Marc Mitchell (Kean '00)

Head Coach

3rd Season

Marc Mitchell enters his 3rd season at the helm of the Saint Peter's University Women's Basketball Team.

Marc Mitchell was appointed as the eighth Saint Peter's University women's basketball head coach in March 2018.

Mitchell enters his third year of leading the Peacocks, following the team's most successful campaign in nearly a decade. Under Mitchell, the Peacocks finished the 2019-20 season with nine overall wins and six victories in league play. The Peacocks were solid at home last season, finishing at nearly .500 with a 6-7 record at the Yanitelli Center.

Under coach Mitchell's leadership, current redshirt senior Taiah Thornton earned a selection to the 2020 All-MAAC Third Team and a 2020 Preseason All-MAAC Second Team Selection. During her the 2019-20 campaign, Thornton finished the season as one of the MAAC's elite scorers, finishing tied for sixth in the league after racking up 446 points (14.9 points per game). Thorton also finished the season ranked second in steals with 69 and third in steals per game with 2.3.

Prior to joining the Peacocks, Mitchell enjoyed a highly successful career at Farleigh Dickinson University-Florham, where he led the Devils for nine seasons.

While there, he became the Division III program's all-time winningest coach, compiling a career record of 187-67 (.736). Under his guidance, the Devil's claimed an unprecedented six straight Middle Atlantic Conference Freedom Championships, making six straight NCAA Division III tournament appearances. During the six- year run, Mitchell's teams won 20 or more games in every season and he won 86.5 percent of his contests posting a 154-24 overall record over the half dozen year span. Mitchell's best campaign came during the 2013-14 season, when the Devil's posted a perfect 33-0 record and capped off the season as the NCAA Division III national champions.

The national title was the first in FDU-Florham history, and the Devils became the first team to win the NCAA Division III women's basketball championships from the state of New Jersey.

In addition to the national title run, Mitchell's squads have made trips to the Elite Eight twice and won at least one NCAA tournament game in five out of the six appearances.

Mitchell has garnered coaching honors for Freedom Conference Coach of the Year four times, D3 News Coach of the Year, WBCA Coach of the Year, and the All-MET Coach of the Year. Prior to joining FDU-Florham, Mitchell was the top assistant at Caldwell College in 2008-09. He spent 2007-08 as an assistant coach at New Jersey City University and three previous seasons as the Head Girls Basketball at Elizabeth High School. While at Elizabeth, he led the squad to the County Semifinals in 2005 and to the State Tournament all three years.

He graduated from Kean University in 2000 with a degree in History and he earned his Master's Degree in Education from American Intercontinental in 2008.

BACK IN THE MAAC

This weekend's series will open conference play for the Peacocks a week earlier than originally anticipated, following schedule changes due to COVID-19 protocol. Last season, the Peacocks finished 6-14 against MAAC opponents, which marked the program's most successful conference campaign of the past decade, last registering six MAAC wins in the 2009-10 season when the team went 6-12. Saint Peter's collected multiple signature wins last season, including a stunning 67-56 victory over then-undefeated Rider on Feb. 6, 2020. The win was followed by a thrilling 66-63 overtime-win against a strong Fairfield side less than two weeks later on Feb 18, courtesy of a Taiah Thornton buzzer-beater in the final seconds of extra time. The duo of Thornton and Williams will look to repeat their success they found in conference play last year. Thornton finished fifth in the league in scoring with 307 points (15.4 per game) and was ranked thirteenth in field goal percentage at 45 percent. Williams was among the league's elite deep-threats last season, finishing fifth in three-point percentage with 39.7 percent and second in triples made at 46 (2.3 per game).

LEAGUE LEADING

After three games, Saint Peter's stands as the top team in four separate categories among all Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) teams, including offensive rebounds, rebounding margin, turnover margin, and steals. The Peacocks currently have 79 offensive boards on the season, equating to 26.3 per game, while the next highest rebounds per game average belongs to Quinnipiac at 12.3. Saint Peter's also holds a rebounding margin of 4.0, which leads the MAAC and is one of only three positive rebounding margins in the league. Saint Peter's opponents have turned the ball over 84 times through three games compared to 56 on the part of the Peacocks, leaving the team with a conference-best 9.33 turnover ratio. In the steals column, the Peacocks are second to none, registering 13.67 steals per game and amassing 41 steals on the season thus far.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

The Peacocks' 103 rebounds are the most by the team through two games during head coach Marc Mitchell's tenure at Saint Peter's. Additionally, the Peacocks' 62 rebounds against NJIT on Nov. 25 marked the first time Saint Peter's finished with more than 50 rebounds in a single game since the squad recorded 52 boards against Hampton on Nov. 21, 2016. In her first collegiate game, freshman Sky Castro tied the season-best, single-game rebound mark (13) of the past three years. Previous single-game bests belong to Zoe Pero (13) from 2018-19 and 2019-20, and Dajiah Martin (13) in 2017-18.

STARTING OFF STRONG

Thornton's 11 steals against NJIT nearly tied the program record of 13, set by Carolyn Gadsden against Dartmouth on Jan. 21, 1984. James's 13 point, 10 rebound performance marks the first double-double by a Saint Peter's rookie since Wil' Lisha Jackson finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds against Niagara on Feb. 4, 2019. The Nov. 25 win over NJIT marks the second straight season opener in which the Peacocks have had four double-digit scorers. Thornton's 15 point outing is the redshirt senior's 24th double-digit game since joining the start of last season, while Williams's 13 points mark her 22nd game of scoring 10 or more in the blue and white.

THE 2019-20 PEACOCKS

Saint Peter's finished last season with nine overall wins and six in the league circuit to represent the team's best finish in nearly a decade. Among the victories came marquee wins over some of the conference's top programs, including a 67-56 win against then-undefeated Rider on Feb. 6. Another signature win came less than two weeks later, when Saint Peter's split the season series with Fairfield in a 66-63 overtime victory on the back of a game-winning triple from Thornton. The Peacocks will look to capitalize on their home-court advantage from last year, having finished the season nearly .500 (6-7) when playing in Jersey City.

BACK FOR MORE

The Peacocks return four players from 2019-20, including redshirt seniors Thornton and Williams, along with juniors Cinnamon Dockery and Tyara McQueen. Thornton makes her senior debut following an incredible showing all last season in which she led the team in scoring with 446 points (14.9 points per game) and steals (69). The Pennsauken native was also one of the most efficient shooters on the squad, finishing the season with a field goal percentage of 42 percent and a three-point percentage of 30.6 percent. Thornton's season culminated in a selection to the 2020 All-MAAC Third Team.

Joining her classmate to lead the pack, Williams returns as one of the team's elite offensive weapons after a standout campaign last year. Williams shot a team-high 45.6 percent from the floor last season, and was lethal from deep range, finishing out with a 41.3 percent three-point percentage. The marks were enough to rank third in the league in percentage, while tying for first in triples made with 76.

Dockery enters the season fresh for the first time since her freshman year, after a delayed start from last season due to injury. The junior was still able to work her way back into the lineup to appear in 20 contests last year, including one start against Iona on Jan. 20. A constant worker, Dockery will look to increase her production with a healthy start to the new schedule.

McQueen rounds out our returning veterans as another staple in the lineup from 2019-20. The Rahway native appeared in 29 games for the Peacocks last season, averaging just over 12 minutes per contest. McQueen was able to step up big for Saint Peter's when she needed to last season, including an 11-point outing on 80 percent shooting in the Peacocks' 86-68 win over Canisius on Jan. 25.

FRESH FACES

One of the largest incoming groups in recent years, Saint Peter's welcomes 10 newcomers to the squad for the upcoming campaign, including six true-freshmen and four transfers. Of the rookie class, four hail from the northeast, including Taylor Abraham (Freeport, NY), Sky Castro (Queens, NY), Rachel Kuhl (Old Bridge, NJ), and Giah Moore (East Stroudsburg, PA). The two remaining freshmen include Ajia James (Stafford, VA) and international addition Victoria Ikenasio (Melbourne, Australia).

The four other additions to the team include graduate transfer Jenna Clark from FDU, senior Jessica Woods out of Sacred Heart, and juniors Nickelle O'Neil and Binta Salawu, who join the Peacocks following their respective careers at Niagara CCC and Miles CC.
