PRESEASON FAVORITES

After winning its first NEC Championship in over a decade last season, Sacred Heart was named the unanimous preseason favorites in the 2023-24 NEC Preseason Poll. The Pioneers became the first unanimous preseason favorite since former league mate Mount St. Mary's did so in 2021. The SHU men's basketball team also topped its 2023-24 poll, meaning the league coaches expect both NEC Championships to run through Fairfield this season.

DYNAMIC DUO

In addition to being announced as the preseason NEC favorites at the conference's media day on Oct. 24, Ny'Ceara Pryor and Sajada Bonner were named to the 2023-24 Preseason All-NEC Team. SHU joined Merrimack as the only two teams with two preseason All-NEC players. Pryor enters 2023-24 fresh off becoming the first player in league history to win Player, Defensive Player and Rookie of the Year in the same season. Bonner led the Pios in made 3-pointers in her first campaign with the team, making the All-NEC Second Team in the process.

DUAL-THREAT

With 20 points against the Highlanders on Wednesday, Pryor scored 20+ in three straight games and four of the last five. The sophomore guard from Baltimore is up to a NEC-best 17.6 points per game this season, which ranks 66th in the country. A lot of Pryor's damage has come at the free throw line, where she is fifth in all of Division I in makes and attempts. On the other end of the court, Pryor continues to be one of the fiercest defenders in the country, as she ranks 11th in the nation with 28 steals and 37th with 2.8 steals per game. She tallied 3+ steals in each of the last four games, with two being five-steal outings.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

Through the first 10 games this season, SHU has done a stellar job of winning the turnover battle. The Pioneers rank 55th in the country and lead the NEC by committing just 14.0 turnovers per game, 1.3 less than the second-place team. Sacred Heart also leads the conference in turnover margin (2.80) and assist-to-turnover ratio (0.73). Pryor leads the charge by pacing the league with 40 assists and 4.0 assists per game while ranking second with a 1.82 assists/turnover ratio.

MILESTONE WATCH

SHU's second-leading scorer, Bonner (11.1 ppg), is getting closer and closer to reaching 1,000 points in her illustrious career. The Cliffwood, N.J. native has played the last two seasons at Sacred Heart after spending her first three collegiate campaigns at nearby Quinnipiac. Bonner is up to 966 points in her career heading into Sunday, 452 of those coming as a Pioneer.

JESSICA MANNETTI, 11TH SEASON

Head Coach Jessica Mannetti enters her 11th season as Sacred Heart University's head women's basketball coach in 2023-24. Last year, she became the first coach in NEC history to win an NCAA Tournament game when she led the Pioneers to a 57-47 win over Southern in the NCAA First Four. She also helped guide Pryor to becoming the first player in league history to win the triple crown of major awards in one year. Her other accolades include one NEC championship, one NEC regular-season title and three appearances in the WNIT. She was also named the 2015-16 NEC Coach of the Year. Thirteen Pioneers have earned All-Conference honors under Mannetti, including returners Pryor and Bonner.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

The 2023-24 Pioneers will make history before stepping on the court, as this season marks the 50th in the program's history. The history of Sacred Heart women's basketball dates back to 1974-75. Over those years, SHU has changed dramatically as a program, culminating in last season's record-breaking campaign.

SCOUTING THE GAELS

The Gaels are riding a three-game win streak into Sunday's contest, last defeating Hofstra 59-54 on Thursday evening. Iona dominated the first three quarters of Thursday's game, owning a 51-35 lead early in the fourth before the Pride rallied to make it a five-point defeat. The Gaels have played a pair of NEC teams in the early season, with double-digit wins over LIU and Wagner. Iona is led offensively by two graduate students, as Sierra DeAngelo (13.7) and Natalia Otkhmezuri (12.4) are the only two players on the team averaging 10+ points. DeAngelo also leads the team with 6.0 rebounds per game and has been named MAAC Player of the Week twice already this season. DeAngelo is no stranger to the Pioneers, as she transferred to Iona from NEC foe FDU this season. She was joined by fellow former Knight Ella Fajardo, who is averaging 9.0 points this year.

ALL-TIME SERIES VS. IONA

The Pioneers and Gaels will meet for the 12th time on Sunday, with Iona holding an 8-3 lead in the all-time series. The Gaels won the last two games in the series, with SHU's most recent victory being an 82-80 triumph in 2014 in New Rochelle, N.Y. The Pios have held their own in five road games against Iona, as Sacred Heart is 2-3 all-time when traveling to the Gaels' house.

CULTURE OF STABILITY

One of the reasons that the Pioneers were picked as the preseason favorites in the NEC is that they return a majority of last year's conference-winning team. SHU brings back its top six scorers from a season ago. In addition to Pryor and Bonner, the Pios returns A. Wood (7.7 ppg), Olivia Tucker (7.1 ppg), Sierra Johnson (5.5 ppg) and Kelsey Wood (4.7 ppg).

TROPHY CASE UPDATE

For the third straight week, Pryor was tabbed the NEC Player of the Week, sharing the honor with Samora Watson of Central Connecticut. After Monday's win, Pryor, who is just nine games into her sophomore season, has won five NEC Player of the Week nods and 13 Rookie of the Week awards.
