WHAT IS A GRIFFIN?

The Griffin is a mythical creature of supposed gigantic size that has the head, forelegs and wings of an eagle and the hindquarters, tail and ears of a lion. They are well known for their speed, ability to fly and having eyes like an eagle as well as the strength and courage of a lion.

Griffins have been known for centuries as symbols of strength and vigilance, have been called "The Hounds of Zeus" in Greek mythology and are said to have mastery of both the land and sky.

They are thought to be from India, where the natives of the land made their talons and claws into drinking cups because the talon of a Griffin was said to detect poison in a liquid. Griffins would find gold in the mountains and line their nests with it and as a result, were forced to become great guardians of the nests to keep the hunters away.

CANISIUS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD COACH - SCOTT HEMER [2ND SEASON]

BIO

Scott Hemer was named the head coach of the Canisius women's basketball program on April 23, 2018.

In his first season at the helm, Hemer coached the Golden Griffins to a 9-9 conference record, the programs first .500 or better showing in league play since the 2008-09 season. The record also helped Canisius secure the No. 5 seed in the MAAC Championship, its best seeding since 2014.

Hemer also guided two student-athletes to All-MAAC honors, as senior Sara Hinrikssdottir and junior transfer D'Jhai Patterson-Ricks received second and third team honors, respectively.

Hemer picked up his first Division I victory in Albany, N.Y. when the Griffs defeated Albany 48-42 on Nov. 28.

Prior to arriving on Main Street, Hemer spent 11 seasons as head coach of the Geneseo women's basketball program. In his 11-year tenure with the SUNYAC program, Hemer was named Coach of the Year five times and the 2016 Pat Summit Trophy winner as the United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year.

Hemer posted a career record of 218-89 in his time leading the Geneseo program. Among those 218 career wins, 40-straight came during SUNYAC regular season play, a win streak that dates back to the 2015-16 season. He led the Knights to seven 20-win campaigns in the last eight years and he took Geneseo to five NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Tournaments. In 2017-18, Geneseo posted a 25-3 record with a perfect 18-0 SUNYAC regular-season mark and a conference tournament championship. That league crown was Geneseo's third SUNYAC title since 2015, and the team finished as the conference runner-up in 2013, 2014, 2016 and 2017.

Hemer's 2016-17 team set a school record with 28 victories and advanced to the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Sweet 16, and he was honored as the D3hoops.com East Region Coach of the Year, while four of his former student-athletes earned All-SUNYAC honors. In 2014-15, Hemer's squad won 19-straight games en route to the conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Tournament. That season saw Geneseo earn a trip to the Sweet 16 round of the tournament, the program's first in 20 years.

A 1995 graduate of St. Bonaventure, Hemer won his 100th career game as a head coach on Nov. 16, 2013, when the Knights defeated Williamette (Ore.) on the road, just a day after Geneseo defeated No. 17 Lewis & Clark 63-62 on its home court to start the 2013-14 campaign.

Hemer took over the Geneseo program after spending six seasons as the head coach at Genesee Community College in Batavia, N.Y. There, he led the Cougars to a record of 147-70 and an appearance in the 2007 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) National tournament. During his time at GCC, he was honored as the NJCAA Region III Coach of the Year three times and mentored five NJCAA All-Americans.

Hemer's coaching career includes four years as the varsity girl's basketball coach at Gowanda (N.Y.) High School, where he was a junior high school social studies teacher from 1996-2001. He spent one season as an assistant coach at Fredonia and three years as the head coach of the Enchanted Mountains Basketball Club Under-16 AAU team as well.
