Career HC Record			115-99 (.537)

Iona University women's basketball head coach Angelika Szumilo enters her fourth season at the helm of the program in 2026-27.

Szumilo guided the Gaels to a 20-12 overall record and 12-8 conference mark in 2025-26, securing the eighth 20-win campaign in program history and a trip to the conference championship semifinals. Iona earned seven non-conference victories, its most since 2013-14, highlighted by an Iona Turkey Tip-Off title and a road win over Patriot League regular season champion Navy. The Gaels led the conference and ranked 32nd nationally in three-point percentage defense, holding opponents to 27.9 percent shooting from beyond the arc. Szumilo also recorded her 100th career head coaching victory on Dec. 3 against UMass Lowell.

The Gaels earned 11 victories in each of Szumilo's first two seasons. In 2024-25, Iona advanced to the conference championship quarterfinals following an opening-round victory. Her first season in 2023-24 featured the program's fifth win over a Big East opponent with a 12-point road victory at Providence. The Gaels also ranked second in the MAAC in three-point field goal percentage and free throw percentage that season.

Academic success remains a staple of the program under Szumilo. The Gaels received WBCA Academic Top 25 Special Mention recognition twice in her first three seasons, posting team GPAs of 3.464 in 2023-24 and 3.574 in 2025-26. Iona also produced 16 conference All-Academic Team selections during that span, along with four CSC Academic All-District honorees in 2025-26.

Szumilo joined the Maroon & Gold in April 2023 following a successful four-year tenure at Fairleigh Dickinson. She compiled a 72-45 overall record and 50-20 mark in Northeast Conference play, finishing as the second-winningest head coach in FDU program history.

Szumilo began her head coaching career in 2019-20, guiding the Knights to a .500 conference record after an 8-22 campaign the previous season. FDU earned its first NEC Tournament victory since 1992 and advanced to a second consecutive NEC semifinal in 2020-21 before capturing back-to-back NEC regular season championships in 2021-22 and 2022-23. Szumilo earned the NEC's Brenda Reilly Coach of the Year award in both championship seasons. The Knights produced 12 All-NEC selections during her tenure, including 2021-22 NEC Player of the Year Madison Stanley.

Fairleigh Dickinson enjoyed its most decorated season in program history in 2022-23, finishing 24-8 overall and 14-2 in conference play. The Knights advanced to the NEC Championship game and earned a second consecutive WNIT appearance. FDU led NCAA Division I in three-point percentage defense and ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense.

In 2021-22, the Knights recorded a program-record 15 conference victories en route to their first NEC regular season championship since 1992. FDU registered 12 home wins, held opponents to fewer than 60 points per game and hosted a conference semifinal for the first time in program history. The Knights also earned their first WNIT berth, facing Seton Hall in the opening round.

During the 2020-21 campaign, Szumilo led FDU to a 16-8 overall record and 12-6 conference mark. The Knights earned the No. 4 seed in the NEC Tournament after winning their final seven regular season games and eight of their last nine conference contests. FDU finished among the top four in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1991-93.

In her debut season in 2019-20, Szumilo guided the Knights to a 13-17 overall record and 9-9 conference mark. FDU hosted its first NEC Tournament game since 1997 and defeated Bryant, 57-43, for its first postseason victory since 1992. Szumilo earned her first career head coaching victory on Dec. 10, 2019, with a 68-59 win over NJIT.

Prior to Fairleigh Dickinson, Szumilo spent eight seasons as associate head coach at Fordham University from 2011-19. During her tenure in the Bronx, the Rams won two Atlantic 10 championships, made two NCAA Tournament appearances and earned four WNIT berths. She also served as recruiting coordinator, helping recruit four All-Atlantic 10 First Team selections and an Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Szumilo came to Fordham from Monmouth University, where she served as an assistant coach from 2008-10 before earning a promotion to associate head coach for the 2010-11 season. She helped guide the Hawks to their first 20-win season since 1983 and a WNIT appearance.

Szumilo began her coaching career at LIU Brooklyn, where she competed in basketball and lacrosse as a student-athlete. She recorded 136 assists in her first basketball season and helped the Blackbirds capture the 2001 NEC championship. Szumilo earned the school's Scholar-Athlete of the Year honor the following season. A two-year starter at LIU, she played for former Iona women's basketball head coach Anthony Bozzella. She graduated in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science in Sport Science with a specialization in Adapted Physical Science.

Before attending LIU Brooklyn, Szumilo earned an Associate in Arts degree from Mercer County Community College in 2000. She co-captained the team to back-to-back Region XIX championships and earned Region XIX Player of the Year honors in 2000. Szumilo was inducted into the MCCC Athletics Hall of Fame in June 2023.

IONA UNIVERSITY NOTES OF INTEREST

• Founded in 1940, Iona is inspired by the legacy of Blessed Edmund Rice and the Christian Brothers, embodying opportunity, justice and the liberating power of education.
• Building on its proud legacy, Iona officially became a University on July 1, 2022, turning the page to the next chapter ahead.
• With a total enrollment of nearly 4,000 students and an alumni base of over 55,000 around the world, Iona is a diverse community of learners and scholars.
• Iona University is a small Catholic liberal arts school that has emerged as an anomaly in higher education, with new-student enrollment spiking over 40 percent since 2019.
• Iona students can expect small class sizes, engaged professors and a wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs within the School of Arts & Science, LaPenta School of Business NewYork-Presbyterian Iona School of Health Sciences and Hynes Institute for Entrepreneurship & Innovation.
• Iona continues to add new academic programs in high demand, at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, including new MBA concentrations, advanced nursing and healthcare degrees and much more.
• Iona now has two campuses in Westchester County, N.Y., just north of New York City. Iona's beautiful 45-acre campus in New Rochelle, N.Y., and new 28-acre campus in Bronxville, N.Y., are both just 30 minutes via Metro-North train to Midtown Manhattan.
• With the support of a $20 million gift from NewYork-Presbyterian, Iona has established the NewYork-Presbyterian Iona School of Health Sciences on its new Bronxville campus, developing a premier new school in collaboration with one of the nation's top hospitals.
• The flagship building of Iona's new Bronxville campus has been named the Kelly Center for Health Sciences thanks to benefactors Al and Peggy Kelly. Both are double alumni and longtime Iona basketball fans; Al Kelly is formerly the CEO of Visa.
• This fall, Iona opened its first residence hall in Bronxville, Bohm Hall.
• Iona also continues to beautify its New Rochelle campus, where it just opened a modern new dining hall and renovated LaPenta Student Union located adjacent to the new Murphy Green in the heart of campus. Construction is also underway on another green space in New Rochelle, the Upper Green.
• Iona has emerged as a leader in teaching and learning in the age of AI, opening the Gabelli Center for Teaching and Learning and leading the way in innovative instruction. Iona faculty are even working with local K-12 school districts through its AI@Iona Outreach program to 'teach the teachers' on how to engage with AI in the classroom. Through the Gabelli Center, Iona has also brought some of the world's foremost AI thinkers and experts to campus for engaging discussions. In May 2024, Iona opened a new campus in County Mayo, Ireland. Located within the historic Westport House Estate along the Atlantic coast, Iona looks forward to returning this May.
• It pays to go to Iona: 94 percent of Iona graduates are employed full-time or enrolled in graduate school within six months of graduation. Iona is also in the top 6 percent nationwide for its long-term return on investment, according to Georgetown University's Center on Education and the Workforce.
• Iona has also achieved national recognition. Most recently for 2026, Iona has been recognized by The Princeton Review, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes and others as one of the nation's best colleges. Additionally, U.S. News & World Report recognized Iona as one of top for social mobility in the country.
• The Wall Street Journal's new ranking of the 2026 Best Colleges in America places Iona University at #5 in in Catholic Colleges nationwide for student experience.
• Iona has added five new Division I Varsity programs in the last few years – men's lacrosse, women's acrobatics & tumbling, women's golf and men's and women's tennis launching next year
• Iona also continues to expand its Club Sports program, which is geared toward those with an interest in organized sports outside of Iona's rigorous Division I Athletics program, including a championship esports club team that was featured on Yahoo's In the Know.
• Tradition: Iona's world-renowned Pipe Band performs at major campus events and even leads the University's march up Fifth Avenue in the New York City St. Patrick's Day parade.
• Members of the Iona community are known as Gaels, who are people with Irish-Gaelic ancestry.
• Notable Iona alumni include Al Kelly Jr., retired CEO of Visa Inc.; Margaret C. Timoney, CEO of HEINEKEN USA; and musician Don McLean, most famous for his song "American Pie."

PRESIDENT SEAMUS CAREY, PH.D

• Seamus Carey, Ph.D., serves as the ninth president of Iona University.
• A Bronx native and first-generation college student, Carey began his Iona presidency in July 2019.
• Propelling the University on a path of innovation, President Carey has since overseen the school's growth and expansion to include the acquisition of a new second campus in Bronxville, the launch of the NewYork-Presbyterian Iona School of Health Sciences and new programs inside and outside the classroom.
• President Carey also successfully led the transition to become Iona University, reflecting both the strength and diversity of its academic programs.
• New student enrollment is up over 40% under President Carey's leadership since 2019.

WHAT IS A GAEL?

• The symbol of Iona University's athletic teams is the popular Gael. A Gael is anyone of Irish-Gaelic ancestry, consistent with the Irish tradition of Iona.
• The University was founded in 1940 by the Congregation of Christian Brothers, commonly known as the Irish Christian Brothers.
• The Gael, which is depicted as a spunky character, provides Iona with a nickname consistent with the school motto, certa bonum certamen ("fight the good fight") and personifies strength.
