Head Coach - Mike Magpayo

17-15 (Second Season at Fordham
106-78 Overall (Six Seasons)

Mike Magpayo was named head men's basketball coach at Fordham University in March of 2025. Magpayo, the 2023 Big West Coach of the Year, served as the head coach at the University of California, Riverside for the past five years.

Over the past five years at UC Riverside, Magpayo set a new standard for Highlander men's basketball. He led the teams to two 20-win seasons, including a 21-13 slate this year, 14-6 in the Big West, as UC Riverside finished in a tie for third in the league standings and received a bid to the 2025 NIT.

Over his five years at UCR, Magpayo led the Highlanders to a record of 89-63 (.586). In the 20 years prior to his taking over, UCR had gone 205-386 (.347) as a Division I program.

Magpayo was named the first Big West Coach of the Year in UC Riverside program history in 2022-23 after leading UCR to a program-record 22 wins - including 10 in Big West play. For his efforts, Magpayo was named a finalist for the 2023 Hugh Durham Award, presented by CollegeInsider to the top mid-major head coach in Division I men's college basketball.

A 2021-22 recipient of the Rising Coaches Trailblazer Award, an award presented to individuals who have blazed the way for diversity, equity and inclusion through the coaching and sports industry, Magpayo led the 2021-22 squad to 16-12 season with wins over previously-unbeaten Hawaii and Cal State Fullerton as well as a buzzer-beating victory at Arizona State during the season's opening weekend.

Following his first year at the helm, Magpayo led the program to new heights in 2020-21 with its highest Big West Tournament seed in program history (three) and the first Big West Tournament win in 10 years.

In his first season as head coach, Magpayo led UCR to a win over Washington which marked a number of firsts for Magpayo, including his first over a signature Power-5 opponent. It was his first win as a head coach, his first game coached on the sideline, and further, the first win for a team coached by a Division I head coach of Asian American descent. For his efforts, Magpayo was named the 2021 Joe B. Hall Award recipient, given annually to the top first-year head coach in Division I college basketball.

Magpayo arrived at UC Riverside in 2017, serving as an assistant coach with the program from 2017-20 and being promoted to associate head coach in 2019-20.

Prior to arriving in Riverside, Magpayo spent a year as the men's basketball director of operations at the University of San Francisco on the staff of his coaching mentor, Kyle Smith. The Dons finished the season with 22 wins, a fourth-place finish in the West Coast Conference and an appearance in the CBI Championship.

Magpayo also spent three years at Campbell University in the Big South Conference, where he served as the defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. In 2016-17, he helped put together one of the best seasons in school history, as the Camels advanced to the conference championship game and made their first postseason appearance since 1992.

A Hacienda Heights, Calif. native, Magpayo served as director of operations, assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University during the most successful four-year run in school history from 2010-14. He was a member of head coach Kyle Smith's (currently the head coach at Stanford) staff, along with Todd Golden (currently head coach at Florida) and Kevin Hovde, who was just named head coach at Columbia.

A 2001 graduate of UC Santa Barbara where he earned a degree in business economics, Magpayo was a Southern California High School basketball coach from 2001-2010 before starting his college coaching career.

FORDHAM FIRST IN THREE-POINTERS

Did you know???? Fordham was the first team in the NCAA to use the three-point shot? The first time a three-point shot was used experimentally in a game was on February 7, 1945 when Columbia defeated Fordham, 73-58. The three-point line was set at 21 feet from the basket and Columbia scored 11 "long goals" to Fordham's nine. Also, free throwers had an option to take their shots from the regular 15-foot distance for one point or from 21 feet for two points. Eight "long fouls" were made during the game.

The game also featured a 12-foot wide free throw lane, a move that would be adopted by the NCAA eleven years later.

• The 15-man Fordham roster averages around 6'5".

RIKUS SCHULTE NAMED SECOND TEAM PRESEASON ALL-A10

• Senior forward Rikus Schulte was named Second Team Preseason All-Atlantic 10 as well as to the A10 Preseason All-Defensive Team in a vote of the conference coaches.

• Both games featured a strong second half for the Rams who outscored the opponents, 88-55, over the final 20 minutes.
• Fordham outrebounded the two teams, 84-49.
• Abass Bodija averaged 13.0 ppg over the two contests while Jack Whitbourn averaged 10.0 rpg in the games with 15 coming at Fairfield and Rikus Schulte 8.0 rpg, with eleven vs. UMBC.

• Three Fordham teams have won five Atlantic 10 road contests: 2007, 2017, and 2023.

MAGPAYO BACK WHERE IT ALL STARTED

• In 2009, Fordham head coach Mike Magpayo was living in Southern California, running a multi-million dollar real estate firm that he helped start after graduating from UC Santa Barbara.
• But he felt the pull of basketball in his life so he became a prominent JV high school basketball coach within the region during his spare time.
• With the real estate market plunge in 2007-08, he realized maybe it was time to pivot so he decided to pursue a master's degree at NYU.
• To maintain a foot in the basketball world, Magpayo reached out by letter to every Division-I head coach in the New York City area in hopes of volunteering.
• He received one response, from then Columbia head coach Kyle Smith, current head coach at Stanford.
• After thinking he had no chance at a position with the Lions when Smith didn't show up at the diner for a meeting, Magpayo landed a position on the staff as the director of operations in 2010-11.
• He spent three years at Columbia before becoming an assistant coach at Campbell.
• Magpayo returned back to his native California, joining Smith as he took over at San Francisco in 2017.
• He later moved to UC Riverside under David Patrick from 2018-20 and succeeded him as head coach for the next five years, leading the Highlanders to an 89-63 record.

MAGPAYO EXPOSED TO NCAA BASKETBALL AT EARLY AGE

• Growing up, Fordham head coach Mike Magpayo wasn't the one in his house closely associated with college basketball, it was his father, Lito, who served as a video tape editor for CBS.
• Lito would earn an Emmy Awrad for his work on the 1983 CBS NCAA "Pre" One Shining Moment video montage of the 1983 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.
• Mike Magpayo grew up with that Emmy in his living room which was a factor in his love of NCAA basketball.
• To make this story come full circle, former Fordham head coach Dereck Whittenburg, a member of the 1983 N.C. State championship team which was won by his "pass" to teammate Lorenzo Charles, r4eyurned to the Rose Hill Gym on Jan. 4 as the analyst for the USA Network broadcast of the Fordham-Richmond game.
• The video can be found on YouTube at www.youtube.com/watch?v=FXTxa1Xtgi0

MAGPAYO RECEIVES THREE HONORS

Fordham head coach Mike Magpayo was recognized three times last year for special awards.

On March 3, he was named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Award, presented annually the division I coach who wins with integrity on and off the court.

The next day it was announced that he would receive the NABC Guardians of the Game Award for Inclusion at the Final Four in Indianapolis.

At the end of the week Magpayo was named as one of 20 finalists for the Jim Phelan Award, presented annually to the top head coach in Division I college basketball.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

• Fordham University's home court, the Rose Hill Gymnasium which was named as one of the four "Cathedrals of College Basketball" by ESPN The Magazine, is the oldest gym still being used by an NCAA Division I basketball team. The 3,200-seat gym opened on January 16, 1925 for a game between Fordham and Boston College. The Rams took the opener 46-16 in a game refereed by one of the University's most prominent alumni, "The Fordham Flash", Baseball Hall of Famer Frankie Frisch.
• The Gym was one of the largest on-campus facilities at the time it was built, earning the nickname "The Prairie" because of its large floor space. The original configuration had no end zone stands and a seating capacity of 2,100 but several standing room crowds of 6,000 were reported in the late 1920s. Since its opening in 1925, the gym has seen numerous renovations, adding new seating, scoreboards and public address systems.

• The arena has been in continuous use by Fordham's basketball teams since its opening with the exception of the World War II years, when it was used for a barracks.
• The Rose Hill Gym has been the site of many legendary college and high school basketball games including Kareem Abdul Jabbar's final high school game and the 1988 Tolentine-Archbishop Molloy Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Championship game, billed by the New York Newsday as the "Best High School Game of the 80's".
• The Rose Hill Gym has been named as one of the Top Ten arenas by USA Today and was featured in the 2011-12 ESPN The Magazine College Basketball issue as one of four Cathedrals of College Basketball.

WHAT'S NEXT?
• The Rams host the Long Island University Sharks in the historic Rose Hill Gym on Friday, November 13, at 7:00 p.m.
• It will be the 19th meeting between Fordham and LIU on the hardwood.
• The Rams lead the all-time series, 13-5, and have taken four of the past five meetings, including a 69-53 win in the Rose Hill Gym last November.
• The Rams are 9-4 all-time versus LIU in the Rose Hill Gym.
• The Rams are 54-14 all-time against teams currently in the Northeast Conference, including a win over Stonehill last week.
