2010-11
SEASON PREVIEW

THE CLUESS ERA BEGINS...

On April 8, 2010, Iona College Director of Athletic Patrick Lyons announced the appointment of Tim Cluess as the 12th head coach of the men's basketball program. On November 12th, the Cluess Era begins for the Gaels. With the return of the core of a 2009-10 squad that won 21-games and finished in third place in the MAAC standings last season and the addition of several talented newcomers, Iona is poised to make a run at the 2011 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championship and end a five-year drought from NCAA Tournament Play.

The Maroon & Gold posted a 21-10 record last year and held both the most wins and highest win percentage out of the 14 New York City Metropolitan Area Division I basketball programs within 30 miles of the center of NY College basketball, Madison Square Garden. Iona also finished the year with a final Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) of 86 according to RealTimeRPI.com. Three years removed from just two victories for an entire season, the program's increase of 240 places on the list marked the best improvement in NCAA Division I for teams that have lowered their RPI in each season. The Gaels return their top four scorers and all five starters from last year's squad.

Coach Cluess will look to implement a more up and down offensive style than in years past while continuing to concentrate on the successes of the program's stingy defensive efforts. The Gaels finished second in the MAAC in 2009-10 with just 62.0 points per game allowed and were one of three teams to hold their opponent under 40.0% shooting for the season. On the offensive end, Iona looks to employ a multiple look based upon, among others, the dribble-drive and motion schemes.

BACKCOURT

Iona features one of the deeper backcourts in the MAAC with two All-Conference honorees and its top four performers in terms of minutes played all returning for the 2010-11 campaign.

Junior Scott Machado is primed to lead the Gaels in his third season as the Gaels starting point guard. Machado was named to the All-MAAC Second Team as a sophomore and entered this year on the Preseason First Team. He led the team in scoring with 12.5 points per game and with a team-best 122 assists, he became just the second player in school history to record 100 or more helpers in his first two seasons in Maroon & Gold. During his freshman campaign, Machado was named MAAC Rookie of the Year.

Sophomore Kyle Smyth was named to the 2010 MAAC All-Rookie team after a breakout redshirt freshman campaign. He finished third on the team in scoring with 8.1 ppg and was the Gaels' top long distance threat. Smyth led all MAAC rookies with 51 three-point field goals, shattering Iona's rookie record of 38 set by sharpshooter Steve Burtt in 2002-03. The third-year guard is one of the hardest workers on the team. Two years removed from an injury that kept him sidelined for the entire 2008-09 campaign, Smyth is primed to contend for All-MAAC honors this season.

Senior Rashon Dwight has been a steady, veteran influence on Iona's young backcourt over the last two seasons as a team captain. In his final season, he will be continued to be looked upon for his leadership though now with backcourt filled with veterans like himself. While his overall point production slipped a bit from his first two season, Dwight was an improved shooter, raising his percentage from long distance by more than seven percent to 32.8% on the season and draining a career-best 21 three pointers. Dwight also maintained a greater than 1.0 assist-to-turnover ratio for the third straight year.

Junior Jermel Jenkins will be competing for a starting job in his third-year in Maroon & Gold after seeing valuable action off the bench for much of the last two seasons. He improved his output in virtually every statistical category from his freshman to his sophomore campaign and shows no sign of slowing down. One of the top three-point shooters on the team, he converted more than 37 percent of his long distance attempts and was second on the team as a sophomore with 36 trifectas.

Junior Trinity Fields also returns for his third season with the Gaels. His experience and hard-working mentality will allow him to see valuable minutes in Iona's backcourt rotation at multiple positions. Though his minutes were down from his freshman campaign, Fields saw nearly a 13% improvement on his overall field goal percentage and set a single-season school record for three-point field goal percentage converting 46.9% of his attempts last year.

Three newcomers to the squad will also see plenty of action for Iona in 2010-11:

True freshman Sean Armand will see action primarily at the two-guard position. He is a pure scorer with one of the best shooting touches from the outside. Averaging more than 25 points per game in his final three years of scholastic ball at both Onassis HS in Queens and CJEOTO Academy in New Jersey, Armand and Smyth will form a lethal sharpshooting combination as the season progresses.

Armand's classmate, Jayon James, has the capability of playing four positions for the Gaels including a hybrid point-forward role which he thrived during his scholastic career. Playing for New Jersey basketball powerhouse Paterson Catholic, James played alongside several current and future Division I basketball standouts. He possesses tremendous court vision, ball-handling skills and play-making ability that will all be assets for the Maroon & Gold.

Junior Randy Dezouvre is a high-energy performer that will see time at the wing and power forward positions. The Montreal, Quebec native starred for two seasons at Monroe College in the Bronx where he helped lead his squad to two straight Region XIV titles and NJCAA Championship appearances. Dezouvre has good ability to score around the basket and is a solid defensive presence on the floor.

FRONTCOURT

When healthy, the Gaels also possess one of the better frontcourts in the MAAC. Like the backcourt, Iona's front line consists of a mix of talented mix of old and new faces.

Senior Alejo Rodriguez returns for his fifth season in Maroon & Gold. Rodriguez was the team's No. 2 scorer averaging 9.0 points per game and top rebounder with 7.5 per game. He was named to the Preseason All-MAAC Third Team entering this season. Rodriguez served as a captain last year and will continue a leadership role as the team's most tenured performer. Always relentless in his pursuit, Rodriguez is at his best when the bright lights turn on at game time. He is a tenacious rebounder and has the potential to be one of the MAAC's top post players this year.

Junior Michael Glover is a highly-touted newcomer that will make an immediate impact for the Gaels. Playing his sophomore season for the College of Eastern Utah, the JUCO All-American makes his long awaited D-I debut in 2010-11. Glover originally attended Seton Hall University but did not meet NCAA initial eligibility requirements and returned back to New York City before settling on CEU. He is an extremely strong performer that possesses quickness in the post and one of the best finishing abilities around the basket that Iona has ever seen.

Sophomore Chris Pelcher looks to enjoy an expanded role in Iona's front court rotation. The Gaels look forward to the continued development of the 6-10 forward/center as he looks to be an imposing presence in the team's lineup. Pelcher averaged 6.2 minutes per game as a freshman shooting more than 50% from the field in 20 appearances.

Freshman Aleksandar Kesic is a native of Belgrade, Serbia and will aide in Iona's front court depth. The 6-8 freshman that is the prototypical European-style big man that has good range from the outside. His ability to knock down shots from beyond the arc will be a tremendous asset to the team's offensive scheme.

MEET THE COACHES

Iona College Director of Athletics Patrick Lyons announced the appointment of Tim Cluess as the 12th head coach of the men's basketball program on April 8, 2010. Cluess comes to New Rochelle with an impressive 20-year coaching resume after spending the last four seasons as head coach at C.W. Post in Brookville, NY.

"Tim possesses all of the qualities that I was looking for in the search process for our next head coach," said Lyons. "He is a proven winner at every level that he has coached and a New York native that will push the program forward with our goals. We're ecstatic to have him on board."

One thing that can be said about Cluess; he is a winner. After spending 14 years as head coach at St. Mary's High School in Manhasset, NY, Cluess spent the last five in the college ranks at Suffolk Community College and C.W. Post. He amassed a 120-33 record in those five years and had unprecedented success at both schools. When combining his high school record, Cluess has won more than 77 percent of his games coached.

"I'm extremely grateful to have the opportunity to come to Iona and lead this program," said Cluess. "We are going to get to work right away and build on the great tradition at Iona. Competing in a league as good as the MAAC will be a challenge that I greatly look forward to."

In his last season at C.W. Post, Cluess' Pioneers earned a 23-6 overall record, earning victories in 19 of their last 21 contests. The squad earned its fourth straight berth in the East Coast Conference championship game. Cluess was named the ECC Co-Coach of the Year, his third straight honor.

In 2008-09, C.W. Post had its finest season in history, setting a school record with 30 victories. Standing among the top 10 teams in the nation from January through March in 2009, the Pioneers were ranked as high as No. 2 at one point in the year. The squad posted an undefeated regular season, winning all 24 games for the first time in school history. C.W. Post won its second straight ECC regular season and tournament championship titles and defeated Bentley in overtime in front of thousands on their home court to win the NCAA East Region Championship title and advance to the Elite Eight Tournament in Springfield, Mass. The second-ranked C.W. Post squad met top-seeded Findlay University in the semifinal round and lost a heartbreaker to the eventual National Champions, 89-79, in overtime. In the final Division II national rankings, C.W. Post was ranked first in scoring margin (22.4) and second in assists per game (20.3).

For his outstanding efforts, Cluess was named the Basketball Times Division II Co-Coach of the Year as well as Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Division II Coach of the Year for the second straight season.

The 2007-08 season saw Cluess' squad post a 26-5 overall record, including an 18-2 clip in the conference. C.W. Post claimed its first regular season and conference titles since the 2003-04 season with a 60-57 win to advance to the NCAA Northeast Regional at Bentley College. He was voted the ECC Coach of the Year by his peers, and was named the MWBA Division II Coach of the Year.

In 2006-07, his first year at the helm, Cluess guided the Pioneers to a 19-11 record and an appearance in the ECC Championship game. He improved the team's win total by six from the season before he took over the program.

Cluess was named the eighth head men's basketball coach in the 50-year history of the Pioneers' program in April of 2006, after spending the 2005-06 campaign as the head men's basketball coach at Suffolk Community College in Brentwood, NY. He led a team of eight players to a 22-10 record overall, as well as a Region XV championship and a fourth-place finish in the NJCAA Division III Tournament. The trip to the national tournament was the first in the Longhorns' history, and Cluess was tabbed the District 5 Coach of the Year.

Prior to his ascent to the college ranks, Cluess was a standout head coach at St. Mary's High School in Manhasset, NY from 1991-05, where the Gaels went a remarkable 264-78 (.772) during his tenure. St. Mary's won a record eight consecutive Nassau-Suffolk Catholic High School Athletic Association league championships from 1997-98 to 2004-05. In that final season with Cluess as their mentor, the Gaels went 25-1 and finished the season ranked in the Top 20 nationally after holding the No. 1 ranking for eight weeks of the campaign.

Cluess helped develop more than 50 players who moved on to the collegiate and professional ranks at St. Mary's including former North Carolina standout and current Cleveland Cavalier Danny Green. He won four state titles and two Federation championships at the Manhasset school. Cluess was a seven-time coach of the year in the high school ranks and earned tournament wins in national tournaments such as the Beach Ball Classic and the Las Vegas Prep Classic.

Cluess played professional basketball in Europe and Australia after a collegiate career at both St. John's and Hofstra. He attended St. John's from 1978-81, before completing his coursework at Hofstra from 1982-83. Cluess, who holds a bachelor's degree in Accounting from Hofstra, currently resides in Floral Park, N.Y. with his wife, Karen, and their two children – Kevin, 14 and T.J., 12.

JARED GRASSO
ASSISTANT COACH

Jared Grasso enters his first season at Iona after spending the last four years at Fordham. Grasso will serve as the Gaels' top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 2009-10, Grasso was named the interim head men's basketball coach at Fordham five games into the season, replacing Dereck Whittenburg. At the time of his appointment, he was the youngest NCAA Division I head coach in the country.

Grasso was responsible for the recruitment of several Atlantic 10 standouts including 2010 A-10 Rookie of the Year Chris Gaston and 2009 All-Rookie Team honoree Jio Fontan. He also helped coach All-Atlantic 10 performers Bryant Dunston and Marcus Stout.

Prior to Fordham, Grasso served as an assistant at Quinnipiac University - his alma mater - in 2005-06, where his responsibilities included recruiting, scouting opponents, and organizing daily practices. One of Grasso's recruits, James Feldeine, earned First Team All-NEC honors in 2010 and helped lead the Bobcats to a share of the regular season championship.

Before Quinnipiac, Grasso was an assistant coach at the University of Hartford for two years after serving as a graduate assistant at Hofstra University in 2002-03. During his tenure at both schools, he helped coach All-America East first teamer Kenny Adelke.

A four-year starter and two-year captain at Quinnipiac at shooting guard, Grasso currently ranks 22nd on the Bobcats' all-time scoring list with 1,134 career points. He is fifth on the all-time list in assists with 404 and ranks fourth all-time in three-point field goals with 216. He graduated from Quinnipiac with a degree in mass communications in May 2002.

A native of Syosset, NY, Grasso attended St. Anthony's High School in South Huntington, New York, from 1994-98. He earned honorable mention All-American honors as a senior at St. Anthony's after averaging 23 points, seven rebounds and eight assists per game.

MARK CALZONETTI
ASSISTANT COACH

Mark Calzonetti enters his first year as an assistant coach at Iona after spending the last 11 seasons at Monmouth University in West Long Branch, NJ.

At Monmouth, Calzonetti helped guide the Hawks to three Northeast Conference Tournament championships and three trips to the NCAA Tournament, while also claiming two NEC regular season titles. He was primarily responsible for handling the program's frontcourt players along with recruiting.

Calzonetti mentored several All-NEC and NEC All-Rookie Team members in his tenure with the Hawks including standout Blake Hamilton, the 2005 NEC Player of the Year, All-Met First Team and AP All-America honorable mention honoree. During the 2005-06 season, Monmouth won the NEC Championship as a No. 3 seed and earned its first NCAA Tournament victory in an opening round matchup over Hampton University.

Calzonetti has extensive international experience. He has recruited in England, France, Israel, Austria and the Netherlands and has helped run clinics in China and France.

No stranger to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, Calzonetti spent seven seasons at Fairfield prior to his stint at Monmouth. During his tenure with the Stags, he helped build the program into a perennial contender in the MAAC.

In his first season in 1992-93, the Stags improved their victory total by six, earning their first winning season in seven years. In 1995, Fairfield reached the conference semifinals and in the next season earned the regular-season MAAC title. After falling in the tournament championship game, the Stags earned a National Invitation Tournament (NIT), the school's first post-season appearance since 1987. The following year, after injuries hampered the team all season, the Stags became the first No. 8 seed to win the MAAC Tournament. Fairfield earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament where they battled top-seeded North Carolina to the final minute before falling, 82-74.

Before arriving at Fairfield, Calzonetti was an assistant coach at Shepherd College in Shepherdstown, WA and at St. Michael's College in Colchester, VT. He began his coaching career at his alma mater Bentley in Waltham, MA.

A 1985 graduate of Bentley, Calzonetti was a standout for the Falcons. During his two seasons at Bentley, the team compiled a 43-15 record. In his senior season, Calzonetti guided the team to the NCAA Division II tournament and a No. 13 national ranking in the final poll. Calzonetti was the team leader in every offensive category and was selected as the South Jersey College Player of the Year by the Courier Post.

Calzonetti is married to the former Shannon Thompson, and the couple has two sons, Cooper and Riley.

GAREE BRYANT
ASSISTANT COACH

Garee Bryant enters his first season as an assistant coach at Iona after spending the last six seasons as a varsity assistant coach at nearby Mount Vernon High School.

Under the tutelage of long-time head coach, Bob Cimmino, Bryant helped lead the Knights to three New York State Public High School Athletic Association championships, three New York State Federation of Secondary Schools Athletic Associations championships and six Section I titles. Bryant helped mentor several Division I players during his time at his alma mater including Iona College graduate Dexter Gray. He also helped to develop Rutgers' Michael Coburn and Jonathan Mitchell, West Virginias' Kevin Jones, Pittsburgh's Keith Benjamin, George Mason's Sharrod Wright and UMass' Chris Lowe. In addition to his duties along side Cimmino on the varsity bench, Bryant was also the Knights' junior varsity head coach for five years.

Bryant has also served as coach for numerous basketball camps such as MVP, Five-Star, Hoop Group and Syracuse University. Since 2005, he has coached with the Westchester Hawks AAU Program, where he groomed some of the best talent around the county. In 2009, the Hawks finished fourth at AAU Nationals, falling to the eventual national champion Ohio Red. The squad also finished first in the 17-and-Under Providence Jam Fest. The Westchester Hawks U-17 squad began the 2010 campaign as the No. 9 team in the country. Two standout performers for the Hawks that now play at the Division I level are Cincinnati's Sean Kilpatrick and Syracuse's Mookie Jones.

A native of Mount Vernon, NY, Bryant began playing basketball his junior year in high school, under the influence of Cimmino. Along with teammate and former Iona point guard John McDonald, Bryant helped lead Mount Vernon to back-to-back Section I Championships in 1994 and 1995. Bryant continued his playing career at the college level and graduated in 1999 from Long Island University, C.W. Post Campus. He completed time at C.W. Post as one of the top performers in school history. He graduated as the program's top all-time point scorer and currently ranks No. 2 on the list with 1,835 points. He also holds the single game scoring mark with 47 points vs. Southampton College.

Bryant earned his bachelor's degree in Psychology from C.W. Post and is currently working on a master's degree in Education.

2009-10 SEASON REVIEW

Game 1 (1-0)

Iona College vs. Boston Univ.
Non-Conference Game
New Rochelle, NY, Hynes Center
November 13, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY — Boston University had the experience, the star players, and the hottest shooter on the floor. They just didn't have the legs.

Iona used a 10-man attack to beat BU 82-73 at an energetic Hynes Center.

"We knew we could wear them down," head coach Kevin Willard said after the game. "They're a good shooting team, they're very skilled, but we wanted to get to their bench and we wanted to wear those guys down."

Ten Gaels saw significant court time, while the Terriers were essentially six deep. Twelve Iona players got in the scoring column; nobody outside of BU's starting five scored.

Leading the way for the Gaels was sophomore point guard Scott Machado, who had a team-high 16 points, six assists, and three steals. Last year's MAAC Rookie of the Year displayed the passing skills he's known for, as well as an improved outside shot. Machado hit two three-pointers early in the second half to help keep Iona in the lead.

In total, the Gaels hit 12-of-24 from downtown. They shot 46% from the field while holding BU to 38% shooting. Iona never reached the 80-point mark last season. In fact, the Gaels failed to score more than 48 points three times last year; tonight, they had 48 at the half.

The up-tempo style certainly pleased the crowd, which Willard called "by far the best" since he's been at Iona. "We're trying to get more shots up," said forward Alejo Rodriguez, whose put-back dunk late in the second half sent Gaels fans into a frenzy. "Last year we held the ball a lot. We have very athletic guys this year and our conditioning is better. We're trying to run up and down."

Iona forced the Terriers into 22 turnovers, many resulting from the Gaels' aggressive full-court press. The persistent trapping did lead to some easy baskets for BU, but Willard can live with that. "It was at our pace, and that's what we wanted," he said.

The Gaels were down 4-2 in the game's opening minutes but quickly took the lead and never trailed again. The game was not in hand, though, until the last couple of minutes, After Rodriguez's jam looked like it might put BU away, the Terriers cut the deficit to four with just under four minutes left. But the Gaels forced a few more turnovers and made enough free throws down the stretch to extinguish any potential comeback.

The Terriers, picked to come in first in the America East this season, got 21 points from senior guard Tyler Morris, but were overwhelmed by Iona's balanced production. Rodriguez scored 12 and grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds. Red shirt freshman Kyle Smyth, who missed

Iona College 68, Hampton 63
Non-Conference Game
New Rochelle, NY, Hynes Center
November 17, 2009

HAMPTON, VA - Iona held off Hampton in an 68-63 win at the HU Convention Center. Junior Alejo Rodriguez tallied 17 points and senior Jonathan Huffman added 14 in the win.

After trailing early, the Gaels (2-0) did enough on defense to hold off the Pirates (0-2) and keep the game close. A 7-0 run late in the first half put the Maroon & Gold up six points with 4:49 to play. Sophomore Jermel Jenkins three pointer from the corner capped the run as Iona took a lead it would never relinquish. On the half's final possession, the Gaels had a chance to go up by double digits but a turnover and a layup at the buzzer by Hampton's Mike Tuitt made the score 41-35 at the break.

Iona continued a strong defense to start the second half and scored the first eight points to gain a 14-point advantage. Huffman's three at the 14:38 mark made the score 49-35. Hampton finally got on the scoreboard in the second half on its next possesion and chipped away at the deficit. The Pirates' Jordan Brooks hit a three pointer to cut the margin to 61-60 with 5:33 left. Huffman answered right away with his third trifecta of the contest to put the Gaels back up by four points. Freshman Kyle Smyth sealed the win with two free throws with less than three seconds to play in the 68-63 victory.

Rodriguez shot 7-of-8 from the field and was 3-for-6 from the free throw line including two key ones midway through the second half. He matched a team high with five rebounds. Huffman was 4-of-8 from the field and 3-for-4 from beyond the arc. Jenkins added nine points and rookie Mike McFadden had seven. Sophomore Scott Machado had a team-best five assists to go along with his six points and five boards. Senior Milan Prodanovic was held off the scoreboard but matched Machado and Rodriguez with five rebounds.

The Gaels out rebounded the Pirates 42-33 while holding their opponent to just 32.1% from the field. Hampton's Charles Funches posted a double-double with 12 points and 10 boards in the loss.

Iona improved to 2-0 for the first time since the 2005-06 campaign when they rattled off the first seven contests of the season.

Game 3 (3-0)

Iona College 80, Norfolk State 68
Non-Conference Game
New Rochelle, NY, Hynes Center
November 21, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona won its third straight to start the season in an 80-68 victory over Norfolk State at the Hynes Center this afternoon. Sophomore guard Scott Machado poured in a career-high 20 points and a trio of rookies tallied 10 or more in the win. The Gaels (3-0) are unbeaten after three games for the fourth time in the last 25 seasons.

The Maroon & Gold led from wire-to-wire, scoring the game's first points on a three-pointer from rookie Kyle Smyth at the 18:25 mark of the first half. Less than seven minutes later, Iona held an 18-4 lead. Rookie Keon Williams scored eight straight points to cap the run that started the contest. After Norfolk State (1-2) figured out Iona's full-court pressure defense it was able to crawl back into the contest. The Spartans could not get closer than four points in the first half and trailed 36-32 at halftime.

The Gaels nursed a high single-digit lead throughout the second half and led by as many as 12 points on several occasions. Norfolk State got within five points at the 11:22 mark on a three-pointer by Rob Hampton. The Gaels responded with an 8-2 run including six straight points that was capped by a thunderous put back dunk by Alejo Rodriguez with 8:30 remaining to make the score 60-49. The Spartan's Kyle O'Quinn got the margin to within six points with 4:51 to play. Machado answered with a three pointer on the Iona's next possession. With 1:48 to go, sophomore Jermel Jenkins drained a three-pointer with the shot clock winding down to make the score 75-63 and seal the game. It was Machado that took over for the Gaels over the final six minutes, accounting for 11 of the team's final 16 points.

Machado shot 5-for-12 from the field including two three pointers and was 8-for-13 from the free throw line. He added a team best six assists and four steals in the win. Smyth, Williams and freshman Mike McFadden also recorded season highs. Smyth had 14 points, while McFadden had 13 points and five boards and Williams added 10 points and four rebounds in just eight minutes of play. Rodriguez was also very effective in the front court with nine points, five boards and two blocks.

Game 4 (3-1) — Florida State 54, Iona College 49
Old Spice Classic
Orlando, FL, The Milk House
November 26, 2009

LAKE BUENA VISTA, FL - Iona battled to a 54-49 loss to Florida State in the first round of the 2009 Old Spice Classic at the Milk House in ESPN's Wide World of Sports. The Gaels erased an 11-point second half deficit but could not muster enough offense to hold of the Seminoles.

A low scoring first half saw six ties and seven lead changes with Florida State holding the one-point 25-24 advantage. Freshman Mike McFadden tipped home a missed three pointer by senior Jonathan Huffman at the 7:35 mark to give the Maroon & Gold its largest lead at 16-11. The Seminoles battled back to tie a little over three minutes later as Chris Singleton drained a three pointer. The two teams traded leads throughout the remainder of the have before a Deividas Dulkys three pointer gave Florida State its one point halftime lead.

The second half was as much of a battle as the first. The Seminoles raced out to an 11-point advantage with a 10-0 run to start the half. The Gaels got on the board on junior Alejo Rodriguez' tip-in off freshman Keon Williams missed shot attempt at the 15:54 mark. Iona slowly chipped away with solid defensive play on a Florida State team that had an extreme size advantage at all positions. Sophomore Scott Machado's two free throws with 9:54 remaining tied the score at 39-39. Four straight Seminole connections from the charity stripe and a Michael Snaer jumper in the paint gave FSU a lead it would not relinquish. The Gaels forced 16 turnovers in the second half and allowed just two field goals in the final 12 minutes of the half but a 16-7 advantage at the free throw line proved to be the difference in the game.

Sophomore Jermel Jenkins led the way with 12 points and four steals in the game including Iona's only two three-point field goals in the contest. Rodriguez added 12 points and eight rebounds while Machado pitched in nine points with four rebounds, four steals and three assists. Williams tallied six points in seven minutes in the second half.

Game 5 (3-2) — Baylor 72, Iona College 62 OT
Old Spice Classic
Orlando, FL, The Milk House
November 27, 2009

LAKE BUENA VISTA, FL (AP) -LaceDarius Dunn scored seven of his 17 points in overtime as Baylor beat Iona 72-62 on Friday night.

Dunn opened the extra session by hitting a 3-pointer and making two of three free throws to put the Bears (4-1) ahead 63-58 with 3:58 left. After Iona (3-2) got within three points, Dunn had a basket off of a rebound to extended the Baylor lead to 67-62 with 1:31 remaining in the Old Spice Classic game.

Ekpe Udoh had a basket and Anthony Jones scored on a slam-dunk tip-in to give Baylor a 58-57 lead with 1:34 to go in regulation. Iona tied it at 58 when Scott Machado made one of two free throws 16 seconds later.

Iona trailed by nine at the half, 32-23, but went up 52-51 when Jonathan Huffman hit a 3-pointer with 5 minutes to play.

Mike McFadden scored 13 points for the Gaels and Huffman added 12.

Game 6 (4-2) — Iona College 63, Creighton 55
Old Spice Classic
Orlando, FL, The Milk House
November 29, 2009

LAKE BUENA VISTA, FL - The Iona College men's basketball team erased an eight-point first half deficit and withstood a late Creighton run in a 63-55 win over the Blue Jays in the final game of the 2009 Old Spice Classic at the Milk House. The Gaels (4-2) improved the four-year MAAC record at the tournament to 4-8.

After sophomore Trinity Fields knotted the score at 11-11 on a pretty layup with 10:51 remaining in the first half, Creighton went on an 10-2 spurt to take a 21-13 advantage with 6:58 to play. The Gaels turned it around and ended the half on a 20-9 run and a 33-30 lead into halftime.

The Maroon & Gold scored the first five points of the half to lead by eight points with 15:30 to play. Two Andrew Bock free throws and a Kenny Lawson, Jr. jumper cut the deficit in half. Rookie Rashard McGill answered the quick run with a three-pointer to put Iona up by seven. Back-to-back layups after Iona turnovers and another Lawson bucket saw Iona's lead cut to just one point, 42-41 just over halfway through the period. The Gaels nursed a low single-digit advantage until Creighton knotted the score at 47-47 on two Cavel Witter free throws. The turning point of the game came with the shot clock running down as sophomore Scott Machado drained a long three pointer with 6:39 remaining to give Iona the lead for good. Machado's classmate, Jermel Jenkins added another dagger on the team's next possession for a 53-47 lead. The Maroon & Gold capped an 8-0 run on a pretty steal and breakaway dunk by junior Alejo Rodriguez. Creighton would not get closer than six points the rest of the way.

Freshman Kyle Smyth was named ESPNU's Player of the Game with a team-high 14 points. He drained a season-best four three pointers and converted both free throw attempts while adding five rebounds and two assists with no turnovers. Rookie Mike McFadden had another strong game with 10 points and two rebounds. Machado chipped in 10 points and four assists. Rodriguez complemented his seven points with a team-leading six boards while being limited to 16 minutes due to foul trouble. Iona's star of the weekend, Jenkins, had six points, four assists and three rebounds.

Game 7 (4-3) (0-1)

Saint Peter's 56, Iona College 54
MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
December 4, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Senior Jonathan Huffman had just hit a three on the previous possession to bring his team within one point. His next shot would've given his team a thrilling victory, but it fell just short, and so did Iona, losing to Saint Peter's in its MAAC opener 56-54.

The team was back in the Hynes Center after an encouraging trip to Orlando for the Old Spice Classic, where they defeated Creighton in their final game of the tournament. And although, at least tonight, the Gaels were unable to build on any momentum from that trip, they certainly fought hard against the Peacocks in a game that couldn't have been much tighter—the biggest lead by either team was five points, and even that only lasted for a minute early in the second half.

Iona did trail by four after two made free throws by Saint Peter's with 13 seconds left, but that's when Huffman drained his second three of the game, giving him a team-high 14 points. Iona quickly fouled and the Peacocks Nick Leon missed his first of two free throw attempts. Down two, the Gaels raced the ball up the court and Huffman launched a three from the left wing that looked like it had a chance to go in, only to strike the front iron. Freshman Kyle Smyth grabbed the board and was forced to rush a desperation jumper as time expired, which was off the mark.

It was a defensive struggle for most of the night, as both teams shot under 40%. Iona led by a score of 24-22 at the half, but the offense had better success in the second half. Junior forward Alejo Rodriguez (who played 30 minutes) scored nine of his 11 points and grabbed seven of his eight rebounds in the second half.

Unfortunately for the Gaels, the Saint Peter's offense improved in the second half as well. A familiar foe, junior Wesley Jenkins, cousin of Iona junior Rashon Dwight, scored 12 of his 16 points after the break. Jenkins hit four threes, including one that put the Peacocks up for good with 4:17 left.

Iona head coach Kevin Willard, while not pleased with his team's play, praised Saint Peter's for a strong effort. "I think you've got to give them a lot of credit," Willard said. "I thought they played terrific. They made the shots when they had to and we didn't."

Willard once again took advantage of his deep bench, as 10 players saw the court for at least nine minutes. Dwight and sophomore guard Trinity Fields combined to hit four three-pointers

Game 8 (4-4) (0-2)

Siena 73, Iona College 60
MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
December 7, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY- Iona fought hard against the defending conference champions, cutting two separate double-digit deficits to one possession before eventually falling to Siena 73-60 at the Hynes Athletics Center.

Early on, the Gaels went basket for basket with the Saints. Siena head coach Fran McCaffery went as far as saying that his squad was "out played" in the opening minutes. But Siena made a run, and held a 29-19 advantage with 3:52 to play in the first half.

That's when Iona countered. Sophomore point guard Scott Machado fueled the rally. Driving to the basket, he used his body to shield off the defender as he dropped it in. He then forced a jump ball on Siena's ensuing possession, giving the ball back to the Gaels. He made a nice feed to junior Alejo Rodriguez (one of his team-high five assists) and the forward converted the easy basket. Two free throws from Machado and a three from freshman Ben Mockford cut the Siena lead to one, all in a matter of two minutes and change. Iona only trailed by three at the half.

Iona's second half spurt was similar. Down 45-35 six minutes into the half, Machado drained a three and followed it up with a driving bucket. Senior Jonathan Huffman then used a shot fake and a pretty up-and-under move to score inside, cutting the lead to three and getting the crowd excited. Unfortunately for the Gaels, it was as close as they'd get the rest of the night.

"Basketball is a game of runs," Huffman said. "When we get on our runs, we've got to learn how to capitalize, how to keep coming at them, to get over the hump."

Huffman, Machado, and Mockford - who hit three three-pointers - led the Gaels with nine points apiece, but the box score points to a true team effort. Three other Iona players had at least seven. In total, head coach Kevin Willard used 11 players, including freshman guard Rashard McGill for 24 minutes and freshman big man Chris Pelcher for eight. Rodriguez was plagued by foul trouble and only played 16 minutes.

The Gaels' resiliency was on full display, but it simply wasn't enough to keep up with the Siena squad. Edwin Ubiles shot 9-of-16 for the field en route to a 19-point performance. Ryan Rossiter, Alex Franklin, and Clarence Jackson all scored in double figures.

Iona can't be too discouraged by the loss. Siena starts three seniors and two juniors; Iona countered tonight with two freshmen, a sophomore, a junior, and only one senior. But the

Game 9 (5-4)

Iona College 80, Long Island 64
Non-Conference Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
December 11, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona had lost two straight, both at home. The Gaels were determined not to let their losing streak reach three. They came out with an energy unmatched by their opponent, getting off to a good start and leading all the way in a 80-64 victory over Long Island University at the Hynes Athletics Center.

The win was an important one for the Gaels given their difficult upcoming stretch of games. Seven of their next eight contests are on the road, including games at Providence and Connecticut. Falling under .500 would have been disappointing, after especially the team's impressive start to the season. But if Iona's confidence was shaken after dropping consecutive conference games, it didn't show tonight.

"Tonight we got off to a good start by making four or five layups in a row," head coach Kevin Willard said. "We were able to press and get the momentum going a little bit."

The Gaels used this momentum to build a 16-4 lead. Junior guard Rashon Dwight was key to Iona's fast start, recording three steals in the first three minutes of action. As a team, the Gaels finished with 12 steals and forced Long Island into a whopping 21 turnovers.

Offensively, it was freshman Mike McFadden who carried the load for Iona early. Willard was very pleased to see his young forward have a break-out game after some inconsistency to start the season.

"Mike had played well the last two games, but just missed a lot of chippies," Willard said. "When you're a young guy and you miss some chippies, it kind of gets on your overall psyche. So he came out tonight...and really concentrated on making the ones he had to make, and it made a big difference."

McFadden was flawless in the first half, not missing a field goal or a free throw en route to a 12-point outburst. He finished with 16 for the game. He noted a lack of practice time – Iona has now played three games in the last six days – as one of the factors behind his struggles. But McFadden finally got a chance to put in some extra time in the gym. "I got to work on it today," he said. "And it paid off."

There was sloppy play throughout – the Gaels did have 17 turnovers themselves – but it was never really in doubt for Iona, which led by 10 at half. The Blackbirds cut the lead to nine with just over seven minutes remaining in the game, but Kyle Smyth found sophomore Trinity Fields for a three-pointer. It was part of an impressive stretch for Smyth, who showed off an array of skills over the course of just a couple of minutes – rebounding, passing, outside shooting, driving to the hoop. He finished with a game-high 18 points, five rebounds, and five assists.

Game 10 (6-4) — Iona College 82, Providence 73

Non-Conference Game

Providence, RI - Dunkin' Donuts Center

December 12, 2009

PROVIDENCE, RI - Red shirt freshman Kyle Smyth's career-high 21 points was complimented by three other teammates in double figures in Iona's 83-72 win over Providence in non-conference action at the Dunkin Donuts Center. The win snapped the Gaels' five-game losing streak to BIG EAST opponents and was the first win since Dec. 27, 2001, a 73-70 win over Seton Hall at Madison Square Garden.

Iona never trailed in its nine-point win over the Friars. The Maroon & Gold jumped out to a 5-0 a little over two minutes into the game after junior Rashon Dwight drained a three-pointer on the team's first possession and Smyth followed with a driving layup at 18:53. Providence rallied to tie at 7-7 at the 15:28 mark. The Gaels responded with a seven point run on a second Dwight three and back-to-back Mike McFadden layups off the press break. The Friars cut their deficit to just one point with less than nine minutes to play in the half. After Marshon Brooks' hit a three pointer with 9:30 remaining, Iona held to just three field goals the rest of the frame. The Gaels took their largest lead of the half when sophomore Scott Machado's personal 6-0 run made the score 27-16 at the 5:27 mark. Providence again showed resiliency and a 10-1 run cut the lead again to a single point at 2:47. The two teams hit all 10 free throw attempts before halftime with Iona taking a 6-4 advantage and a three-point 33-30 lead into the break.

The Gaels came out in the second half the same way they began the first, scoring five points on its first two possessions. Iona allowed just a single free-throw and held a 38-31 lead at 18:57 left in the half. Providence would never get closer than two points in the half. Iona held the Friars without a field goal for over seven minutes and in the process built a 10-point lead. Senior Jonathan Huffman's three-pointer at 8:28 put the Maroon & Gold ahead 71-61. Iona did their job holding on to its lead by shooting 13-for-16 from the free throw line in the final five minutes of the game.

Smyth scored his 21 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field with two three pointers. He was 7-of-9 from the charity stripe and added a season-best seven rebounds in the win. Machado and Dwight each had 14 points. Machado converted four field goals and was 6-of-9 from the line. Dwight hit the two early three pointers and was 8-for-8 on free throw attempts. Both guards shared the team-lead with four assists. Huffman battled for 11 points including two dunks and a three pointer. He grabbed a season-best seven rebounds. Iona shot 48.0% from the field including a near 60% effort in the second half. The Gaels converted 29-of-38 free throw attempts while shooting

Game 11 (7-4) — Iona College 75, Albany 62

Non-Conference Game

New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center

December 17, 2009

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Fans and media love to talk about "letdown games" and for the first 10 minutes of tonight's contest it looked like Iona might fall into the trap. Coming off a big win on the road against a BIG EAST school, the Gaels fell behind 26-16 midway through the first half against Albany. But a 25-7 run over the next seven minutes erased any thoughts of a disappointing effort, as Iona cruised to a 75-62 win at the Hynes Athletics Center.

Sophomore guards Scott Machado and Jermel Jenkins keyed the run, scoring eight and nine points respectively in the first half.

"He's been playing real well," freshman Kyle Smyth said about Jenkins. "He had so much pressure on the ball in the press and everything and that led to easy buckets for him." The Gaels shot an incredible 61% from the field in the opening half.

Smyth, who just earned MAAC Rookie of the Week honors, scored 10, his third straight game in double figures. But it was Machado who really stuffed the stat sheet, leading the Gaels in points (14), assists (6), and steals (5), while pulling down three rebounds.

"Scotty's been playing great," head coach Kevin Willard said. "He's been playing a great floor game, he just hasn't been shooting the ball overly well. But I think he's starting to get out of that a little bit now." Machado was 6-of-8 from the field, including 2-of-4 from downtown.

As always, Willard made use of his deep bench. Fourteen Gaels saw the court; 12 played at least nine minutes and 11 scored. No doubt that Iona's fresh legs and constant pressure factored into Albany's 17 turnovers, especially the 11 in the second half. "I thought they got worn down a little bit," Willard said.

Iona (7-4) won its third straight. The Gaels spoke about the importance of not letting up after the Providence game, especially at home. "When we get a win at home, it feels like everybody in the crowd... they're all in it," Machado said. "It feels like everybody won together."

Willard was proud his squad didn't have the dreaded letdown. Getting the win in front of the home fans meant a lot to him and the players. "I'm actually more excited about this win than I am about the Providence win," he said.

Game 12 (8-4) — Iona College 82, Fairleigh Dickinson 60

Non-Conference Game

Teaneck, NJ - Stratis Arena

December 23, 2009

HACKENSACK, NJ - Five players scored double digit point totals for the second time this season as Iona cruised to an 82-60 win over Fairleigh Dickinson in non-conference action at Stratis Arena. The Gaels extended their winning streak to a season-long four contests, the first such streak since February 2006.

Senior Milan Prodanovic erupted for a season-high 15 points scoring all five of his buckets from behind the three-point line. The five trifectas matched a career-high for the senior and was a season-high for Iona as team. Sophomore guard Scott Machado scored 12 points and dished out five assists. He shot 4-of-6 from the field and the line. All his points came in the first half as the Gaels began to build their insurmountable lead. Sophomore Jermel Jenkins and freshman Rashard McGill netted 11 points a piece. Jenkins drained three three-pointers and also added five assists. McGill's point total was a season-best and his first collegiate double-digit point effort. Junior Alejo Rodriguez posted his second double-double of the season with 10 points and a game-high 11 rebounds in the victory.

After the Knights knotted the score at 10-10 at the 15:47 mark of the first half, the Gaels scored seven straight points and finished a 19-3 run over the next seven minutes on sophomore Kyle Smyth's jumper in the paint. Iona took a 44-29 lead into the halftime.

Fairleigh Dickinson cut its deficit to under 10 points for the final time in the game at 16:31 in the second half. After Rodriguez converted a layup in traffic on the next possession, both teams went nearly four minutes with out a point. The Gaels poured it on after the drought, however. A McGill free throw at 12:20 began a 12-2 Iona run as Iona led 61-41 with just under nine minutes to play. Six of Iona's last eight field goals in the game came from behind the arc.

In total, Iona drained 12 three-pointers for the third time this season and eighth time since the inception of the three point line. The school record is 13 set last January at Rider. The Maroon & Gold shot 49.2% from the field and 46.2% from beyond the arc. They held FDU to just 34.5% from the field. For just the second time this season, Iona out rebounded its opponent, besting the Knights 39-36.

With an 8-2 non-conference record this season, the team holds its fourth-highest winning percentage in those contests since joining the MAAC in 1981-82. The eight wins is also the most since a nine-win effort in against non-MAAC foes in 1997-98.

Game 13 (8-5) — No. 11 UConn 93, Iona College 74
Non-Conference Game
Hartford, CT - XL Center
December 27, 2009

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - Stanley Robinson had a season-high 29 points and Jerome Dyson added 17 as No. 11 Connecticut beat Iona 93-74 on Sunday in the Huskies' final tuneup before they begin Big East play.

Kemba Walker had 14 points and seven assists, and freshman Jamal Coombs-McDaniel chipped in with a career-high 13 points.

UConn (9-2) opened up a 14-point lead at intermission after struggling in the first half against its last two non-conference opponents.

Scott Machado had 14 for Iona (8-5), which had won four in a row, including an 82-73 victory at Providence. Rashon Dwight and Rashard McGill each added 12, and Jonathan Huffman had 10 for the Gaels.

Robinson scored 19 in the second half, including an alley-oop dunk off a pass from Dyson with 3 minutes left that gave UConn its first 20-point lead of the game at 91-70.

Iona opened in a pressing defense, but UConn had no problems breaking it, running out to a 13-6 lead, punctuated when Dyson went end-to-end, finishing with a tomahawk dunk and a free throw.

After Walker used a crossover move to free himself for a driving layup, it was 21-12.

Iona was able to cut the lead to four points, before UConn ran back out to a 45-31 lead at halftime. Dyson had 13 points at the break.

The Huskies were tied with Maine going into the second half last Tuesday before pulling away. In a 60-51 victory over Central Florida two days earlier, they trailed by five at the break.

Connecticut opens its Big East slate Wednesday at Cincinnati.

The Gaels, who haven't won five in a row since January 2006, were coming off an 82-60 win over Fairleigh Dickson on Wednesday. Twelve Iona players saw action in this one.

The Huskies are now 3-1 against the Gaels, winning 105-54 in 2003. Iona's only victory was in 1984.

UConn has won 143 of its last 144 home games against non-league competition before the New Year, going 92-1 in Hartford's XL Center.

Iona has lost six straight against nationally ranked opponents since beating Iowa State an 89-72 four years ago.

Game 14 (9-5) (1-2) — Iona College 63, Niagara 60
MAAC Game
Buffalo, NY - HSBC Arena
January 2, 2010

BUFFALO, NY - Junior Rashon Dwight led the Gaels with 13 points as Iona out lasted Niagara 63-60 in MAAC action at the HSBC Arena. Sophomore Scott Machado and junior Alejo Rodriguez each had 12 points in the win.

A back-and-forth first half saw Niagara take a two-point, 28-26, advantage into the intermission. Seven ties and nine lead changes marked a frame that saw neither team take more than a four-point advantage. The Gaels committed 11 turnovers in the half but had a seven rebound advantage as both teams struggled from the field.

The see-saw effort continued through the first six minutes of the second half before Iona hit a wall on offense. After a Kyle Smyth three pointer put Iona ahead by one with 14:20 on the clock, Niagara scored the games next 11 points to take a double digit lead with just over 10 minutes to play. The Gaels countered with a 9-0 run of their own cutting the deficit to just one point as a Dwight jumper made the score 47-46 with 8:44 remaining. Both teams traded leads over the next five minutes.

Rodriguez knotted the score at 55-55 with 2:43 remaining, tipping home a Machado miss. A three-point play by Niagara red shirt freshman Erik Williams gave the home team a three-point advantage on its next possesion. Rodriguez nearly answered on a conventional trifecta of his own but was unable to convert the free throw and Iona trailed 58-57 with just over 90 seconds remaining. Machado grabbed the rebound on the miss and after two more offensive rebounds, Rodriguez was finally able ot put home a layup and gave the Gaels a one-point advantage with less than a minute to play. Williams again got fouled on a put back attempt but missed the free throw this time as Iona trailed by one with 39 ticks left. Machado put home the gamewinner, keeping the ball himself on a pick-and-roll play and laying it in with 30 seconds remaining.

Niagara called time out with 14 seconds to go to set up their offense. Senior Bilal Benn's runner rimmed out and the pinballing rebound finally was snagged by Dwight who was fouled and sealed the win with two free throws with 1.4 seconds on the clock.

Dwight hit a career-high three three-pointers and added two steals in the victory. Rodriguez had a team-best seven boards while Machado added six assists and six rebounds. Smyth and sophomore

Game 15 (9-6) (1-3) — Canisius 77, Iona College 65
MAAC Game
Buffalo, NY - Koessler Center
January 4, 2010

BUFFALO, NY - Iona dropped a 77-65 decision to Canisius in MAAC action at the Koessler Center. Sophomore Scott Machado scored 17 points to lead the Gaels.

The Gaels jumped out to a quick start with a 14-7 lead just under five minutes into the game. Canisius responded with a decisive 14-0 run over the next six minutes. Machado got the Gaels within four points with 3:05 remaining but the Griffs responded with nine of the game's next 10 points and took a 10 point advantage into the break.

Machado was 6-of-12 from the field with one three-pointer and was 4-of-6 from the line. He added four assists and three rebounds. Rookie Kyle Smyth posted 14 points and sophomore Jermel Jenkins added 13 in the loss.

Canisius' junior Greg Logins scored 16 of his game-high 20 points in the first half. He was supported by senior Frank Turner's 18 points in the contest.

The Gaels continue their season-long six-game road trip next Saturday when they travel to Lawrenceville, NJ to take on Rider at Alumni Gym.

Game 16 (10-6) (2-3) — Iona College 69, Rider 49

MAAC Game
Lawrenceville, NJ - Alumni Gym
January 9, 2010

LAWRENCEVILLE, NJ - Sophomore Scott Machado scored a career-high 24 points and junior Alejo Rodriguez posted a career-best 17 rebounds in Iona's 69-49 victory over Rider in MAAC at Alumni Gym.

Junior Rashon Dwight put the Gaels (10-6, 2-3 MAAC) ahead for good in the game midway through the first half. His trifecta from the corner gave the team a 16-13 advantage with 10:38 to play in the frame. Iona tightened up its defensive intensity over the final eight minutes allowing just two Rider (9-8, 2-3 MAAC) field goals and ending the half on a 15-5 run to take an 11-point, 37-26 lead into the intermission.

Iona held no less than a seven-point advantage throughout the second half and was ahead by double digits for the majority of the stanza. The Broncs' cut the deficit to 10 points with just over five minutes to play. A minute later, Rider senior Ryan Thompson picked up his fifth and disqualifying foul. Dwight's ensuing free throws sparked a 7-0 Iona run as the team posted 14 of the game's final 18 points.

Dwight had 12 points and four assists while rookie Mike McFadden posted 10 points in the win. Machado complimented his point total with six rebounds and four assists. Rodriguez scored just two points in the game on 1-of-3 shooting from the field.

Machado's 24 points were the most since former teammate Devon Clarke pasted the same number at Fairfield on Dec. 7, 2008. Rodriguez' 17 rebounds were the most since Gary Springer had 16 at Niagara on Feb. 16, 2008.

Rider was led by senior Ryan Thompson's 14 points and four assists before he fouled out with just over four minutes to play. Junior Justin Robinson had 10 points while his classmate Mike Ringgold grabbed eight boards.

The Maroon & Gold completes its season-long six-game road trip at Loyola on Monday night (Jan. 11). The Gaels look to go 4-2 on the trip while evening their MAAC record at 3-3.

Game 17 (11-6) (3-3) — Iona College 59, Loyola 50

MAAC Game
Baltimore, MD - Reitz Arena
January 11, 2010

BALTIMORE, MD - Iona out lasted Loyola 59-50 in MAAC action at Reitz Arena. The Gaels (11-6, 3-3 MAAC) used a late 8-0 run in the second half to pull away and complete their season long road trip at 4-2.

Iona opened up a 9-2 lead in the first 2:26 of the contest. Loyola battled back and knotted the score at 9-9 with 13:55 to play. Iona held a low single-digit advantage through out the remainder of the half and the game was tied by the Greyhounds on four other occasions on the half but the Gaels would never relinquish the lead. Junior Alejo Rodriguez' put back put Iona ahead 28-26 heading into halftime.

The second half was much like the first in that the Maroon & Gold struggled to pull away. Loyola junior Brian Rudolph hit a driving layup to make the score 35-32 with 16:30 to play. That would be the Greyhounds lone field goal for nearly 10 minutes. Shane Walker ended the drought but unfortunately Iona could not capitalize and led 42-39. Sophomore Rashard McGill's layup at 4:59 sparked an 8-0 run over the next 1:41 that sealed the game. Junior Rashon Dwight capped the run with two free throws.

McGill and classmate Kyle Smyth led the way with 12 points a piece. Rodriguez added 11 points and nine rebounds while Dwight netted 10 points in the win. Sophomore Scott Machado's five assists led all performers.

The Gaels shot just 38.6% from the field, slightly better than the Greyhounds' 38.1%. Loyola out rebounded the visitors 39-31, converted two more three pointers and one more free throw. The difference in the contest proved to be Iona's 22 forced turnovers compared to just the nine they committed. In turn, the Gaels held a 22-8 advantage in points off turnovers. It was the third straight game that the team committed 10 or less turnovers.

Rudolph and sophomore Anthony Winbush scored 13 points a piece to lead Loyola. The Greyhounds' leading scorer entering the game, junior Jamal Barney, was held to just six points while senior Brett Harvey was unable to play due to injury.

Game 18 (12-6) (4-3) — Iona College vs. Niagara

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
January 16, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona opened up the game with a 13-4 run and never looked back in a 64-47 win over Niagara in MAAC action at the Hynes Center. The Gaels picked up their third straight win and have won eight of their last 10 since starting the conference season with two home losses.

The Maroon & Gold led by as many as 19 points in the first half when freshman Keon Williams jump hook off a sweet feed from sophomore Scott Machado made the score 33-14 at the 5:42 mark. The Purple Eagles got to within 11 points but three Gael free throws in the final 90 seconds pushed their halftime lead to 40-26.

Niagara pushed the score within 10 points on two occasions including a 46-37 deficit at the 12:37 mark after junior Anthony Nelson's transition layup. Sophomore Jermel Jenkins hit a three-pointer in the corner and senior Milan Prodanovic converted a conventional three-point play to push the margin back to 15 points with 11:15 to play. Iona held the double-digit advantage the rest of the way, matching its game-high of 19 on a Prodanovic jumper at 3:28.

Machado and junior Alejo Rodriguez led the way with 12 points a piece. Machado dished out four assists and had four rebounds in 33 minutes of play. Rodriguez shot 6-of-7 from the field in 15 minutes due to foul trouble. After being held scoreless in his last four appearances, Prodanovic broke out for an 11-point effort draining two three pointers. Senior Jonathan Huffman's six rebounds off the bench led the Gaels.

Nelson scored 15 points with the assistance of a 7-for-10 performance from the free throw line. Senior Tyrone Lewis had 10 points while the Maroon & Gold held the Purple Eagles' No. 2 scorer on the season, Bilal Benn, to just three points in the win.

Iona held its opponent to just 28.0% shooting from the field and out rebounded them 38-36.

Game 19 (13-6) (5-3) — Iona College 72, Rider 59

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
January 18, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona continued its hot streak with its fourth straight win and ninth in the last 11 games in a 72-59 victory over Rider in MAAC action at the Hynes Center. The Gaels were led by sophomore Scott Machado's game-high 20 points in the victory.

Sophomore Trinity Fields also got in to the double-digit scoring column with a season-best 12 points off the bench. Junior Alejo Rodriguez netted eight points and nine boards while senior Milan Prodanovic drained three first-half three pointers accounting for his nine points. Sophomore Jermel Jenkins had a solid all around game, scoring just four points but dishing out six assists while setting a season-high with seven rebounds.

The Gaels out shot the Broncs 48.1%-44.0% while also holding a 40-26 advantage on the boards.

The Maroon & Gold never trailed in the game. A decisive first half, 11-2 run put Iona ahead 20-10 with 11:18 to play. Fields' conventional three-point play capped the run that lasted for just over four minutes. Rider cut the deficit to three points with 2:03 remaining in the first half but the Gaels' scored the frame's final three points to take a 35-29 advantage into the intermission.

Iona quickly moved their lead into double-digits in the second half. Machado drained a three-pointer from the top of the key and then had a steal and a lay up on the ensuing Bronc possession to make the score 40-29 less than a minute into the half. Down nine points at the 16:32 mark, the Broncs went on a 9-2 run to cut Iona's lead to 45-41 just under a minute and a half later on senior Ryan Thompson's three-point play.

Rookie Kyle Smyth responded to the potential game changing run on the next possession, hitting a three-pointer from the corner to give the Gaels a seven point lead. Up six with under 12 minutes to play, Iona went on an 8-0 run that pushed the team's lead over 10 points, a margin they would not relinquish. Freshman Rashard McGill's jumper gave Iona a 59-45 lead with 10:26 to play.

Game 20 (14-6) (6-3) — Iona College 56, Manhattan 53

MAAC Game
Riverdale, NY - Draddy Gym
January 22, 2010

RIVERDALE, NY – Everyone in the gym knew that Rico Pickett was going to take the final shot. Few, however, thought he'd fail to get the ball in the air.

Iona's swarming defense - led by sophomore Jermel Jenkins - stopped the Manhattan star from even getting off a shot and the Iona College men's basketball team won their fifth-straight game 56-53.

Pickett had 22 points and was the Jaspers go-to guy on their final few possessions, especially since senior co-star Darryl Crawford had to come out of the game with a minor leg injury. But the Gaels were ready to shut down the 6-4 junior.

"Coach knew that he was going to get it," Jenkins said of Pickett. "He just said, 'contain him and when he shoots, to try and contest the shot, and hopefully he'll miss it.'"

Nobody at Draddy Gymnasium will ever know if he would have missed it. Jenkins got a finger on the ball and Kyle Smyth picked it up and was fouled. He calmly stepped to the line and made both free throws, extending the lead to three and forcing a desperation heave from half court to end the game.

Iona head coach Kevin Willard had high praise for his sophomore guard, who finished with only five points but made his biggest contributions on the defensive side. "I really think when Mel puts his mind to it and decides to play defense on somebody, he can lock up anybody in the country,"

That's why he had him on Pickett on the final possession of the game, a move that paid off.

It was a team effort on the defensive end for the Gaels though as they held Manhattan to only three points in the final 6:59, and scoreless over the final 3:57. For the game the Jaspers shot 32.8% from the field and committed 17 turnovers.

It wasn't a highlight-worthy night on offense for Iona but it was a major improvement from last year's game at Draddy.

"I think we had more points in the first half than we did all (of last year's game)," Willard joked.

He wasn't far off. Iona's 32 first half points were only seven points shy of their total output in last year's contest. Freshmen guards Rashard McGill and Smyth led the way for the Gaels. McGill finished with 13 points on 5-of-8 shooting and added seven rebounds while Smyth posted 10 and 9.

Willard believes the 18 road games his team played a season

Game 21 (15-6) (7-3) — Iona College 68, Fairfield 58

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
January 24, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona rallied from a 10-0 deficit to start the game in a 68-58 win over Fairfield in MAAC action at the Hynes Center. The Gaels' coupled with a Saint Peter's victory on the road over Canisius forced a three-way tie for second place in the MAAC standings through 10 games.

Iona used a hot long distance shooting touch in the game to top the Stags, draining 11-of-26 three-point attempts compared to 10-for-24 from inside the arc.

With Fairfield leading 10-0 less than three minutes into the game, the Maroon & Gold slowly chipped away at the deficit and took a 18-17 lead with 8:15 to play on rookie Kyle Smyth's three-pointer from the win. Fairfield scored six of the next seven points to earn a 23-19 advantage on an Anthony Johnson dunk at 6:04. The Gaels began their three-point barrage, hitting three in an 11-0 run to take the lead for good. Senior Milan Prodanovic hit a two from the corner with a foot on the line to give Iona a 24-23. Prodanovic' tally was followed up by sophomore Jermel Jenkins and senior Jonathan Huffman's back-to-back three pointers. Fairfield's Yorel Hawkins scored twice from the charity stripe to make the margin 30-25 entering halftime.

In the second half, Hawkins' three-point play at 17:03 knotted the score 32-32. The Gaels continued their torrid shooting and went on a 17-6 run over the next 6:55. Back-to-back trifectas by Prodanovic and Huffman put the score at 49-38 with 11:08 to play. Iona's advantage never fell below eight the rest of the way. Jenkins, Prodanovic and sophomore Scott Machado combined for a 9-for-10 effort from the free throw line in the final 3:32 of the contest.

Iona's bench dominated the scoreboard, tallying 50 of Iona's 68 points. The Gaels' reserves out scored their opponents' 50-5. Jenkins led Iona with 14 points, seven assists and a steal. The senior tandem of Prodanovic and Huffman had 13 a piece in a combined 31 minutes with 6-of-12 shooting from downtown. Junior Alejo Rodriguez grabbed eight rebounds.

The Stags' Johnson had 25 points to lead scorers. Rookie Derek Needham added 15 while Hawkins had 11 in the loss.

Game 22 (16-6) (8-3) — Iona College 61, Marist 42

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
January 28, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY -- The last time these two teams played, Marist ended Iona's season with a three-point win in the opening round of the MAAC Championship. The Gaels finished with a 12-19 record, tied for seventh in the conference. After a 62-41 victory at the Hynes Center, that loss must seem like a lifetime ago for Kevin Willard.

The head coach for the men's basketball team can't help but be pleased with the unbelievable strides this team has made since then. The Gaels have now won seven in a row, building on their longest streak since January 2006. Tonight's victory, much like Friday's win over Manhattan, can be credited to the defense.

"We wanted to come out and try to limit their three-point attempts," Willard said. "They're a good three-point shooting team. They depend on that a lot." The Gaels held Marist to just 14 attempts, with two coming in the final minutes when the game was already decided. The Red Foxes only connected on four in the game. Iona also forced 22 turnovers and picked up a season-high 14 steals and nine blocked shots, all while holding Marist to 32.6% shooting.

The star on the defensive end was undoubtedly junior forward Alejo Rodriguez, who was able to stay out of foul trouble and shut down Marist's frontcourt players. He blocked five shots, a season high for Iona, and grabbed 11 rebounds.

Offensively, however, Rodriguez was very productive as well, notching 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting. He was aided by several nice passes from sophomore point guard Scott Machado, who tallied a game-high six assists to go along with his 14 points.

Machado and Rodriguez had a nice two-man game working all night. At one point early in the second half, when it looked like Marist was creeping back into the game, cutting the lead to eight, the Iona duo took over. Rodriguez slammed home a Kyle Smyth miss, followed it up with a steal during the Gaels' ensuing full-court press, and dished it to Machado for a lay-up.

On Marist's next possession, Rodriguez blocked a shot, then hustled down the court and converted a nice dish from Machado, drawing a foul in the process. Just a moment later, the junior registered another block and yet another lay-up off a Machado pass and the Iona lead was suddenly back to 14.

The Gaels had a lead to protect because of their great start. They were hitting shots and forcing turnovers and were up 12-0 before Marist knew what hit them. Iona led 26-9 at one point and 30-17 at half. The Red Foxes mini-run to start the second half was all they could muster, and it was never in doubt from the 14-minute mark.

Game 23 (17-6) (9-3) — Iona College 72, Canisius 53

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
February 1, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - What a difference a month makes. The Iona College men's basketball team last lost a game on Jan. 4, a 77-65 defeat in Buffalo to Canisius. The Gaels returned the favor at the Hynes Athletics Center tonight, beating the Golden Griffins 72-53. Iona has now won eight straight, its longest streak since 2000.

Looking at the box scores from the two games, you wouldn't know this was the same Iona team. In Buffalo, the Gaels shot seven-for-30 from deep and let the Griffs get to the line a whopping 32 times. Tonight was a completely different story. Iona shot 47% to Canisius' 38%. Frank Turner, who scored 18 in the last match-up, only scored 11 and turned it over eight times.

The Gaels have certainly been doing the latter since that loss and it's resulted in nothing but wins. Head coach Kevin Willard believes the most significant change has come on the defensive end.

"We've really changed our mind set on defense," Willard said. "I thought we were playing a little too passive the first time we played them. We wanted to be more aggressive and try to get the ball out of Turner's hands as much as possible."

Sophomore Jermel Jenkins continued to show why Willard believes he is one of the best on-ball defenders in the country, as he racked up an eye-popping seven steals. But it was forward Alejo Rodriguez who Willard praised after the victory. The junior recorded his second straight double-double, notching game highs in points (15) and rebounds (10).

"He really is the backbone to our team," Willard said of his veteran enforcer. "I think he's playing extremely aggressive on both ends... Everyone knows that he's back there to help out and he does a great job of stepping up and rotating and making a difference on defense."

Rodriguez echoed his coach's sentiments, believing that while Iona has played efficient offense, it's been the defense that has keyed the winning streak.

"We bought into the system and finally figured out that the best way for us to win is to play defense every night," Rodriguez said. "Offense comes and goes but as long as we play solid defense we'll be able to stay in every game."

Even when the Gaels' full-court press wasn't forcing turnovers, it was disrupting the Griffs offense and forcing them into tough shots. Canisius' Greg Logins scored 20 the last time these teams met. Tonight he managed only six.

Game 24 (17-7) (9-4) — Siena 88, Iona College 68

MAAC Game
Albany, NY - Times Union Center
January 24, 2010

ALBANY, NY - The Iona College men's basketball team didn't ascend to No. 2 in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference standings by accident. The Siena Saints aren't No. 1 for no reason, either, and they showed why they are regarded as the conference's elite team with an 88-68 victory over the Gaels tonight at the Times Union Center.

Iona hung with Siena for the first half, trailed by only 10 at the break and immediately cut the lead to eight on a thunderous dunk by junior forward Alejo Rodriguez to start the second frame. But Siena went on a 15-4 run over the next three minutes to extend its lead to 53-34, and the Saints never looked back.

One recipe for an upset is to out score your opponent from beyond the three-point line. The Gaels came up well short in this department, shooting 4-for-18 from deep. The Saints, however, were an impressive 9-for-17 from downtown. Siena also got to the free throw line more, converting 25 times to Iona's 18.

"We were going to have to pitch a perfect game," Iona head coach Kevin Willard said about his team's chances coming into the game. "I just think (Siena's) a terrific basketball team."

Hard to argue with Willard after tonight's game. Four Saints scored in double figures, with Alex Franklin leading the way with 23 points. Clarence Jackson hit six threes en route to a 20-point performance. In total the Saints shot 50 percent from the field compared to Iona's 38.

Willard also spoke about Siena's edge in a category that doesn't show up in the box score: experience. Iona started two juniors, a sophomore, and two freshmen. Siena? Three seniors and two juniors. This may have been the biggest game many of the Gaels have played in; this experienced Siena squad is used to big games like this. The Times Union Center was sold out and the crowd was very energetic.

For the MAAC's second-place team, it wasn't a completely discouraging performance, despite the score. The Gaels' eight-game winning streak was snapped, but Rodriguez kept his double-double streak alive by recording 16 points and a game-high 15 boards. He has now achieved the feat in three consecutive games. Sophomore Scott Machado led all scorers with 24 points on eight-of-14 shooting. Iona's two stars were in foul trouble in the second half, however, each playing with four fouls.

"I was proud of my kids," Willard said. "We battled hard, we played hard... I think I have a great basketball team."

Game 25 (18-7) (10-4) — Iona College 56, Marist 51

MAAC Game
Poughkeepsie, NY - McCann Center
February 7, 2010

POUGHKEEPSIE, NY - Sophomore Scott Machado scored a game-high 17 points and junior Rashon Dwight added 12 to help lead Iona to a 57-51 victory over Marist in MAAC action at the McCann Center. The Gaels were able to hold off the Red Foxes who charged back from a 13-point first half deficit in the contest.

Iona scored the first eight points of the contest and led 17-4 through the first 10 minutes. After holding Marist without a field goal during the stretch, the home team went on a 10-0 run to battle back to within three points at the 8:25 mark. The Gaels held a single-digit lead until 3:21 left in the half when junior Daye Kaba knotted the score at 3:21. Senior Jonathan Huffman's three-pointer just under two mintues later gave the Maroon & Gold a 31-28 advantage heading into the break.

Machado and Dwight scored the first five points of the second half to put Iona ahead 36-28 less than 90 seconds in. Marist battled back and cut the deficit to two points, but that's as close as they would get. The Gaels could not break free from the Red Foxes, maintaining a single-digit advantage for the duration of the game. A Machado layup with 7:51 to play accounted Iona's final field goal of the game. The Gaels were a perfect 10-for-10 from the free throw line and played solid defense to hold off any Marist charge.

"It's a road win in February," said Iona head coach Kevin Willard. "I can't be disappointed with anything in this game. Both teams played great defense and made it tough for each other to score. We look forward to getting back to work though in practice and getting ready for Manhattan at home on Friday."

Machado shot 5-of-12 from the field and was a perfect 6-for-6 from the free throw line. He has converted 18 straight attempts in the last four contests. Dwight was 4-for-8 from the field. Junior Alejo Rodriguez played a season-high 31 mintues and had nine points with a team-best 10 rebounds. Rodriguez posted his fourth straight game with 10 or more rebounds, missing a double-double for the first time in the stretch by a single point.

Marist rookie Candon Rusin had 17 for the home team while Kaba added 10 in the loss.

Game 26 (18-8) (10-5) — Manhattan 66, Iona College 60

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
February 12, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona could not erase a 19-point halftime deficit in its 66-60 loss to Manhattan in MAAC action at the Hynes Center. The Gaels scored the second half's first 11 points, but could not get any closer than three points in the defeat.

Trailing 40-21 at the break, head coach Kevin Willard inserted four freshmen and a sophomore to begin the second half. Freshmen Keon Williams, Kyle Smyth and Ben Mockford combined for 24 of Iona's 39 points in the final frame. The trio along with classmate Chris Pelcher and sophomore Scott Machado methodically cut Manhattan's lead to under 10 points and held their opponent scoreless over the first 6:20 of the half. The Jaspers answered with seven straight points of their own. Back-to-back three pointers by Smyth and sophomore Jermel Jenkins began a see-saw battle that saw Manhattan's lead stay around the double-digit mark. A late Gael run was capped by Smyth's season-high fourth three-pointer of the game and cut the deficit to 62-59 with less than 23 seconds remaining. After two Manhattan free throws, Iona turned the ball over and tw more freebies sealed the contest.

Smyth's 12 points led the Gaels. He added four rebounds, two assists and two key blocked shots in the contest. Machado scored nine of his 11 points in the second half. He had five rebounds and three assists. Mockford matched his season-high with nine points, on 3-of-7 shooting from beyond the arc. Junior Rashon Dwight had a team-best seven rebounds.

The Jaspers were led by junior Rico Pickett's 24 points. The MAAC's leading scorer shot 8-for-17 from the field. Senior Darryl Crawford had 14, while rookie Mohamed Koita had 10 before leaving the game with an injury early in the second half.

Game 27 (19-8) (11-5) — Iona College 70, Loyola 62

MAAC Game
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
February 14, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY - Iona led wire-to-wire for the 10th time this season in a 70-62 win over Loyola in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference action at the Hynes Center. The Gaels held on in the second half after seeing a 14-point halftime lead cut to just three points midway through the second half.

The Gaels jumped out to an 8-0 lead on the heels of three-point field goals by rookie Kyle Smyth and sophomore Scott Machado. After the Greyhounds scored six straight to cut the lead to two points, senior Jonathan Huffman hit a trifecta at the 14:43 mark to give Iona a 13-6 advantage. Leading by five a little over a minute later, the Maroon & Gold embarked on a 6-0 run to take their first double-digit lead of the game. Machado's jumper in the lane put Iona ahead 21-10 at the 11:24 mark. The Gaels maintained a cushion of at least seven points throughout the remainder of the half. Sophomore Trinity Fields' three-pointer in the final minute gave the home team their largest lead of the half at 40-26.

In the second half, two Rashon Dwight free throws pushed Iona's lead to 46-31 with 17:45 to play. The Greyhounds scored nine straight points to cut the deficit to just six points just under four minutes later. With less than 12 minutes to play, Loyola senior Brett Harvey was fouled on a three-point attempt and sank all three free throws to get the visitors to within three points at the 11:41 mark. The two teams traded buckets before Huffman drained back-to-back three pointers to push Iona's lead back to nine points at 8:19. The Greyhounds would not get any closer than seven points the rest of the way.

Machado's 12 points led the Gaels. He shot 3-of-4 from the field including his first half three pointer and 5-of-8 from the charity stripe in 24 minutes of play. Huffman added 11 points with three long balls while Fields posted his second double-digit effort of the year with 10 points. Rookie Mike McFadden's five rebounds and Dwight's four assists were both team bests. All 12 players that appeared in the contest for Iona factored in the scoring.

Loyola sophomore J'Hared Hall had 14 points while Harvey and classmate Jawaan Wright each had 13 in the loss.

Game 28 (20-8) — Iona College 69, William & Mary 53

ESPN Bracketbusters
New Rochelle, NY - Hynes Center
February 19, 2010

NEW ROCHELLE, NY— William & Mary had gone into the gyms of top-tier ACC schools Wake Forest and Maryland and come out with a victory. Doing so at the Hynes Center was not nearly as easy.

Iona beat the Tribe 69-53 in front of a raucous, sell out home crowd earlier tonight in a nationally-televised ESPN Bracketbusters contest. The Gaels shot an impressive 48% from the field and 42% from downtown, though those numbers are watered down by below-average shooting in the final minutes. When it really counted, it seemed as if Iona couldn't miss. The Gaels shot an eye-popping 63% in the first half; after going ahead 18-17 with 7:09 left, they never trailed again, leading 36-23 at the break.

It was the start of the second half when Iona blew the game open, going on a 14-3 run out of the locker room to open up a 24-point lead. The Tribe didn't get the deficit below 17 until 2:21 left in the game. Iona hit enough foul shots (18 in total) to make sure there was no miracle comeback.

William & Mary, the third-place team in the CAA, entered the contest seeking its 20th win of the season. It would be the Gaels, though, that would reach the 20-win mark this evening, the first time Iona has done that since the 2005-06 season. As an added bonus, it was Senior Night, and Iona's three seniors—Prodanovic, Jonathan Huffman, and David Nelson—were honored in a pre-game ceremony.

"I think this is as good a win as we've had since I've been here," Iona head coach Kevin Willard said. "To get it against a good, quality team, and to do it at home on Senior Night, I think that's special."

The senior who had the biggest impact on the court tonight was the 7-footer Huffman, who hit three three-pointers and scored 12 points. He drained two of his outside shots from well behind the line, shooting with a confident stroke that every Gael seemed to have tonight.

It wasn't just the seniors who got it done for the Gaels tonight. The inside-outside combination of sophomore Scott Machado and junior Alejo Rodriguez was productive yet again. Machado scored a team-high 17 points, while Rodriguez scored 12 and grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

"Milan and I came in together, so it was really special to me," Rodriguez said about Senior Night. "We poured our hearts out on the court. The fans really helped. They were into the game. It was a great atmosphere to play in."

Machado echoed his teammate's sentiment. "It was an emotional night, of course," the point guard said. "We just made sure that (the seniors) went out on a win. All three of them played big tonight."

Game 29 (20-9) (11-6) — Fairfield 71, Iona College 53

MAAC Game
Bridgeport, CT - Arena at Harbor Yard
February 26, 2010

BRIDGEPORT, CT - Iona dropped a 71-54 decision to Fairfield in MAAC action at the Arena at Harbor Yard. Freshman Kyle Smyth led the way for the Gaels (20-9, 11-6 MAAC) with 12 points in the loss.

Smyth shot 4-of-6 from beyond the arc to account for his point total while matching his career-high with the four trifectas. Sophomore Scott Machado had eight points and three assists, while junior Alejo Rodriguez chipped in eight points and 10 rebounds, six on the offensive end.Senior Jonathan Huffman had eight points for Iona in 19 minutes off the bench.

The Stags jumped out to a 16-point halftime lead with the help of a 19-4 run to end the first stanza including 10 straight heading into the break. A Rodriguez layup with 14:47 left in the game cut Iona's deficit to just eight points, but Fairfield scored 11 of the next 13 points to take a commanding, 17-point lead.

Anthony Johnson led Fairfield with 28 points and 12 rebounds.

With the loss, the Stags clinched the No. 2 seed in the MAAC Championship next weekend. The Gaels can lock up the No. 3 seed on Sunday in the regular season finale with a win over Saint Peter's at the Yanitelli Center. With a loss, Iona would fall to fourth place.

Game 30 (21-9) (12-6) — Iona College 49, Saint Peter's 48

MAAC Game
Jersey City, NJ - Yanitelli Center
February 28, 2010

JERSEY CITY, NJ - Sophomore Scott Machado sank two free throws with 5.8 seconds remaining and classmate Jermel Jenkins came up stripped the ball away to force a Saint Peter's turnover on the final possession as Iona gritted out a 49-48 win over the Peacocks in the MAAC finale at the Yanitelli Center.

Both teams played lockdown defense to keep the scoring total low in the game. Saint Peter's held a 27-24 advantage at halftime while holding Iona to just 32.0% shooting. The Gaels turned up the defense in the second frame, allowing the host Peacocks to just 26.9% shooting from the field.

Midway through the second half, Iona held its largest lead of the game when Jermel Jenkins drained a three-pointer from the wing to make the score 42-37. Saint Peter's junior Wesley Jenkins answered with a trifecta of his own to cut the deficit to two points at 9:21. The next points were scored nearly four minutes later. Junior Ryan Bacon knotted the score at 42-42 at the 4:54 mark. After trading buckets over the next two and a half minutes, Bacon put the home team ahead 48-44 with 2:14 to play. It would be the last points that the Peacocks would score in the game.

Out of a timeout with 90 ticks left, Machado drove the lane and found a wide open Kyle Smyth in the corner. The red-shirt freshman calmly drained his third three-pointer of the day to cut Iona's deficit to a single point with 1:18 on the clock. On the next possession, the Peacocks' Jordan Costner was fouled and missed the front end of a one-and-one. Junior Alejo Rodriguez corralled the rebound with 46 seconds left. Machado's first effort was blocked but he gained the offensive rebound. The Gaels called their final timeout with 20 seconds remaining to set up the last opportunity. Freshman Steven Samuels fouled Machado on his drive to the lane setting up the chance for the game winning free throws.

After a Saint Peter's timeout, Leon drove on Jenkins, who got a hand on the ball and deflected it off the Peacock junior out of bounds to seal the game. It was the second game-winning defensive stop of the season for Jenkins. The sophomore recorded a steal on Manhattan's Rico Pickett on the road in the final five seconds of a two-point win on Jan. 22.

Jermel Jenkins led the Gaels with 13 points on 5-of-8 shooting and 3-of-5 from beyond the arc. Machado had 10

Game (21-10) 31 Niagara 68, Iona College 64
MAAC Championship Quarterfinal
Albany, NY - Times Union Center
March 6, 2010

ALBANY, NY — When the MAAC Tournament bracket was set, many pointed to the Iona-Niagara game as the best match up of the early rounds, and it certainly lived up to the hype. Unfortunately for the Maroon & Gold it was on the losing end, falling 68-64 at the Times Union Center.

The Gaels had defeated Niagara twice already this season, scoring 63 and 64 points in the wins. The 64 points Iona tallied tonight was just not quite enough, though the outcome was in doubt until the final seconds. Jermel Jenkins' three-pointer with eight seconds cut the deficit to just two, but Niagara's senior guard Tyrone Lewis hit both foul shots on the ensuing possession to seal the game. By that time it was nearly 1 a.m.

"It was a very tough game," Iona head coach Kevin Willard said. "I'm very proud of my kids. They played hard. We played well; (Niagara) just played a little better."

Iona started and ended the first half on mini-runs and led 32-30 at the break. The lead swung back and forth throughout the second half, and a lay-up by freshman Rashard McGill put the Gaels up 54-53 with 3:11 to play. The next basket was a Lewis three-pointer, and Iona never led again.

The Purple Eagles have a lot of tournament experience, having been in the championship game two of the last three years. They start three seniors, a junior, and a sophomore, and with all of them healthy, they were an incredibly dangerous six seed. Iona, on the other hand, relies on mostly underclassmen.

"They've got a terrific program down there," Niagara head coach Joe Mihalich said. "Kevin did just an unbelievable job keeping those guys together. They're a selfless team. They're the most selfless team in the whole league; that's why they're so good. They're going to be terrific in the years to come."

A big – perhaps the biggest – factor of the game was the foul shooting discrepancy. Niagara attempted and made 15 more free throws than Iona. To be able to get 33 points from the charity stripe, especially in such a close game, is critical. But at least part of Niagara's ability to get to the line has to be credited to their experienced players.

The Gaels, despite losing, still gained some valuable experience that will hopefully help them down the road. In reflecting on the season, Willard could hold his head high. "If someone told me we would have been 21-10 at the end of the season, with starting two freshman, two sophomores and a junior most of the year, I would have told them they were crazy," he said. "I'm extremely proud of our kids. I love my team."

Earning the three seed in this Tournament was quite the accomplishment

METRO ATLANTIC ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

With 10 institutions strongly bound by the sound principles of quality and integrity in academics and excellence in athletics, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference is in its 29th year of competition during the 2009-2010 academic year.

The MAAC was founded in 1980 by six charter members: the U.S. Military Academy, Fairfield University, Fordham University, Iona College, Manhattan College and Saint Peter's College. Competition followed one year later in the fall of 1981 with members competing in the sports of men's cross country and men's soccer. On January 2, 1982, Army traveled to Iona for the first MAAC men's basketball game and the MAAC story had begun.

Today, Conference members include: Canisius College, Fairfield University, Iona College, Loyola University Maryland, Manhattan College, Marist College, Niagara University, Rider University, Saint Peter's College, and Siena College. In addition, associate members the University of Detroit Mercy, Mount St. Mary's University, Saint Joseph's University, Virginia Military Institute and Wagner College compete in men's lacrosse. St. Francis (N.Y.) College, Villanova University and Wagner College are all associate members of the MAAC Women's Water Polo League. Drake University and Sacred Heart University compete in women's rowing, while the University at Albany, Boston University and the University of Hartford begin competition in women's golf this season. The MAAC will support 24 sports and championships during the 2009-2010 academic year.

The MAAC Basketball Championships return to the Times Union Center in Albany, New York, for 2010, with Bridgeport's Arena at Harbor Yard preparing to host the 2011 championship. By having an excellent working relationship with various facilities, the MAAC has been able to attract a number of NCAA Championship events. Most recently, the MAAC, Canisius College and Niagara University successfully hosted the 2004 and 2007 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship First and Second Rounds at the HSBC Arena in Buffalo, New York. All three parties will host that event again in 2010. The MAAC and Rider University co-hosted the 2009 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship Regional at the Sovereign Bank Arena in Trenton, N.J., after recording the third highest attendance figure for the women's championship with the First and Second Rounds in 2006.

MAAC Associate Sports

In June of 1995, the MAAC continued to develop opportunities for student-athletes as the conference announced the formation of the MAAC Men's and Women's Lacrosse Leagues. The men's league began competition in the spring of 1996, while the women's league commenced in the spring of 1997. The men's league consists of four MAAC schools -- Canisius, Manhattan, Marist, and Siena – and five associate members – Detroit Mercy, Mount St. Mary's, Saint Joseph's, Virginia Military Institute and Wagner. The women's league consists of MAAC institutions Canisius, Fairfield, Iona, Manhattan, Marist, Niagara and Siena.

In 2002, the MAAC added the MAAC Women's Water Polo League. The league is made up of three MAAC schools – Iona, Marist and Siena – as well as three associate members, St. Francis (N.Y.), Villanova and Wagner.

Sacred Heart started participating in MAAC Women's Rowing in the spring of 2008. Drake University will also join the league for the 2010 MAAC Championship.

In the summer of 2009, the MAAC added three associate members – Albany, Boston University and Hartford – to women's golf, with the programs starting competition against MAAC members Fairfield, Niagara and Siena in 2009-2010.

Academics and Athletics

The MAAC prides itself on the accomplishments of its student-athletes in the classroom, as well as on the field. Mary Beth Riley, a 1991 graduate of Canisius, was the first recipient of the NCAA Woman of the Year Award. In the fall of 1998, Erin Whalen, a member of the Iona women's rowing team, was awarded one of the nation's 32 Rhodes Scholarships for academic achievement and civic leadership. Jose Vargas, a Loyola student, was also awarded a Rhodes Scholarship in 1999.

First-class facilities are the rule with MAAC schools, as teams regularly play in top-notch arenas, such as Madison Square Garden, the IZOD Center, HSBC Arena, Times Union Center, the Arena at Harbor Yard and Sovereign Bank Arena. The other MAAC championships boast their share of outstanding locales as well, such as the fabled Van Cortlandt Park in the Bronx, where the cross country championships are contested, and Waterfront Park in Trenton, home of the 2008 and 2009 MAAC Baseball Championship. This year, the MAAC will take its women's soccer championship to Orlando, Florida, where it will conduct its post-season championships at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex. In 2010, the MAAC Volleyball Championship will be at Walt Disney World. The MAAC Men's and Women's Golf Championships will be held at Celebration Golf Club, located in Celebration, Florida, for the second consecutive year.

In the past several years, a number of the MAAC schools have also enjoyed success in NCAA Championships. MAAC schools have made a total of 74 NIT appearances and 43 NCAA appearances. In addition, Rider represented the league last season in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. The MAAC currently possesses 13 automatic bids to NCAA Championships in men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's golf, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's lacrosse, and women's water polo. In 2007, the Marist women's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 before falling to the eventual National Champion, the University of Tennessee. Last fall, the Iona men's cross country team earned a second-place finish for the second straight year at the NCAA Division I Cross Country Championships. Canisius softball, Manhattan track, Manhattan and Marist baseball and Loyola soccer and lacrosse have also flourished on the national stage.

The MAAC has also been a leader in the forefront of technology, expanding the notoriety of the league into cyberspace. In 2007, the league reached an agreement with JumpTV, Inc. to sponsor the MAAC web page. Launched in November 1999, www.maacsports.com has been a great success, providing fans with up-to-date contest results, multimedia content and an online merchandise store.

The MAAC President for the 2009-2010 academic year is Rev. Brian F. Linnane, S.J., the President of Loyola University Maryland. The Vice-President is Rev. Jeffrey von Arx, S.J., the President of Fairfield University. Bob Byrnes, Director of Athletics at Manhattan College, will chair the Committee on Athletic Administration, and Elizabeth Donohue, Assistant Athletic Director/Senior Woman Administrator at Marist College will serve as Vice Chair.

A Closer Look at:

Iona College

Students are choosing Iona in greater numbers than ever before. Maybe it's the recognition we've received in national publications or the state-of-the-art advances we've made in incorporating technology into academics or perhaps it's the quality of our student life that draws students to Iona's picturesque 35-acre campus, located only 15 miles from midtown Manhattan in suburban Westchester County.

CAMPUS ON THE CUTTING EDGE

Iona is ranked a best college in the northeast by The Princeton Review and by U.S. News & World Report. We've been named a "Top 50 Most Unwired Campus in America" by Intel Corporation, because we offer students 24/7 access to Iona's network, extensive library databases and the Web from anywhere on campus.

A medium-sized school with 3,322 undergraduate students, Iona offers over 40 majors and 30 minors from departments with prestigious accreditations. The Department of Mass Communication is a program in New York State accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (ACEJMC). In 2006, 11 Mass Communication students were chosen to intern with NBC for the Turin Olympics. The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) accredits Iona's Education Department; the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredits the College's Social Work Department; ABET (the Computing Accreditation Board of ABET) accredits Iona's undergraduate computer science degree; and the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy's accreditation body, COAMFTE, was accredited the Department of Pastoral Counseling and Marriage and Family Therapy. The Hagan School of Business is accredited by AACSB International –The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business – and is a well respected business school worldwide.

The new Arts Center features exhibits by world-renowned artists, and the College has hosted many notable speakers, most recently Presidential hopeful Rudy Giuliani and NBC News' Tim Russert. And Iona makes the grade in its commitment to sports. As one example, our cross-country team, one of 22 NCAA Division I athletic teams at the College, is ranked one of the top programs in the country.

STUDENT LIFE

With more than 70 clubs and organizations on campus, numerous local, national and international volunteer opportunities, and numerous social activities, there's always something to do.

Students can enjoy on-campus concerts by top billboard artists, take walking tours of nearby Manhattan, watch a movie in the new LaPenta Student Union, work out on the top-of-the-line fitness equipment in the new Hynes Athletics Center – or simply relax at one of the on-campus Starbucks.

Iona's faculty is committed to helping each individual realize and obtain the tools they need to achieve success. Since class sizes are small, students are immersed in a community dedicated to their personal, spiritual and intellectual growth. Students can opt to study abroad in Australia, France, Ireland, Italy and Spain; they can plan their futures at the Internship/Career Expo.

EARN A DEGREE THAT MATTERS

Iona alumni include leading executives at top Fortune 500 companies, surgeons, film directors, published writers, major league baseball players, Broadway musicians, and thousands of successful professionals. The current president and Co-COO of the NYSE and the current president and CEO of Nasdaq are both Iona College alumni.

CELEBRATING OVER 200 YEARS OF CHRISTIAN BROTHERS EDUCATION

Continuing in its commitment to provide an affordable education, Iona offers scholarships and financial aid to students. About 88 percent of Iona students receive financial aid.

Iona College Mission Statement

Iona College is a diverse community of learners and scholars dedicated to academic excellence in the tradition of the Christian Brothers and American Catholic higher education. We commit ourselves to education within the rich heritage of these legacies, especially intellectual inquiry and the values of justice, peace and service.

Iona College graduates will be sought after because they will be:

- ethical and skilled decision-makers and problem solvers motivated to leadership, service and civic responsibility;
- independent thinkers informed and enriched by a liberal arts education;
- lifelong learners skilled in and adaptable to new information and technologies; and
- individuals who integrate the spiritual, intellectual, civic, emotional and physical dimensions of their lives.

The Iona College Community will achieve these goals by dedicated teaching enhanced through creative research and scholarship, internships, career development and by participation of students, faculty, staff, administrators, alumni and board members in the many centers of excellence at Iona College.

Postseason Tournament Play

2006:

After rolling through the MAAC Tournament for a conference record seventh time in Albany, NY, Iona traveled to Jacksonville, FL and dropped a tough fought match against the No. 4 seeded LSU. The Gaels gave the eventual Final Four participant Tigers all they could handle, taking a five-point lead into halftime.

2001:

Following a repeat as MAAC Tournament Champions, the Gaels became a regular at the NCAA Tournament, appearing for the third time in four seasons. Playing in the Midwest Regional, Iona fell just two points short of upsetting SEC Champion and No. 3 seeded Ole Miss

2000:

Iona closed out the regular season winning 11 of 12 and swept through the MAAC Tournament, earning a spot in the Big Dance - the NCAA Tournament. The Gaels faced Maryland in the first round in Minneapolis, MN and lost, 74-59

	LSU 80, Iona 64

1998:

After roaring through the MAAC Tournament, the Gaels played Syracuse in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Rupp Arena in Lexington, KY. At the conclusion of an intense game-long see saw battle, Syracuse nips Iona at the buzzer on a desperation 22-footer

1997:

On the heels of their second-straight MAAC regular season championship, Iona makes a repeat visit to the National Invitation Tournament, playing UConn

1996:

Head Coach Tim Welsh leads the Gaels to a MAAC regular season title and a return to national postseason play in the NIT, where they face St. Joseph's at home in the first round

1980:

Iona Hall of Famer Jeff Ruland finishes his All-American season by guiding the Gaels to the NCAA East Regional Final, narrowly bowing to Georgetown, 74-71

1984, 1985:

Taking up where Jim Valvano left off, Pat Kennedy - now the head coach at Towson University - leads Iona to two more NCAA appearances while winning the MAAC Tournament three times in five years

1979:

Coaching legend Jim Valvano teaches his Iona teams to "Dare to Dream," as he mentors the Gaels into their first two NCAA Tournament appearances. Coach V would go onto lead NC State to the 1983 National Championship.

Iona College Goal Club Hall of Fame

The Iona College Goal Club Hall of Fame honors former athletes and friends of the athletics department who have shown exemplary performance and dedication to Iona College both on and off the playing fields. The men's basketball program is well-represented in the Hall of Fame, as 20 former players or coaches have earned the ultimate athletic honor bestowed by the College.

Dave Brown (above) who is a member of both the Hall of Fame and Legal Board of Trustees, was head coach Jim Valvano's first recruit at Iona. Brown captained the 1978-79 Iona team that finished 23-6 and made the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

The Iona College athletic department lost three of its friends and Hall of Fame Members this past year. Don Walsh (above, Inducted in 2005), Kevin Bass (right top, 1993), and Tom Burke (right bottom, 1996) were avid supporters of the men's basketball program and passed away. Their dedication to the College will truly be missed.

Below: Steve Burtt was inducted in the Hall of Fame in 1992. He is the school's all-time leading scorer and was one of only three Iona players to receive All-American honors

Left: Gary Springer became the 17th member of the men's basketball program to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. A three-time All-American, Springer ranks second on the school's all-time scoring list, with 1,866 points.

Far Left: Anthony Hargraves is one of the latest members of the basketball program to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. He is joined by Director of Athletics Patrick Lyons and Associate AD/ Development Corey Aronstam in August, 2007.

The Iona College Goal Club serves as the fund raising arm for the school's 21 NCAA Division I athletic programs. Membership in the Goal Club provides an opportunity for alumni, family and friends to have a positive impact on our success by directly supporting Iona Athletics. If you are not a member of the Goal Club, please consider joining. A portion of your gift is tax deductible and best of all, you will be supporting Iona's promising student-athletes. For more information contact Asst. AD/Development William Montanaro at 914-633-2071 or wmontanaro@iona.edu.
