Opening Tip

The College of Charleston women's basketball team is set to face Iona in their first road test of the year.

The Cougars began the season with a three-win streak on their home court, most recently taking down NC Central.

The Cougars are entering the new season after a record-breaking 2023-24 campaign, where Charleston gathered the most wins in a season since 2009-10 and competed in the postseason for the first time since the 2013-14 season.

The Cougars advanced to the second round of the WNIT, before falling to Illinois State in their final game.

Taryn Barbot returns to the lineup for the Cougars after an impressive rookie campaign, taking home the program's first CAA Rookie of the Year award. Barbot enters November continuing to make history by earning the program's first CAA Preseason Player of the Year nomination, voted on by the conference's coaches. Barbot averaged 14.6 points in her debut year and scored a season-high 36 points on January 14- the most by any CAA player last season.

The Cougars welcomed seven new players to the roster for the season, made up of three transfers and four freshmen, all looking to create an impact from the first whistle.

Notables

CHARLESTON VS IONA

Charleston will travel to Iona for the first time in program history, as the teams have only met once before, dating back to 1998 inside TD Arena. The Cougars fell 58-52 in the November matchup that year.

A YEAR TO REMEMBER

The Cougars are coming off a historical 2023-24 season, earning a 20+ win season and advancing to the WNIT for the first time in a decade. Charleston finished third in the conference and tabbed the program's first Rookie of the Year award for Taryn Barbot.

VETERAN ADDITIONS

The Cougars have added three transfers to the roster: Nyah Willis, McKinley Brooks-Sumpter and Sophia Tougas. Joining the squad with experience, all three guards are predicted to make an impact on the Charleston lineup

MILESTONES

Taryn Barbot: Reached 500 career points versus N.C. Central (11/13/24)

McKinley Brooks-Sumpter: Reached 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds versus N.C. Central (11/13/24)

Sophia Tougas: 497 points, 3 from 500

BARBOT SHOW

Taryn Barbot returns to the lineup for the Cougars after an impressive rookie campaign, taking home the program's first CAA Rookie of the Year award. Barbot enters November continuing to make history by earning the program's first CAA Preseason Player of the Year nomination, voted on by the conference's coaches. Barbot averaged 14.6 points in her debut year and scored a season-high 36 points on January 14- the most by any CAA player last season.
