3-of-4 from deep.
- On Thursday against the Highlanders, Iona used a 28-0 first-half run to cruise to a 72-49 win. Martin Kheil led a balanced scoring effort with 12 points. Vanderhorst and Sadiku Ibine Ayo tallied 10 apiece.
- Iona has been tough defensively through two games, limiting the opposition to 31.9% shooting from the field and 22.8% from beyond the arc.
- In addition to leading the squad with 18.5 points per outing, Vanderhorst is also the team's leading distributor with 4.5 per game and ranks second in rebounding with 6.5 caroms per contest.

Johnnies Picked Second; Yessoufou, Jackson Named Preseason All-BIG EAST

- Coming off back-to-back BIG EAST sweeps, the St. John's men's basketball team has been predicted to finish second in the league by a vote of the conference's coaches.
- The Johnnies, who received two first-place votes, finished with 90 voting points, eight points behind first-place UConn.
- Last season, the Red Storm was picked to finish first in the preseason for the first time since 1991-92, the last campaign at the helm for Head Coach Lou Carnesecca.
- Two Johnnies, Tounde Yessoufou and Ian Jackson, have been named to the Preseason All-BIG EAST First Team.
- Yessoufou was unanimously selected to the All-BIG EAST First Team. He was one of three unanimous selections to the top preseason squad alongside UConn's Braylon Mullins and Marquette's Nigel James Jr.
- Before transferring to St. John's this summer, Yessoufou set the Baylor freshman scoring record with 605 points and averaged 17.8 points per contest. He reached double figures 32 times in 34 chances and scored 20 or more points 12 separate times.
- Jackson returns for his second season with the Red Storm in 2026-27. The Bronx native and former McDonald's All-American averaged 9.4 points per outing during his first campaign in Queens. He started 19 of his 36 appearances as a sophomore and reached double figures 16 times, including a 10-point showing in the Red Storm's second round NCAA Tournament win over Kansas.

Back-to-Back BIG EAST Sweeps

- This past season, St. John's Men's Basketball won its second straight outright BIG EAST Regular Season and Tournament titles, becoming the first program in the nearly 50-year history of the BIG EAST to accomplish the feat in consecutive campaigns.
- Over the last two seasons, St. John's has gone 42-4 against BIG EAST competition (regular season and postseason).
- The Red Storm is 36-4 in BIG EAST regular season play over the last two seasons, good enough for a winning percentage of .900. The only other high-major program with a winning percentage of .900 or better in conference play during that span is Duke (.947, 36-2).
- St. John's has also produced the last two BIG EAST Players of the Year, as RJ Luis won the award in 2025 before Zuby Ejiofor took home the honor last season. Excluding ties, they were the first two back-to-back outright winners from the same school since Villanova's Josh Hart and Jalen Brunson in 2017 and 2018.
- In addition to being named BIG EAST Player of the Year, Ejiofor also won the league's defensive player of the year and scholar-athlete of the year awards, becoming only the second player in league history to sweep all three accolades alongside UConn's Emeka Okafor in 2004. For good measure, Ejiofor also tacked on the Dave Gavitt Award as the most outstanding player of the BIG EAST Tournament.

How Sweet It Is

- Last season, the Red Storm reached the second weekend of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999, taking down Kansas in the second round to earn a date with Duke in the Sweet 16.
- It marked the program's 10th Sweet 16 appearance all-time and the 14th for Head Coach Rick Pitino.

Pitino Returns for Season 39

- The winningest active coach in Division I men's basketball, Rick Pitino returns for his 39th season leading a college basketball program in 2026-27.
- The owner of 916 career on-court victories, Pitino ranks third all-time in Division I, trailing only Mike Krzyzewski (1,202) and Jim Boeheim (1,116). Last season, Pitino passed both Bob Knight (899) and Roy Williams (903) on the all-time wins list.
- Pitino's has risen to that no. 3 spot despite spending eight of his prime coaching years in the NBA. He was an assistant with the Knicks from 1983-85 and the head coach of the defending world champs from 1987-89. Pitino also coached and ran the Celtics from 1997-2001.
- The only coach to take six different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Pitino has earned 25 March Madness berths and advanced to seven Final Fours. He is one of only two coaches (Roy Williams) in Division I history to win national titles at two different schools, doing so at Kentucky in 1996 and Louisville in 2013. He is the first coach to ever lead three different programs to the Final Four.

Johnnies on the Watch Lists

- Late last month, three Johnnies were named to watch lists for national positional awards by the Basketball Hall of Fame.
- Quinn Ellis was named to the watch list for the Bob Cousy Awards (nation's top PG), Tounde Yessoufou earned a spot on the Julius Erving Award Watch List (nation's top SF) and Keyshawn Hall was on the preseason watch list for the Karl Malone Award honoring Division I's most outstanding power forward. All three of those watch lists featured 20 players from across the country.
- On the day of the season opener, Yessoufou was one of 50 players nationwide selected to the 50-person watch list for the Naismith Trophy, a national player of the year award.

Johnnies Nab Nation's Top Transfer Class

- For the second consecutive season, St. John's has recruited the country's best transfer class according to 247Sports.
- This season's transfer class is headlined by Tounde Yessoufou, who set Baylor's freshman scoring record a season ago with 605 points and finished 10th nationally among freshmen in scoring average (17.8 ppg). Yessoufou is rated as the fourth best transfer in the class according to 247Sports.
- Right behind Yessoufou in the 247Sports rankings is Keyshawn Hall at no. 5. A Third Team All-SEC selection at Auburn a season ago, Hall ranked fifth in the SEC with 19.3 points per game, leading the Tigers to an NIT title. Also Auburn's leading rebounder (7.1 rpg), Hall was one of only four players in the country to average at least 19.3 points and 7.1 caroms per outing alongside Duke's Cameron Boozer, Gonzaga's Graham Ike and Jacksonville State's Mostapha El Moutaouakkil. His 228 made free throws ranked second nationally behind AJ Dybansta (229), the number overall pick in this past summer's NBA Draft.
- In addition to Yessoufou, St. John's also inked Syracuse's Donnie Freeman, the no. 16 ranked transfer in the class according to 247Sports. Freeman will miss the 2026-27 campaign after tearing his Achilles in the offseason.
- St. John's is the only team in the nation two boast two top-10-- let alone top-5-- transfers. The Red Storm is the only team in the country with three top-20 transfers. Louisville, a potential Players Era opponent, is the only other team with three in the top 25.
- The Red Storm has compiled a top-10 transfer class in each of its four offseasons under the direction of Head Coach Rick Pitino, finishing fifth in 2024 and seventh in 2023.
- In addition to Yessoufou, Hall and Freeman, the Red Storm welcomed a trio of proven collegiate transfers in Reed Bailey (Indiana/Davidson), Avery Brown (Columbia) and Kyle Cuffe Jr. (Mercer/Syracuse/Kansas).

No Place Like Home

- Madison Square Garden has been an incredibly friendly venue to the Red Storm over the past two seasons, as the Johnnies have gone 25-2 (.926) in Midtown during that span.
- Last year, the Johnnies went 13-2 at The Mecca, including an 11-game winning streak to end the season after splitting their first four games.
- In 2024-25, St. John's went a perfect 12-0 at MSG.
- During the regular season, St. John's averaged 16,363 fans at its Madison Square Garden home games with a pair of sellouts (19,812) and four games with an attendance north of 19,000. In 2024-25, St. John's averaged 16,994 fans across nine regular season dates, making the last two campaigns two of the three best-attended St. John's seasons in terms of average attendance since 2010.
- The Red Storm averaged 16,498 fans at MSG in 2018-19, but played only five regular season games at the venue.
- The Red Storm has yet to lose a game at Carnesecca Arena under Rick Pitino, going 19-0 in Queens over the last three seasons. The winning streak is the fifth longest in the 65-year history of the building and the longest since the Johnnies rattled off 27 straight victories in Queens between Feb. 22, 1997, and Jan. 3, 2001.

Not a Cupcake in Sight for St. John's

- Once again, the Red Storm will play one of the nation's toughest schedules this season.
- For the second straight season, the Red Storm will compete in the Players Era Championship in Las Vegas as part of a loaded 16-team field featuring the likes of defending national champion Michigan, Louisville, Texas Tech, Tennessee and Gonzaga among others.
- The Red Storm will also take on Arizona in The Garden on Dec. 5, a week before heading to Birmingham for a showdown with Nate Oats and the Alabama Crimson Tide on Dec. 12.

Mecca Mainstays

- The Red Storm will play 13 regular season home games this season at Madison Square Garden, one more than last year and the highest total for the program since 1950-51 when The Garden was still located on 8th Avenue and 50th Street (MSG moved to its current location in 1968).
- For the first time in program history, all 10 BIG EAST home games will be contested in Midtown. St. John's is scheduled to play its last game inside Carnesecca Arena against Wagner on Dec. 8.
- The Red Storm's three regular season non-conference opponents at MSG will be Iona (Nov. 8), Syracuse (Nov. 15) and Arizona (Dec. 5)
- In addition to those 13 regular season games, the Red Storm also hosted two exhibition games at MSG against Rutgers (Oct. 18) and Texas (Oct. 25)

Ranked Johnnies

- The Red Storm checked in at no. 13 in the Associated Press preseason poll released on Oct. 19.
- The no. 5 team in last year's preseason poll, St. John's has been ranked in back-to-back preseasons for the first time since 1990-91 and 1991-92, the last two years of Lou Carnesecca's tenure as head coach.
- No. 13 is the sixth highest preseason ranking in program history. 2026-27 marks the 15th time that the Johnnies have been ranked in the preseason.
- Last season, St. John's was ranked in 16 of the 20 polls released by the AP.

Three Johnnies Taken in 2026 NBA Draft

- For the first time since 1983, three Johnnies heard their names called on draft night this past June in Brooklyn.
- Zuby Ejiofor went 23rd overall to the Atlanta Hawks. He was the Johnnies' first draft pick since Sir'Dominic Pointer in 2015 and the program's first first-round pick since Moe Harkless in 2012.
- In the second round, Dillon Mitchell went 40th to the Boston Celtics before Bryce Hopkins was taken 49th by the Denver Nuggets.
- 2026 marked the first time ever that three Johnnies went in the first two rounds of the same draft.

Peyton Siva Joins Coaching Staff

- Head Coach Rick Pitino added a familiar face to his coaching staff ahead of the 2026-27, as Peyton Siva came to Queens this summer.
- Siva, the point guard of Pitino's 2013 national championship team at Louisville, joined the Red Storm after spending two seasons on staff at his alma mater.
- One of the greatest guards in Louisville history, Siva is one of only three players to win BIG EAST Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors twice, doing so in 2012 and 2013.
- An Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American and Third Team All-BIG EAST selection as a senior in 2013, Siva led the Cardinals to their third national championship in program history after setting the Louisville single-season records for both steals (90) and assists (228). He was also named the BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2013.
- Currently ranked second on the Louisville career lists for both assists (677) and steals (254), Siva was drafted by Detroit in the in the second round of the 2013 NBA Draft. He appeared in 24 games for the Pistons the following season before embarking on a successful overseas career that lasted the better part of a decade.

Champs on the Bench

- With the addition of Siva, three of the Red Storm's five assistants are former national champions as players.
- Associate Head Coach Steve Masiello won a national championship with Kentucky in 1998, Assistant Coach Taliek Brown was a part of the 2004 UConn team and Siva took home his hardware in 2013.

Overseas Additions

- On top of the nation's highest-rated transfer class, the Red Storm has also added three upperclassmen with extensive experience across the globe.
- Babacar Sane joins the Red Storm having most recently played for MHP Riesen Ludwigsburg in the German Bundesliga, where he appeared in 32 games and averaged 9.9 points per outing. Prior to his time in Germany, Sane spent three seasons in the G League with G League Ignite, the Iowa Wolves and the Salt Lake City Stars from 2022-25.
- Quinn Ellis, an Englishman, comes to Queens after spending three seasons in the top Italian league. He was named Serie A's top young player in 2025 with Trento before moving over to Olimpia Milano and leading the team to its 32nd Serie A title.
- Like Sane, Zsombor Maronka played in the Basketball Bundesliga last season, averaging 7.8 points and 4.4 rebounds in 27 games for Hamburg Towers.

Defensive Stalwarts

- Last season's Red Storm boasted one of the nation's top defensive units, finishing 11th in KenPom with a defensive rating of 93.9. The year prior, St. John's finished second nationally in that metric (88.0).
- When it comes to coaching defense, there are few, if any coaches, with a better track record than Rick Pitino. In his last seven seasons at Louisville, his teams finished no worse than eighth nationally in adjusted defensive efficiency (KenPom). The Cardinals ended six of those seasons in the top five and finished first in both 2011-12 and 2012-13.
- In the KenPom era (since 1996-97), Pitino's teams have led the nation in adjusted defensive efficiency four times. Excluding his three seasons at Iona, Pitino's teams have finished outside the top 40 in defensive efficiency just three times.

Red Storm Welcomes Pair of McDonald's All-Americans

- With the addition of Tounde Yessoufou and Donnie Freeman to the Red Storm's roster this offseason alongside Ian Jackson, the Johnnies now boast three former McDonald's All-Americans among their ranks.
- The last time that St. John's had three former McDonald's All-Americans on its roster was in 1984-85 with Chris Mullin, Bill Wennington and Shelton Jones.
- Last season, the Red Storm had two former McDonald's All-Americans (Jackson and Dillon Mitchell) on its roster for the first time since 1998-99 (Ron Artest and Erick Barkley).
- Before Jackson and Mitchell, a former McDonald's All-American had not played for the Red Storm since Omar Cook (2000).
- Two of the Red Storm's assistant coaches, Taliek Brown (2000) and Peyton Siva (2009), are also former McDonald's All-Americans.

Getting to the Line

- The Red Storm boasts two of the top five players in Division I in terms of career free throws made.
- Keyshawn Hall ranks second among active Division I players with 565 career makes, trailing only PJ Haggerty of Texas A&M.
- Reed Bailey (454) ranks fifth among active Division I players.

One of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, two-time national champion Rick Pitino was named the 22nd head coach in the history of St. John's Men's Basketball program on March 20, 2023.

A 2013 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame with more than five decades of coaching experience, Pitino has established a stellar reputation for excellence on the court and a dedication to student-athlete academic success over his 39 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Pitino, who owns a 916-318 (.742) career head coaching record, has made 25 NCAA Tournament appearances with six different schools and has advanced to the Final Four seven times, a total reached by only six coaches all-time. His 916 on-court victories rank third all-time in Division I heading into 2026-27.

Pitino became the first coach to take three different schools to the Final Four and is the only coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools (1996 Kentucky and 2013 Louisville). He is one of only four coaches to ever reach the Final Four in four separate decades. With a 57-23 record in the NCAA Tournament, Pitino holds the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.713) among all active coaches with at least 20 games. Off the court, he has served as a charitable benefactor for a broad spectrum of worthy causes, often choosing to do so anonymously.

In three seasons at St. John's, Pitino has taken a downtrodden program and returned it to its rightful status as a regional and national power. In just three chances, the Johnnies have won two outright BIG EAST Regular Season titles and two BIG EAST Tournament crowns. St. John's is the only program in BIG EAST history to win an outright regular season championship and a tournament title in back-to-back campaigns.

This past season, the Red Storm rebounded from a rocky start to register one of the most memorable campaigns in program history. Over their final 23 games, the Johnnies went 21-2, losing only to No. 6 UConn in Hartford and Duke, the NCAA Tournament's top overall seed, in the Sweet 16. The Johnnies turned in an 18-2 BIG EAST record for the second straight season, matching the conference's record for victories in a campaign and winning its second straight outright BIG EAST Regular Season Championship. The Red Storm's 36 league wins over the span of two seasons shattered the previous high-water mark of 33 set by UConn in 1994-95 and 1995-96. For the second consecutive March, the Red Storm rolled through the BIG EAST Tournament, never trailing in any of its three wins, all of which came by 10 or more points. The Red Storm received a no. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament, defeating Northern Iowa by 26 in the opening round before holding off fourth-seeded Kansas in the second round in buzzer-beating fashion. That win over the Jayhawks clinched the Red Storm's first trip to the second weekend in 27 years. The Johnnies finished 2025-26 with an overall record of 30-7, becoming just the fourth team in St. John's history to reach the 30-win mark.

In Pitino's second season at the helm, the Red Storm logged an overall record of 31-5, matching a program wins record set by the 1984-85 and 1985-86 squads. After equaling a BIG EAST record with 18 league wins during the regular season, St. John's captured the outright BIG EAST Regular Season title for the first time in 40 years before running through the BIG EAST Tournament to claim its first postseason conference crown since 2000. The Red Storm earned a no. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, taking down Omaha in the first round for the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2000. St. John's was ranked in each of the last nine Associated Press regular season polls, rising as high as no. 5 for the first time since the 1990-91.

For his efforts, Pitino captured his first BIG EAST Coach of the Year honor before being named the United States Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year (Henry Iba Award), Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Werner Ladder Naismith National Coach of the Year. Pitino also earned Coach of the Year honors from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, an award named in honor of his St. John's predecessor Lou Carnesecca.

Pitino's first year in Queens saw the Red Storm narrowly miss out on an NCAA Tournament bid despite finishing fifth in the BIG EAST and winning six of its last seven games. Pitino fostered that turnaround despite retaining just two players from the previous season's roster. Those Johnnies reached the 20-plateau for just the second time in a nine-season span.

2025-26 marked Pitino's 10th 30-win season as a college head coach and his 30th campaign with at least 20 victories.

Pitino's teams have won 16 tournament championships and he owns a collective 62-17 conference tournament record (.785). At Kentucky, his teams posted an incredible 17-1 Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament mark. His coaching resume also features three BIG EAST Tournament titles while at Louisville in 2009, 2012 and 2013. In addition, Pitino has mentored 32 players who were drafted or have played in the NBA. His 1996 NCAA Championship team at Kentucky featured seven future NBA performers.

Pitino joined the Red Storm after three seasons at Iona, where he led the Gaels to a 64-22 overall record with a 40-9 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). A two-time MAAC Coach of the Year, Pitino led the Gaels to a pair of MAAC regular season titles and two MAAC Tournament championships. Iona made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2021 and 2023 and earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 2022.

Before Iona, Pitino coached parts of two seasons for Panathinaikos in the EuroLeague, leading the team to the 2019 Greek Cup title in his first season.

From 2001-17, Pitino spent 16 seasons as head coach at Louisville and led the Cardinals to a 416-143 overall record. While at Louisville, he took the Cards to the NCAA Tournament 13 times. Under Pitino, Louisville advanced to seven Sweet 16s, six Elite Eights, three Final Fours and a National Championship. The Cardinals set a school record with 35 wins during its national championship campaign of 2012-13.

For three and a half years prior to Louisville, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. He also spent four years coaching the New York Knicks, beginning as an assistant coach under Hubie Brown from 1983-85 before returning to serve as head coach from 1987-89. During the 1988-89 season, the Knicks won 52 games and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs. Pitino is one four current Division I head coaches who has also been a head coach in the NBA alongside John Calipari, Fred Hoiberg and Reggie Theus.

From 1989-97, Pitino served as the head coach at Kentucky, guiding the Wildcats to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his final five years. The Wildcats posted a 219-50 overall record (.814) under Pitino, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997.

Pitino, 74, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76 before a brief six-game stint as head coach prior to season's end. He served two seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse from 1976-78, before earning his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. Pitino produced a 91-51 record in five years at BU, departing as the most successful coach in program history. In his final season, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years.

After his two years as an assistant with the New York Knicks, Pitino became the head coach at Providence College for two seasons from 1985-87, producing a 42-23 record with the Friars. He guided Providence to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986, followed by his first trip to the Final Four in 1987.

Pitino also has international coaching experience, leading the Puerto Rico national team in three competitions during the summer of 2015.

Pitino is a 1974 graduate of Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. A team captain his senior year, he ranked among UMass' top 10 for career assists for more than 40 years.

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City. He was a standout guard for St. Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island, from 1966-70.

Pitino and his wife Joanne have five children, Michael, Christopher, Richard, Ryan and Jacqueline, and 16 grandchildren.
