HEAD COACH

Heather Vulin Eighth Season

Manhattan College Head Coach Heather Vulin enters her eighth season with the Jaspers in 2023-24. Known as a tenacious and tireless recruiter with over 20 years of coaching experience, she was named the eighth head coach in program history on April 25, 2016.

With a talented roster from top to bottom, the 2022-23 squad had multiple threats on offense and were able to use that to their advantage down the stretch. The Jaspers found themselves in the 2023 MAAC Tournament championship game for the second year in a row after a 10-10 MAAC regular season mark and sixth place finish. In the classroom, the Jaspers were named a Top 25 WBCA All-Academic Team for their GPA. Dee Dee Davis earned Second-Team All-MAAC honors and was named Second-Team All-Met for the second straight year.

The 2021-2022 campaign saw Vulin continue to build on the team's successes in the previous two years. She led the Jaspers to a 21-11 record, the most wins in a single season since the 2010-2011 season, and the team's third straight winning season, including a 14-6 record in MAAC play. She guided the team to the finals of the MAAC Tournament while earning the third seed in the tournament. En route to the finals, the team took down Canisius (61-49) and then proceeded to upend the second-seeded Quinnipiac (72-59). Vulin coached four players, Dee Dee Davis, Courtney Warley, Brazil Harvey-Carr, and Petra Juric to All-MAAC honors. Davis and Warley both earned first-team nods, another first for the program, while Harvey-Carr earned third-team honors while Juric earned a spot on the All-Rookie team. Davis and Warley also earned second-team All-Met honors. Vulin guided Warley to be the second player in program history to score 1,000 points and pull down 1,000 rebounds.

The 2020-2021 campaign was highlighted by Vulin earning her first postseason appearance, while leading the program to its best MAAC winning percentage (9-3; 750) since 2002-03 as well a second-straight winning season (11-9). The Jaspers earned a bid to the 2021 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI), and after losing a hard-fought battle to eventual champion Cleveland State, defeated Loyola Chicago in securing Manhattan's first postseason win the 2011-12 season. Prior to the year, the Jaspers were also tabbed as the MAAC's Top Team and defeated Saint Peter's on February 6 before a nationally televised audience on ESPNU. Center Courtney Warley averaged a double-double en route to earning All-MAAC Second Team honors, which also marks her third-straight all-league honor. Warley also stood out in the classroom, and was named as one of 30 finalists for the prestigious Senior Class Award. Guard Dee Dee Davis joined Warley on the All-MAAC Second Team and paced the team in scoring, while her backcourt mate Emily LaPointe provided the season's signature moment as her putback at the buzzer was the difference in Manhattan's 71-70 overtime win vs. perennial MAAC power Quinnipiac.
