What You Need To Know

- Makayla Firebaugh scored 16 points in the regular-season finale last year, becoming just the 24th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point milestone. She now sits 13th on the program's all-time scoring list.
- Firebaugh is the fourth-leading returning scorer in the MAAC at 14.3 points per game. She was selected to the Preseason Second-Team All-MAAC by the league's coaches.
- Rider was picked to finish tenth by the league's coaches this season.
- Rider returns just five players and two starters from a season ago. The Broncs have eight newcomers, including five transfers and three freshmen.
- Iona leads the all-time series 34-24, including both meeting last season as the Gaels won the MAAC regular season and Tournament titles. The Gaels will look significantly different this season as reigning MAAC Coach of the Year Billi Chambers took a position at Xavier and reigning MAAC Player of the Year Juana Camillion departed due to graduation. In all, the Gaels top four scorers from a season ago are gone.
- The Gaels are 5-5 on the season, but lost their MAAC opener at home against Niagara. Sierra DeAngelo and Natalia Otkhmezuriach are each averaging double digits at 11.5 and 11.4 points per contest, respectively. DeAngelo is also the team's leading rebounder at 6.4 per game.

SERIES HISTORY WITH IONA

Iona leads the all-time series 34-24, including both meeting last season as the Gaels won the MAAC regular season and Tournament titles. The Gaels will look significantly different this season as reigning MAAC Coach of the Year Billi Chambers took a position at Xavier and reigning MAAC Player of the Year Juana Camillion departed due to graduation. In all, the Gaels top four scorers from a season ago are gone.

SCOUTING THE GAELS

The Gaels are 5-5 on the season, but lost their MAAC opener at home against Niagara. Sierra DeAngelo and Natalia Otkhmezurieach are each averaging double digits at 11.5 and 11.4 points per contest, respectively. DeAngelo is also the team's leading rebounder at 6.4 per game.

STARTING FROM THE BOTTOM

The Broncs were picked to finish tied tenth by the league's coaches in the preseason poll. Rider has made the MAAC Semifinals in five of the last seven years. The Broncs will have to deal with the loss of three starters from last year's team and replace nine total departing members from the squad a season ago.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Makayla Firebaugh was selected to the preseason Second-Team All-MAAC. Firebaugh was named the MAAC Co-Rookie of the Year and Second-Team All-MET following the 2020-21 season, where she averaged 11.0 points and 4.4 rebounds. As a sophomore, Firebaugh again averaged 11.0 points and 4.4 rebounds, and led the MAAC with 67 made three pointers. Last season, Firebaugh led the Broncs at 14.3 points per game and was second on the team averaging 4.7 rebounds per contest.

SAME FACE, NEW PLACE

Of Rider's eight additions to the 2023-24 team, five are transfers. Sanaa Redmond joins the Broncs after two seasons at Samford. Jamia Blake comes to Rider after three seasons at UNC Asheville. Mariona Cos-Morales played two seasons at Casper College prior to coming to Lawrenceville. Taylor Blunt spent two season with Detroit Mercy before returning to the Garden State. Taylor Langan began her career with Colgate before playing for a season under now-Rider Assistant Coach Sharay Hall at Millersville.

SO FRESH AND SO CLEAN

The Broncs also added three freshmen for the 2023-24 season. Aliya McIver, a 5-9 point guard from White Plains, NY, Sam Richardson, a 6-3 forward from Linden, NJ, and Kaylan Deveney, a 6-3 center from Medford, NJ.

SHE'S ON FIREBAUGH

Makayla Firebaugh ranks fourth among returning players in the MAAC after averaging 14.3 points per game a season ago. In two games at the MAAC/ASUN Challenge, Firebaugh averaged 21.0 points and 5.0 rebounds, while shooting 11-for-20 from distance to earn MAAC Player of the Week honors. In the regular-season finale against Marist last season, Firebaugh became the 24th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point milestone.

SCHIFFER DIALS LONG DISTANCE

Over two-thirds of Jessika Schiffer's shots at Rider (413-607) came from three-point range. Her six made threes against Quinnipiac in 2021 are tied for the fifth-most in a game in program history. Against Quinnipiac last time out, she made a pair of threes to move past Lexi Posset for ninth on the program's career three-pointers made list.

2023-24 Rider Women's Basketball

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS...

The Broncs have made a habit of treating road games as business trips, and the Broncs have been successful away from Alumni Gym, finishing with an equal number or more road wins than home wins in every season since 2014-15. Six of Rider's ten wins last season came away from Alumni Gym. The Broncs got their first road win of the season last time out at Lehigh.

...AND WORKING OVERTIME

After going 3-1 in overtime games last season, the Broncs got a win in their first OT game of 2023-24 last time out against Lehigh. The Broncs had four different players combine for an 11-0 run to begin the extra session and the Broncs never looked back to secure the 67-57 win.

EUROBASKET QUALIFYING

Jessika Schiffer took advantage of the extended Thanksgiving break last year to play for the German national team as they attempted to qualify for the FIBA Women's 2023 EuroBasket Tournament. Schiffer scored five points on 2-for-3 shooting in a win over Bosnia and Herzegovina and dished out an assist in Germany's win over North Macedonia. Schiffer has also spent time playing for her country as a member of Germany's 3x3 national team.

THE LEHIGH GAME (TAYLOR'S VERSION)

Taylor Langan had arguably the best game by any player in the MAAC this season, leading the Broncs to victory over Lehigh with 31 points and 16 rebounds. The 31 points are the second-most and the 16 rebounds are the third-most in a game by a MAAC player this season. Langan's 31 points were the most for Rider since Makayla Firebaugh also had 31 in January of 2022 and the first 15-rebound performance by a Bronc since Raphaela Toussaint had 15 in November of 2021. Langan ranks fourth in the MAAC in scoring at 14.3 points per game this season and fifth in the MAAC at 7.7 rebounds per contest.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

Langan became the first Bronc this season to record a double-double against Quinnipiac, scoring 13 points and securing a game-high 14 rebounds. The 14 rebounds are the most by a Rider player in a game this season, and fourth-highest single game total by a MAAC performer this year. Langan recorded a second-straight double-double last time out against Lehigh.

DEVENEY VIDI VICI

Kaylan Deveney made the start in her Rider debut at Saint Joseph's, scoring seven points and grabbing a board in 21 minutes of action. Deveney is the first true freshman to start in her Rider debut since Stella Johnson earned the start to begin her career in 2016. The freshman had her first career double-digit scoring effort at NJIT and tied her career high with 13 points against Quinnipiac.

BUNCHES OF BRUINTJES

Sofie Bruintjes made her first two career starts in the MAAC Tournament last season. She responded with six points, six rebounds, and two blocks in the win over Marist. Then followed that with five points and two blocks against Niagara. The senior hit the biggest shot of her career against Boston University, draining a go-ahead three pointer with 3.3 seconds remaining.

2023-24 Rider Women's Basketball

DANGEROUS FROM DEEP

Makayla Firebaugh started 4-for-4 from distance against FDU, scoring 12 points in the opening quarter. Her six made threes in the game tied a career high and moved her past Stella Johnson into fifth on Rider's career three-pointers made list. Firebaugh passed Robin Perkins for 13th on the program's all-time scoring list last time out.

STAYING UNDER SIXTY

The key number for the Broncos this season has been 60 points. The Broncos have won all three games in which they held their opponent under 60 points, and have fallen in each game they have allowed 60 or more.

A LITTLE HELP FOR MY FRIENDS

Sanaa Redmond ranks 12th in the MAAC at 2.8 assists per game and has led the Broncos in dimes in six of their 11 contests. Redmond has also valued ball security, holding a 1.3 assist to turnover ratio. In the win over Lehigh, Redmond scored four of her eight points in the extra session.

SUPER SUB

ToniRenee Blanford came off the bench to post career-highs in points (11), rebounds (8), and minutes (25) at Seton Hall last season. The JUCO transfer scored in double figures for the first time as a Bronc in the contest. The then-junior scored eight of her 11 points in the second half, including five in the third quarter that saw the Broncos out-score the Pirates 16-15.

MOLLY'S GAMES

Molly Lynch has played some of the best games of her career when the Broncos take on Niagara, scoring a career-high nine points and adding a career-high seven assists in a game in 2021-22. Lynch's season high last year came when she scored seven points, once again against the Purple Eagles. The then-junior made her first career start on February 4, when she entered the starting lineup at Fairfield, snatching a career-high four rebounds and knocking down a pair of threes.

UNITED NATIONS

The Broncos' roster features players from four different countries. In addition to the ten domestic products on the team, Rider has one from The Netherlands, Spain, and Germany. The Broncos have featured players from multiple foreign countries in every season since 2011-12.

CENTURY MARK TIMES TWO

With the Broncos win at Lehigh on Saturday, head coach Lynn Milligan recorded her 200th career victory. Milligan is already the winningest coach in program history in her 17th season as head coach.

THE PATRIOT WAY

The Broncos were at their best this season when facing Patriot League competition. Rider got a late three from Sofie Bru-intjes to defeat Boston University and an 11-0 overtime run to defeat Lehigh.

LYNN MILLIGAN

HEAD COACH

17TH SEASON

RIDER '92, '94

Lynn Donovan-Milligan '92, '94 enters her 17th season as the head women's basketball coach at Rider University in 2023-24.

Rider closed the 2022-23 season strong winning five of its final nine games, including an opening round victory in the MAAC Tournament over Marist. Amanda Mobley moved into second on Rider's career assist list, including a Division-I program record 13 against Manhattan. Mobley finished the season ranked just outside the top ten in the country for assists.

The Broncos were plagued by the injury bug under Milligan in 2021-22 with four players missing the entire season, and fifth suffering a season-ending injury just three games into the year. Lenaajha Evans made the most of her senior season with the Broncos, leading the squad in scoring on her way to Third-Team All-MAAC honors.

In 2020-21, the Broncos advanced to the semifinals of the MAAC Tournament for the fifth-straight season, topping 10th-seeded Monmouth and second-seeded Quinnipiac in Atlantic City. Makayla Firebaugh led the individual awards season for the team, being named MAAC Co-Rookie of the Year and Second-Team All-Met.

2019-20 was arguably the Broncos finest in program history. Milligan earned her second MAAC and Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year honors in leading Rider to its first-ever MAAC Regular Season Championship. The top-seeded Broncos advanced past Niagara in the MAAC Quarterfinals before the remainder of the tournament was canceled due to COVID-19. Milligan led Rider to an 18-2 league mark, with 18 wins being the most for the team in league play in program history. Rider went 26-4 overall and the 26 wins are the most since the Broncos joined Division I following the 1981-82 season. The Broncos were consistently ranked in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 poll, spending the final two months inside the top-12.

With team success came individual accolades and opportunity. Stella Johnson earned her second consecutive MAAC Player of the Year honor, becoming the sixth player all-time to achieve the feat in back-to-back years. She became Rider's first-ever All-American, earning honorable mention recognition from the Associated Press, Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA), while also was picked a Senior CLASS Award Second-Team All-American. Johnson was also a finalist for both the Nancy Lieberman Award and Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and finished the year as the leading scorer in NCAA Division I at 24.8 points per game, more than a point ahead of the next-closest player. She was also the only active Division I player with 2,000 career points, 700 career rebounds, 400 career assists and 300 career steals. In addition, Johnson was named the ECAC and Met Division I Women's Basketball Player of the Year. The list of honors continued with Johnson's second-straight Rider Female Athlete of the Year and MAAC Female Student-Athlete of the Year honors, while becoming one of two MAAC nominees for NCAA Woman of the Year. Johnson's resume drew the attention of the WNBA, as she was the 29th overall selection in the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury, before making her WNBA debut for the Chicago Sky and later making a strong impact with the Washington Mystics in her rookie season.

Joining Stella Johnson in earning a MAAC major award was Amari Johnson, the league's Defensive Player of the Year. Amari also earned All-MAAC Second Team honors, along with fellow senior Lea Favre. Milligan also oversaw a strong performance in the classroom, with seven Broncos earning MAAC All-Academic Team recognition.

It was another banner year for the Broncos in 2018-19 as Rider finished the season with a 19-13 overall record and a 14-4 record in the MAAC. Rider earned the league's automatic bid to the WNIT. It marked the second time in program history and the second time in the last three years that the team appeared in the WNIT. The Broncos won 10 or more MAAC games for the third year in a row (first time in program history 10 or more MAAC wins three straight years). The 14 MAAC wins are the most in program history in an 18-game conference schedule and the second-most in Rider history.

Three Broncos earned All-MAAC honors, highlighted by Stella Johnson being the only player in the league to be a unanimous selection to the First Team. Stella was also tabbed as the MAAC Player of the Year. It was the second time in program history that the team had a student-athlete recognized as the league's best player.

In 2017-18, the Broncos went 14-17 overall and 10-8 MAAC play to earn the No. 5 seed in the MAAC Tournament. Rider won a MAAC Tournament game for the second year in a row after topping fourth-seeded Fairfield in the MAAC Quarterfinals. The Broncos advanced to the MAAC Semifinals for the second year in a row and the third time in program history.

During the year, four Broncos earned weekly awards from either the MAAC or College Sports Madness. At the conclusion of the regular season, three Rider players garnered All-MAAC recognition. Stella Johnson and Kamila Hoskova were named Second Team All-MAAC and freshman Jaiden Morris landed on the MAAC All-Rookie Team.

In 2017-18, Hoskova became the 22nd player in program history to score 1,000 career points. She ended her stellar tenure with the Broncos eighth all-time in scoring with 1,255 points.

The team had a record-breaking in 2016-17, finishing 24-9 and earning the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) automatic bid to the WNIT thanks to a second-place finish during the regular season. The post-season berth was the first for the Broncos at the Division I level.

Milligan picked up her 100th career win as the Head Coach of the Broncos during the 2016-17 season and she now ranks second all-time in program history in wins.

She was named both the MAAC Coach of the Year in a vote of her peers and the Maggie Dixon Division I Coach of the Year by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association. Milligan was the first Rider Head Coach to earn both distinctions.

Milligan guided the Broncos to arguably the most successful season in program history in 2016-17, racking up 24 wins and earning the No. 2 seed in the MAAC Tournament. Picked to finish 10th in the preseason poll, Rider posted an 8-2 mark both on the road and at home in conference play. The team swept eight MAAC opponents during the regular season and was ranked for four weeks in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll.

The 24 wins are the most victories by the Broncos under Milligan and the most for the program since the team won 26 games during the 1981-82 season. The 24 wins against Division I opponents is the most in a single season in program history as well. The 16 MAAC wins are also the most under Milligan in a season and in program history. The team finished above .500 in conference play for the third time since entering the league and the No. 2 seed is the best for Rider since joining the MAAC as well.

In 2016-17, the women's basketball team saw four players earn All-MAAC honors as announced in early March by the league office. The four players earning All-MAAC honors is a new program record for Rider as the team saw three players receive league-wide distinction in 2012-13, 2001-02 and 1999-2000. The four players honored by the league were the most by any team in the conference this year.

In 2014-15, Milligan's squad posted double-digit wins for the fourth season in a row before being held to eight wins this past season.

In 2013-14, Milligan led the Broncos to 15 wins, tying for fifth in the Metro Atlantic

2023-24 Rider Women's Basketball

Athletic Conference and Rider advanced to the MAAC semifinals for the first time and the Broncos won their first playoff game since 2004-05.

During that season, Milligan put a player on the All-MAAC First Team for the second season in a row with MyNeshia McKenzie a finalist for Player of the Year honors in the conference. McKenzie graduated as Rider's all-time leading rebounder and third on the all-time scoring list.

Milligan also had a player on the MAAC All-Rookie team with Julia Duggan earning Rider's fifth All-Rookie honor in Milligan's first seven seasons.

With 15 wins in 2012-13, Rider had its best season since the Broncos went 16-12 in 1994-95.

The 15 wins were the fifth most in the then 74-year history of the program and Rider tied its best MAAC record (10-8), finishing fourth in the conference.

Rider made the MAAC quarterfinals and McKenzie earned First Team All-MAAC and Second Team All-MET honors with senior Caitlin Bopp earning Third Team All-MAAC honors with freshman Mikal Johnson named to the MAAC All-Rookie team.

Rider got off to its best start in almost 30 years when the Broncos opened 2011-12 with eight wins in the first 11 games, matching the 8-3 start by the 1982-83 squad. The Broncos were led by McKenzie who was recognized with Third Team All-MAAC honors.

In 2010-11, Milligan, for the third season in a row, coached a member of the MAAC All-Rookie team (McKenzie) with Ali Heller earning MAAC Sixth Player of the Year honors after being one of the most prolific three-point shooters in the nation.

Caitlin Bopp earned All-Rookie honors in 2009-10 with Sarah Homan earning All-Rookie honors in 2008-09. In her second season at the helm of the Broncos' program, Rider finished with its most victories since the 1999-2000 season and its second highest MAAC win total all-time, earning Milligan consideration for MAAC Coach of the Year.

"We're proud of being able to achieve more wins, but you always want more," said Milligan. "We feel that the advancement of the team is going in the right direction."

In Milligan's first season, Rider tripled its win total in the MAAC and the excitement that Milligan brought to the program boosted attendance in Alumni Gym to almost 600 fans per game. An Alumni Gym record for women's basketball was set on February 17, 2008 as 1,494 fans were on hand to see the Broncos take on nationally ranked conference rival Marist.

In 2008-09, attendance increased again to an average of 900 fans per home game and the Broncos have consistently averaged almost 700 fans per contest since.

"The Rider community and the surrounding community took to the way we play," Milligan said. "I've always told the team that if you play hard, the fans will respect that and will want to see you play. Our alumni support is terrific and once you see a game, you want to come back again and again."

Never one to back down from a challenge, the Broncos posted wins over teams from the MAAC as well as Conference USA (Central Florida), the Northeast Conference (Monmouth), the Patriot League (Army), the Colonial Athletic Association (Hofstra) and the Ivy League (Princeton) during the 2007-08 season and defeated second place Canisius, third place Fairfield and fifth place Iona all on the road.

Milligan returned to her alma mater to become the new head coach of the Rider University women's basketball team, on April 24, 2007.

"Returning to Rider has been a dream come true," said Milligan, who was a two-sport stand-out for the Broncos. "I was thrilled to come home to a place that is so special to me and have the opportunity to lead the women's basketball program into the future."

Milligan returned to Rider from Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pa., where she served as an assistant coach for six years, the last two as the top assistant. Saint Joseph's earned a berth in the WNIT five times during her last six seasons.

At Saint Joseph's, Milligan was directly responsible for recruiting and guard play for a program that compiled 111 wins during her last six seasons with the team. Three of her last five recruiting classes were nationally ranked. She assisted with all aspects of the Hawks' program, including on-court instruction, scouting, game-plan preparation, academic support and fundraising.

Prior to joining Saint Joseph's, Milligan spent six years as the top assistant coach at Drexel University. In her final season, she helped guide Drexel to a 19-10 record overall and a 13-5 mark in the America East Conference, tying for second place and advancing to the semifinal round of the league tournament. Milligan arrived in Philadelphia following a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State.

At Rider, Milligan earned a bachelor's degree in communication in 1992 and earned a master's degree in counseling in 1994. Also a three-year member of the Bronco softball team, Milligan collected more than 100 career hits in just three seasons and helped lead the team to the 1990 East Coast Conference Championship as the team's leading hitter and to the 1991 Eastern College Athletic Conference Championship.

The 1992 Rider basketball team was the most successful in 10 years when Milligan was a senior and went 9-3 in the East Coast Conference. In her two seasons as a Rider graduate assistant coach, the Broncos were a combined 35-20, including a 25-11 record in the Northeast Conference.

A native of Voorhees, N.J., Milligan is a member of Eastern High School's Athletic Hall of Fame. Milligan has a twin sister, Aileen, who played basketball at Loyola College in Maryland. Milligan is an active member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. She currently resides in Voorhees with her husband, Patrick.
