HEADLINES FROM THE HUDSON

The Red Foxes have 15 20-win seasons in program history, all under Head Coach Brian Giorgis ... The 2013-14 team that had a 10-game win streak (Nov. 24-Jan 11) finished 27-7 and won its ninth-straight MAAC Championship ... Marist has secured a top-two seed for the MAAC Championship. To lock up the No. 1 seed, Marist needs to gain one more win over Rider (vs. Saint Peter's, at Monmouth) in the final two games ... In the last meeting against Iona, Hannah Hand scored 15 points off the bench in a 73-56 victory ... Rebekah Hand needs one three-pointer to tie Marie Fusci for second all-time (242), eight assists to tie Lynne Griffin for seventh all-time (355), and 11 boards to tie Ursula Winter for fifth all-time (762). She is 57 points away from 2,000 for her career ... Alana Gilmer is six points shy of Sydney Coffey (1,478) and Stacey Dengler (1,481) for fifth and fourth, respectively, on the all-time points list ... Grace Vander Weide is nine assists away from Beth Shackel for fourth all-time (437) ... The Red Foxes have 20+ assists in 15 games and 25+ in 6 games... Only Oregon, Baylor, and Northwestern have better assist/turnover ratios than Marist's 1.51 mark this year ... Marist is 1 of 7 teams in D1 shooting better than 48 percent. The 48.2 percentage, ranking 7th in Division I, would be Marist's best in a single season.

General: In the 2017-18 season, Trinasia Kennedy helped lead her school to the state championship. She was named MVP of the state Final Four, the Federation MVP, state Class B Player of the Year, and earned All-Section honors. Twice in her high school career, Kennedy won the Section 4 championship and was named All-Division. In 2017-18, she averaged 13.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game.

Coach Giorgis on Kennedy: "Trinasia might be one of the most athletic kids we've ever had in our program. She's one of the fastest people I've seen, and probably the strongest person we'll ever have in the program. She can shoot the three, she can take it off the dribble, and she's another kid who's unselfish and a natural-born leader. She's a consummate leader and motivator. She's a tenacious on the ball defender and I think can cause problems to opponents' point guards. She has great upside, and just keeps getting better."

General: A dual-sport athlete in high school, Samantha Bailey has earned accolades in basketball as well as soccer. In basketball, she has been named First Team All-League and Western New York Honorable Mention, and earned the Western New York Scholar-Athlete Award. In her junior season, she averaged 10.2 points and 10.4 rebounds per game, which helped her become New York State's #2 prospect, according to Northeast Girls Recruiting. In soccer, she was named Second Team All-League this fall and her team has captured the Section 6 championship twice. She has been named Grand Island High School Athlete of the Year three times.

Coach Giorgis on Bailey: "Sam, at that position, brings us a different type of athleticism. She's very versatile and another consummate team player. On her high school team, when she needs to score, she's been able to do that very well. On her AAU team, she was very much a role player, and really got the ball to the guards and did everything she was asked to do. She's extremely coachable, and I think she has tremendous upside."
