The Series with Iona
Series Leader (80th Meeting): Siena, 46-33
Last Meeting: Siena 74, Iona 57 (Feb. 8, 2024 - New Rochelle, NY)

Notables:

The series has been tight since the turn of the century, with Iona having won 28 of 55 games since 2000-01. After the Gaels swept the series in 2021-22 and 2022-23, Siena returned the favor last season by taking both games - 77-56 at home on Jan. 20, 2024, and 74-57 on the road on Feb. 8, 2024.

COVERING THE SAINTS

All games during the 2024-25 basketball season can be heard on WVCR 88.3 "The Saint" online on iHeartRadio. WVCR is one of just a small handful of college radio stations carried by iHeartRadio, and all WVCR programming including women's basketball broadcasts and Coaches' Shows can be listened to online at iHeartRadio and through mobile devices on the iHeartRadio app. Joe Puccio is in his first season as the play-by-play voice for Siena Women's Basketball and will be joined by color commentary by Steve Amedio for his 15th season of analysis. Pregame coverage begins 30 minutes prior to tipoff.

HEAD COACH TERRY PRIMM | 1ST SEASON

Palm Beach Atlantic '97

Fourth Season at Siena | First as Head Coach

Overall Record: 6-6 (1st season)

Division I Record: 6-6 (1st season)

Terry Primm was promoted to head coach of Siena Women's Basketball in April 2024 after serving as the top assistant on Jim Jabir's staff from 2021-24. Primm followed Jabir to Siena from Florida Atlantic, where he served as Jabir's Associate Head Coach for four years.

The 49-year-old Primm has played an integral role in the improvement of the Siena Women's Basketball program, highlighted by consecutive MAAC Semifinals appearances the past two seasons for the first time in 11 years. Working in lock-step with Jabir, the Detroit native helped Siena achieve an 18-12 overall record including a 14-6 ledger in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference action during the 2023-24 season, marking the program's most league victories in more than two decades dating back to the 2002-03 season. Primm previously led the Saints for seven games as acting head coach during the 2022-23 season, guiding the team to a 6-1 record.

"We are very excited that Terry Primm will take over our women's basketball program," Siena Vice President / Director of Athletics John D'Argenio said upon Primm's promotion. "Coach Primm has been a key part of Coach Jabir's coaching staff over the last three seasons, which has led to the recruitment of outstanding student athletes and success on the court. He is the right choice to lead our student athletes and to continue to move this program toward a MAAC Championship. Join me in congratulating Coach Primm and his family on being part of a new chapter in Siena Women's Basketball."

After aiding the Saints to their first MAAC Opening Round bye in five seasons during his first campaign back with the team in 2021-22, Primm helped guide one of the youngest teams in the nation in 2022-23 to a fourth place regular season finish and both the program's first winning record and MAAC Semifinal appearance since 2018.

Siena boasted an 11-5 home record and a nine-win improvement while garnering five MAAC postseason honors - including Elisa Mevius winning MAAC Rookie of the Year honors. The team led the league in scoring offense and saw Mevius and classmate Teresa Seppala claim a combined 12 MAAC weekly honors - including Mevius becoming the first player in conference history to take home Player and Rookie of the Week honors on the same day. Siena ended the year with three players in double-figure scoring, six averaging seven points per-game or greater, and eight averaging more than 20 minutes per-game.

Primm was instrumental in helping the Owls achieve several milestones over his four years. In 2020-21, Primm helped FAU to eight Conference USA wins, the most in program history. The Owls also earned their first conference tournament win in program history with a victory over No. 6 UAB. Primm was the lead on bringing in Iggy Allen, who won C-USA Newcomer of the Year along with First Team All-Conference and All-Defensive Team honors. Allen ranked 14th in the NCAA in scoring (22.0 ppg) and 23rd in rebounding (10.0 rpg), while leading the Owls to 21st in the nation in rebounding (42.0 rpg).

Primm also had the opportunity to coach his daughter, Crystal Primm, in her final collegiate basketball season in 2019-20. The graduate transfer had a stellar campaign, finishing in the top-10 in points (15.4 PPG) and rebounds (8.0 RPG) in Conference USA, as well as sitting No. 7 in free throw attempts (214) and 29th in makes (137) in the NCAA. Crystal also was given a nod to the C-USA Second Team.

Also in 2019-20, the Owls put up the third most 3-pointers in a season (211), which was fourth in the conference, while tallying the fourth best free throw percentage in school history (71.7). FAU improved in a myriad of categories from the prior season, including in scoring offense, where the Owls averaged 66.3 PPG in comparison to the 2018-19 season's 57.0 PPG.

In his first season as an assistant coach at FAU, Primm helped lead the Owls to a seventh place finish in C-USA, the program's highest finish mark joining the league in 2013. Working primarily with the forwards, Primm helped build one of the nation's best rebounding teams. The Owls averaged 42.3 rebounds per game, leading the conference and ranking 18th in the country.

Prior to joining the Owls, Primm spent two seasons as an assistant coach with Coastal Carolina. He helped usher the Chanticleers into the Sun Belt Conference for the 2016-17 season. The team finished with a 13-16 overall record and went 8-10 in league play. In his first season with the Chants in 2015-16, Coastal had several notable wins throughout the season, including its first-ever victory against Clemson on Nov. 15 and its first win against Liberty in 20 years to snap a 45-game losing streak against the program.

Before heading to Coastal, Primm was at Oxbridge Academy of the Palm Beaches where he served as the head girls' basketball coach and director of basketball operations since 2013. During that time, Primm led the girls' program to a 39-11 (.780) overall record over the course of two seasons, and Oxbridge Academy reached the Florida High School Athletic Association Regional Final for the first time in the school's history in the 2014-15 season. His program also enjoyed success in the classroom as the girls' basketball team boasted a 3.50 combined team GPA.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities at Oxbridge, Primm also worked for the Miami Suns Youth Organization where he served as a coach, trainer and consultant.

Prior to Oxbridge, Primm served as the head men's basketball coach at Palm Beach Atlantic University from 2007-13. Primm's teams consistently faced the top competition in the NCAA Division II South Region and were able to knock off three top-25 nationally ranked teams as well as numerous regionally ranked squads. Included in PBA's notable wins during Primm's tenure was an overtime victory over North Greenville University in the 2009-10 NCAA South Region championship game.

Before taking the head coaching job at PBA, Primm spent several seasons as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Sailfish. PBA won two NCAA regional championships and posted back-to-back 20-win seasons in Primm's two year as an assistant coach from 2003-05.

Primm is the founder of the Top Performance Basketball Academy, and has additional coaching experience as an assistant at The Benjamin School (Palm Beach Gardens) and various camps. The Benjamin School won the 2001 FHSAA Class 2A State Championship with Primm as an assistant on the coaching staff.

A two-year starter for Palm Beach Atlantic from 1995-97, Primm averaged 18.7 points per game for the Sailfish to sit fourth all-time in the men's record book. He shot 57.4 percent from the floor while making over 37 percent of his 3-point attempts to rank in the top five in each category. He also ranks in the program's top five in steals per game.

Primm is a two-time graduate of PBA, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration before completing his master's degree in organizational leadership. His daughter, Crystal Primm, played at Duke and Auburn before spending her final year of eligibility at FAU. He is the father of Crystal and Journee Primm.

SIENA SAINTS

QUICK HITS

- With its 62-60 win over Manhattan on Thursday, the Saints improved to 3-0 in league play for the first time in nine seasons. In that same 2018-19 campaign. This year's edition of the team will look to start 4-0 for the first time since 2015-16.
- Now qualified after her 24-point outing on Thursday, Teresa Seppala is the MAAC leader in points, netting 19.4 per outing. In league games, the junior's average is slightly increased to 21.0 PPG. The Preseason All-MAAC honoree has also eclipsed 20+ points in three of her last four games.
- Also taking her game to the next level in MAAC games has been Zyriah Price. In three league games, the freshman is nearly averaging a double-double with 11.3 points and 8.7 boards. Her point total in such games is only topped by Seppala's 21, and her rebounding numbers are just behind Anajah Brown's 9.3.
- Terry Primm has played an integral role in the improvement of the Siena Women's Basketball program since his arrival four seasons ago, highlighted by consecutive MAAC Semifinals appearances the past two seasons for the first time in 11 years. The Detroit native helped Siena achieve an 18-12 overall record including a 14-6 ledger in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference action during the 2023-24 season, marking the program's most league victories in more than two decades dating back to the 2002-03 season.
- Primm previously led the Saints for seven games as acting head coach during the 2022-23 season, guiding the team to a 6-1 record.
- Siena was selected to finish second in the 2024 MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll for the second consecutive season.
- The Saints also saw three players take home Preseason All-MAAC honors, with junior Teresa Seppala being named Preseason First Team All-MAAC, and Anajah Brown and Ahniysha Jackson being named to the Preseason All-MAAC Second Team.
- Over half (7/13) players on the roster are new to the team, including six true freshmen
- The Saints are off of back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since the 2002-03 and 2003-04 campaigns, and will look for a third straight for the first time since 2001-04.
- The team boasts five international players and players from six different countries, including the United States, Finland, Spain, Hungary, and New Zealand.

The Last Time...
Siena scored 100 points in a game: Siena defeated Rider 103-69 on Jan. 13, 2001.
Siena allowed 100 points in a game: No. 14/13 Syracuse defeated the Saints, 102-65, on Nov. 9, 2016 in Syracuse, NY.
Siena scored between 90-99: Siena hit 94 points for the second time in a single season with a 94-62 victory over Rider on Jan. 26, 2023. The Saints previously exploded for 94 points in a 94-45 win over Saint Peter's at the UHY Center on Jan. 14, 2023. This marks the first time the team has recorded multiple 90-point games in a season since 2001-02.
Siena won an overtime game: A shorthanded Siena squad with just six active players grabbed a 55-51 road victory at Fairfield on Jan. 19, 2023, marking its first OT triumph since a 78-66 win at Canisius on Feb. 22, 2019.
Siena lost an overtime game: The Saints dropped a 67-64 overtime thriller at the UHY Center to Merrimack on Nov. 28, 2023.
Siena held an opponent to 40 points or fewer: The Saints held Rider to 26.4% shooting in a 77-40 win at Alumni Gymnasium on Mar. 7, 2024. Siena had 14 steals in the game, led by Ahniysha Jackson's five.
Siena was held to 40 points or fewer: Siena was stifled in an 69-38 loss against Rider back on Feb.13, 2020. The Saints turned the ball over 28 times, in was their third loss of being held under 40 points on the season.
Siena won by more than 30 points: Siena earned its first win of the Terry Pimm era with a wire-to-wire 87-50 vicotry at Central Connecticut on Nov. 26, 2024
Siena lost by more than 30 points: Siena fell at Fordham 90-51 on Nov. 23, 2024
A Siena player scored 30 or more points in a game: Teresa Seppala scored a career high 31 points on 12-18 shooting from the field in a 76-73 loss to Cornell on 12/30/24
A Siena player recorded 20 or more rebounds in a game: Heather Stec pulled down 23 rebounds on Jan. 21, 2007 at Saint Peter's. She came up one rebound shy of the program record (24) set by Melanie Halker '97 on Feb. 23, 1997.
A Siena player had 10 or more assists in a game: Elisa Mevius dished out 11 assists in Siena's 74-57 win over Iona on Feb. 8, 2024.
Siena featured multiple players with a double-double in a game: Zyriah Price (10 points, 10 rebounds) and Anajah Brown (10 points, 13 rebounds) recorded double-doubles against Niagara on Dec. 19, 2024.
Siena failed to convert a free-throw: The Saints failed to score, as well as at-tempt a free throw in their 59-49 loss to Duquesne on Nov. 27, 2021. The Saints would go 0-0 in the game, marking the latest mark since Dec. 4, 2006 when Siena went 0-3 from the line at #1 Maryland.
Siena failed to convert a 3-pointer: Siena defeated Binghamton, 54-50, despite going 0-13 from the three-point line on December 5, 2022. The result marked the first time since Feb. 20, 2020 that the Saints had gone quiet from beyond-the-arc, and the first time since an 84-81 overtime victory at Rider on Feb. 29, 2008 that they pulled out a win with no three's made.
A Siena opponent failed to convert a 3-pointer: St. Bonaventure went 0-13 from beyond the arc in a 50-42 Bonnies win at the Reilly Center on November 11, 2021. It marked the first time in 10 years that Siena held its opponent without a three since Saint Peter's went 0-for-8 from distance on Feb. 19, 2011.
