TIP-OFF

The Marist women's basketball team wrapped up a three game Metro Atlantic Athletic conference road swing snapping a two game losing streak by defeating the Manhattan Jaspers last time out. This time around they take on Iona just a week removed from the two team's previous meeting. Iona emerged victorious, winning, 69-49, at the Hynes Athletic Center in New Rochelle. Tip-off for Friday night's game against Iona is scheduled for 7 p.m. as the Red Foxes kick-off their longest home stretch of the season with five consecutive games in the friendly confines of McCann Arena. The Gaels make their way to Poughkeepsie after snapping a 14 game losing streak at home and a three game losing streak overall to Marist. The Red Foxes currently hold the all-time series advantage at 35-11 and are 9-1 at home against Iona in the last ten meetings at McCann Arena with the team's only loss coming in the 2013-14 season.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Follow the official Twitter account of Marist Athletics (@MaristAthletics) for in-game updates. Also follow the Red Foxes on Facebook (facebook.com/GoRedFoxes) instagram and snapchat (MaristAthletics).

ON AIR

Friday's game will be broadcast live on 1450 WKIP in Poughkeepsie, with Geoff Brault providing play-by-play and Steve Eggink providing color analysis. Pregame show starts 15 minutes prior to tip-off. The audio broadcast will also be available online at the Red Fox Network and iHeart Radio. Video will be available on the Red Fox Network.

2015-16 GAME SEVENTEEN VS IONA

PRESS ROW

Press Row is located courtside on the west side of the basketball floor, across from the scorer's table and team benches. Only accredited members of the media, sports information staff, Marist College, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, and opponent's administrators are permitted at press row and MUST have a credential visible at all times.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Because of space limitations in the McCann Arena, all working press, radio and photographer credential requests should be directed to Harrison Baker, NO LESS THAN 48 HOURS prior to the game. Members of the working press will be seated on press row on the basis of space availability, and with preference being given to those outlets which cover Marist and its opponents on a regular basis. Requests will be honored for media members attending the game in an official capacity.

THIS DATE ...

January 15, 2012 - POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Brandy Gang (Hartville, Ohio) set a new career-high with 20 points on an impressive 8-11 shooting and the Marist women's basketball team improved to 6-0 in conference play with a 63-44 victory over visiting Niagara Sunday afternoon at McCann Arena. Corielle Yarde (Reading, Pa.) finished with 19 points, nine rebounds and handed out five assists while adding two blocks on the defensive end. Leanne Ockenden (Syracuse, N.Y) had six points and pulled down a career-high seven rebounds.

SCOUTING IONA

Iona's last game, a 79-56 win over Canisius, moved the team to 6-0 in MAAC play and 10-7 overall. Along with their win over the Griffins, the Gaels have earned conference wins over Fairfield, Rider, Manhattan, Marist and Saint Peter's and are led by senior Joy Adams and junior Marina Lizarazu. Adams leads the team in points and rebounds while Lizarazu controls the offense, leading the team in assists while also contributing in the scoring column as the team's second leading scorer. The Gaels also receive outside contributions from Aaliyah Robinson and Philecia Gilmore, both players shoot well from three point range.

VS IONA Series Record: 35-11
Current Streak: IONA, W1

RED FOX NATIONAL RANKINGS

Tori Jarosz currently sits 8th in blocked shots per game averaging 3.06, 7th in blocked shots overall with 49, 4th in double-doubles with eleven, 16th in rebounds per game with 10.9, and 11th in overall rebounds with 175. Allie Clement is currently ranked 90th in three-point field goals made with 36, 49th in three-point field goals made per game with 2.57, and ranked 76th in three-point field goal percentage at 38.7. Sydney Coffey ranks 65th in the nation in assists to turnover ratio, averaging 2.00.

CAPTAIN OF THE SHIP

At Marist as of the 2014-15 season, Head Coach Brian Giorgis is 325-99 (.767) overall, 214-34 (.863) in MAAC regular-season play and 33-3 (.917) in the MAAC Basketball Championships. He has led the Red Foxes to a conference-record 10 tournament championships, and 10 consecutive postseason appearances.

TWO AWAY FROM HISTORY

Two more program wins and the Marist women's basketball team will reach a milestone 600 victories. With 330 of those wins coming under Head Coach Brian Giorgis' watch, in just 13 seasons the Red Foxes have accumulated more than half of their program win total in close to a third of the time the program has been in existence (35th year as varsity).

BLOCK QUEEN

Tori Jarosz set Marist's single-season blocks record with 71 last year, and tied the program's single-game blocks record with seven against South Dakota on Dec. 21, 2014 and then did it again this season with seven blocks against Rider on Jan. 3, 2016. Jarosz has 144 career blocks as a Red Fox. The career record is 162, held by Diesa Siedel, who played at Marist from 1998-2002.

NEXT UP TO 1000

1,000-point watch: Sydney Coffey the newest member to the 1000 point club secured the milestone in the Red Foxes season opener against South Dakota State University; Tori Jarosz is the next closest Red Fox to the achievement with 917. Marist now has 23 players in program history who have scored 1,000 career points.

MAAC HONORS

The selection of Sydney Coffey and Tori Jarosz to the All-MAAC first team marks the eighth consecutive year the Red Foxes have had two or more players selected to the Preseason All-MAAC Teams but snaps a streak of seven straight years with three or more selections.

KEEPING IT IN CHECK

The Red Foxes are currently 4-0 this season when holding their opposition to under 60 points. Wins against Quinnipiac (47), Fairfield (57), Rider (54), and Boston University (54) have seen the team give their best winning effort when the defense is locked in. Of head coach Brian Giorgis' 329 career wins, 242 of them have come when his team holds the other team under 60.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Marist women's basketball team has been dominant at McCann Arena (formerly the McCann Center) since the 2003-04 season. The Red Foxes are 136-25 at home during the last 13 seasons. Marist won 26 consecutive home games from Nov. 18, 2005 to Dec. 12, 2007. That streak was the second-longest home court winning streak in the nation at the time. Marist has been exceptional at home in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference play over the last 12 seasons. The Red Foxes are 102-10 against MAAC teams at McCann Arena during this stretch. Seven of the past twelve seasons have seen Marist go perfect at McCann Arena in conference action. From Feb. 2009-Jan. 2014, Marist won 42 consecutive home games against MAAC opponents.

IT'S OPEN SEASON

Perennially one of if not the favorites in the MAAC, The Red Foxes have opened the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference slate of games with a win for 11 consecutive seasons and 12 of the last 13.

RECORD VS RANKED OPPONENTS

The Marist women's basketball team under Brian Giorgis hold a 2-14 record against ranked opposition. The Red Foxes two wins include a win 12/19/10 over #21 Nebraska 65-60 in 2010 at the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas and a 2014 win over #20 Oklahoma 76-69 at McCann Arena. The first ever win over a ranked opponent at home. The Red Foxes will play at least two ranked teams in their early season schedule (Louisville in the Gulf Coast Showcase and Princeton at home in McCann Arena).

PRO FOXES

Maria Laterza and Elizabeth Beynnon, who each were on four MAAC championship teams in their Marist careers, have extended their playing careers overseas. Laterza has competed professionally in Austria and Italy, and has suited up for the Italian national team. She also played for Italy in this year's Eurobasket Championships. As a member of Paddy Power Sesto San Giovanni this past season, Laterza averaged 11.6 points and a team-best 10.9 rebounds per game. Beynnon has played for SBK Samorin in Slovakia and Olivais in Portugal. With Olivais, Beynnon averaged team highs of 13.4 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. Beynnon was with the Red Foxes from 2009-13.

WIN IN-SEASON

The Red Foxes have either won or went undefeated in the following tournaments, the 2007 Oahu Classic, the 2008 FIU Fun and Sun Classic, the 2010 TD Bank Classic, the 2010 Duel in the Desert, and 2011 Cancun Challenge.

PACK THE HOUSE HISTORY JAN. 25, 2008

The Marist women's basketball program recorded its first sellout in program history on its inaugural "Pack the House" night, one of only six schools in the nation to record a sellout.

FEB. 6, 2009

Marist recorded its second sellout in program history, as the Red Foxes became the only program in the nation to "Pack the House" for the second straight season.

FEB. 4, 2011

The NCAA announced that Marist was the overall winner in the 2010-11 NCAA Division I "Pack the House" Challenge. Marist beat out 177 participating institutions which included sellout crowds by Army, Baylor, Duke, Gonzaga, Louisville, Michigan State, Navy, Oregon and Pacific.

Feb. 10, 2012

The Red Foxes again hosted a successful "Pack the House" as 2,692 fans watched Marist triumph in a first-place showdown with Fairfield, 60-54, in a "Pack the Prom" theme.

Feb. 22, 2013

Using the theme of "White Out," 2,671 fans saw the Red Foxes record a 69-44 triumph over Rider.

Feb. 8, 2014

A sellout crowd - the second of the season, a program record - saw the Red Foxes host Fairfield with a Hawaiian theme.

PACK THE HOUSE

"Pack the House" began as an NCAA initiative in which conferences and institutions compete to build attendance. Although the NCAA no longer sponsors "Pack the House," the Marist Athletics Department continues to carry on the tradition.

MAAC HONOR ROLL

The Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference held its annual MAAC Honor Roll dinner at the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame Court of Dreams. Marist's honorees were Ursula Winter and Steve Smith. Winter played at Marist from 1981-85. She was a standout for the Marist women's basketball program in its early days of Division I play, and her impact is evident in the record books 30 years after the conclusion of her career. Winter graduated as Marist's all-time leading scorer with 1,587 points. She held this record for a quarter-century, and remains one of just two players in program history to score over 1,500 career points.

MARIST AND BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

For the seventh straight year, the Marist Athletics Department partnered with the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) to host a "Play 4Kay" game, formerly known as "Pink Zone," when the Red Foxes defeated Quinnipiac by a score of 100-81 on Feb. 14, 2014. The Red Foxes have been actively involved in raising funds for breast cancer since 2003, and have raised thousands of dollars and reached over 17,000 fans at the McCann Center for these games. The 2012 game was particularly special for Marist assistant coaches Erin Leger and Alisa Kresge as their mothers, Margaret Leger and Diane Somers, who are both breast cancer survivors, served as the Red Foxes guest coaches for the game.

MILES OF HOPE BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION

Miles of Hope Breast Cancer Foundation is the primary beneficiary of Marist's "Play 4Kay" contest. A foundation based in the Hudson River Valley, Miles of Hope helps people in the Hudson Valley who are affected by breast cancer. The foundation serves eight counties: Dutchess, Greene, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Ulster and Westchester. The foundation was started by Dana Efron and Cathy Varunok who were both personally affected by breast cancer in their lives. The pair began their involvement with breast cancer fund raising at a national level, but decided to give back in their own community, the Hudson River Valley. Pari Forood serves as the Executive Director of the foundation and is responsible for all administrative aspects of the foundation including fund raising, public/media relations among other things. She coordinates four major fund raising events for the foundation each year, including the Hoops for Hope Women's Basketball Tournament, which is held at the James J. McCann Center in March.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION

The WBCA began the WBCA Play 4Kay®, formerly known as "Pink Zone" and "Think Pink", in 2007 as an initiative to raise breast cancer awareness in women's basketball, on campuses and in communities. The late Kay Yow, former North Carolina State University head women's basketball coach, served as the catalyst for the initiative after her third recurrence of breast cancer in 2006. The mission of the initiative is a nation of coaches raising breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses, in communities and beyond. The Kay Yow Cancer Fund will continue to be the official charity of the initiative. Founded in 1981, the WBCA promotes women's basketball by unifying coaches at all levels to develop a reputable identity for the sport and to foster and promote the development of the game as a sport for women and girls.

2015-16 GAME SEVENTEEN VS IONA

HC BRIAN GIORGIS

14TH SEASON

Career Record: 330-110

7-time MAAC Coach of the Year

Since arriving at Marist for the start of the 2002-03 season, Giorgis has taken the Red Foxes from a team struggling to reach .500 to national prominence. With his first team in 2002-03, a squad which had lost the fourth and fifth leading scorers in program history to graduation the prior year, Giorgis improved the Red Foxes' win total from 11 to 13. Marist also earned its first win in a MAAC Tournament game in school history with a first round triumph over Loyola.

Here is a list of accomplishments the Red Foxes have achieved since Giorgis' first season:

- Eclipsed 100 points for the first time under Giorgis on 12/18/13 vs. Northeastern (103-66). Scored 100 points again on 2/14/14 vs. Quinnipiac (100-81) for the first time against a MAAC opponent.
- Defeated two ranked opponents in his career: #21 Nebraska (12/19/10) and #20/19 Oklahoma (12/21/13)
- 12 consecutive 20-win seasons, eight straight 25-win seasons
- Two 30+ win seasons (2007-08, 2010-11), including a program record 32 wins in 2007-08
- Three perfect 18-0 records in the MAAC (2007-08, 2010-11, 2012-13)
- MAAC record 35-game winning streak against conference opponents (including postseason) between the 2006-07 and 2008-09 seasons. Also had a 34-game MAAC winning streak between the 2009-2010 and 2011-12 seasons. Both streaks are the only ones in MAAC history to reach the 30-game plateau.
- Ten winning streaks of 10 or more games, including two separate streaks in 2011-12. Three times those streaks have extended to 20 or more consecutive wins, including 27 in a row in 2010-11, which was the longest in the nation at the time.
- 31-2 record in the MAAC Tournament, including 26 consecutive wins. The Red Foxes were 0-5 before Giorgis' arrival.
- 5-10 record in the NCAA Tournament, including becoming the first MAAC program to reach the Sweet 16 (2007).
- Ten straight NCAA Tournament appearances is the longest active streak in the country of any school that does not belong to the SEC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, or ACC.
- Giorgis has been named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Coach of the Year seven times, five times outright (2003-04, 2007-08, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13) and a share of the award on two other occasions (2004-05, 2005-06).
- Marist has ranked in the top 50 in the nation in scoring defense in each of the last ten seasons, including leading all of NCAA Division I in 2010-11 with a 49.7 PPG/Allowed average.
- Marist has ranked in the top 20 in the nation in fewest turnovers per game each of the last nine seasons.
- Inducted into the New York State Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

Prior to his arrival at Marist, Giorgis enjoyed a tremendous amount of success at Our Lady or Lourdes High School in Poughkeepsie. As the head girls' basketball coach at Lourdes, Giorgis posted an astounding record of 451-44 in his 19 seasons, good for a winning percentage of .911. He won nine state championships with the Warriors. In his last two years, his teams posted a combined mark of 56-2 and earned the top ranking in the Madison Square Garden Tri-State Area Poll each year. Giorgis has earned two WBCA Region One Coach of the Year honors and two Coach of the Year awards from the New York State Coaches Association. He led Lourdes to the league title all 19 of his seasons there and won 15 Section I crowns, with the last 11 coming consecutively. Giorgis' achievements at Lourdes were not limited to the basketball court. He is the only coach in state history to take teams in four different sports to the state Final Four, as he also guided the baseball, softball, and volleyball teams there. His softball squad captured the state crown in 1990. Giorgis also coached golf and tennis at Lourdes and served as athletic director for 10 years.

2015-16 GAME SEVENTEEN VS IONA

2015-16 will be Brian Giorgis' 14th season as head coach of the Marist women's basketball team, and is the program's all-time leader in wins. His career record stands at 325-99 with a winning percentage of .767. Giorgis has led the Red Foxes to 10 MAAC Championship Titles, 11 MAAC Regular Season Titles, 10 NCAA Tournament appearances, and an appearance in the WNIT.

In the summer of 2013, Giorgis added another accomplishment to his long list of achievements as he was named an assistant coach of the USA women's basketball team for the 2013 World University Games in Kazan, Russia. Equipped with the best collegiate players in the country, Giorgis and Team USA came home with a Gold Medal after going 6-0 in the tournament. The U.S. defeated Mali (120-32), the Czech Republic (101-61) and Brazil (105-75) in pool play before defeating Sweden (103-72) in the quarterfinals and Australia (79-78) in the semifinals. The Red, White and Blue then beat host Russia 90-71 in the gold medal game.

BROOKINGS, South Dakota – Sydney Coffey scored her 1000th career point and Tori Jarosz poured in 19 points in the second half but it wasn't enough as the Marist women's basketball team fell on the road to the South Dakota State University Jackrabbits Friday night in Brookings, South Dakota.

The Red Foxes led at the half but some hot shooting and strong rebounding from the Jackrabbits allowed South Dakota to pull away and control the remainder of the game. The Jackrabbits had their biggest lead of 15 with 6:41 remaining and the closest the Red Foxes would get to is within 10 with 3:31 remaining in the game.

The Jackrabbits used a 28-15 third quarter to take control of the game and would hold the Red Foxes at bay from there. Tori Jarosz hampered by early foul trouble would score 19 of her 21 points in the second half while converting on 11 of her 14 free throw attempts.

The quick fouls for Jarosz wouldn't deter the Red Foxes from a hot shooting first half as the team connected on 12-of-24 (.500) of their field goal attempts and 5-of-11 (.455) of their three point attempts in the half. The Red Foxes had stretches of genius on offense but the youth also showed as the team would have ten turnovers in the half and 14 in the game overall.

The youthful mistakes could be chalked up to a milestone moment for the Red Foxes, as head coach Brian Giorgis started true freshmen, Rebecka Garderyd and Morgan Bartner, for the first time in his tenure. Garderyd played 13 minutes and recorded two points and a steal, while Bartner played 12 minutes and pulled down four rebounds.

Heading into the game Coffey needed 14 points for 1,000 in her career, a three pointer from the wing with 5:37 left in the 4th quarter would give Coffey her milestone and helped pull the Red Foxes back to within 11.

Coffey would finish the game with 18 points on 5-for-11 shooting and led the team with a game-high five assists. The Red Foxes other double-digit scorer, Allie Clement, scored 12 points on 4-for-8 shooting from three point range and dished out four assists.

Marist Women's Basketball Drops Home Opener to Delaware

POUGHKEEPSIE, New York - The Marist women's basketball team suffered a 56-50 loss to Delaware in its home opener on Thursday night at McCann Arena.

Red-shirt senior center Tori Jarosz led all scorers with 20 points, and had a team-high 12 rebounds. Senior guard/forward Sydney Coffey 12 points, five assists and four rebounds. Coffey went 10-for-14 from the free-throw line. Freshman forward Lovisa Bjort Henningsdottir had eight points, four rebounds and three assists in 15 minutes off the bench.

The game featured eight lead changes and seven ties. Marist started fast, and led by as much as 11 on two occasions in the first quarter. However, Delaware fought back to outscore Marist 24-12 in the second quarter, and the Blue Hens took a 33-30 halftime lead.

Marist then held Delaware scoreless in the final 3:24 of the third quarter, and took a 47-42 lead after three periods.

With 7:45 to play, a basket by Jarosz gave Marist a 49-44 lead. That was the last field goal the Red Foxes would convert, as the Blue Hens outscored the Red Foxes 12-1 from that point forward. With 4:03 to play, Delaware took the lead for good when Nicole Enabosi split a pair of free throws. Coffey split a pair of free throws with 3:11 left to cut Delaware's lead to 52-50. However, the Blue Hens scored the final four points of the game on a free throw by Enabosi with 2:04 left, and a three-pointer by Hannah Jardine with 1:29 remaining.

Erika Brown led Delaware with 16 points to go along with five assists and four rebounds. Enabosi scored 10 points in addition to game highs of 13 rebounds and three blocked shots.

Delaware outrebounded Marist, 47-34. The Blue Hens shot .338 (23-for-68) from the field, .250 (5-for-20) from three-point range and .625 (5-for-8) from the free-throw line. Marist shot .320 (16-for-50) from the field, .188 (3-for-16) from three-point range and .789 (15-for-19) from the free-throw line. Marist committed just eight turnovers, and Delaware only had nine.

Red Foxes Drop Non-Conference Game at St. John's

QUEENS, New York - The Marist women's basketball team fell to the St. John's Red Storm, 61-47, Sunday night in Carnesecca Arena. With the loss the Red Foxes move to 0-4 on the season as St. John's moves to 3-1.

Sydney Coffey, who was aggressive throughout, stuffed the stat sheet on offense and defense and finished with 16 points, six rebounds, three assists, and three steals.

Tori Jarosz finished with 13 points and 12 rebounds, her second double-double of the season, but early foul trouble plagued her all game and held her to 28 minutes of action.

Cold shooting was the story of the game for the Red Foxes, as the team managed just 1-for-12 shooting from three point range in the first half and finished the game 4-for-23 overall from deep.

Clement recorded the team's first and only three in the first half with under two minutes remaining. Up to that point the Red Foxes had 14 of their points inside the paint and the other seven from trips to the free throw line.

Overall in the first half the Red Foxes shot 8-for-27 (.296) from the field and headed to the locker room down just 10 to the Red Storm. St. John's finished the half 14-for-31 (.452) from the field and went 0-for-6 from behind the arc.

Women's Basketball Falls to #22 Louisville on First Day of GC Showcase, 65-53

ESTERO, Florida – The Marist women's basketball team led late but in the end were unable to close out the nationally ranked Louisville Cardinals, falling 65-53, in the first round of the Gulf Coast Showcase.

The Red Foxes were led by all-around performances in the losing effort. Tori Jarosz did a little bit of everything for Marist scoring 13 points, grabbing seven rebounds, dishing out four assists, and recorded three blocks and three steals. Sydney Coffey scored 10 points on 4-for-8 shooting, had five boards, and three assists with a block.

After heading into the locker room leading Louisville, 32-28, a 6-0 run in the middle of the third quarter and a close to four minute scoring drought for the Red Foxes would put Louisville up 38-34 with 4:44 left in the quarter.

Consecutive free throws from Rebecka Garderyd, Jarosz, Van Horn, and Garderyd again would give the Red Foxes a 6-0 run of their own, regaining the lead at 40-38.

The Red Foxes and Cardinals would then trade baskets back and forth to end the third quarter. First a three from Louisville's Mariya Moore, then a fast break lay-up from the Red Foxes' Maura Fitzpatrick, capped by a short jumper and then a layup from Sam Fuehring. The Cardinals would outscore Marist 17-10 in the third and take a 45-42 lead to the fourth quarter.

Jarosz and Coffey would get the Red Foxes started in the fourth with consecutive layups to pull the deficit to one. After a Cardinal's bucket, a dime from Allie Clement led to a transition layup from Jarosz that gave the Red Foxes their first and only lead in the fourth quarter with 6:01 remaining.

A Louisville lay-up from Arica Carter would stop a near 2:45 minute scoring drought for Louisville and give the Cardinals the lead again at 51-50. The Cardinals used the lay-up to spark a 7-0 run and take a 56-50 lead with under five minutes remaining, a lead Louisville wouldn't relinquish.

The turnovers that didn't turn into points in the first half caused the Marist offense to sputter and stop in the fourth. Louisville forced 14 more turnovers in the second half turning it into 17 points as opposed to just five in the first.

Clement led the way for the Red Foxes in the first half, scorching the nets to the tune of 12 points on 4-for-5 shooting from behind the arc. As a team the Red Foxes shot 6-for-10 (.600) from deep in the first half and 12-for-25 (.480) from the field. The Red Foxes other leading scorers at the half were Coffey with seven points and Claire Oberdorf with six points.

The Red Foxes also played some stifling defense in the first half, forcing nine turnovers and held the Cardinals to 8-for-30 shooting from the field (.267) and 3-for-7 (.429) from three. The Cardinals did earn 10 offensive boards in the half but were outscored by Marist 12-10 in the paint.

Red Foxes Downed by LSU in Second Day of GC Showcase

ESTERO, Florida – The Marist women's basketball team dropped their second game at the Gulf Coast Showcase, falling to Louisiana State University (LSU), 72-49, Saturday afternoon at Germain Arena. The Red Foxes never could quite get it going as an up and down performance on both ends of the floor led to the team's sixth straight loss.

Allie Clement finished as the Red Foxes leading scorer and only player in double digits with 11 points on 3-for-7 shooting from behind the arc. Clement also added four rebounds and a steal. Maura Fitzpatrick tallied a career high nine points on 2-for-5 shooting from the field and a perfect 4-for-4 from the free throw line.

As a team the Red Foxes finished the game shooting just 16-for-45 (.356) from the field and 7-for-21 (.333) from deep. The Tigers in comparison shot 29-for-66 (.439) on their field goals and converted on 12-for-19 of their trips to the line.

Tori Jarosz was strong out of the gates for the Red Foxes as she led the team with six points and three rebounds in the first quarter. LSU started hot, shooting 9-for-17 (.529) from the field while the Red Foxes were just 4-for-14 (.286) in the opening stanza.

Keeping Marist around in the first quarter was their hustle, as a team the Red Foxes had five offensive rebounds and six second chance points to go along with converting on seven of their first eight free throws.

In the second quarter after back-to-back threes from Sydney Coffey and Clement knotted the score at 21 allpiece, Jarosz picked up back-to-back fouls and was forced to sit for the majority of the period. LSU responded to the 6-0 Marist run with a 5-0 run of their own and from there the teams traded stops and baskets until a 7-0 LSU run ended the half.

The teams headed to the locker room with LSU in the lead, 37-28. In the half the Red Foxes shot 8-for-22 (.364) from the field, 3-for-12 (.250) from deep, and 9-for-10 (.900) from the free throw stripe. Jarosz, who was held scoreless in the second quarter, led the team with six points and four rebounds.

The Red Foxes ran hot and cold in the third quarter. At one point the offense appeared to be heating up and finding a groove, going 3-for-3 and 5-of-their-last-7 before succumbing to turnovers and missed shots. Marist finished the quarter 0-for-4 from the field and had five turnovers as LSU took advantage, finishing the quarter on a 6-0 run and headed to the fourth leading the Red Foxes by 16, 58-42.

Women's Basketball Ends Gulf Coast Showcase with Loss to Missouri State

ESTERO, Florida – The Missouri State Lady Bears handed the Red Foxes their third loss at the Gulf Coast Showcase Sunday afternoon, downing Marist, 77-45. With the loss the Red Foxes move to 0-7 while Missouri State improves to 3-4.

Tori Jarosz finished with a 12 point, 14 rebound double-double to go along with four assists and a block and Maura Fitzpatrick recorded a career high 10 points.

The Red Foxes started the game tentative, succumbing to the Missouri State pressure. The Red Foxes shot the ball poorly, 4-for-13 from the field, and compounded it with six turnovers. Missouri State carried a 20-10 lead into the second quarter.

The Lady Bears reeled off a 9-0 run to start the second quarter, extending their lead even further. Maura Fitzpatrick, the Red Foxes most assertive player in the first half, broke the run with a three pointer with 5:59 remaining in the quarter. The three gave Fitzpatrick her seventh of 10 points in the half to go along with five rebounds.

Overall the first half was a rough one for Marist as the team shot 9-for-30 (.300) from the field, connected on just four of their 14 three point attempts, and had eight turnovers. Missouri State didn't let up either, continuously hitting from mid-range and around the basket to finish the half shooting 17-for-36 (.472) from the field. The Bears also turned the Red Foxes eight turnovers into 14 points.

Unable to find any rhythm coming into the third quarter, the Red Foxes found themselves with the same troubles as they did in the first half. Cold shooting and turnovers continued but the defense picked up as Marist closed the quarter on an 8-0 run to cut into the deficit while holding Missouri State to 2-for-their-last-13.

The Red Foxes finished the game 16-for-61 (.262) from the field, 6-for-32 (.188) from behind the arc and converted 7-of-11 (.636) attempts from the line. Missouri State shot 29-for-69 (.420), 4-for-16 from three, and 15-for-22 from the free throw stripe.

Pacing Missouri State was Liza Fruendt, who finished the game with 13 points. Hilary Chvatal was the Lady Bears other double digit score with 12 points.

Red Foxes Open MAAC Play With 56-47 Win Over Quinnipiac

POUGHKEEPSIE, New York - The Red Foxes collected their first win of the 2015-16 season in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) opener on Thursday, Dec. 3 with a 56-47 victory over the Quinnipiac Bobcats. The defeat marked the first conference loss in the last 21 MAAC games for Quinnipiac, with the previous coming on Feb. 27, 2014 in a 80-72 defeat vs. Iona.

Tori Jarosz led with 16 points and 14 rebounds, good for her fourth double-double in eight games. Allie Clement and Sydney Coffey each chipped in 13 points and five rebounds, as the Red Foxes outscored the Bobcats 28-12 in the paint and out rebounded Quinnipiac 48-37, with 15 on the offensive side of the ball.

Maria Napolitano led the visitors with 13 points on 5 for 15 shooting with three rebounds and two steals, while Katie Carroll contributed six points and six rebounds.

Both teams started hot trading buckets to start the first until a near three minute scoring drought for Marist led to a 7-0 Quinnipiac run. A three from Clement would snap the Bobcats run and pull the score back to 14-12. Clement poured in eight points in the first quarter behind 2-for-3 shooting from deep and the Red Foxes headed to the second quarter trailing Quinnipiac 18-17.

The second quarter failed to start as quickly as the first as both teams locked down on the defensive end and held each other to prolonged scoring droughts. Similar to the first quarter Clement rose to the occasion again, snapping a 0-for-8 scoring drought with another three to knot the game at 23.

While the offense sputtered the defense picked them up holding Quinnipiac to eight points in the quarter to the Red Foxes 14. Marist ended the half on a 6-0 run capped by a big block from Jarosz that found a streaking Coffey and a two shot foul to take a 31-2

Women's Basketball Improves to 2-0 in MAAC Play After Win Over Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Connecticut – The Marist women's basketball team improved to 2-0 in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference play with a 72-57 win over Fairfield, Sunday afternoon at Alumni Hall. Tori Jarosz recorded her fifth double-double of the season with 20 points and 14 rebounds and Sydney Coffey poured in 20 points on 7-for-13 shooting to pace the Red Foxes in the victory.

Allie Clement was the Red Foxes third double digit scorer as she had 16 points on 6-for-10 shooting, 4-for-7 from deep, and pulled down five rebounds to go along with four steals.

As a team the Red Foxes finished the game shooting 24-for-49 from the field, 10-for-21 from the three point line, and 14-for-18 from the free throw stripe. After a scorching first quarter for the Stags the Red Foxes defense held Fairfield to 24-for-59 shooting on field goals and 3-for-10 from behind the arc.

Kelsey Carey led Fairfield with 13 points and Samantha Cooper chipped in 11 points and grabbed 11 rebounds for the Stags.

The third quarter proved to be the decisive one as the Red Foxes used a 10-2 run to start the half along with a stretch where the team went 9-for-10 from the field including 5-6 from three to push a three point halftime lead to a 21 point lead after three quarters.

Along with the lights out shooting (10-13 FG) the Red Foxes held Fairfield to 2-for-their-last-14 to end the quarter, outscoring the Stags 26-8 in the third to take a commanding 62-41 lead heading into the final quarter.

The Stags would start the game hot, shooting 10-for-13 (.773) from the field on a heavy dose of mid-range jumpers and forays to the hoop. A three from Van Horn halfway through the first quarter would break a 9-0 Fairfield run and cut the early deficit to just four. The Red Foxes finished the first quarter down 23-15 despite shooting under 40 percent from the field.

A 10-0 run to start the second quarter punctuated by Rebecka Garderyd's first career three and a long jumper from Jarosz regained the lead for Marist at 25-23 with 6:35 remaining in the half. The Stags would tie the lead but never regain it as Marist would head into the locker room leading 36-33 after outscoring Fairfield 21-10 in the quarter.

Coffey's relentless takes to the hoop gave her 14 points in the first half on 5-for-10 shooting from the field. Jarosz finished the half with 10 points and seven rebounds, well on her way to her fifth double-double in nine games.

Women's Basketball Takes Down Terriers For First Non-Conference Win of the Season

BOSTON, Massachusetts – The Marist women's basketball team secured a 73-54 win against the Boston University Terriers, Saturday afternoon at Case Gymnasium. The Red Foxes had four different players finish with double-digits for the first time this season.

Sydney Coffey led the way for Marist with 23 points on 8-for-13 shooting from the field. Coffey added four assists and three rebounds to go along with a steal. Allie Clement used some sharpshooting from outside to pace her way to 17 points, two assists, and two steals. Clement shot 5-for-8 from deep and went 2-for-2 from the free throw line.

Tori Jarosz secured her sixth double-double of the season and fourth in a row with 13 points and 13 rebounds. Jarosz also added three assists and three blocks. Freshman Maura Fitzpatrick was the Red Foxes fourth scorer in double figures as she scored a career high 12 points on 5-for-7 shooting from the field. Fitzpatrick also pulled down six rebounds.

Quick threes in succession after the first media timeout by Clement and Fitzpatrick would put the Red Foxes up 13-2 early in the first quarter. A 5-0 Terrier run snapped by a wide open layup for Jarosz and another three from Clement gave the Red Foxes a 5-0 run of their own as the Red Foxes finished the first quarter leading 18-7.

Red Foxes Comeback Late but Fall to Hofstra 71-67

POUGHKEEPSIE, New York - A last minute comeback came up just short for the Red Foxes, as Marist fell to the Hofstra Pride by a final score of 71-67 at McCann Arena on Sunday afternoon. The loss drops the Red Foxes to 3-8 on the season, while the Pride improve to 8-3.

Senior Sydney Coffey led Marist with 24 points on 6-for-8 shooting from the floor, 2-for-4 from behind the arc and 10-for-15 from the foul line. Sixth year senior Tori Jarosz notched her seventh double-double of the year with 20 points and 13 rebounds.

Darius Faulk led the way for Hofstra with 20 points on 8-for-19 shooting from the floor and 2-for-5 from three point range to go along with five assists and four steals.

The Pride outrebounded Marist 39-31, including an 11-5 advantage on the offensive glass. Hofstra shot .421 from the field and .389 from behind the arc, while the Red Foxes shot .404 from the field and .250 from three point range.

The first half lead would change hands six times, as the Red Foxes largest lead was six with 3:14 left in the first quarter. Hofstra's largest lead was four with 1:57 left in the second. Jarosz led the way for Marist in the half as she totaled 13 points and seven rebounds. Coffey chipped in with nine points of her own on 3-for-4 shooting from the field.

Hofstra used a 20-13 third quarter scoring advantage behind seven points from Kelly Loftus to take a commanding 56-45 lead into the fourth quarter. The Red Foxes shot just 3-for-10 from the field in the third quarter but 6-for-10 from the free throw line to keep the deficit within reach.

A bucket and the foul from Hofstra's Ashunae Durant with 7:58 remaining in the fourth pushed the Hofstra lead to 15, thier largest of the game. However, Marist answered back with a 12-2 run to cut into the deficit and pull the game to within five with 2:20 remaining in the fourth.

Jarosz and Coffey Pace Marist in Win Over Broncs

POUGHKEEPSIE, New York - The Red Foxes improved to 3-0 in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference play, with a 66-54 victory over the Rider University Broncs on Sunday afternoon at McCann Arena. With the win, Marist moves to 4-9 overall (3-0 MAAC) while the loss drops Rider to 2-9 (0-3 MAAC) on the season.

Senior Sydney Coffey led the Red Foxes with 23 points on 5-for-14 shooting from the field, 2-for-4 from three and 11-for-13 from the free throw line to go along with five rebounds and four assists. Sixth year senior Tori Jarosz notched her eighth double-double of the year with 22 points on 8-for-15 shooting from the field and 6-for-8 from the charity stripe along with 14 rebounds and a career high and single game program record seven blocks. Jarosz previously held the record with Diesa Siedel.

Julia Duggan led the Broncs with 15 points on 5-for-16 shooting from the floor and 5-for-6 from the free throw line to go along with six rebounds.

The Red Foxes were slow out of the gates taking over four minutes to score their first basket, starting 0-for-6 from the field. Jarosz broke the ice for Marist but the team never could get it going in the first. The Red Foxes defensive effort kept them in the quarter as Jarosz tallied three blocks in the first quarter alone. At the end of one the Broncs held a 9-8 lead as both teams shot below 30 percent in the quarter.

A three pointer from Claire Oberdorf at 6:27 of the second quarter regained the lead for Marist at 13-11, followed by a steal from Oberdorf that led to a three point play the old fashioned way by Jarosz that increased the lead to five. The Red Foxes closed out the first half scoring on 4-of-their-last-5 attempts from the field and going 4-for-4 from the free throw stripe to take a 27-20 lead into the locker room.

The Broncs battled back in the third quarter cutting the Marist lead down to as little as three. Consecutive layups from Jarosz and Coffey pushed the Marist lead back to seven, 40-33, with 2:59 remaining in the third. A 4-0 Rider run was then answered by a layup from Rebecka Garderyd after a nice find from Coffey.

Coffey then took matters into her own hands, driving the baseline for a tough layup to cap a 4-0 Red Foxes run of their own. Undeterred, Rider's Lexi Posset knocked down a big three from the wing in response to cut the Marist lead back down to four only to be answered again by a three from Coffey to push the Marist lead back to seven. The Red Foxes headed to the fourth quarter holding a 47-40 lead.

The Red Foxes scored the first three points of the fourth quarter as the team took a 10 point lead, their largest of the game, with 8:16 remaining. Coffey and Jarosz led the Red Foxes in the final stanza, Coffey scoring 11 of her 23 points, while Jarosz capped off her eighth double-double of the season and tied the single game block record.

Women's Basketball Downed By Iona, 69-49

NEW ROCHELLE, New York - Hot-shooting propelled the Iona Gaels to a 69-49 win over the Marist women's basketball team, Thursday evening at the Hynes Center. With the loss Marist drops their first game in Metro Atlantic Conference play and move to 4-10 overall, 3-1 in the MAAC. Iona remains unbeaten with a perfect 5-0 record in conference and a 9-7 record overall.

Tori Jarosz led the Red Foxes with 22 points and 10 rebounds, tallying her ninth double-double of the season. The Red Foxes finished with no other scorer in double digits.

The Gaels were led by a big game from Joy Adams who tallied 17 points and 24 rebounds, also good for her ninth double-double of the season. Philecia Gilmore hurt the Red Foxes from outside, converting on 3-of-5 of her shots from three and 6-for-10 of her attempts from the field, good for 15 points.

The anticipated matchup started with both teams trading threes. The Gaels and Red Foxes combined for 7-for-11 shooting from three point range and both teams ended the quarter shooting well over 50 percent. Iona finished the hot-shooting quarter 9-for-14 (.643) and Marist didn't trail far behind, shooting 8-for-14 (.571) from the field. Iona carried the one point, 22-21, lead into the second quarter.

Iona's shooting carried over to the second quarter as the Gaels knocked down their first three shots of the quarter from downtown, including a 24 foot bank shot from junior guard Marina Lizarazu and two in a row from senior forward Joy Adams, forcing a Marist timeout with just over seven minutes left in the half.

The Red Foxes responded with a 4-0 run from Jarosz but Iona maintained their distance heading into the locker room with a 38-27 lead. Overall the Gaels outscored the Red Foxes 16-6 in the second quarter.

The Gaels started the third quarter similar to how they started the second, an 11-2 run pushed the Gaels lead to 49-29 with 6:27 remaining. A three from Eileen Van Horn with just over five minutes left in the stanza stopped a 9-0 run and brought the Gaels lead back down to 17.

The Red Foxes did force a near four minute scoring drought for Iona in the middle of the quarter but were unable to capitalize as the team went on a three minute scoring drought of their own. The Gaels headed to the fourth quarter with a comfortable 52-38 lead.

Overall, Iona finished the game 28-for-58 (.483) from the field and 12-for-23 (.522) from three point land. The Red Foxes finished 16-for-50 (.320) from the field and just 4-for-17 (.235) on their attempts from deep.
