NOTABLE NOTES

GOING DOWNSTATE

The Canisius women's basketball team heads to New Rochelle, N.Y., to face Iona for the first time this season. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m., with the game airing on ESPN+. Last season, Iona won both meetings between the two sides.

ITS GOOD FROM DEEP

Canisius has found success from deep this season, currently leading the MAAC and ranking 34th in the country for 3-point percentage at 35.9. South Carolina (SEC) leads the nation in 3-point percentage at 44.1. The Griffs are second in the MAAC and 49th in the country for 3-pointers per game with an average of 7.9. HOMETOWN HERO

For graduate student Jane McCauley, coming to play Iona is always a pleasure for her as she calls New Rochelle, N.Y., home. A four-year letterwinner at the Ursuline School, she was a two-time Basketball All-League and All-Section I honoree in 2017-18 and 2018-19 and also won two Basketball League Championships (2016-17 and 2017-18). McCauley was also a four-year letterwinner on the softball diamond. Prior to Canisius, McCauley played at Vermont and never had the chance to play Iona. According to McCauley, whenever she returns home, her favorite restaurant to visit in town is the North End Tavern.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

This season, Canisius has only used two different starting line-up combinations with the platoon of Mackenzie Amalia, Brooklyn Thrash, Grace Heeps, Sisi Eleko and Bri Rozzi the most used with 15 starts together. Last season, the Griffs used seven different starting combinations with the unit of Vannessa Garrelts, Dani Haskell, Jane McCauley, Brooklyn Thrash and Sisi Eleko the most used combination, playing as a starting unit in nine out of 30 possible games.

Canisius is one of eight schools in the country to only have one freshman on scholarship on their roster. Brighton, Mich., native Mary Copple is the only first-year player for Canisius on scholarship this season.

Iona is the ninth different opponent from the Empire State that Canisius will play this season.

JUNIOR GUARD - #S ATHINA LEXA

Scoring in double-figures her last three games, junior Athina Lexa has found the hot hand. The Thessaloniki, Greece, native had 14 points at Rider (Jan. 13), 12 against Quinnipiac (Jan. 18) and 14 versus Manhattan (Jan. 20). Across the last three games, Lexa has not missed a free-throw, going 9-of-9, and shot 5-of-12 (.420) from deep. WHAT IS A GRIFFIN?

The Griffin is a mythical creature of supposed gigantic size that has the head, forelegs and wings of an eagle and the hindquarters, tail and ears of a lion. They are well known for their speed, ability to fly and having eyes like an eagle as well as the strength and courage of a lion.

Griffins have been known for centuries as symbols of strength and vigilance, have been called "The Hounds of Zeus" in Greek mythology and are said to have mastery of both the land and sky.

They are thought to be from India, where the natives of the land made their talons and claws into drinking cups because the talon of a Griffin was said to detect poison in a liquid. Griffins would find gold in the mountains and line their nests with it and as a result, were forced to become great guardians of the nests to keep the hunters away.

PENNSYLVANIA'S BEST PASSER

Senior Mackenzie Amalia has been pacing both the Griffs and conference throughout multiple assist catagories. The Beaver Falls, Pa., native leads the MAAC and ranks 83rd nationally in total assists with 79. She also lead the MAAC and is 63rd nationally in assists per game with an average of 4.6. Amalia also leads the Griffs and ranks fourth in the MAAC for assist/turnover ratio at 1.52. Across her last two games, Amalia compiled 11 assists with seven in the Griffs win over Quinnipiac (Jan. 18) and four against Manhatan (Jan. 20). She totaled a career-high eight assists in her first game donning a Canisius uniform in the Griffs season-opener at Big Four rival Buffalo (Nov. 6).

BACK ON THE ROAD

Since Dec. 30, the Griffs have only played two road games with lona representing the squads third away contest of 2024. The Griffs began the year with eight road games through their first 10 games. In that span, Canisius went 7-3, going 5-2 on the road while remaining undefeated at home at 2-0. Through 10 road contests, Canisius has gone 6-4 and averaged 69.7 points per game, highlighted by a season-high 71 at Binghamton (Dec. 8).

HOT HAND

Sophomore Sisi Eleko has began 2024 with a bang, scoring 10-or-more points in all six games she has played in 2024. In the new year, the MAAC leader in double-doubles has accomplished the feat twice, most recently on Jan. 13 at Rider (20 pts, 13 reb). In every game, the Montreal, Quebec, native has shot .500 from the floor or better, capped by a .692 (9-of-13) night at Saint Peter's during the Griffs 59-44 win on Jan. 11. This season, Eleko leads the MAAC and is ranked 18th in the nation for double-doubles with nine.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE U

Sophomore Sisi Eleko of the women's basketball team and junior Frank Mitchell of the men's team both lead the MAAC in double-doubles. Eleko is pacing the women's circuit with nine while Mitchell leads the men's side with seven. Eleko notched her last double-double on Jan. 7 at Rider while Mitchell totaled his on Jan. 19 at Iona. The two Canadian superstars do come from different provinces as Eleko calls Montreal, Quebec, home while Mitchell hails from Toronto, Ontario. The MAAC is the only conference where one school has the conference leader in double-doubles on the men and women's side of the ball.

The last time the Griffs played six-or-more consecutive road games was a seven game stretch during the 2003-04 season. On that road trip, the Griffs would only win two games compared to five this season.

THROWBACK THREADS

THE REST IS STILL UNWRITTEN

Since Dec. 8 at Binghamton, the Canisius women's basketball team has adopted "Unwritten" by Natasha Bedingfield as its win song. Since the song entered the rotation, the Griffs have gone 6-3 with two wins coming when they were down by 15-or-more points. As for the song itself, which came out in November of 2004, "Unwritten" has peaked at number 18 in the UK charts and now gone double-platinum in the United States this year.

MY BIG GREEK BASEKETBALL GAME

Last summer, junior Xanthippi Karatasiou represented Greece at the FIBA U20 Women's European Championship Division B from July 28 – Aug. 6 in Craiova, Romania. Karatasiou is one of eight Division I basketball players named to the squad, and she only athlete from a MAAC school. Greece would finish the tournament in 10th place with Karatasious averaging 10.7 minutes per game and 3.8 points per game.

OTHER SIDE OF THE BALL

For Jane McCauley (Vermont/America East), Grace Heeps (UAlbany/America East), Mackenzie Amalia (Robert Morris/Horizion League) and Tihanna Fulton (Miami (Ohio)/MAC), all four players played Canisius while with their former school. For McCauley, specifically, she established her then career high in points (five) and assists (two) playing against the Griffs. Heeps and Amalia both played Canisius during the 2022-23 season and defeated the Griffs. For Amalia, she set a new career-high in steals with five on Nov. 30, 2022. Bri Rozzi (Loyola (Md.) and Giana Hernandez Boulden (West Virginia & Rhode Island) never played Canisius while at their former schools.

HIT THE LINKS

With the 2023 PGA Championship being played at Oak Hill Golf Course in Western New York this year, graduate student Jane McCauley had the oppourtunity to intern with the PGA and work the championship. She was able to meet Bills quarterback Josh Allen and numerous tour players such as Phil Mickelson. On the links, McCauley says her best club is her bag is her trusty five wood.

FIRST WITH 45

Graduate student Tihanna Fulton became the first player in program history to don 45 for her jersey this offseason. The number 42 is the second least worn number in program history, only being adopted by Molly Wojcinski (1983-87) and Gia Esposito (2019-20) across 49 years of play. Fulton also wore 45 while at Miami (Ohio).

CANISIUS UNIVERSITY 101

This Summer, Canisius changed from Canisius College to Canisius University. Please do not call the school Canisius College or "the college" anymore.

The school mascot remains the Golden Griffins, but do not refer to the team as "the Griffins" or "the Golden Griffs." Please only use Golden Griffins, Griffs, or Canisius.

Calling the school "the university" is good to use while on a broadcast.

Canisius, a Catholic and Jesuit university, educates the whole person by caring for the mind, body, and spirit of the individual.

Sahar Nusseibeh (pronounced new-SAY-bay) enters her second season as the head coach of the Canisius women's basketball program.

Nusseibeh was officially named the 10th head coach in program history on July 23, 2021. A long-time assistant coach with 12 years of Division I coaching experience, Nusseibeh took over the Canisius program after spending the previous two seasons at Miami University where she also held the title of defensive coordinator.

During her second season at the helm, Nusseibeh helped Canisius earn two all-conference accolades as Dani Haskell was named to the All-MAAC Third Team and Sisi Eleko was tabbed to the All-MAAC Rookie Team. The 2022-23 season saw the Griffs finish the season ranked second in the MAAC and 84th nationally for free-throw percentage at 73.9%. The Blue and Gold also saw their overall and conference win total increase by three compared to the 2021-22 season.

Individually, Eleko finished the season with 96 field goals made, which is the fifth most all-time by a freshman in program history. The Montreal, Quebec, native also made 53 free-throws, tying her with Rachel Decker for the fifth-most made free throws in a season by a freshman.

In her first season on Main Street, Nusseibeh led the squad to a MAAC Women's Basketball Championship opening round win, becoming the first No. 11 seed to win a game in the tournament's history. Two Golden Griffins also received all-conference accolades as sophomore Dani Haskell was named an All-MAAC Third Team honoree and freshman Athina Lexa was a unanimous selection to the All-MAAC Rookie Team.

The 2021-22 campaign saw the Griffs set a program record for 3-pointers made in a contest with 15 in an 81-78 win versus Siena on Jan. 29, 2022. The team was also one 3-pointer shy of tying the program record for 3-pointers made, set during the 2008-09 season (252). Canisius also led the MAAC and ranked 28th in the nation with its 251 three-point field goals made.

As the defensive coordinator at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, Nusseibeh was responsible for developing and implementing all aspects of team and individual defensive concepts. She also worked on game planning the team's defensive strategies and was in charge of all defensive play calls and in-game adjustments during timeouts and in-game action. Prior to joining the Redhawks' staff, she spent three seasons (2016-19) as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive coordinator at Manhattan College in Riverdale, N.Y.

During her time at Manhattan, Nusseibeh played a key role in recruiting and coaching five All-MAAC selections, two MAAC All-Rookie Team honorees and the 2019 MAAC Women's Defensive Player of the Year. One of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) "Thirty Under 30" honorees in 2016, Nusseibeh led the Jaspers' defensive efforts which saw Manhattan rank among the top-five in the MAAC in scoring defense, blocked shots and turnovers forced in three straight seasons. In her final year at Manhattan, the Jaspers ranked 17th nationally in scoring defense (56.3 points per game allowed), while also placing in the top-100 nationally in field goal percentage defense (75th), steals per game (76th), blocked shots per game (63rd) and turnovers forced (79th).

Nusseibeh was a part of the Bowling Green coaching staff for three seasons (2013-16) and helped lead the Falcons to a 2013-14 Mid-American Conference regular-season crown after the team went 30-5 overall and 17-1 in league play. She recruited and coached five All-MAC honorees, including an All-America selection, and she played a key role in helping Bowling Green earn three-straight WBCA Top-25 Team Academic Awards.

Nusseibeh began her collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati, where she was the video coordinator, academic liaison and assisted in coaching the post players. She then spent two seasons at Holy Cross as an assistant coach where she also handled video operations and worked with the posts.

Prior to beginning her collegiate coaching career, Nusseibeh completed internships with the WNBA's Atlanta Dream (2007) and Washington Mystics (2009), and worked with USA Basketball on preparing the U19 World University Games teams for competitions in Thailand and Serbia.

A member of the 2006 Patriot League All-Rookie Team, Nusseibeh played 116 career games at American, where she won a pair of league regular-season titles as a member of the Eagles' program. She was a member of the program when it made a pair of WNIT appearances, the first two postseason berths in program history.

Nusseibeh earned her undergraduate degree in international relations/international business from American in 2009 and then went on to earn her MBA from Cincinnati in 2011.
