2020-21 QUICK HITS

Second leading scorer for Bulldogs Debuted at PC w/ 3 reb. 1 ast. CH 5 pts. vs. UMass Rookie debut vs. UMass Rookie debut vs. UMass

THE MATCHUP

The Bulldogs head to their second-straight road game of the season when they head to the Empire State. Bryant tips off at Iona at 6pm on ESPN+ on Friday, December 4.

It's been almost eight years since these two teams have met as the all-time series record is tied at one apiece. The Bulldogs dropped the first meeting between the Gaels, 66-53, in Smithfield in 2011, but bounced back in 2012 with a 77-71 victory in New Rochelle in overtime.

LASTTIME OUT: PROVIDENCE

Bryant dropped a 67-40 decision at Providence to open up their road schedule on Sunday. The Black and Gold only trailed the Friars by one heading into the second quarter, but Bryant found themselves in early foul trouble and got outscored 15-7 just before the half. The second-quarter push from PC gave the Friars all the cushion they needed for the remainder of the game.

Bryant posted two double-digit scorers in the sophomore duo of Alana Perkins and Nicole Gallagher. Gallagher led with her first career double-double of 12 points and 12 rebounds. The Foxboro native posted all of her points entirely from the three-point line shooting four-of-seven from downtown. Perkins trailed with 11 points shooting four-for-11 from the field and three-for-nine from the three-point line. Despite the deficit, the Bulldogs outrebounded the Friars, 39-33.

COACH BURKE

Entering a monumental 30th season as the leader of the women's basketball team, Mary Burke returns for the 2020-21 season. Burke has been an instrumental member of not only the women's basketball program, but the entire athletic department at Bryant. Since graduating from Providence College in 1987, Burke was originally hired as an assistant coach in 1987 and held that position until being promoted on August 1, 1991. Burke has become one of the top coaches in the New England area, constantly pulling in nationally-recognized recruiting classes. Last season, Burke and her squad competed in the quarterfinals of the NEC Tournament falling to Fairleigh Dickinson. She coached Sydney Holloway to Second Team All-NEC honors last season and Nicole Gallagher to the NEC All-Rookie squad. All time, Coach Burke has accumulated a 412-432 record. In Division I, Burke is 165-198.

MEET THE NEWCOMERS

Bryant welcomes six new faces, including five true freshman and one junior transfer. The class is one of the most diverse that Bryant has ever seen as half hail from international backgrounds, Lucie Castagne (Paris, France), Fatou Jallow (Stockholm, Sweden), and Mariona Planes Fortuny (Bellpuig, Spain). Stephanie Mayerhofer, Nina Karlin, and Castagne represent the true freshman guards, while Juliette Golden and Fortuny add height to Bryant's frontcourt. Jallow transferred in from Salt Lake City Community College where she ranked as one of the top-100 junior college players in the country.

BEGINNERS LUCK

Nicole Gallagher shined in her rookie debut with the Bulldogs in 2019-20 as she was selected for the NEC All-Rookie squad as the first Bryant freshman to earn the honor since Hannah Scanlan in 2017-18. Gallagher led the team with 52 made three-pointers and is the top returner with 61 assists. Starting in all 30 games in the Black and Gold, Gallagher tallied 940 minutes for an average of 31.7 minutes per game, as well as 273 points for an average of 9.1 points per game, which is the most by a Bryant rookie since Ivory Bailey in 2014-15.

NIKKI G

Gallagher notched her first career double-double of 12 points and career-best 12 rebounds at Providence. Her 12 points came entirely from three-point range shooting 4-of-7 from three. After the first three games, Gallagher combines for 32 points which is good for 10.7 a game. She also leads the Bulldogs in playing time after not leaving the floor against UNH for a full 40 minutes. She averages 36 minutes a game which ranks her first in NEC and among the top 100 in the country at the 95 spot.

I WANT KANDY

Kandis Taylor saw the court more in her junior season than in previous years averaging 21.0 minutes per game compared to the 10.2 that she averaged in 2018-19. As a senior, Taylor is Bryant's starting point guard and averages 20 minutes a game. She leads the Black and Gold with 10 assists across three games thanks to the 6 that she dished out against UNH.

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK

Redshirt freshman Shannon O'Connor is back and has been a key for the Bulldogs so far this season. After the opening weekend, O'Connor was the first to be named NEC Rookie of the Week after combining for 20 points, highlighted by a career-best of 10 against UNH. She also proved to be able to force fouls and get to the foul line as she leads the Bulldogs in free throw makes and attempts shooting 10-of-12 from the stripe.

SENIOR SZN

Brooke Bjelko opened her senior season with back-to-back double-double performances, first against UMass with 11 points and 13 rebounds, and then against UNH with 21 points and a career-best 16 rebounds. The 6-3 center also took home the first NEC Player of the Week honor after leading the league in scoring with 13.3 points per game for a total of 40 off 44.7% from the field. She also ranks third nationally with 34 rebounds which is good for an 11.3 average.

ALANA PERKINS FOR THREE

Sophomore Alana Perkins led Bryant in its season opener against UMass with 12 points off the bench. Perkins netted two three's and aided in Bryant's biggest run of the game (16-2) in the fourth quarter. The sophomore is the only Bulldog to have posted double-figures in all three opening games as she ranks second on the team in scoring by just one point with 39, behind Bjelko with 40. The 39 points is good for a 13.0 ppg average. Most recently, Perkins was one of two Bulldogs to post double-figures at PC with 11 points off four-of-11 shooting from the field.

FREE-BEES

The Bulldogs opened the season by tallying 15 points from the stripe in back-to-back games against UMass and UNH. Bryant is currently 31-for-45 from the foul line after three games led by Shannon O'Connor who is 10-of-12. As a team Bryant ranks among the top 50 in the country in both free throw makes and attempts.

DOMINATING THE GLASS

Bryant is known for its dominating rebounders and nothing has changed in the 2020-21 season. Despite being outrebounded against UMass to open the season, the Bulldogs outrebounded both PC and UNH. Against the Wildcats, Bryant outrebounded UNH by double-digits, 44-33, followed by a 39-33 performance over the Friars. Brooke Bjelko leads the Black and Gold with 34 on the year which ranks her third nationally out of 136 players. Nicole Gallagher ranks 38th and second in the NEC behind her teammate with 23 after posting a career-high of 12 at PC.

WEEKLY AWARDS

Bryant swept the first of the NEC weekly awards when senior Brooke Bjelko earned Player of the Week and redshirt freshman Shannon O'Connor earned Rookie of the Week honors. The 4-5 duo has put up consistent numbers and even set new career-bests to kick off the season. They both lead the conference in multiple categories including, double-doubles, FG attempts, FG made, points, rebounds, rebounds/game, steals, and steals/game.

YOUNG DAWGS

Bryant's upperclassmen are outnumbered 4-11 by the underclassmen on the team. Of the four upperclassmen, one is a junior transfer in Fatou Jallow. Despite Jallow being new to the team, she joins Brooke Bjelko and Nicole Gallagher as captains of the Black and Gold. With five true freshmen, one redshirt freshmen, and five sophomores, the Bulldogs are going to have a brand new look and feel to their lineups as they look to their returners for guidance.

BRYANT vs. THE NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

Bryant finished 8-9 in NEC regular-season games last season before falling to FDU in the NEC quarterfinals. In home games versus NEC opponents, Bryant slipped to 4-5 as compared to the 6-3 home NEC mark from the season prior.

OCEAN STATE OF MIND

Of the four Division I schools in Rhode Island, Bryant has had the highest win total over the past five seasons. Bryant collected 66 wins over the five-year span, but only leads by two wins to the next highest win total of 64 by Brown. Providence College collected 60 wins while URI tallied 42. The Bulldogs even hosted the coveted Ocean State Tip-Off Tournament last season in Smithfield which marked the final year of the tournament. The Friars came out on top during the two-day event as they took down the Bulldogs in the first round followed by the Rhody Rams in the Championship game.

#ALLHEART #ALLHUSTLE

Bryant came up with a motto during the 2018-19 season that directly correlates with how the Bulldogs take the floor during every game. The hashtags are used throughout their social media platforms as well as a reminder that the team uses through their day-to-day.

FRONT ROW SEAT

Bryant University Athletics and the Northeast Conference are once again affiliated with the Pack Network and NEC Front Row, the home for all NEC men's and women's basketball broadcasts. NEC Front Row brings viewers an industry-leading video streaming solution for more than 100 Bryant University home contests during the 2019-20 athletic seasons, including live, free-of-charge, high-definition broadcasts of all Bulldog home women's basketball games. Live event productions include multiple camera angles, an on-screen scoreboard, state-of-the-art graphics and DVR functionality. Visit NECFrontRow.com for more information and a complete schedule of events.H. Bryant is now 30-for-41 from the foul line which is good for 73.2%. Of 180 teams ranked so far in the 2020-21 season, the Black and Gold ranks seventh nationally in free throw attempts and eighth nationally in made free throws. O'connor leads the team after the first two games shooting nine-for-10 from the stripe.

Mary Burke, the four-time Rhode Island Women's Basketball Coach of the Year ('07, '08, '13, '14), will enter her 30th season as head coach of the Bryant women's basketball team in 2020-21.

In 2019-20, Burke coached two all-conference selections in NEC All-Rookie honoree Nicole Gallagher and Second Team All-NEC Sydney Holloway. Coach Burke assembled one of the most competitive non-conference schedules to date as the Black and Gold trekked to two Big Ten opponents, Illinois and Minnesota, and grabbed wins over Brown and Albany.

In 2018-19, Burke enjoyed a historical season as she reached a personal milestone just before the end of the regular season. On March 9, 2019, Burke secured her 400th career win at LIU, 69-54, which was the first of two-straight victories for the Bulldogs to help the team finish fifth in the conference standings. Bryant finished the season with an 11-19 overall record led by Sydney Holloway. Coach Burke guided Holloway to her second First Team All-NEC honor.

In 2017-18, the Bulldogs qualified for the Northeast Conference postseason by posting an 8-10 mark against conference foes. Burke also coached sophomore stand-out Sydney Holloway to a First Team All-NEC honor after ranking among the top 20 nationally in double-doubles. Coach Burke also helped freshman Hannah Scanlan earn NEC All-Rookie laurels.

In 2016-17, Burke led the Bulldogs to their best-ever Northeast Conference finish, reaching the conference finals where they fell to No. 1 Robert Morris. The 18-14 Bulldogs went 11-7 against conference foes, earning the No. 4 seed in the league tournament. The Bulldogs hosted and defeated No. 5 Mount St. Mary's in the NEC Quarterfinals, before defeating No. 2 Sacred Heart in the NEC Semifinals en route to the program's first-ever NEC Championship appearance as the unlikely No. 4 seed. Senior Alex Klein earned First Team All-NEC, while Sydney Holloway was named to the NEC All-Rookie Team.

In the 2015-16 season, Burke helped the Bulldogs back to the NEC Tournament after posting an 18-13 overall record and 14-4 conference mark, including a 10-0 start in league play, becoming one of only seven teams to reach the 10-0 tally in Northeast Conference history (29 years). Burke has recorded 10+ conference wins in 14 seasons, including eight-straight years with double-digit league victories (2000-08). The No. 2 Bulldogs took down No. 7 LIU Brooklyn, 70-56, in the NEC Quarterfinals, before No. 3 Robert Morris upset the Bulldogs, 72-59, for the third-straight year in the league semifinals.

In 2014-15, Burke guided the Bulldogs to their best Division I season to date in which they earned a share of the Northeast Conference Regular Season Title. The first conference championship of her career, Burke led Bryant to a record-setting season which featured a tie for the most wins in program history (22), most Northeast Conference wins in a season (14), and the highest finish in the NEC standings (tied for first). The Black and Gold advanced to the NEC Tournament Semifinals for the second-straight season led by NEC Player of the Year Breanna Rucker and NEC Rookie of the Year lvory Bailey.

In the 2008-09 season, the Bulldogs' inaugural DI season, they posted the most wins of the four Division I schools in Rhode Island (PC, URI, and Brown). The Bulldogs earned wins over New Hampshire, Colgate, Central Connecticut (twice), Saint Francis, Wagner and Fairleigh Dickinson.

Before the transition to Division I, the Bulldogs were among the top teams in the Northeast-10 Conference. Under Burke's tutelage, the Bulldogs qualified for the NCAA Tournament four times, including back-to-back appearances in 2004 and 2005, as well as their final appearance in the Division II Tournament in 2008.

Bryant appeared in the national polls on five occasions in 2007-08, each time in the "Others Receiving Votes" category. The 2008 dance was Burke's fourth as a head coach, while the 2007-08 effort marked just the second time she has eclipsed the 20-win clip.

Another highlight of Burke's tenure at Bryant came in the 2003-04 season when the Bulldogs finished the year ranked in the USA Today Division II Coaches' Poll Top-25 and advanced to the NCAA Regional Final, where they fell to Northeast-10 foe Merrimack College, finishing the season 22-9.

Burke's rapid climb up the coaching ladder began in 1987 when she joined former Bryant head coach Ralph Tomasso's staff as an assistant with the Bulldogs. She was promoted to head coach, August 1, 1991, becoming only the fourth women's basketball head coach in Bryant history.

Burke's success as the Bulldogs' leader comes as no surprise, considering the lofty heights she reached as a player at Providence College. A three-time Big East All-Conference selection, Burke was named a District I All-American as a senior. In her four years as a Friar, Burke helped lead her team to an 80-36 record. During that time, she led the 1985-86 Providence squad to the Big East Championship Game and a bid in the NCAA tournament and also spearheaded the Friars' run in the 1986-87 NIT.

Burke graduated as the Friars' fourth-leading women's scorer (1,672 points) and seventh-leading rebounder (740) of all time. Her 43-point outburst against Miami of Ohio in her final season at Providence set a new school record, etching her name in the record books yet again.

Before even attending Providence, Burke had already made a name for herself in Rhode Island. Earning All-State recognition five times at Toll Gate High School - three times in basketball and twice in volleyball - Burke has been honored on two occasions by Words Unlimited, Rhode Island's professional organization of sports publicists and journalists.

Burke was named Rhode Island's Schoolgirl Athlete of the Year in 1983 and accepted the organization's highest honor in 1987 when she was named Rhode Island's Female Athlete of the Year. She was also the recipient of the ECAC Award of Valor in 1987.

Burke was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2004 and enshrined in the Providence College Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.
