SERIES HISTORY WITH IONA

Iona has won six-straight over the Broncs, including a 68-44 win over the Broncs in Lawrenceville just two weeks ago. The win extended the Gaels lead in the all-time series to 33-24. Kate Mager drained five threes for the Gaels in that victory, and Juana Camillion led all scorers in the game with 17.

SCOUTING THE GAELS

The Gaels enter Thursday's game atop the conference standings at 6-1 in league play, and winners of five straight. Juana Camillion, Ketsia Athias, and Kate Mager are all averaging double figures on the season with Athias also ranking second in the MAAC at 7.8 rebounds per game and third in the MAAC at 4.6 assists per contest.

FOUR TO THE RAFTERS

Prior to the game against NJIT, the Rider women's basketball team honored Stella Johnson '20 by retiring her number. Johnson is the first women's basketball player, and only the second female student-athlete joining Kelly Hall '85 (Field Hockey and Softball), in Rider history to have their number retired. Johnson scored 2,167 points, grabbed 750 rebounds, dished out 428 assists, and had 336 steals during her career. A two-time MAAC Player of the Year, Johnson is the first-ever All-America honoree in women's basketball and was the 29th pick in the 2020 WNBA Draft.

SELECTED SIXTH

The Broncs were picked to finish tied with Marist for sixth by the league's coaches in the preseason poll. Rider has made the MAAC Semifinals in five of the last six years. The Broncs return four of five starters from last year's team, and overall are missing just three players from last year's roster in Lenaejha Evans, Teresa Wolak, and Lauren Saa.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Makayla Firebaugh was selected to the preseason Third-Team All-MAAC. Firebaugh was named the MAAC Co-Rookie of the Year and Second-Team All-MET following the 2020-21 season, where she averaged 11.0 points and 4.4 rebounds. Last season, Firebaugh again averaged 11.0 points and 4.4 rebounds, and led the MAAC with 67 made three pointers.

INCOMING

Rider has two newcomers on the rosters in transfers ToniRenee Blanford and Daja Wentz. Blanford played for a season at Union College after a year at Monroe College. The 2021-22 NJCAA Region 19 Tournament MVP, Blanford hit a buzzer-beating three in the opening round victory of the 2022 NJCAA Tournament. She averaged 12.0 points and 7.2 rebounds last year at Union. In High School, Blanford helped lead The Patrick School to a Union County Championship as a senior. Wentz was a two-time NJCAA Division I First-Team All-Region honoree, two-time NJCAA Division I Regional Champion and two-time NJCAA Division I Tournament Participant in her time at Monroe College. As a freshman, Wentz led Monroe in scoring and in her career finished with 25 double digit scoring games, including five games with 20 or more points.

DROPPING DIMES

Amanda Mobley had nine assists at Niagara, including a first-quarter dish to Victoria Toomey to tie Stella Johnson '20, with 428 assists before moving past Johnson for third in program history. Next on the list is Lisa Federici '84, who ended her career with 504. Mobley leads the MAAC this season, and ranks 11th nationally at 6.2 assists per game.

PLAYING THE GOLDEN OLDIES

Rider is one of just nine teams in Division I without a true freshman on the roster. They just faced one of the other nine teams at the MAAC/ASUN Challenge when the Broncs battled Eastern Kentucky. The remaining seven teams are Charlotte, Coastal Carolina, CSUN, Gonzaga, Green Bay, Norfolk St, and Valpo. The Broncs are one of just five teams that returns 12 or more players from last season's roster, joining Columbia, Western Michigan, Liberty, and Weber State.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS...

The Broncs have made a habit of treating road games as business trips, and the Broncs have been successful away from Alumni Gym, finishing with an equal number or more road wins than home wins in every season since 2014-15. The Broncs got their first victory of the season with a road victory at St. Francis Brooklyn. All four of Rider's wins this season have come away from Alumni Gym.

...AND WORKING OVERTIME

Speaking of the Broncs win over St. Francis Brooklyn, it took an extra five minutes for the Broncs to earn the victory on Makayla Firebaugh's three pointer with 10.2 seconds remaining in the extra session. It was the Broncs' first overtime game since an early-season game against La Salle last season, and first overtime win since a 77-74 win over Quinnipiac in 2020-21. Firebaugh tied a career-high with six triples in the game.

SHE'S ON FIREBAUGH

Makayla Firebaugh has been scorching the nets this season, ranking among the conference's leaders at 13.6 points per game. In two games at the MAAC/ASUN Challenge, Firebaugh averaged 21.0 points and 5.0 rebounds, while shooting 11-for-20 from distance to earn MAAC Player of the Week honors. Her career-high 31 points against Niagara were the most in a game by any MAAC player last season.

TOUSSAINT IS DOUBLE-TROUBLE

Raphaella Toussaint had her first double-double of the season in the Broncs' win over North Florida, finishing with 13 points and 13 rebounds. Toussaint led Rider last season with five double-doubles and was the only Bronc to record double-digit rebounds in a game last season.

DEEP RANGE DEAD EYE

The Broncs are second in the MAAC and rank 98th nationally, knocking down 6.9 threes a game. Jessika Schiffer is tied for second in the MAAC with 38 made triples. In addition, Makayla Firebaugh has 35.

EUROBASKET QUALIFYING

Jessika Schiffer took advantage of the extended Thanksgiving break to play for the German national team as they attempted to qualify for the FIFA Women's 2023 EuroBasket Tournament. Schiffer scored five points on 2-for-3 shooting in a win over Bosnia and Herzegovina and dished out an assist in Germany's win over North Macedonia.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

The Broncs held Navy to just 43 points on 25.5% shooting. It was the fewest points allowed in a game since a 51-41 victory over Monmouth last season. It was the lowest shooting percentage allowed since holding Army West Point to 24.3% from the field last season as well.

2022-23 Rider Women's Basketball

THEY CAN'T MISS

In Rider's game at Saint Peter's, the Broncs shot 64.7% from the field and 56.5% from three, both season highs. Rider's 64.7% shooting from the field is the fifth-highest total in a single-game by any team in the country this season. The 35 point victory was the Broncs' largest margin of victory since an 87-48 win over Canisius during the 2019-20 season.

TECHNICALLY SPEAKING

Head Coach Lynn Milligan has been whistled for technical fouls twice this season. Normally something coaches attempt to avoid, the Broncs have responded on both occasions, earning the victories at both St. Francis Brooklyn and Navy.

WE'LL SEE YOU IN MARCH?

Thursday's game will be the second of the season for the Broncs against Iona, wrapping up the regular-season series between the programs, the third regular season series Rider has completed. The Broncs have still yet to see conference foes Fairfield, Manhattan, Marist, and Quinnipiac this season.

DOING THE DISHING

Amanda Mobley had a career-high 12 assists in Rider's game at Canisius, then tied the mark with another 12 at Saint Peter's. The graduate student has posted games with double digit points, rebounds, and assists at different points throughout the year.

THE RIGHT STRUNK

Emily Strunk played a season-high 15 minutes against St. Joe's. Strunk rewarded Milligan's confidence with her best game of the season, shooting 3-for-5 from the field for a season-high seven points to go along with two rebounds and a block. Strunk continued to shine at Mount St. Mary's, scoring a career-high nine points.

SUPER SUB

ToniRenee Blanford came off the bench to post career-highs in points (11), rebounds (8), and minutes (25) at Seton Hall. The JUCO transfer scored in double figures for the first time as a Bronc in the contest. The junior scored eight of her 11 points in the second half, including five in the third quarter that saw the Broncs out-score the Pirates 16-15.

SCHIFFER DIALS LONG DISTANCE

Nearly two-thirds of Jessika Schiffer's shots last season (179-277) came from three-point range. Her six made threes against Quinnipiac are tied for the fifth-most in a game in program history. 102 of her 144 shots this season have come from long range.

GOING STREAKING

In Rider's win over Saint Peter's, the Broncs went on a 23-0 run that spanned the end of the first quarter and beginning of the second. During the run, all five Bronc starters scored led by Mobley and Firebaugh, who each scored six. Schiffer added five points, Toussaint scored four, and Toomey scored two.

SHE CAN MAKE IT ANYWHERE

Anna Ekerstedt had her best games last season against Manhattan. The junior has scored in double figures three times last year, with two of them coming against the team from the "Big Apple". In the first meeting, she was 5-for-7 from the field, including knocking down both of her three-point attempts. In the rematch, she was 4-for-6 six from the field, hitting another from beyond the arc.

MOLLY'S GAME

Molly Lynch had a career game in the Bronc's win at Niagara last season. Filling in due to multiple injuries, Lynch played a career-high 23 minutes. The sophomore was a perfect 2-for-2 from the field on her way to a career-high nine points. More impressive than her scoring, Lynch was in complete control of the offense, dishing out a career-high seven assists while committing just a single turnover.

RETURN OF THE MACK

MyNeshia McKenzie remain on the Broncs coaching staff for a second season after two-year stints at both Holy Family and St. Joseph's (PA). McKenzie, a 2014 Rider graduate, left the Broncs as the program's leading rebounder (1,143) and third-leading scorer (1,619).

UNITED NATIONS

The Broncs' roster features players from six different countries. In addition to the nine domestic products on the team, Rider has one from the United Kingdom, Canada, The Netherlands, Sweden, and Germany. The Broncs have featured players from multiple foreign countries in every season since 2011-12.

LYNN MILLIGAN

HEAD COACH
16TH SEASON
RIDER '92, '94

Lynn Donovan-Milligan '92, '94 enters her 16th season as the head women's basketball coach at Rider University in 2022-23.

The Broncos were plagued by the injury bug under Milligan in 2021-22 with four players missing the entire season, and fifth suffering a season-ending injury just three games into the year. Lenaejah Evans made the most of her senior season with the Broncos, leading the squad in scoring on her way to Third-Team All-MAAC honors.

In 2020-21, the Broncos advanced to the semifinals of the MAAC Tournament for the fifth-straight season, topping 10th-seeded Monmouth and second-seeded Quinnipiac in Atlantic City. Makayla Firebaugh led the individual awards season for the team, being named MAAC Co-Rookie of the Year and Second-Team All-Met.

2019-20 was arguably the Broncos finest in program history. Milligan earned her second MAAC and Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year honors in leading Rider to its first-ever MAAC Regular Season Championship. The top-seeded Broncos advanced past Niagara in the MAAC Quarterfinals before the remainder of the tournament was canceled due to COVID-19. Milligan led Rider to an 18-2 league mark, with 18 wins being the most for the team in league play in program history. Rider went 26-4 overall and the 26 wins are the most since the Broncos joined Division I following the 1981-82 season. The Broncos were consistently ranked in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 poll, spending the final two months inside the top-12.

With team success came individual accolades and opportunity. Stella Johnson earned her second consecutive MAAC Player of the Year honor, becoming the sixth player all-time to achieve the feat in back-to-back years. She became Rider's first-ever All-American, earning honorable mention recognition from the Associated Press, Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA), while also was picked a Senior CLASS Award Second-Team All-American. Johnson was also a finalist for both the Nancy Lieberman Award and Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and finished the year as the leading scorer in NCAA Division I at 24.8 points per game, more than a point ahead of the next-closest player. She was also the only active Division I player with 2,000 career points, 700 career rebounds, 400 career assists and 300 career steals. In addition, Johnson was named the ECAC and Met Division I Women's Basketball Player of the Year. The list of honors continued with Johnson's second-straight Rider Female Athlete of the Year and MAAC Female Student-Athlete of the Year honors, while becoming one of two MAAC nominees for NCAA Woman of the Year. Johnson's resume drew the attention of the WNBA, as she was the 29th overall selection in the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury, before making her WNBA debut for the Chicago Sky and later making a strong impact with the Washington Mystics in her rookie season.

Joining Stella Johnson in earning a MAAC major award was Amari Johnson, the league's Defensive Player of the Year. Amari also earned All-MAAC Second Team honors, along with fellow senior Lea Favre. Milligan also oversaw a strong performance in the classroom, with seven Broncos earning MAAC All-Academic Team recognition.

It was another banner year for the Broncos in 2018-19 as Rider finished the season with a 19-13 overall record and a 14-4 record in the MAAC. Rider earned the league's automatic bid to the WNIT. It marked the second time in program history and the second time in the last three years that the team appeared in the WNIT. The Broncos won 10 or more MAAC games for the third year in a row (first time in program history 10 or more MAAC wins three straight years). The 14 MAAC wins are the most in program history in an 18-game conference schedule and the second-most in Rider history.

Three Broncos earned All-MAAC honors, highlighted by Stella Johnson being the only player in the league to be a unanimous selection to the First Team. Stella was also tabbed as the MAAC Player of the Year. It was the second time in program history that the team had a student-athlete recognized as the league's best player.

In 2017-18, the Broncos went 14-17 overall and 10-8 MAAC play to earn the No. 5 seed in the MAAC Tournament. Rider won a MAAC Tournament game for the second year in a row after topping fourth-seeded Fairfield in the MAAC Quarterfinals. The Broncos advanced to the MAAC Semifinals for the second year in a row and the third time in program history.

During the year, four Broncos earned weekly awards from either the MAAC or College Sports Madness. At the conclusion of the regular season, three Rider players garnered All-MAAC recognition. Stella Johnson and Kamila Hoskova were named Second Team All-MAAC and freshman Jaiden Morris landed on the MAAC All-Rookie Team.

In 2017-18, Hoskova became the 22nd player in program history to score 1,000 career points. She ended her stellar tenure with the Broncos eighth all-time in scoring with 1,255 points.

The team had a record-breaking in 2016-17, finishing 24-9 and earning the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) automatic bid to the WNIT thanks to a second-place finish during the regular season. The post-season berth was the first for the Broncos at the Division I level.

Milligan picked up her 100th career win as the Head Coach of the Broncos during the 2016-17 season and she now ranks second all-time in program history in wins.

She was named both the MAAC Coach of the Year in a vote of her peers and the Maggie Dixon Division I Coach of the Year by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association. Milligan was the first Rider Head Coach to earn both distinctions.

Milligan guided the Broncos to arguably the most successful season in program history in 2016-17, racking up 24 wins and earning the No. 2 seed in the MAAC Tournament. Picked to finish 10th in the preseason poll, Rider posted an 8-2 mark both on the road and at home in conference play. The team swept eight MAAC opponents during the regular season and was ranked for four weeks in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll.

The 24 wins are the most victories by the Broncos under Milligan and the most for the program since the team won 26 games during the 1981-82 season. The 24 wins against Division I opponents is the most in a single season in program history as well. The 16 MAAC wins are also the most under Milligan in a season and in program history. The team finished above .500 in conference play for the third time since entering the league and the No. 2 seed is the best for Rider since joining the MAAC as well.

In 2016-17, the women's basketball team saw four players earn All-MAAC honors as announced in early March by the league office. The four players earning All-MAAC honors is a new program record for Rider as the team saw three players receive league-wide distinction in 2012-13, 2001-02 and 1999-2000. The four players honored by the league were the most by any team in the conference this year.

In 2014-15, Milligan's squad posted double-digit wins for the fourth season in a row before being held to eight wins this past season.

In 2013-14, Milligan led the Broncos to 15 wins, tying for fifth in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and Rider advanced to the MAAC semifinals for the first time and the Broncos won their first playoff game since 2004-05.

2022-23 Rider Women's Basketball

During that season, Milligan put a player on the All-MAAC First Team for the second season in a row with MyNeshia McKenzie a finalist for Player of the Year honors in the conference. McKenzie graduated as Rider's all-time leading rebounder and third on the all-time scoring list.

Milligan also had a player on the MAAC All-Rookie team with Julia Duggan earning Rider's fifth All-Rookie honor in Milligan's first seven seasons.

With 15 wins in 2012-13, Rider had its best season since the Broncs went 16-12 in 1994-95.

The 15 wins were the fifth most in the then 74-year history of the program and Rider tied its best MAAC record (10-8), finishing fourth in the conference.

Rider made the MAAC quarterfinals and McKenzie earned First Team All-MAAC and Second Team All-MET honors with senior Caitlin Bopp earning Third Team All-MAAC honors with freshman Mikal Johnson named to the MAAC All-Rookie team.

Rider got off to its best start in almost 30 years when the Broncs opened 2011-12 with eight wins in the first 11 games, matching the 8-3 start by the 1982-83 squad. The Broncs were led by McKenzie who was recognized with Third Team All-MAAC honors.

In 2010-11, Milligan, for the third season in a row, coached a member of the MAAC All-Rookie team (McKenzie) with Ali Heller earning MAAC Sixth Player of the Year honors after being one of the most prolific three-point shooters in the nation.

Caitlin Bopp earned All-Rookie honors in 2009-10 with Sarah Homan earning All-Rookie honors in 2008-09. In her second season at the helm of the Broncs' program, Rider finished with its most victories since the 1999-2000 season and its second highest MAAC win total all-time, earning Milligan consideration for MAAC Coach of the Year.

"We're proud of being able to achieve more wins, but you always want more," said Milligan. "We feel that the advancement of the team is going in the right direction."

In Milligan's first season, Rider tripled its win total in the MAAC and the excitement that Milligan brought to the program boosted attendance in Alumni Gym to almost 600 fans per game. An Alumni Gym record for women's basketball was set on February 17, 2008 as 1,494 fans were on hand to see the Broncs take on nationally ranked conference rival Marist.

In 2008-09, attendance increased again to an average of 900 fans per home game and the Broncs have consistently almost 700 fans per contest since.

"The Rider community and the surrounding community took to the way we play," Milligan said. "I've always told the team that if you play hard, the fans will respect that and will want to see you play. Our alumni support is terrific and once you see a game, you want to come back again and again."

Never one to back down from a challenge, the Broncs posted wins over teams from the MAAC as well as Conference USA (Central Florida), the Northeast Conference (Monmouth), the Patriot League (Army), the Colonial Athletic Association (Hofstra) and the Ivy League (Princeton) during the 2007-08 season and defeated second place Canisius, third place Fairfield and fifth place Iona all on the road.

Milligan returned to her alma mater to become the new head coach of the Rider University women's basketball team, on April 24, 2007.

"Returning to Rider has been a dream come true," said Milligan, who was a two-sport stand-out for the Broncs. "I was thrilled to come home to a place that is so special to me and have the opportunity to lead the women's basketball program into the future."

Milligan returned to Rider from Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pa., where she served as an assistant coach for six years, the last two as the top assistant. Saint Joseph's earned a berth in the WNIT five times during her last six seasons.

At Saint Joseph's, Milligan was directly responsible for recruiting and guard play for a program that compiled 111 wins during her last six seasons with the team. Three of her last five recruiting classes were nationally ranked. She assisted with all aspects of the Hawks' program, including on-court instruction, scouting, game-plan preparation, academic support and fundraising.

Prior to joining Saint Joseph's, Milligan spent six years as the top assistant coach at Drexel University. In her final season, she helped guide Drexel to a 19-10 record overall and a 13-5 mark in the America East Conference, tying for second place and advancing to the semifinal round of the league tournament. Milligan arrived in Philadelphia following a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State.

At Rider, Milligan earned a bachelor's degree in communication in 1992 and earned a master's degree in counseling in 1994. Also a three-year member of the Bronc softball team, Milligan collected more than 100 career hits in just three seasons and helped lead the team to the 1990 East Coast Conference Championship as the team's leading hitter and to the 1991 Eastern College Athletic Conference Championship.

The 1992 Rider basketball team was the most successful in 10 years when Milligan was a senior and went 9-3 in the East Coast Conference. In her two seasons as a Rider graduate assistant coach, the Broncs were a combined 35-20, including a 25-11 record in the Northeast Conference.

A native of Voorhees, N.J., Milligan is a member of Eastern High School's Athletic Hall of Fame. Milligan has a twin sister, Aileen, who played basketball at Loyola College in Maryland. Milligan is an active member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. She currently resides in Voorhees with her husband, Patrick.
